Houser Removes Hanlon as Precinct Captain

by DAN BAUMANN
News Editor

Thomas H. Hanlon has been removed as Republican captain of Precinct 36 by Wheeling Township GOP Committeeman Thomas Houser.

Hanlon is president of the township Regular Republican Club and a Village of Arlington Heights trustee.

Houser included Hanlon in a list of five captains he dismissed more than a month ago, citing "non-performance."

THE DISMISSALS were confirmed by Houser after the Herald learned of them from a third source Tuesday; the committeeman declined to name any of the captains involved, saying he saw "no particular need to embarrass them."

Hanlon, however, did confirm he was one of those discharged and he disagreed strongly with the "non-performance" label.

Houser denied the action against Hanlon signaled an inter-party rift, adding "most people (in the party) realize what I'm doing is based strictly on the (captains') record."

IT WAS apparent both men wanted to keep the personal rift — or factional rift, if that is what it amounts to — within bounds for the present:

—Despite Hanlon's prominence in Republican circles, Houser treated his dismissal routinely. He said there is a "fair amount of turnover" among captaincies and "I don't try to announce each one with a news release."

—Hanlon said he was "concerned for only one reason. I don't need this job particularly; I certainly have enough to keep me busy. But I am concerned that people may assume for one reason or another that there is a substantial rift in the party."

Hanlon added the time to settle party rifts is "at the time party leadership is elected." He added he does not plan to run for Houser's job. There have been no formal announcements for the party elections next June.

"THIS ACTION basically is a private matter. I wrote them personal letters," Houser commented.

"I was delighted they could help the party in the first place and disappointed they could not carry on. These people are volunteers. If they don't perform, the only thing to do is relieve them."

Hanlon said his letter from Houser said he was re-evaluating precinct captains' work and noted Hanlon had twice failed to collect money in door-to-door campaigns. Hanlon subsequently sent a letter of rebuttal to the committeeman.

Hanlon said there were two fund raising drives this year; he said he appointed Bill Larson to substitute in his precinct for the first drive because of his responsibilities as an area chairman. He said he did not collect in the second drive.

"I feel the record indicates beyond a doubt that Precinct 36 turned out a substantial and beneficial vote for the Republican party on a regular basis, and this did not happen by accident."

"I DON'T agree it's appropriate to relieve one or five for the stated reason and not to relieve others who fit the same category, and I don't think it is appropriate for any organization to lose good people without discussion."

Hanlon said he does not "intend to involve myself in a running gunfight with the committeeman. It is his privilege to remove captains and he has exercised the privilege."

Hanlon was captain of the precinct, which covers a substantial part of Arlington Heights' northeast side, since September 1960.

A source told the Herald that those dismissed with Hanlon include Norman Atwater (Precinct 5), Eugene Ischinger (21), William Platte (32) and Richard Wildberger (47). With the 10 precincts added this year, Wheeling Township has 65 precincts.

CURB ON PARKING PROTESTED

Same as Village

Parks Okay Boundaries

Arlington Heights park district will attempt to keep its boundaries the same as those of the village.

The park district board Tuesday directed Pres. John C. Edwards to formally seek the village's cooperation in annexations, to insure the boundaries of the two taxing districts remain contiguous.

Park Supt. Thomas Thornton said commissioners decided on the policy informally, after enactment of state legislation this year which permits park districts to annex by ordinance in order to keep the same boundaries as the host village. Previously, such annexations had to be by petition of the property owners or by referendum.

THORNTON said the new park district policy conforms with the spirit of the new state law. The park district had been considering for more than a year a possible referendum to annex larage areas outside the village.

Since the park district now has the right automatically to annex parcels that come into the village, commissioners have asked the village to have property owners petition to annex to the district when they petition for village annexation.

Thornton said the district plans to notify in writing property owners who are already in the village but not in the park district, before passing annexation ordinances.

Voters May Register

Eligible voters may register locally in the office of the Arlington Heights village clerk at the Municipal Building through Tuesday, Jan. 18.

There will be no other precinct registration day before the June 16 primary election, Village Clerk Jeanne Novotny pointed out. Voters may register with the County Clerk, Room 230, County Building, Chicago, through May 16.

To register, voters must be American citizens over 21. They must have lived in Illinois for one year, in Cook County for 90 days, and in their precinct for 30 days by the time of the June 16 election.

'Center' Set For Teens

Facilities at Recreation Park will be open from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Friday (tomorrow) for junior high school students in Arlington Heights who are interested in furthering a "Tween Center."

The facilities of the Bo-Gi Youth Center will be open to all seventh and eighth graders for dancing, billiards, pool, table tennis and watching television.

THE NEXT NIGHT for junior high activity at Recreation Park will be during Christmas vacation, on Monday, Dec. 27.

Regular nights for junior high activity will be established after the beginning of the year.

Admission will be 25 cents.

$5,000 Damage In House Fire

Firemen estimated damage at $5,000 to a home and contents at 1236 N. Race Ave., Arlington Heights, in a fire caused by an overheated furnace Sunday morning.

The home is occupied by Mrs. Gail Wilson. Fire Chief Harvey Carothers said an investigation showed the first floor furnace malfunctioned and that attic rafters caught fire. Firemen cut a hole in the roof to vent the smoke while extinguishing the fire. They were at the scene less than an hour.

Eberharde Project Stalled As 2 Boards Reverse Okays

Status of a planned single-family and apartment development north of Arlington Knolls subdivision is up in the air this week after two village bodies reversed their previous actions approving parts of it.

—The plan commission last Wednesday reversed its approval for a street layout in the single family area.

—The village board Tuesday voted to reconsider its rezoning, from R3 (single family) to R5 (apartment) a 2.4 acre portion behind the A&P shopping center on N. State Road.

Owner of the land is Harold Eberharde, an Arlington Heights building contractor. His proposed development has been before the village board and plan commission on a number of occasions, and, until last Wednesday, apparently was inching forward toward approval.

THE PLAN commission originally rejected the R5 zoning; the village board sent it back for another look. The plan group subsequently approved it, subject to Eberharde's meeting certain requirements. And the village board approved the R5 zoning, subject to approval of a planned development layout.

The plan commission, meanwhile, had begun studying Eberharde's proposed subdivision layout for the single-family area (that included extended negotiations with School District 25 for a land swap at the Wilson School site).

On Oct. 27, the plan commission voted 6 to 5 to approve Eberharde's street layout. The layout dead-ends Vail Avenue at the north end of Arlington Knolls subdivision. Highland and Evergreen Avenues both curve into an east-west road, Lillian Street.

APPROVAL was based on Eberharde's making several changes. He returned with the changes last Wednesday. But several plan commissioners who supported him two weeks earlier were absent.

Although 11 members of the 14-member body were present at each meeting, they weren't the same 11 members. They voted 6 to 5 against the layout.

Recognizing the unfairness to the developer, they tossed the decision to the village board; "because of the willigness of the subdivider to do everything we asked as he understood it in spite of our diverse opinions," the plan group's resolution stated.

ACTING ONLY on the previous R5 rezoning, the village board Tuesday voted to reconsider at the suggestion of Trustee John White. The apartment and single-family proposals had come to the village board "in pieces" and should be considered together, he said.

(Eberharde had made the same suggestion to the plan commission several times but was told they were separate subjects.)

White did not indicate any reason for reconsidering the R5 other than to have all proposals on the development before the board at the same time.

No Spare Nike Land, Park Board Is Told

Vacant land at the Arlington Heights Nike base is not available to the park district — at least not for the present.

That's the word from the Defense Dpartment. Parks Supt. Thomas Thornton had written Sec. of Defense Robert McNamara, Rep. Donald Rumsfeld and Sen. Paul H. Douglas inquiring about the status of 140 acres at the site south of Central Road.

THE PARK district has plans to develop the land for a community golf course.

Col. Robert S. Palmer, deputy defense department director in charge of installations, wrote Thornton the land "is being retained to satisfy a possible future air defense requirement." Thornton said a Chicago-based Army engineer had told him "he couldn't tell me what the possible future use is."

A year ago, the park district had understood the land would be placed in the "surplus" category and it was included in the park district's tentative land purchase program.

The Army exercised its option to acquire the land before it was made surplus.

PALMER TOLD Thornton the park district's interest in the site would be made a part of the record and if the land is placed on surplus status the General Services Administration, which disposes of land, will be notified of that interest.

Village Hall Phones Jangle

by Mary Camille Schlott
Staff Writer

Some village residents are raising a ruckus over the rush hour parking ban proposed for State Road.

Trustee John J. Walsh Jr., public safety committee chairman, and other village board members have had numbers of phone calls from persons objecting to the suggested change.

And Village Mgr. L. A. Hanson, who recommended the State Road parking ban, has received a petition signed by 27 residents who are opposed.

Hanson has recommended to village trustees that parking be be banned — during rush hours only— on State Road from Hawthorne on the north to Fairview on the south.

PUBLIC REACTION to the no-parking recommendation apparently caused a reshuffling in village plans. The matter—originally suggested for last Monday's agenda — will now be heard by village trustees on Monday, Dec. 6. Objectors can be heard at that time and, if the board chooses to consider the matter further, at some future date.

Walsh's public safety committee was to consider the State Road parking proposal briefly Wednesday (yesterday) at a meeting at which Stonegate lighting was to be the principal subject.

Available to guide the trustees in considering the matter on Dec. 6 is an engineering study requested by them. It includes traffic flow counts and a survey of on-street parking use along State Road. Made by village employes, the survey covers various hours during a five-day period.

THE ENGINEERING report found the heaviest traffic flow to be between South and Grove and the on-street parking to be greatest below South.

The engineering report asserts, Walsh says, that at peak traffic hours even one or two cars can bottle up traffic flow a long way back.

It also points up another traffic problem — that caused by drivers attempting to make a left turn from Davis onto State Road just south of the trakcs.

Both Walsh and Police Chief L. W. Calderwood have made it plain that they think parking will ultimately have to be banned on State Road at all hours.

"WE HAVE reached the point where the public interest as a whole has got to be served. There is no alternate north-south route," Walsh commented on Nov. 2 when Hanson made the initial recommendation regarding the rush-hour parking ban.

Walsh said the installation of traffic signals at Sigwalt Street and subsequent traffic backups there had "brought the problem into focus." It will be intensified, he predicts, if and when the village is successful in getting access to the tollway from State Road.

Opening Tonight

2 Killed In Crash

Two Arlington Heights residents are dead of injuries suffered Saturday night in a two-car collision on Rand Road near Arlington Heights Road, just outside the village limits.

They are Edwin Hogreve, 65, 511 Rand Road, who died Sunday, and Mrs. Pearl Schoenbeck, 54, 203 N. Pine Ave., who died Monday.

Three others injured in the accident have been released from Northwest Community Hospital.

State police said the accident happened when a car driven northwest by Arthur Schoenbeck, 61, collided with a car driven southeast by Jay Arnette, 20, Des Plaines. Police said Schoenbeck was turning into a driveway.

MRS. HELEN Hogreve, 62, was released from the hospital Tuesday. Arnette and his passenger, Richard J. Theil, 22, Chicago, were treated and released after the accident. Schoenbeck was uninjured.

Police ticketed Schoenbeck on a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way and Arnette on a charge of failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

Holiday Issue, Early Deadline

Offices and plant of Paddock Publications, 217 W. Campbell St., Arlington Heights, will be closed next Thursday, Thanksgiving Day.

The Nov. 25 editions of all Paddock newspapers will be on newsstands and delivered to subscribers on Wednesday, one day early.

Deadline for all news releases and other editorial material for next week's issues is Saturday noon. Classified advertising deadline is Monday at 2 p.m.

Rumsfeld to Talk Tonight

Cong. Donald Rumsfeld of the 13th District will be the guest speaker tonight (Thursday) at the meeting of the Wheeling Township Regular Republican Club. The meeting will be at 8:30 p.m. in the VFW Hall, corner of Yale Avenue and Northwest Highway.

The meeting will be open to the public. A question-and-answer period will follow Cong. Rumsfeld's talk. Refreshments will follow the program. (ACW

Rev. Evans to Be Installed As Head of Trinity College

REV. EVANS

The Rev. Harry L. Evans, 115 S. Rammer Ave., Arlington Heights, will be inaugurated as the 14th president of Trinity College and Trinity Evangelical Divinity School Sunday. The principle speaker at the event will be Dr. Walter Judd, 10-term former U.S. congressman from Minnesota.

The Rev. Mr. Evans will receive his presidential charge from Dr. Arnold T. Olson, president of the Evangelical Free Church of America, and will be invested under the direction of Leslie C. Lofdahl, chairman of Trinity's governing board.

Before election to Trinity's presidency last June, he had served for four years as chairman of Trinity's governing board. In his new position, he will direct the education of the 300 students in the college and the 230 in the divinity school. The divinity school was relocated from Chicago to Bannockburn, Deerfield, Ill., three years ago. The college moved there this fall and will be dedicating its new $2 million campus Saturday.

THE BANNOCKBURN acreage, formerly the Sunset Estate of Richard E. Welch, head of the Welch Scientific Co., was purchased by Trinity in 1960. It is located in a rolling, wooded area of large estates along the Tri-State Tollway at Half Day Road.

The Rev. Mr. Evans served congregations in Brooklyn, N. Y., Gothenburg, Neb., and Arlington Heights, before being elected to his present position. He was at Arlington Heights Evangelical Free Church, 8 W. St. James Street, from 1958 until his appointment.

He is a graduate of Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. In his years in the ministry, he served as a chairman of the Midwest District Conference of his denomination, president of the Camp Willabay, Wis., board member and chairman of the Billy Graham Northwest area crusade in June, 1964.

His family includes his wife Dorothy, daughter Susan, 12, and son Scot, 14 months.

Dr. Judd's speech is entitled "The Christian School in a Free Society."

TRINITY College is a four-year, co-educational liberal arts college offering the B. A. degree. Trinity Evangelical Divinity School is a graduate school of religion offering the B.D., Th.M., and M.A. degrees. The schools, now in their sixty-ninth year, are sponsored by the Evengelical Free Church of America.

The Evanses will continue to live in Arlington Heights.

Thanksgiving Story Hour This Saturday

A Thanksgiving story hour will be presented Saturday at Recreation Park fieldhouse in Arlington Heights.

Games, songs and stories will constitute the 10 a.m. program for all youngsters third grade and under.

High school volunteers who will be helping with the story hour are Debbie Stefan, Rita Sauve, Kathy Grosche and Marilyn Compton.

The Christmas story hour will also be held at Recreation Park on Saturday, Dec. 18. (A

2 Drivers Ticketed After Crash

A Prospect Heights woman was treated at Northwest Community Hospital after an auto accident Monday at State Road and Oakton Street, Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Elizabeth R. Koske, 48, of 602 N. Elmhurst Road, was taken to the hospital after complaining of chest pains. Her car was eastbound on Oakton when it collided with one driven south by Miss Guillermina S. Vega, 19, of 1215 W. Palatine Road.

Police ticketed Miss Vega on a charge of driving too fast for conditions and Mrs. Koske on a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way after stopping at a stop sign. The accident occurred at 12:45 p.m. (A-G

Trip Tips

Wayne Griffin

Everyone liked Leo. He was our driver-guide on my last tour to the island of Maui, Hawaii. Leo claimed every native on the whole island was his cousin (and he might be correct). Leo eats poi — lots and lots of poi as you can tell by his size. And every ounce of him is happy. He sings, he narrates, he loves to talk about his home island of Maui.

You'll agree with Leo too, that the island is lovely. It's only 45 minutes by air from Honolulu and boasts the famous dormant crater — Haleakala, plus the freakish Iao needle, which we visit. Then we drive along the rocky southern coast to the Kaanapali shores where Lahaina, the old whaling village is located. We'll stop long enough to stroll around the sites and stop at the old hotel for a short repast on the veranda. Our two nites on Maui will be at the new Sheraton Maui Hotel. Ocean bathing or pool swimming are superb — and for the golfer, a Robert Trent Jones course at your doorstep. And don't forget the food — ah, those buffets!

Maui is one of three outer islands to be visited on our two week tour to Hawaii which I will escort from Chicago on March 5th. Space is still available and I do want to mention that single women are welcome. You may have single hotel accommodations, or we will make every effort to have you share a room. Our colorful brochure is ready now. Write Wayne Griffin Travel at 104 N. Evergreen, Arlington Heights, or call CL 5-7010.

Almost forgot — Leo claimed his cousin was a great musician too. He was right. It wasn't his cousin — it was Leo himself, playing the bass fiddle after dinner in the cocktail lounge at the Sheraton Maui hotel.

Community Council to Hear Panel

Is Arlington Heights a Split-Level Jungle?

Arlington Heights' Community Council (COMMCO) will pose this question in a panel discussion at the general meeting Nov. 30. Richard Cowen, program chairman, has announced the panel guest will be: L. W. Calderwood, chief of police in Arlington Heights; Tony Borhorfoush, chairman of the Arlington Heights Youth Council; Ralph Clabaugh, school district 25 Superintendent, and the Rev. Leonard Martin, St. Peter Lutheran Church.

Following the panel discussion, the question will then be presented for discussion by the delegate-members from individual member organizations, and for a vote on whether COMMCO should sponsor an anti-vandalism program.

Also to be heard is a report from Virgil Bass, chairman of the Northwest Church Council on Migrant Aid, on problems facing migrants in this area, what is being done to help them and what individual civic, charitable, and fraternal organizations can do to help. Bass will also comment on the proposed health clinics to be developed with the assistance of federal funds.

The meeting will be held at Windsor School, Miner and Windsor, Arlington Heights, and will start at 8 p.m. The public may attend; there will be extended opportunity for discussion from the floor and for questions directed to the guests. Refreshments will be served.

Chestnut, Marion Projects Approved

Improvement of two streets in Arlington Heights was formerly approved by village trustees Monday.

The board voted to designate Chestnut between Wing and Campbell as an arterial street so that motor fuel tax funds can be used to pave the one-block extension.

Also approved, at the request of the board of local improvements, was the special assessment paving of Marion Road between Yale and Harvard in Sherwood Subdivision.

THE SPECIAL assessment project was given a total cost of $20,988.

Expenditure of $57,000 in motor fuel tax funds available to the village was authorized in a resolution that accompanied the one designating Chestnut as an arterial street.

The $57,000 will be used to acquire the right of way and put in utilities and paving on Chestnut.

Carl Mees, chairman of a special board committee to handle the Chestnut matter, said that the village will purchase part of the right-of-way from builder-architect Robert Babbin, for $9,000 and that $20,500 will be used to purchase the Bender property needed to complete the roadway.

HE SAID that part of the cost of acquisition could have been spread to around-the-corner property holders if special assessment financing had been used by the village instead of the motor fuel tax funds. The committee felt, however, the project might actually have cost more in the end because of extra costs that accompany special assessments. (A

VIRGINIA TERRACE

Don and Judy Swindell and children, Jeff, Kathy and Mark, 1409 N. Race, traveled to South Bend on Sunday to visit Don's brother and family, the Jack Swindells.

Homecoming festivities at Northern Illinois University in Dekalb were attended by Bernard and Dorothy Roser, 1447 N. Race, on Nov. 6. Dorothy attended Northern. The Rosers attended a tea at Dorothy's sorority house while there. On the way home they stopped at the Living Room near Roselle for dinner.

Visiting Howard and June Soisson, 1251 N. Chicago, from Thursday to Monday were Howard's parents, the Howard Soissons of Pittsburgh. Saturday night the two couples dined at Weller's in Morton Grove. Sunday night the Soissons and guests attended "Carousel" at Mill-Run Playhouse.

A two-day trip to Canada was recently enjoyed by Michael and Sandra Kauffman, 1224 N. Chicago. They left for Windsor, Ontario, on Nov. 4, stayed Thursday night at the Prince Edward Hotel and returned home Friday evening.

THE TERRACE bids farewell to Paul and Irene Pedersen and children, Paula, Karen, Christine and Eric, who moved on Saturday from 1216 N. Chicago to 2155 Davis Court, Plum Grove Countryside.

Word has been received from Rodney Clinite, ex-Terrace resident, concerning the serious illness of his wife, Jean. The Clinites recently moved to Rockford and Jean gave birth to a baby on Oct. 13 and has been in serious condition since. Blood donors are needed. If anyone in the Terrace would be willing to give blood, call Clorinda Roberts at 392-2589.

Robin Hanus, son of the Paul Hanuses, 1337 N. Race, was 1 Nov. 11 and a family party was given Sunday. Present were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hanus and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schenfeld, all of Chicago, aunts and uncles, the Robert Hanus family of Wheeling, Tom Hanuses of Elk Grove Village, Les Bang family of the Terrace, Steve Bagneschi family of Arlington, Robin's godmother, Miss Marilyn Seido of Chicago, and other friends of the family.

Paul and Judy Hanus celebrated their second wedding anniversary of Nov. 9 by going out to dinner and a show Saturday night.

ON SUNDAY, Mary and Margaret Shellander, twin daughters of the Albert Shellanders, 1716 W. Olive, were honored at a family birthday party to celebrate their Nov. 9 birthdays. Guests were their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shellander St. of Chicago, aunt, uncle and nine cousins, the James Schillings of Glenview, and their brother and sister, Tom and Nancy.

Jim Murray, 1244 N. Chicago, was home from Stout University in Menominee, Wis., to spend the weekend with his family.

Hal and Phyllis Fluhrer and children, Linda, Janet and "Skip," 1433 N. Race, enjoyed a visit in Minnesota from Nov. 5 through 7. They visited Hal's mother, Mrs. H. H. Fluhrer in Glenville.

On Nov. 11, Lena Duss, 1322 N. Race, entertained at an evening neighborhood coffee. Present were Alice Bauer, Jo Rozdalovsky, Carole Kurtz, Ethel Emmons, Joan Blackburn, Kay Platte, Pierrette Leckie, Rosemary Shellander, Catherine Goodpasture, Lillian Larson and Naomi Ruprecht.

Sunday dinner guests of Ralph and Barbara Wiederhold, 1322 N. Chicago, were Barbara's parents, the W. H. Alexanders of Park Ridge. They celebrated the Nov. 4 birthday of Mrs. Alexander and the Nov. 13 birthday of Mr. Alexander.

Arriving Monday night to spend several days with the Clifford Harmons, 1408 N. Yale, were Mr. and Mrs. John Egan of Boston who were on their way back to Boston from a month's tour of the Orient.

On Nov. 10 Nancy Pollard, 1400 N. Yale, was hostess at a plastic party attended by 12 friends.

Jerry and Nancy Pollard and daughter, Paula, traveled to East Moline on Sunday to attend the birthday party of Nancy's niece, Jennifer Price.

NOV. 12 was the second birthday of Jeffrey Edwards, son of the Karl Edwardses, 1204 N. Race. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene F. Damstra of Dayton, came to help him celebrate Friday evening; they also spent the weekend with the family.

Sally Peterson, daughter of the Phillip Petersons, 1433 N. Wilke, was 2 Nov. 12. She celebrated Sunday at a family party attended by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Peura of DeKalb, her aunt, uncle, and cousins, the Larry Petersons of Elgin, and her sisters, Susy and Sandy.

On Sunday, Jay Hoban and daughter, Patty, 1436 N. Race, motored to Stevens Point, Wis. with Jay's mother and sister to visit his sister, Kathy Hoban, a freshman at Wisconsin State University.

Saturday evening guests of Bob and Kay Roden, 1212 N. Illinois, were the Dick Sobys and the Jim Ordners.

Attending the stage play, "Barefoot in the Park," Saturday night were Jim and Dianne Rudolph, 1413 N. Chicago, accompanied by friends from Prospect Heights.

On Nov. 14, Laurie Bartel, daughter of the Frank Bartels, 1210 N. Race, was 7. She celebrated at a party Saturday attended by Thea Larson, Barbara Schmidt, April Krug, Cathy Fogarty, Cynthia Kilby and her brothers, Danny and Mike.

VICKI GLEESON, daughter of the Jack Gleesons, 1239 N. Illinois, was 3 Nov. 9. She shared honors at a family party on Nov. 7 with her brother, Marc, who was 2 Oct. 28. Guests were their grandparents the L. A. Mackenroths of Glenview, aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mackenroth Jr. of Northbrook, the Howard Lacina family of Morton Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Syed Abdullah of Chicago.

Technology Impact Is LWV Topic

The effect of technological change on Chicago industry and labor will be discussed next Tuesday at a Cook County League of Women Voters meeting attended by two local LWV members.

Representing the local 100-member LWV at the County Council meeting in Chicago will be Mrs. Thomas E. Lunak of Des Plaines and Mrs. Ralph O. Waterhouse of Mount Prospect.

Mrs. Lunak is Arlington Heights LWV delegate to the county council and Mrs. Waterhouse is a member of the county resource committee which is directing the Cook County Leagues' new study of metropolitan problems.

Speaking on the effect of technological change will be Thomas Coulter, executive director of the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry and Frank Igolka, Chicago area supervisor for the Illinois bureau of labor. (B10

Smoke Signals

By The Arlington Heights Fire Department

Fire chiefs estimate that well over 11,000 persons die every year as a result of fire. The average for the last decade is 11,600 a year. Children, five years old or younger, account for a large percentage of that total.

Why are they so often fire's victims? One reason is their utter helplessness, more often their inquisitiveness and lack of fear of fire. If trapped, for instance, in a burning building, they are powerless to help themselves. You must help them first. Teach them good safety habits, always keep the Fire Department telephone number in sight and never leave children alone at home at any time.

Fire Department Response

Nov. 10, - 9:07 a.m. - Emergency call to 1315 N. Pine, house under construction, Walter Foote, 21, 915 Greenview, Des Plaines. Injured when pile of plaster board fell on his legs. Removed patient from second floor and took to Holy Family Hospital.

Nov. 10, - 10:17 a.m. - Fire call to 215 S. Drury Lane, Gabor Von Varga. Fire in clothes dryer, estimated damage $250.

Nov. 11, - 11:42 p.m. - Inhalator call ot 810 N. Haddow, Mrs. Louise Boddeker, 69. Administered oxygen until removed to Northwest Community Hospital by ambulance.

Nov. 13, - 4:55 p.m. - Emergency call at South Side fire station, Robert Landwehr, 900 S. Evergreen injured in auto-bicycle accident. Administered first aid and removed patient to Northwest Community Hospital.

Nov. 14, - 10:40 a.m. - Fire call to 1236 N. Race, Richard McCabe and Gail Wilson owners. Fire in attic caused by overheated furnace. Estimated damage $5,000.

Nov. 14, - 3:34 p.m. - Inhalator call to 923 N. Yale, Jeff Cress, 10, fell out of tree, injury to right arm. Removed to Northwest Community Hospital by ambulance.

Nov. 15, - 12:50 p.m. - Emergency call to Oakton and Arlington Heights Road to flush gasoline from street as result of auto accident.

Nov. 15, - 3:55 p.m. - Fire call to 13 W. Davis, Arlington Produce, oil stove fire; $250.00 damage to stove and contents of building. (A

John Birch Bust Given To Pastor

Rev. Paul D. Lindstrom of Palatine recently received awards from the Republic of China and the Anti-Communist League of America. Rev. Lindstrom is pastor of the Church of Christian Liberty which meets in Des Plaines.

The presentation of awards was made Nov. 10 following a talk on "Your Freedoms" by the evening's speaker, Princess Catherine Caradja of Romania.

The first award, presented by John Crippen, executive secretary of the Anti-Communist League, was a bust of former Baptist missionary to China and World War II Army captain, John Birch.

The second award, a flag of the Republic of China, was presented by Crippen in behalf of Frank Sia, consul general of the Republic of China. (B-10

'No' Votes Lacking At Board Session

Village trustees were in an agreeable mood Monday evening.

Not one "no" vote was cast as the Arlington Heights board passed and approved a long group of rezoning, annexation and regulatory ordinances.

Approved — without dissent — were:

—ANNEXATION OF the 14-acre Franzen-Manke property and an adjoining 21 acres on which the new Weber Marking Systems plant will stand east of Old Elk Grove Road between Algonquin Road and the tollroad.

—Rezoning to M-1 (industrial) of the Weber land, the Franzen-Manke property and another five acres owned by Dorothy and Robert Engelhardt directly east.

—Resubdivision of a part of Sherwood subdivision so that Delbert Joost, 1202 N. Burgoyne Road, can purchase 30 feet of back yard he had mistakenly thought—because of a surveying error—that he owned before.

—Annexation of three one-lot parcels in Arlington Knolls at the request of their owners.

The board voted to pass a resolution objecting to rezoning from R-4 to R-5 of the Magnus farm south of Central Road unless a covenant restricting its use to a nursing home were added to the deed. That resolution, too, got a unanimous vote.

VILLAGE ATTY. Jack Siegel told the trustees, in regard to the Magnus property, that a 25-year covenant had been agreed to. But he said he thought the village should still be on record with the County Board of Zoning as being in opposition. Siegel said the Magnus farm, long in use for a nursing home, will have its nursing facilities expanded and that some single-family dwellings—designed as retirement cottages—would be built on part of the land.

Approval of the annexation and rezoning to M-1 of the parcels that will include the Weber plant had been recommended by the plan commission. The commission had also recommended approval of the Joost resubdivision request. (A

Duplex Units Opposed In Apartment Zoning

The prohibition of duplex units in R5 (apartment) zoning districts has been endorsed by the Arlington Heights Plan Commission.

The commission last Wednesday approved a resolution recommending deletion of R4a (duplex and two-family town houses) from the permitted uses under R5. If the board of trustees concurs with the action, the plan commission will schedule a hearing to change the ordinance.

THE VILLAGE has a number of sizable R5 districts waiting for development; it has had several requests to develop R5 districts with townhouses and expected to receive other requests when the plan commission's zoning committee was asked to study the question.

Normally, any zoning district may be developed in a "higher" use. Thus, single family and duplex developments may be built in R5 areas, retail businesses (B1) may be built in heavy commercial districts (B2), and so forth.

The "higher" residential uses are supposed to be less "dense." That is, a larger lot area is required per unit and therefore, theoretically, per person.

But a study done in Park Ridge and local experience indicate duplex developments are more densely populated than apartment developments. While apartment units in Arlington Heights generally are limited to one and two bedrooms, duplex units generally have three and four bedrooms.

APPARENTLY ONLY one R5 zoning district—Sugarbrook, in the northeast section of Arlington Heights-has been developed in duplex units. But at least two requests for similar developments are a matter of record. Prospect Heights school District 23 has expressed concern over the school population generated by Sugarbrook.

Effect of the ordinance change would not be to eliminate duplexes but to limit their construction to zoning districts specifically created for two-family units. (AF(G

United Fund May Hit Goal for First Time

The Arlington Heights United Fund may reach its goal for the first time this year, officials of the fund indicate.

General Chairman Paul E. Collins announced Saturday the United Fund drive had topped 75 per cent of its goal during the week.

Hopes that the three-year-old organization, which supports the work of 13 local agencies, would make its goal for the first time were strengthened by returns from the educational division. With $3,100 pledged as of Tuesday, that division had reached 95 per cent of its goal. The residential and commerce and industry divisions also have shown gains in the latest report.

COLLINS explained that District 214, because it covers Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, Wheeling, Elk Grove Village and Buffalo Grove, is conducting one campaign and then reporting a proportional amount to participating United Fund community drives. Dr. Eddie Gilbert of Arlington Heights headed the drive in all schools of 214 and in District 25 and the parochial schools.

The governmental division is complete and the professional division is nearing completion, with local physicians still not completely reported. Dentists and lawyers have made their largest contributions in the history of the local effort. L. A. (Rudy) Hanson, Village Manager, and George Beacham head governmental and professional divisions respectively. James Warriner, commerce and industry chairman, has urged local businessmen and his solicitors to get all pledges in and reported before the holiday season intervenes.

All residential solicitors were urged to complete their work by this weekend so that the drive would not have to continue past Thanksgiving. Pledges and report envelopes may be deposited at any time at the Bank of Arlington Heights in the Arlington Market shopping center.

THE ARLINGTON HEIGHTS United Fund this year became part of the Metropolitan Crusade of Mercy. If the Metropolitan Drive goes over, all participating local agencies will receive their full amounts. Local volunteers pass by homes displaying the "We Gave Metro" stickers. (AF

Lost a Road, Gained a Lake

Reading his letter to County Commissioner Floyd Fulle before the township auditors Tuesday, Elk Grove Township Supervisor William Rohlwing announced that they had lost a road but gained a lake.

Rohlwing was reporting on the status of Bisner Road which had been closed two years ago.

He said the County Highway Department informed him that Bisner Road would not be reopened because a retaining lake will be constructed where the road runs through Forest Preserve land. The new lake will be located in Ned Brown Forest Preserve in the area east of Route 53 and south of Higgins Road.

IN ANOTHER report, the County Highway Department informed the township auditors that there was not enough traffic at the intersection of Arlington Heights Road and Devon to warrant the erection of four-way stop signs there.

The township board had asked the county highway department in August if four-way stop signs could be erected at the intersections of Busse Road and Dempster Street and at State and Devon. Signs at Busse and Dempster waere erected about a month ago, according to Township Highway Commissioner Ronald Bradley.

Cultural Center Location Still Possible in Downtown

A downtown cultural center built around the Village Theatre is still a possibility.

Park commissioner Charles B. Cronin was asked by the park board last month to present tentative plans for a Village Theatre building to the village. He told the park board Tuesday, after discussions with Village Mgr. L. A. Hanson, that the village is actively working to locate a cultural facility in the downtown area.

THE PARK district and Village Theatre group have had an agreement for some time, under which the private group will construct a theater building on new park district land near Surrey Ridge subdivision, in the southern part of the village.

The park board, village and Village Theatre met last summer to discuss possibility of locating the facility downtown instead. The downtown revitalization plan, drafted by Tec-Search planning consultants, recommends a cultural facility there.

The meeting, however, was inconclusive. While the park district and Village Theatre appeared willing to cooperate, financing of a downtown facility seemed an obstacle, particularly with the cost of land.

CRONIN TOLD commissioners Tuesday however, that the village has under consideration a lease-purchase agreement. Under new state legislation, taxing bodies may arrange to have facilities built by private investors and acquire them through a long-term lease purchase without issuing general obligation bonds.

The park board asked Cronin to inform the Village Theatre of the development. Cronin said Hanson plans a meeting of the village and park boards when he has more information.

Recreation Building Groundbreaking Sun.

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the Wheeling Park District's $205,000 recreation building will be at 2:30 p.m. Sunday.

Representatives of other governmental bodies have been formally invited to attend.

The four low bids for the construction work were approved by the park board at a special meeting last Thursday.

Of a large number of bids received, the four low bids for the construction work were approved by the park board at a special meeting Thursday. The bids were opened at the regular park board meeting Nov. 4.

FLEETWOOD Construction Co. is to be the general contractor, with a low bid of $117,758.

Electrical work was awarded to Charles Johnson Electrical Co. for $37,675, heating to the H. E. Anderson Co., $19,600, and plumbing to the H. Aneises Co. for $1,190.

Burke and Co., architectural firm, was retained for an additional two per cent of the cost to provide full-time inspection. Its fee for designing the building was reported at about 6½ per cent of the cost.

TOTAL COST of the building, to include an ice rink and lighted softball field, was $187,223, only $23 off the estimate given the board by Burke, it was pointed out.

A contingency fund of $9,400 in case of additional building expenses has also been provided by the board on the recommendation of the architect.

A purchase of $2,000 worth of trees from Palmgren's Nursery was also approved by the park board last Thursday.

The trees are to be planted on the 66-acre park and the Mark Twain School playground.

Will Enforce Regulations On Parking

The Elk Grove Village Police Department will begin enforcing parking regulations Dec. 1.

Motorists will be given warning tickets for violations until that date.

The village has received new parking tickets, reported Police Chief Harry P. Jenkins. The tickets also are usable for other village ordinance violations.

A procedure in the village clerk's office is being arranged to process tickets and fines.

JENKINS explained the tickets will list the date when fines are due. If the fines remain unpaid after the due date, a delinquent notice will be sent from the clerk's office.

If this notice is ignored, a court summons with a court appearance date will be sent to the offender. Ignoring the court appearance will result in a warrant sworn out by the court.

Zadrow Quits Plan Commission

Jack Zadrow of 404 Glendale, Buffalo Grove, has resigned from the village plan commission after more than two years' service.

No one has been named yet to take his place by Village Pres. William J. Farrington. He recently reappointed Norman Kortus of 428 Navajo to the commission. Kortus has been on the board for one year and his term expired Nov. 5.

Zadrow, who joined the commission May 16, 1963, gave pressure of business as his reason for resigning. (BG

Their holiday in Greece has been the main topic of conversation at 870 Maple Court, home of Sylvia and Don Oehl, as they related highlights of their trip to friends, neighbors and their daughters, Nancy, Susan, Sally and Caryl.

Arriving in Athens, and staying at the Athens Hilton, overlooking the ocean, the week-long holiday was filled with places to see and things to do. They visited the Acropolis, where they saw the historical ruins of the parthenon, the nearby countryside of Delphia and Sounion, where additional Historical Ruins can be found, took a cruise to the Island of Aegina to see the ruins of ancient temples and one morning they saw the Queen Mother Frederika shopping at their hotel.

In the evenings, they went nightclubbing and saw authentic Greek belly dancers. The Oehls returned home with rolls of film to keep their trip fresh in their minds and hearts for years to come.

MARY WALZ, daughter of Evie and Art Walz of 342 Birchwood Drive, made her First Holy Communion in Queen of the Rosary Church on Nov. 6. A brunch followed for her family, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Connelly of Chicago, and aunts and uncle, Pat and Tom Kearney and Miss Carol and Vivian Connelly. Later in the day Mary was treated to dinner and a movie downtown.

A speedy recovery is wished Mary Hendricksen of Elmwood Lane, who recently returned home from Wesley Memorial Hospital.

Halloween-birthday decorations were noted at 484 E. Elk Grove Blvd., when the Al Kiehls' daughter, Kathy, celebrated her recent eighth birthday. Decked in their costume were Ellen Meyer, Kathy and Chrissie Robb, Susie Cavanagh, Debbie and Donna Chesney, Brook Harwood, Tracy Schmehl, Patty Ann and Susie Selvig, Cindy Borchas and Janet Hermansen.

Among those attending the Mask and Staff production of "Sunday in New York" at Dempster Junior High Sunday evening were Corky and Vince La Paglia and Arlene and John Ray. Later they stopped at the Salt Box and then went on to the Golden Pheasant.

THE JACK PERRYS' daughter, Anne, made her First Holy Communion Saturday morning in Queen of the Rosary Church. The occasion was feted with a dinner party attended by aunts, uncles, cousins and her grandmothers, Mrs. Charles Perry and Mrs. William Cassidy, all of Chicago.

At 535 Grosvener Court, the Trevor Colvins' son, David, celebrated his fifth birthday Saturday afternoon at a luncheon party and by going to the Cinema to see "Sleeping Beauty." Among his guests were Chris Balla, Michael Arnieri, Paul and Donald Froehlke, Mark Anderson, Paul Zirlin, Jerry McCullough, Jimmy Jacobsen and Steven Farmer, and David's brother and sister, Jackie and Diane.

Michael Fitzgerald, son of Pat and Bill, 378 Maple Lane, made his First Holy Communion on Nov. 6 in Queen of the Rosary Church. A family breakfast feted the occasion at the Pancake Plantation.

Costumed Halloween guests at the 45 Keswick Lane residence of Jean and Wayne Blount were neighbors, the Mike Kostos, Tom Rodgers, Glenn Freitags, Bob DeCores, Gene Meyers, Joe Borsts, Al Forsythes and the Fritz Frasiers.

MARILYN AND Paul Jordon report a busy weekend at their 210 Brookhaven Drive home. They entertained Lois Jones and daughter, Denise, of Assumption, Ill. They arrived on Thursday and Dick Jones flew up on the weekend to join his family.

On Nov. 6, Michael Durkin, son of Marcy and Martin, 526 Maple Lane, made his First Holy Communion in the Queen of the Rosary Church and was feted with a luncheon at Plentywood Farm attended by the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Donnelly of Chicago, and his sisters, Janet, Jeanne and Maureen.

Sympathy is extended to Ramona and Roy Forsythe, 592 Brantwood Court, on the death of Roy's father in Hickman, Ky.

Colorful decorations and five pink candles atop a decorated birthday cake were noted at 535 Maple Lane, when the Don Mitchells' daughter, Margaret, was 5. Among her guests Saturday afternoon were Ellen Stewart, Maureen and Jeanne Durkin, Diane Bruce, Carol Lynn Jones, Beth Carleson, Lee Ann and Pammy Mache, Lauri Ann Rittle, Sheryl Micolay and Margaret's sister, Carrie.

At 215 Brookhaven Drive, the John Bulkas' daughter, Diane, celebrated her ninth birthday on Sunday. They took her to McCormick Place for the opening night performance of the Royal Danish Ballet. They also dined at the President's Walk, where Diane was impressed by the formal attire of numerous First-Nighters.

ALWAYS enjoyable is a combined business and pleasure trip, such as the one recently enjoyed by Barbara and Robert Fichtner, 542 Dogwood Trail, and their daughter, Beth, and son, Paul. The 10-day holiday began by driving to Treasure Island to the Belmar Beach Motel. They swam in the Gulf, a great deal of time was spent sightseeing to such places as the Aquatarium in St. Petersburg and in Tampa they dined at the renown Columbia Restaurant. They also did some sightseeing en route home, stopping in Chattanooga, Tenn., to see Rock City atop Mount Lookout. While the Fichtners were vacationing, Dirck was cared for by the Al Fichtners of Morton Grove.

Colorful and spooky decorations greeted the costumed guests of Mary Lou and Jim Ryan at a recent Halloween party in their home at 467 Cedar Lane. Participating were the Tom Wienckowskis, Phil Nashes, Ed Lukases, Don Mitchells, "Ziggy" Zurawskies, Don Werners, John J. Smiths, Jim Murrays, Carl Magsamens, Bill Walthouses and the Bob Dunns.

Peter, son of Dorothy and Louis Gennuso, 795 Bonita Drive, made his First Holy Communion on Nov. 6 in Queen of the Rosary Church. The occasion was highlighted with a dinner party for relatives. Included were the grandparents, Mrs. Ray Chanoux and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gennuso of Chicago, and Peter's godparents, Mrs. Earl Martensen of Des Plaines and Peter Gennuso of Chicago.

A PARTY was given at 641 Charing Cross by Pat and Harry Petersen on Halloween Eve for villagers, the Harry Turnblooms, Clare Esches and the Mel Levines; the Eric Graepps from Deerfield, Rob Petersons of Niles and the William Youngs of Palatine.

Twelve pink candles topped the decorated maypole birthday cake of Shelley Zirlin, daughter of Ted and Harleen Zirlin, 517 Grosvener Court, when she feted her Nov. 10 natal day with a pajama party Thursday evening. Her houseguests were Andrea Horsley, Susie Schlamp, Nancy Allen and Sally Teele and Shelley's sister, Lori.

A PROGRESSIVE dinner party Saturday evening began with cocktails at the Sycamore Drive residence of Joanne and Tom Wienckowski; to Barbara and Mity Weiss's home for champagne and salad; main course was prepared by Joe and Darlene Mazur and all the couples, including Pat and Jack Anderson, wound up at Roseann and Daryll Skarda's home for dessert and dancing.

Linda Skibinski, daughter of Grace and Eugene, 612 Maple Lane, made her First Holy Communion on Nov. 6 in Queen of the Rosary Church and the occasion was feted with a breakfast afterwards attended by the grandmothers from Chicago, Mrs. Charles Gjondola and Mrs. Mary Skibinski and a family dinner at the Green Tree Restaurant in Bensenville. In the evening, a joint celebration was held in Chicago at the Ken Bower home, as Marlene Bower also made her First Holy Communion. (E

Bike Rider Hit by Car

A 13-year-old Arlington Heights boy received hip and knee injuries when the bike on which he was riding was hit by a car at State and Sigwalt shortly before 5 p.m. Saturday.

He is Robert A. Landwehr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Landwehr, 900 S. Evergreen Ave.

The youth was struck by a car driven by Mrs. Eunice N. King, 52, 350 S. Burton Ave., and dragged 208 feet under the car before it came to a stop outside the Sigwalt Street fire department entrance.

HE WAS treated and released from Northwest Community Hospital. He told police the traffic light was green when he entered the intersection, but the light changed to orange just before the mishap occurred.

The youth was given first aid by firemen and taken to the hospital in a police squad. He is an eighth grade student at St. Peter's Lutheran School.

Police ticketed Mrs. King on a charge of negligent driving.

Law Passed On Grading Vacant Lots

An ordinance to regulate the grading on vacant lots was passed by Arlington Heights trustees Monday.

Village Mgr. L. A. Hanson said the ordinance was needed because some vacant lots are left with heaped-up dirt mounds that are almost impossible for anyone—the owner or the village—to mow.

HE SAID IN some cases half-excavated basements have been left unfinished for a year or more.

Passage of the ordinance means that the village will be able to direct the lots be graded properly or do so itself. Payment for the grading will have to be sought by asking for a lien, Village Atty. Jack Siegel said.

Fulle to Speak At GOP Meeting

Cook County Commissioner Floyd Fulle will be the guest speaker at the next meeting of the Wheeling Republican Action Committee Tuesday, Nov. 23.

Fulle, of Park Ridge, is one of five Republicans on the county board.

The meeting will begin at 8:30 p.m. at the Hartman House Restaurant on Milwaukee Ave.

Grant Is Sought to Plan Teacher Training Center

Elk Grove School District 59 will request a $21,400 planning grant from the federal government.

The grant would allow the school district to plan a supplementary educational center for the training of teachers and other educational personnel.

Supt. Roger Bardwell explained Tuesday the District 59 administration believes "the public school is" the most significant agent for educational change and innovation."

Colleges and universities are not producing the educational innovations being used in school systems like District 59's, Bardwell said. This means many teachers graduating from colleges and universities are not trained in using new techniques and systems.

ASST. SUPT. Ludwig Bodzewski cited the interest Northern Illinois University, National College of Education, and Illinois Teachers College have shown in having their students observe District 59 teaching practices.

Bardwell added that the ungraded organization, team teaching, and individualized instruction are examples of programs originated at a local school level rather than through teacher training programs or research in colleges and universities.

District 59's application for federal funding of this planning is based on the administration's belief it can convince the U.S. Office of Education that District 59 has the ability to do such planning.

District 59's program for talented youth receiving almost $¼ million from the state, its team teaching, learning centers, non-grading, and dual enrollment with the parochial school have shown its ability, according to the application.

As a demonstration project, new programs could be attempted and new teacher or supervisory behavior be studied. It would allow practice under colleague and staff observation.

The demonstration center could even be used for training of Negro teachers displaced as a result of southern schools' desegregation.

THIS WILL bridge the gap between theory and use of teaching innovations, the application states.

If its proposal is accepted, District 59 administrators plan to ask for planning cooperation from area elementary and high school districts, local Catholic and Lutheran parochial schools, and seven colleges and universities.

Gloria Kinney, director of the gifted program, would head the planning if the District 59 receives a grant.

Test Greater Use Of Parks at Night

Authorization for a "pilot" program for informal evening recreation was authorized Tuesday by the Arlington Heights Park District commissioners.

Commissioners created an "evening recreation supervisor" position to test out a recommendation from Supt. Thomas Thornton for greater night time use of park facilities by the general public. Thornton's proposal envisions eventual hiring of supervisors at the three major parks: Pioneer, Recreation and Hasbrook.

Evening use of facilities, outside the swimming pools, currently is mainly for outside organizations or for regular classes. Part-time night watchmen presently are used; their duties are limited more to policing the grounds and assisting groups who have use of the buildings.

A PRIMARY function of the night recreation supervisors, would be to make recreation facilities available to non-organized groups. They would also be charged with policing the grounds.

The job would require at least two years of college education. At $2.50 an hour, the supervisors would replace night watchmen, who are paid $1.85. Thornton said the change would cost only about $300 a year.

Commissioners appeared skeptical about the long list of duties assigned to the night supervisor so decided on the one-man "pilot" to determine how the job works out before adding two additional supervisors. Assignment of his time was left to the administration.

School Named for Late Centex Chief

The new junior high school in Elk Grove Village was named the Tom Lively Junior High School Monday.

The school board unanimously approved the name in appreciation for Centex Corp. contributions to Elk Grove School District 59.

A letter will be sent to Mr. Lively's widow to inform her of the school district's action. Mr. Lively died in a boating accident this spring.

School Board President A. M. (Bud) Bernstein said Centex and Lively, the former president of the company, had been "amazingly cooperative ... well beyond measures necessary."

School board member Vance Folkman considered the naming of the school after someone of the area deserving recognition as "a step forward."

After the quick and unanimous decision on naming one school, the board tried for another. School board member Douglas Burns suggested Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr. as a befitting name for the junior high school for the northern section of the district. The board approved the name of the former associate justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

Holmes was an instructor in constitutional law at Harvard and edited the Harvard Law Review.

The board decided an elementary school west of Arlington Heights Road, south of Kennedy Boulevard in Elk Grove Village should not be named since it may be part of another school site complex.

Board member Joseph Schefter's suggestion of Thomas Jefferson for the elementary school east of Arlington Heights Road and north of Algonquin Road failed to get the necessary votes. Schefter argued that Jefferson's intellectual pursuits epitomized what children should emulate.

Board member Nancy Swearingen led the opposition when she argued the board's idea was to have euphonious names, unique, and with a message, honoring some lesser known figures.

Vance Folkman's nomination of Douglas MacArthur as "a fine man with great achievement" failed to get the necessary votes.

The board then agreed to postpone the naming of the school for another meeting.

Rules Passed for Yule Tree Sales

Arlington Heights village trustees have reacted—after a fashion—to those reminders that Christmas is "just around the corner."

They passed an ordinance to regulate the sale of Yule trees in the village.

As summarized by Village Pres. John G. Woods, the ordinance requires that persons be licensed if they wish to sell Christmas trees in the village; that a license not be issued unless the zoning ordinance permits such a business at the place proposed; that the proposed sales site meet safety requirements, and that a $50 cash bond be posted to insure that the sales spot be cleaned up when Christmas is over.

VILLAGE OFFICIALS assured inquiring board members that licensing requirements could be waived for charitable organizations asking that this be done.

The ordinance was requested by Village Mgr. L. A. Hanson.

He said he was doing so "not to thwart free enterprise but to control it" and cited instances of unsafe practices and messy after-holiday conditions because an ordinance was lacking to regulate the trade. (AF

Faner on Panel On School Costs

Joseph Faner, a member of the board of education of the Arlington Heights Public Schools, District 25, has been selected as a panel member by the Illinois Association of School Boards for their annual convention in Chicago Saturday through Monday.

Faner will discuss "Cost Versus Quality" in education at a meeting scheduled for 2 p.m. Monday.

A. Todd Fouty, principal of the South Junior High School, also has been asked to participate in the convention program and will appear as a panel member to discuss junior high school education in 1965. Fouty's meeting will be held at 9 a.m. Monday. (AF

Stay-at-Homes Preparing for Thanksgiving

Sidelights Of Arlington Heights

Sue Smith 439-4851
Arlington Heights, Scarsdale & Estates, Stonegate
Dorothy Meyer, CL 3-2298 Elsie Jedd, CL 3-5982

With Thanksgiving festivities only a matter of days away, many Arlington Heighters are staying at home planning for the holiday, and for this reason, activities seem to have been reduced somewhat. Others continue with the hustle involved with the celebration of birthdays and the excitement of travel or entertaining in their homes and keep up a lively pace.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kilheffer left Nov. 9 for their home in Rogersville, Tenn., following a four-week visit here with their daughter and son-in-law, the T. P. Johnstons, 902 W. Miner.

Halloween weekend guests in the Edward J. Taylor home, 25 S. Dwyer, were Mrs. Taylor's sister and family, the Zack Monroes from Peoria.

Among the activities during the Monroes' visit was a Halloween party Saturday evening, at which 23 children were present. The party, held in the basement of the Taylor home, featured streamers among the decorations, refreshments in the form of two cakes, shaped and decorated in the form of witches, games, with prizes awarded to game winners and those in the best costumes.

ON NOV. 5, Mrs. Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kunkel of Peoria, arrived to spend the weekend and to help celebrate the third birthday of Tamra Taylor. At a family party, highlighted with a "Little Red Riding Hood" theme, and complete with balloons and streamers, Tamra and her brothers, Trent and Todd, enjoyed a special dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Crooker and sons, Bob and Jim, 12 N. Gibbons, returned recently from a 10-day business and pleasure trip east. Mrs. Crooker and the boys spent the time in the Allentown, Pa., home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Genshart, while Mr. Crooker motored on to Atlantic City, N. J., to attend a convention.

The M. R. Kepharts, 801 S. Evergreen, accompanied by their son, Michael, and daughter, Carol, traveled to Iowa City on Nov. 5 to visit their son, Mirrell Jr., a sophomore at the State University of Iowa. Mirrell, a member of the SAE fraternity, took his family to several fraternity parties. The Kepharts also attended the football game on Saturday and later enjoyed a Dave Brubeck concert.

ON SATURDAY a dinner party in the home of the Arthur Burmeisters, 1134 N. Dunton, was attended by neighbors and six friends with whom the Burmeisters share an interest in bowling.

The LeRoy Montis, 1012 N. Highland, and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ross of Oak Lawn, enjoyed a luncheon in Chicago on Saturday and the matinee performance of "Funny Girl." They concluded the enjoyable day's activities with dinner in Chicago.

Mary Ellen, daughter of the junior George K. Gabrielsens, 705 S. Walnut, was guest of honor Friday evening at a pizza supper at home, in celebration of her 11th birthday. Six girl friends were present to share in the merriment of the supper followed by games.

MR. AND Mrs. Russell Ward, 132 S. Highland, returned Nov. 5 from a three-week motor trip to Florida, Louisiana and Missouri. They visited Miami, Fort Lauderdale, Hollywood, Clearwater Beach and Pensacola and then traveled to New Orleans. In Canton, Mo., they visited their son, Russell Jr. at Culver-Stockton College.

On Oct. 16, the day before their departure, Mrs. Ward gave a surprise "Sweet 16" birthday party for her daughter, Barbara.

Barbara was sent on a shopping trip and returned home to find four Arlington Heights girl friends, her cousin, Susie Cihlar of Chicago, grandmother, Mrs. Julie Monsen of Chicago, and close friends from Elmwood Park waiting at the door to greet her with cries of "Surprise!"

THE STEPHEN JURCOS, 217 S. Windsor, joined the Louis Fischers, former Arlington Heights residents, on Saturday to attend the Wisconsin-Illinois football game in Madison.

Miss Linda Mitchell marked her 17th birthday Saturday at a family dinner at the home of her parents, the Robert E. Mitchells, 330 S. Gibbons. Joining the family circle was her brother, Bob, in from the University of Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Miller, 1301 Woodford, spent the Oct. 29 weekend in Cedar Rapids, attending the homecoming game at Coe College. By chance they met five couples, all former Coe College classmates.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Strobel, 1319 Mayfair, went to St. Louis over the weekend to visit their daughter, Judy, who has been living in St. Louis since shortly after graduating from Valparaiso University. She accepted a position as director of Christian Education in Glendale Lutheran Church. Mr. Strobel's father, John Strobel of Mount Prospect accompanied them.

THE CHARLES H. Watkins, 105 S. Drury, will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, at an open house for their area friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Oberlin, 201 S. Dryden, spent the weekend on a combined business and pleasure trip to Decatur.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Wesler, 332 S. Derbyshire, recently returned from a three-day stay in Oshkosh, Wis., where Mr. Wesler attended the Wolf River Planning Conferences at the Pioneer Motel.

After the meetings, they went to Milwaukee for a family party, celebrating the 80th birthday of Mrs. Wesler's father, Robert Graf.

The senior Mrs. Dunlop, who makes her home in Stonegate with her son and family, the Richard Dunlops, 1115 Mayfair, enjoyed a surprise visit Tuesday from her sons and daughters-in-law. The came to offer birthday congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Norman, 634 S. Dryden, spent the weekend in Appleton, Wis., visiting their daughter and son-in-law, the Bruuce Fahlbergs, who have just moved into their first new home. The Fahlbergs will come to Arlington Heights for the Thanksgiving weekend and the Normans hope that their son, Dr. Stanley Norman, can take time off from his hospital duties in Duluth to come with Mrs. Norman for the holidays.

Rick Faner will be home from DePauw University in Greencastle, Ind., next week, to spend Thanksgiving with his parents, the Joseph F. Faners, 615 Mayfair.

MR. AND MRS. Charles Langrall and Mr. and Mrs. William J. Stull of Scarsdale welcomed guests at a party honoring patrons, gallery artists and officers of the Countryside Art Center on Saturday in the Countryside Gallery. Assisting them were John Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rebbeck, Mrs. Robert Cournoyer, Mrs. D. G. Provost, Mrs. Donald Norman Smith and Mrs. Kenneth Siegfried.

The William G. Frankes, 126 S. Pine, are back home from a week's business and pleasure trip to Oklahoma City. En route home, they took a tour of the Ozark Mountains.

Mrs. John Lindstrom, 824 S. Beverly, returned home Friday from a 10-day trip to the West Coast. She spent a week in San Francisco, visiting her mother, Mrs. G. P. Stankard, and then flew to Helena, Mont., to spend a few days with her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Bovington.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Gutru, 531 S. Pine, went to Newman Grove, Neb., last week to do some pheasant hunting and to see old friends and neighbors in their former home town.

ARRIVING HOME in time for Thanksgiving is Willard Neu Jr., son of the Willard Neus of 515 E. Fairview, after three years of army duty in the United States, and most recently, Alaska. Also coming home for the holidays, is Holly Jean, a student at Simpson College in Indianola, Iowa. She will bring a friend and former Scarsdale resident, Miss Nancy Lenehan of Columbus, Ohio, who is currently attending Iowa State University.

Miss Pat O'Connell came last weekend from Southern Illinois University to visit her parents, the Frank O'Connells, 516 S. Belmont.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Kleisner, 602 E. Park, were in East Lansing, Mich., Friday through Sunday, to visit their son, Fred, a senior at Michigan State University, and for the Dad's Day program. They were accompanied by their daughter, Maryjane, and one of their younger sons, Jack, who spent the weekend at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity house with Fred. Saturday they all attended the Michigan State-Indiana University football game.

Dr. and Mrs. E. Arthur Reynolds, 414 S. Dryden, spent the past weekend in Macomb, visiting their son, Tom, a freshman at Western Illinois University.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Mary E. Tribbey, 721 S. Mitchell, on the death of her mother, Mrs. Johanna Fassbinder of Ingleside, Calif., on Nov. 10; to Robert R. Rankine, 501 E. Euclid, on the death of his mother, Mrs. Anna B. Rankine of Denver, on Nov. 11, and to Mrs. Jean Hartry, 1721 N. Kaspar, on the death of her mother, Mrs. Marie R. Kipling of Chicago, on Nov. 11. (A

Junior Highlights

by LEE STROBEL

By LEE STROBEL

It's that time of year again when the seven junior high schools in this area begin competing with each other in basketball. The schools, Miner, South, Thomas, Central, Lincoln, Dempster and Grove each have seventh and eighth grade teams. The season consists of 10 games beginning on Dec. 3.

Four of the junior highs participating are not located in Arlington Heights. Dempster and Grove are in Elk Grove Village and Central and Lincoln are in Mount Prospect.

All of the schools feel they have improved teams this year, and it should be a real battle to place first. Last year, Miner Junior High School's seventh grade team and South Junior High's eighth grade team had the best records. (A

FOR 32 YEARS Arlington Heights Village Hall was located in old triangular building (above) at Davis and Wing Streets. It was razed in 1962 to make way for new Jewel Tea Co. supermarket. Present village hall (below) is $450,000 municipal building at 33 S. State Rd., dedicated in February, 1963. First village meeting place was above a tavern at 2 N. Dunton St. in 1887. The "hall" was moved in 1891 to the upper floor of the Meyer Building, 14 E. Campbell, until 1893 when a residence near Davis, Wing, and Vail Streets was taken over for the village. In 1913, the offices moved to 107 W. Davis St. and in 1930 the familiar triangular building was occupied. (Staff Photos)

Forest View News

A combined picnic and Christmas tree cutting was enjoyed Saturday by three Surrey Ridge Drive families, the Steve Odahowskis, Ed Tellers and the Don Kings. They went to the Ray DeCola Woods in Spring Grove. The afternoon was especially enjoyed by the chileren who had quite a time selecting and cutting their own trees from the more than 2000 Scotch pines.

Birthday greetings this week go to Fred Lauing, Terry Jo Scopa, Christine Elliot, Marty Boron, Edgar Hutchings, Pete Leuzzi, Alvera Press, Edward Ellesson, Joan Zoia, Jim Kingsborough, Christine Baldassari, Mike Turner and Kay Swensen.

Best wishes for their anniversaries go to Mr. and Mrs. Francis Krebs and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hilgeman.

LAKE BRIARWOOD

Briarwood neighbors and guests turned out in good number for the fourth annual Halloween party held at the K. C. Hall in Des Plaines. Costumes were aplenty and square dancing was the order of the evening. The music and the calling of the squares were supplied by Dolce.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jorgensen, Briarwood Drive, East, became grandparents again. The fourth grandchild, but the first born to their daughter, Judy, a boy, Randy Scott, was born Oct. 27. Judy and Rod Luebcke live in Woodland Heights.

On Oct. 22 Mrs. Anna Schar Briarwood Drive, East, entertained friends of the Presbyterian Church of Elmhurst Bible class at a potluck luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Grosch, Elaine Court, were delighted to have as a houseguest for the weekend, Margarethe Schneider, whose home is near Frankfort, Germany. Judy enjoyed entertaining Margarethe and being with her for her first Halloween and a homecoming football game.

COLONIAL HEIGHTS

Three anniversaries kept the Carl Baardsen family busy this past week. On Wednesday, Carl and Kathie celebrated their ninth wedding anniversary by dining at the Maitre d' in Elk Grove with their daughters, Karen, Carlene and Kristen. Friday Kathie's brother and wife, the Karl Nystroms celebrated their 10th anniversary.

On Sunday the Baardsen children dined out with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nystrom. Later Carl and Kathie went to Chicago to help the Nystroms celebrate their 34th anniversary at a dinner and to bring the children home after their pleasant weekend with their grandparents.

Janet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Livingston, Hatlen Avenue, celebrated her fifth birthday Nov. 1 at a luncheon party for Coleen Finnerty, Mary Ann Galgano, Karen Lucas, Lisa Andronico and Debbie Bracki.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Mendenhall, Robbie Lane, spent Saturday afternoon at the Chicago Art Institute. Sunday they drove to South Bend to see the campuses of Notre Dame and St. Mary College.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Anderson, Kim Avenue, were Dave's cousins, the George Puplis from Grand Rapids, and a business firned, George Gruen from Kansas City. Saturday evening other relatives, the Walter Andersons of Chicago, John Wojtal family of Arlington Heights and the Ronald Andersons of Des Plaines joined them.

ROSANN BUFFA, Kim Avenue, attended an annual club outing on Nov. 4 with eight friends. The evening started with cocktails and dinner at "On the 34th," a restaurant in the new United Building, and attended the play "Funny Girl."

The Bill Camerons, Martha Lane, had as Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gastel of Cicero. Monday night the Camerons celebrated the 55th birthday of Nadine's father, E. Guertin of Westchester.

On Sunday, Ed and Judy Wuchterl took Joey to the Museum of Science and Industry while Danny stayed with his grandmother, Mrs. William Carroll in Chicago. Later the Wuchterls had dinner with Mrs. Carroll.

Ted Strand, Hatlen Avenue, and his roommate, Gerry Worms, came home for the weekend from Southern Illinois University in Carbondale to celebrate Ted's birthday with his family. His brother, Bill came in from North Central College in Naperville.

This being Gerry's first trip to the Chicago area, much time was spent sightseeing. They had a birthday dinner at the Country Kitchen Restaurant in Chicago Saturday evening and later visited the Otto Gorgiuses on Busse Road.

ELK RIDGE BILLA

The Bill Mallians, Robert Drive, entertained club members Saturday evening. Guests were Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Schwartz of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lorenz of Norridge, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cerva of Franklin Park, Mr. and Mrs. Don Cerva of Arlington Heights, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Podolski of Melrose Park and Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Corcelius of Bensenville. A turkey buffet was served. (AME

Arlington Greens

Couples Bridge for November was hosted by the Pete Johnsons, Ken Jahnkes, George Letts, Jerry Kluballs, George Robys and the Bob McLeans.

High scorers for the month were the Tony Bengals, 5440; Dick Persickes, 4070, and the Se Rechts, 3470.

The November meeting of Arlington Greens Community Association, will be held Tuesday, Nov. 23, at 8 p.m., in the home of A. J. Tomaso, president, 635 E. Clarendon. All residents are welcome.

Plans for the annual Christmas dance will be completed. The affair will be held Saturday, Dec. 4, at the VFW Hall on Northwest Highway. Reservations for tickets are being accepted and those interested may call CL 5-4102.

A NUMBER OF Greens ladies and their guests were among those who attended "Winter Wonderland" at Old Orchard Country Club on Tuesday of last week, sponsored by Elks Auxiliary. Busy with last-minute preparations earlier in the day were board members Mrs. A. J. Tomaso, Mrs. Ed Zelsmann, Mrs. Mark Jenkins and Mrs. Dick Sims.

Jim Coleman of North Beverly Lane was a voting delegate, representing St. James Parish, at the CYO Convention held at McCormick Place last week. Also representing St. James was Miss Joyce Brune of North Dryden.

Jim is a student at Arlington High School and Miss Brune attends Sacred Heart of Mary High School.

LYNN MARIE, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilczynski of North Hickory, was christened at St. James Catholic Church on Nov. 7, by the Rev. Robert A. Strzelecki. Godparents were an aunt and uncle, Gene and Roberta Williams of Toledo. Also on hand for the occasion and a weekend visit was the baby's grandmother, Mrs. Rose Williams. She joined her son and daughter for the motor trip back to Ohio on Monday of last week.

George Paul II, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rateike was christened at St. Peter Lutheran Church on Sunday, following the morning service, by Pastor Robert O. Bartz. Godparents were the baby's sister, Ginger, and cousins, Norman Pfortmiller of Roselle, home for the occasion from classes at Cornell College in Iowa; Walter Schuler of Arlington and by proxy, Walter Schuler Jr. of Carol City, Fla.

A dinner party in their North Pine Court home following the ceremony was attended by the sponsors and their families, grandparents, Mrs. Paul Rateike who makes her home with the family, and the Elmer Schalks of Des Plaines. Later in the day a buffet supper was attended by 50 relatives from the village and nearby suburbs. (A

Motor Vehicle Registrations In Sharp Rise

Illinois Secretary of State's office has reported that motor vehicle registration for the first three-quarters of 1965 was 117,570 greater than for the entire year of 1964, and was 200,544 more than on Sept. 30 a year ago.

For the first nine months of this year, registration reached 4,638,060, as compared with 4,437,516 at the same time a year ago and with 4,520,490 for all of 1964. Increases were noted in all categories.

Most phenomenal increase was in motorcycles and motor scooters, whose number rose from 35,174 in 1964 to 53,198 on Sept. 30, a jump of 50 per cent.

Pharmacist Will Speak

George A. Harris, representing the Illinois Pharmaceutical Association, Arlington Heights, will discuss "Individual and Group Membership Benefits of IAP" at the second annual meeting of the Illinois Association of the Professions in Chicago's LaSalle Hotel Sunday.

The IAP, founded in 1963, is a 700-member non-profit organization formed to exchange opinions and information, to foster higher standards of professional ethics and to stimulate leadership by the professions in public service activities on community, state, and national levels.

The Northwest Suburban Manufacturers Association will have its monthly luncheon meeting today (Thursday) because of the Thanksgiving holiday next week. The meeting will be at 12 noon at River Forest Golf Club.

This month's speaker, Virgil W. Peterson, will discuss, "Is Crime on the Increase in the Suburbs?" Peterson has been operating director of the Chicago Crime commission since 1942 and has over 35 years experience in the field. His early career was with the FBI.

Also at the luncheon, the association will honor the law enforcement officials from the communities it serves. (15-BB

License Plate Mailing Begins; Earliest Ever

Secretary of State Paul Powell announced today that the motor vehicle division of his office has been delivering 1966 license plates to the post office in Springfield since last week and that approximately 100,000 plates are on the way to motorists.

Secretary Powell said that according to Richard Shomaker, supervisor of the motor vehicle division, this is the earliest that license plates have ever been placed in the mail in the history of the office.

Powell pointed out that the license plate envelope carries a printed warning that it is against the law for the new registration plates to be displayed prior to Dec. 1, 1965.

Pat Suzuki Next Star At Mill Run

Another Rodgers and Hammerstein musical is due to open at the Mill Run Playhouse in Niles with Pat Suzuki starring in the role she created on Broadway.

"Flower Drum Song" will open at the Mill Run next Tuesday, following Gordon MacRae in "Carousel," which ends Sunday. "Flower Drum Song" will play through Dec. 12.

For a change of pace the Mill Run will bring next Van Johnson in the comedy, "A Thousand Clowns." Returning to musicals after that, the theatre will bill Cole Porter's "Kiss Me Kate" for a two-week run with Earl Wrightson and Lois Hunt as the stars.

DENNIS DAY will appear in the musical adaptation of James Thurber's "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty," starting Feb. 1.

"Oklahoma" with John Raitt opens a three-week run at the Mill Run March 8. (Bill

Actor to Play Witch In 'Rapunzel'

Hank Ralston of Hoffman Estates will be appearing in his third children's play when the curtain goes up on the Guild Players' production of "Rapunzel and the Witch."

The play will be given Friday, Nov. 26, at 8 p.m. and Saturday, Nov. 27, at 1 p.m. and again at 4 o'clock in the auditorium of Lake Park High School, Midinah.

Ralston is portraying Mother Gothol the witch. Playing the part of Margot, mother of Rapunzel, will be Micki Gerstein, also of Hoffman Estates, who has performed in one other children's play. She was Greensleeves in "Greensleeves' Magic."

Tickets for "Rapunzel" are 50 cents each. For ticket and other information call 894-5033 or 894-5044. (Bill

Pianist to Solo with Symphony

Wilhelm Kempff, noted German pianist, will make his first orchestral appearance in this country with the Chicago Symphony. He will play the Beethoven Third Piano Concerto at subscription concerts of Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 25, 26 and 27. Jean Martinon, music director, will conduct. The three concerts will begin at 8:15 p.m., 2 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. respectively.

The program for the three concerts will include the first performance at subscription concerts of Roger Sessions' Symphony No. 3. Rossini's Overture to "William Tell" will open the three programs.

Next Tuesday, the orchestra, under the direction of Irwin Hoffman, will present the second concert of the "A" series of youth concerts. A winner from the Nov. 12 youth concert auditions will appear on the program.

For information on all performances, call Orchestra Hall, 427-0362. (Bill

Another Opening Night For Best-Off-Broadway

Tomorrow (Friday) at 8:30 p.m. the curtain will rise on the opening of Best-Off-Broadway Players' production of the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical comedy, "Flower Drum Song." It is being staged in the Barrington High School Auditorium, 616 W. Main St., Barrington, tomorrow and Saturday and again Friday and Saturday, Nov. 26 and 27.

"Flower Drum Song" is a show of ballads and belters of rhythm and ritual, of poignancy and piquancy. Its songs include the "I Enjoy Being a Girl," the gliding pseudo-Oriental "You Are Beautiful," the searching "Love Look Away," that is a fine example of the art of Rodgers and Hammerstein, the peppery "Chop Suey" and "Hundred Million Miracles."

The crisp, compact orchestra, under the baton of John Shaw, will startle audiences with violin sequences played in Oriental-sounding parallel fourths and fifths, rather than the more conventional thirds and sixths.

AN UP-TEMPO segment of "Grant Avenue" will dissolve into pure Chinatown or anytown jazz; the strains of "Sunday" will make even the most restrained listener wish he could do a soft shoe routine.

There's something in this show for almost everyone's musical taste. For the younger set there is a children's chorus to lament in song about their elders that "The more we see of grownups, the less we want to grow!"

The setting of "Flower Drum Song" is San Francisco's Chinatown, and the plot revolves around two sets of lovers. Sammy Fong (Ted Weiss of Elk Grove Village) is romantically linked to Linda Low (Marge Collins of Palatine), a nightclub singer and dancer. The elders (Ed Joyce and Barbara Thiel of Arlington Heights, Jerry Butz of Mount Prospect and George Lee of Wauconda) have chosen for him Mei Li (Laurnell Martin of Arlington Heights).

SAMMY, WITH an assist from Madam Liang (Rita Reinert of River Grove) and her servant (Joan Buck of Mount Prospect), manages to interest Mei Li in Wang Ta (Allen Johnson of Hoffman Estates).

The romantic pursuits are enlivened by two nightclub entertainers (Jim Scott of Mount Prospect and Vera Karst of Palatine), complicated by unhappy seamstress Helen Chao (Betty Myers of Prospect Heights), and parodied by two precocious teen-agers (Katie Lauing of Itasca and Steve Buck of Mount Prospect).

"Flower Drum Song" is directed by Richard Tyler, choreographed by Robert Wendt and musically coordinated by John Shaw. This same trio produced last summer's "Kiss Me Kate." For ticket information call Lynn Jessen at 392-3190.

St. James Play on Schedule

Preparations for the St. James Theatre Group's forthcoming production, "The Man Who Came to Dinner," are moving along on schedule, according to stage manager Ralph Elwart.

The stage set was completed in record-breaking time, said Elwart, as members of the crew and the cast devoted three nights to building and painting the scenery.

The set was designed by Evelyn Guttenberger, Julie Alm, Carole Harmon and Joan Murray and built by Bob Gallagher, Jack Bartik, Tom Birgon and Chuck Miller, Everyone joined in the painting.

OTHER behind-the scenes workers include Carl Traina, stage bill and advertising; Ann Gillen, publicity; Marilyn Ostrowski, ticket sales; Frankie Stefanik, costume design; Gladys Leake, properties; Angie Kessinger, seating; Jim Lee, sound engineer; and Dave Donkers, lighting engineer. All are from Arlington Heights.

"The Man Who Came to Dinner" will be presented Dec. 3, 4 and 5 at the little theatre of Prospect High School, Mount Prospect. (Bill

Lorenz Says Hefty New Taxes Needed

Does State Face Highway Fund Crisis?

by PAT HENSEL
Staff Writer
(First of a series)

One thing wrong with the nation's Great Society is that Illinois is having some trouble keeping up with it.

No sooner was Gov. Otto Kerner off on his good-will tour to Japan than all heck broke loose on the home front. Right in the middle of it all was Illinois' great big beautiful road program.

And out on the road, fresh out of motor fuel taxes and dodging from one lane to the other, was Francis Lorenz, director of the state's public works and buildings.

He set off a series of explosions which finally erupted in a breach between his state and the Great Society.

THE WHOLE thing began when Lorenz said Illinois would stop work on many highway projects unless there is a gas tax increase.

Then he said he will ask the Illinois Highway study Commission to consider increasing motor vehicle registration fees to help meet road costs.

Then he announced there isn't enough money left to meet matching funds with the federal government for road projects.

Finally he charged that the federal government was lax in allocating funds to Illinois in time for letting of bids on road work.

As an afterthought, he called for "another session of the legislature in 1966, in which I would hope the Governor would consider the highway problem."

BEFORE LORENZ could turn around, the lowest blow was struck. But, this time it was not from him—it was at him.

Chicago's American reported federal funds had been "frozen" because of "irregularities" in the state's land acquisition procedures for road right-of-way.

Lorenz answered a lot of questions from a lot of people for a couple of days. Then, just as suddenly as it erupted, the furor suddenly was quelled.

It may have been quelled in a meeting of Lorenz with the Illinois Highway study Commission on Nov. 9, after Republicans had reaped a heap of political hay.

Sen Russell Arrington (R-Evanston) continued to demand "a detailed breakdown of highway expenses—not this hurried and generalized accounting."

BUT, OUTSIDE of Arrington's demands, the surface calmed down.

After the Nov. 9 meeting C. S. Monnier, chief of the U. S. Bureau of Road's office in Springfield, said, "Federal funds at this time are not being withheld."

Lorenz said, "It has been clearly established that no federal funds are being withheld from any project."

The bi-partisan commission remained on the sidelines, refusing to "be used as a political football."

UNDER THE calm surface, however, there is trouble.

Illinois is at the bottom of the scale in the 50 states on gasoline tax rates.

The tax tab here is five cents, as well as in Wyoming, Texas, Missouri, Kansas, and Hawaii. All other states collect six to seven cents, and Alaska and California collect eight cents.

Even if there were to be a gas tax increase, Lorenz would not be satisfied.

Road funds from gas taxes are split roughly one third between counties - townships, municipalities, and the state.

Exact breakdown is: 35 per cent to the state, 32 per cent to municipalities, 12 per cent to all counties outside of Cook, 11 per cent to Cook, and 10 per cent to all other townships.

Lorenz said a one-cent gas tax increase would net the state $13 million—"a mere drop in the bucket."

He prefers a $10 increase in motor vehicle registration fees. With four and a half million cars registered in Illinois, he estimates a $45 million ante for the road fund.

But, Lorenz wants both. The gas tax would be a stop-gap measure to hold the road work steady until registration fees were collected for 1967 license plates.

ON THE SIDELINE, Republicans are getting political mileage out of the road wrangle.

They're blaming an apparent shortage of highway construction funds on the Democratic administration for failing to accept a one-cent increase in the gasoline tax during the last session of the legislature.

Democrats are replying as best they can.

They're blaming the whole thing on Republicans who tried to divert two cents of a three-cent gasoline tax to non-highway uses.

Lorenz was questioned by this newspaper about his road-aches prior to the report that federal funds had been "frozen" until Illinois revised its land acquisition procedures.

At that time, Lorenz warned of a $3.5 million state shortage needed to match federal funds on a 50-50 basis for highway construction.

He said three road programs in the west and northwest suburbs had been trimmed to the tune of $3.5 million to compensate.

Those projects were a Roosevelt Road intersection improvement at First Avenue, a Harlem and Archer avenue intersection improvement, and improvements to Waukegan Road through Glenview.

"When you haven't got the money, you have to choose up sides," he said, indicating sides would be chosen soon, when district engineers put finishing touches on the 1966 road program.

ON THE OTHER hand, he said that federal funds, which are allocated once a year and dispersed quarterly, didn't get to his office in time for a letting of contracts about two weeks prior (or one month ago).

"They can't give it unless they've got it," he said, explaining that the federal trust fund from which road monies were dispersed apparently was temporarily depleted.

"If there were more federal funds, we could do more work," he complained. "When they're (the federal funds) behind a week, it holds us up a month."

ABOUT $253.4 million was expected for road improvements in the state during 1965. Almost two-thirds of this wuld be available for use on interstate highways, and the remainder on non-interstate highways.

The state funds for road improvements are derived from motor fuel taxes and from vehicle registration fees.

Added to this are specific improvements paid for in part by counties and municipalities, and specific highways designated by and paid for in part by the federal government.

The Federal Aid Highway Law provides that all funds appropriated for federal aid to highways must be paid from a special trust fund.

The U. S. Bureau of Public Roads has a schedule calling for a limit in the amount of federal funds a state may obligate in a quarter-year.

The state was forewarned that the federal funds wold not always be available on schedule, and that timing of bids and contracts should be geared to the federal timetable.

ROGER NUSBAUM, deputy chief highway engineer, expects next year's road program to be less ambitious than it was supposed to be this year.

"I'm certain that we're not going to stop work on a project that we've already started," he explained, "but our department will have to make strict priority recommendations."

Illinois is divided into 10 highway districts. Each district engineer submits his list of priority projects.

"The funds we have available are divided according to need. We have means of determining these needs, according to formula outlined in the central highway office," Nusbaum said.

THE FORMULA takes into consideration the amount of travel in a given area, and the condition of roads in that area.

He said this year's road program is about 60 to 65 per cent complete—which is about normal.

He concurred with Lorenz that federal funds haven't been pouring in the way they were expected to: "Our program this year was a little generous. We anticipated a release of federal money which has not been forthcoming."

THE AMERICAN Farm Bureau began a campaign about three months ago to get Congress to investigate land-buying practices.

The bureau claims farmers are not being adequately compensated for land taken from them under condemnation proceedings.

The campaign took on momentum.

Other interests entered into it, until finally federal highway authorities began to check. It was found Illinois uses methods which may have to be reformed.

According to Lorenz, he's willing to change his methods of acquiring land for highway right-of-way, but the price would be an increase in road construction costs and a slowing down of the highway building program.

THE METHOD used by Lorenz requires the state to appraise the land it needs and set a value on it. Lawyers bid, using prices recommended by the appraiser, minus 10 per cent.

Lorenz explains this permits the property owner to "bargain" the state into the higher (appraised) price.

The Bureau of Public Roads has charged this method sometimes requires the landowner to hire a lawyer to negotiate, and that the resulting bargaining between lawyers on both sides could lead to "collusion" or "kickbacks."

The federal government, however, has cited no actual instances to confirm the charges.

THE CHICAGO Motor Club will take a spectator's seat to watch the fray, but will offer no comments from the sidelines until an Illinois Highway Study Commission report is completed.

The commission, established in the 1963 General Assembly, submitted an interim report to this year's legislature, stating there was a shortage of state road funds.

This report was the basis of Governor Kerner's request for a three-cent increase in gas taxes, with one cent going to road funds and two cents for education.

At that time, it was reported the study commission indicated a preference for three cents for road funds, but no stand was taken.

In any event, the legislature turned down the two-cent diversion of gas taxes to education, and the rest of the package was tossed out by the governor.

FINALLY, the study commission, still in existence and with a new appropriation for expenses, hired Wilbur Smith and Associates of Connecticut to do another road study for Illinois—this time with a half million dollar tab to be paid for out of the division of highways planning and research funds.

Until this report is completed, the Chicago Motor Club will remain silent.

According to Gordon Lindquist, director of the CMC highway traffic and safety division, a similar study in 1948 resulted in a gas tax increase from three to five cents.

Truck license fees also were increased, during the Adlai Stevenson administration, but later put back almost to their pre-1948 rates under the William Stratton administration.

WILL A FUND shortage cause state highway projects to suffer?

"There has been no breakdown of expenditures — past or future," Lindquist answered. "Until there is, there's no way of knowing how much — if at all — we are going to suffer."

CMC will make a policy statement on raod funds after studying the Smith report, Lindquist promised.

He said almost certainly another recommendation will be made to hike truck license fees, since trucks do the most damage to roads.

An increase in gasoline taxes, Linquist added, would be "a last resort as far as the Chicago Motor Club is concerned."

NO LESS opposition to gas tax increases comes from the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry.

"We're strongly in favor of secondary road improvements," said Hayward Hirsch, director of community and commercial development.

"But our organization recognizes that we can't go on and on forever, building new expressways. We have to move toward a moratorium on continuously expanding the network."

The CACI did not support legislation to increase gasoline taxes in this year's General Assembly, though Hirsch concedes that road construction financing would have to continue to come from motor fuel tax funds.

The association is hard at work on another idea for moving people to and fro.

"The pendulum is going to have to swing away from an emphasis on roads as a means of getting people around," Hirsch said.

Then he launched into his favorite topic: mass transportation.

"While we agree that we have to continue with the immediate projects now under way, and start those that are being held in abeyance, we can't keep on building more and more expressways until Chicagoland is just one big driveway and parking lot."

IF IT'S true that Illinois road construction is in peril—whether the fault lies in backward state legislation or in an overambitious Great Society—one thing seems certain:

Governor Kerner will be greeted with the problem on his return from Japan. (A-15

IS THE STATE'S ROAD construction program periled by a serious depletion of funds? This question is being asked by government and civic officials following an alarm from Francis Lorenz, state director of public works and buildings. He claims Illinois lacks funds to match with federal funds for the interstate program, which calls for 90 per cent financing by the U. S. and 10 per cent by the state, and for the state program, much of which is financed on a 50-50 basis. (Staff Photo)

CAN ILLINOIS AFFORD to wait any longer to raise funds for widening of congested roads like this? The Illinois Division of Highways says that new-road construction is periled unless the state can find a source of revenue immediately. It has been suggested the governor call a special session of the legislature to enact a one-to-three cent gasoline tax increase and/or a hike in motor vehicle registration fees.

College Architect Choice Next Week

Final selection of an architect for Community College District 301 is expected at a special meeting next week.

There are four finalists from a field of 22 architectural firms. The architects were recommended by two subcommittees of the college board. The subcommittees each heard 11 firms in one-to-two hour interviews.

Recommended by the subcommittee headed by board member A. M. (Bud) Bernstein of Elk Grove Village are Fridstein and Fitch, Chicago, and Orput and Orput, Rockford.

The firms selected by James Hamill's subcommittee are Caudell, Rowlett & Scott of Houston, and Harry Weiss & Associates, Chicago. It was suggested that Charles Stade & Associates of Park Ridge might work with the Houston firm as local representatives.

COLLEGE PRES. Robert Lahti is checking with Chicago-area clients of the four firms. He will report to the board on the experience of past clients. He will investigate designs, engineering, how well buildings meet requirements for use, costs and the quality of on-site supervision during construction.

The regular meeting of the college board, which would fall on Thanksgiving, has been canceled. The next regular meeting will be Thursday, Dec. 9. A special meeting is expected next week to consider architects, with notification to be given to board members, the representative of the League of Women Voters who attends each regular meeting, and the news media.

Caudell, Rowlett & Scott were the architects for Maine South High School in Park Ridge. They have designed many college-level buildings throughout the United States. Stade & Associates are credited with a variety of buildings at Valparaiso University in Indiana.

Harry Weiss & Associates designed buildings at Bethany Seminary, Chicago, and have just completed a junior college in St. Louis. They have designed many college buildings across the country.

Orput and Orput have designed schools for Elk Grove School District 59.

THE much-publicized design for the new South Shore High School in Chicago is the product of Fridstein and Fitch. The firm is currently designing new buildings at Illinois State University, Normal. Conant High School in Hoffman Estates, a low-cost air-conditioned school for Palatine-Schaumburg District 211 also was designed by Fridstein and Fitch.

The community college building will be designed for an initial enrollment of about 2,000 students. Plans probably will include preliminary design suggestions for additional areas or buildings. The estimated $7.5 million construction plan, with a large portion of the cost to be underwritten by state and federal funds, will go before voters of Wheeling, Elk Grove, Palatine and Schaumburg Townships next year. Republicans Seek Delay

Loss of Suburban Authority Charged in Zoning Changes

Charging that proposed amendments to the Cook County zoning ordinance restrict the power of municipalities, the five suburban county commissioners this week said they will draw up their own recommendations.

Speaking as chairman of the Republican minority group on the board, Comm. Floyd Fulle of Des Plaines announced at a press conference Monday that they will ask for a delay in action on the amendment at next Tuesday's meeting of the commissioners.

The proposed amendments—which have met with concern by small municipalities in the northwest area — open the path for planned developments in the unincorporated county areas.

However, according to the Republican commissioners, these amendments "contain many iniquities."

A CHIEF CONCERN for suburban municipalities is potential loss of their veto power over subdivision plans within a 1½-mile radius of their borders. According to a 1961 statute, approval for such subdivisions must be given by the municipalities concerned as well as the county, and planned developments could possibly escape the definition of subdivisions.

In addition, in the major technical point cited by Fulle, the amendments as proposed include planned developments as zoning variations, rather than rezoning. For rezoning cases, municipalities within the 1½-mile area must be notified of proposals and hearings, and given the opportunity to object. No notification is required for variations.

"All rights which the municipalities now enjoy under county and state statutes will be preserved under the amendment we will propose," Fulle said.

He pointed out that Cook County 10 years ago had jurisdiction over more than 500 square miles of unincorporated land. Now it governs about 300 square miles, and the figure will continue to diminish as more land is incorporated by municipalities.

THUS, THE suburbs should be vitally involved with planning for the unincorporated land surrounding them, since it will some day be part of the communities, Fulle said. There is no unincorporated land in Cook County now which does not lie within the 1½-mile extra-territorial radius for at least one suburb, according to Fulle.

The Republican commissioners plan to have their alternate amendments ready in about seven weeks. The work will be done with the guidance of professionals — including the Urban Land Institute, American Society of Planning Officials, National Home Association.

Fulle said the suburban group hope this professional counsel will help win over the other commissioners, all 10 Democrats from the city of Chicago.

"To our knowledge," no municipal planners were consulted in preparation of the amendments now pending, he said. In addition, the suburban commissioners were antagonized because none of them had been consulted about the planned development measures.

FULLE WAS THE first to request study of possibilities for such planning, following submission of plans for high rises in the county. His resolution was passed in March 1964. At a board meeting last spring, he commented about apparent delay of the study and urged that it begin immediately.

The proposed amendments were presented early this fall, and a hearing was held last month.

And, these amendments do not actually provide for planned developments, but cluster housing. Both concepts allow for wider imagination by builders in planning for [illegible] space use.

HOWEVER, [illegible] philosophy of planned dev[illegible] "to allow developmen[illegible] complete cycle of [illegible] both anticipated and [illegible] for," Fulle said. The c[illegible] idea includes primarily housing units of the same sort — single family, duplexes or multiple.

As guidelines to follow, Fulle quoted the Federal Housing Administration requirements for planned developments. He said they should be: 1) appropriate to the existing surrounding communities; 2) able to compete successfully in the market for all demand ranges, from single family to multiple; 3) able to function separately from the community and carry their own tax burdens; 4) completed within a reasonable period of time. Toastmasters Host 20 at Guest Night

At its recent "Guest Night" meeting, the area Toastmasters Club entertained 20 guests, including men from Mount Prospect, Palatine, Rolling Meadows, Hoffman Estates, Wood Dale, and Park Ridge, as well as Arlington Heights.

The visitors included Chris Alexander, twin brothers Bill (from Park Ridge) and Joe (from Wood Dale) Blomquist, Joe Braun (a transfer member from Westfield, New Jersey) Noel Casavant, Gerry Chapman, Wallace Daughtry, Dean Eggen, Harold Gaudion, Wayne Griffith, Harry Grider, Ed Gratzer, Andy Kallas, Bob Mahr, Ted Mendl, Bob Perschbacher, Paul Reynolds, Art Schott, Art Travers and Willard Walworth.

THE GUEST NIGHT idea was simply to acquaint visitors with Toastmaster activities. After attendance at three meetings, guests may apply for membership.

Cup for best speech of the evening was won by Bob Foster of Glenview, club president, for his six-minute speech entitled, "The Best Winner of Friends."

The Table Topics" cup was awarded to Raab Sechrist, 3305 St. James, Arlington Heights, for his extemporaneous response to a question concerning juvenile delinquency. The assignment for the "30-second go-round," in which every member participates, was to tell a "tall tale."

Bob Lanz of Roselle presided, and Les Ploetz of Arlington Heights was toastmaster of the evening. (B10

SOMETHING NEW

by ED LANDWEHR

Recording equipment users might be interested to learn that a Voice Actuating Device has been invented. With this electronic the person's voice will start the tape recorder, and when the person stops speaking, the recorder stops. The unit is provided with a pause adjustment to suit the person's speaking habits, preventing shut-offs during the speaker's natural pauses.

LANDWEHR TV, 218 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights is interested in all kinds of electronic appliances, particularly in television and radio. Our maintenance service to the public is well known for its accuracy and reliability. Phone CLearbrook 5-0700 for prompt service.

What It Means To Be A Polk Employee

In the last 30 years all of my adult working time has been invested in helping people put various appliances into their homes.

These items have and are giving Mrs. America and her family more convenience, economy, cleanliness, safety and leisure than they otherwise would have.

In 10 years spent with Polk Bros., my feeling of usefulness is at its highest peak. At Polk Bros. the customer is thought of, and thought about as the very life blood of the American economy. We will always travel that extra 2 miles to please a customer. Everyone here is always using his thinking cap to come up with something new and different to please you more. All of us here like people, so come on in and talk with us at our new Arlington store and see if there isn't some way we can be of service to you.

Howard and Blanche Tolefson, 1504 W. Brown, celebrated their 17th wedding anniversary Nov. 6 with dinner out and a movie.

David, son of Al and Jane Klein, 1003 N. Kennicott, was 4 Nov. 11 and celebrated the occasion with his brothers and sisters.

Michael, son of Michael and Karen Schafer, 712 N. Fernandez, marked his third birthday with a party Nov. 7. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Schafer of Des Plaines were on hand to help celebrate.

On Saturday, Donnie, son of Charles and Margie Brockman, 1610 W. Brown was treated to dinner at the Blackhawk Restaurant in Chicago to mark his 10th birthday.

NANCY MORRIS, 916 N. Kaspar, and Sally Zoellick, 912 N. Kaspar, took a group of girls to the Lutheran Home for the Aged to give a fashion show Wednesday. Among the girls who were dressed in their mothers' clothes and really enjoyed the afternoon were Melissa Curtis, Carol Erd, Peggy Zoellick, Sandra Morris, Laura Sylvester, Vicki Olson, Beth Kunberger, Robin Raitt and Noreen Ronayne.

Harry and Ruth Schuldt, 912 N. Fernandez, attended homecoming at Northern Illinois University in DeKalb on Nov. 6. Their son, Robert, is a sophomore and plays in the Huskies Marching Band which gave pregame and half-time performances.

Lynn, daughter of Ed and Shirles Harper, 710 N. Ridge celebrated her 11th birthday with a family party Nov. 7. Guests were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schnake of Chicago, and aunts and uncles, the Albert Brazinskis and the Lyle Peavlers, all of Chicago.

CURTIS AND FLORA Haines, 716 N. Ridge, celebrated their 17th wedding anniversary Nov. 6. Guests that evening were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lacey of Mount Prospect; Don Watson and his mother, Mrs. Annette Watson, Elmhurst and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harper, Arlington Heights.

Brad, son of William and Mary Ann Reiter, 1015 N. Illinois, was 5 Nov. 9 and had a party Saturday. His guests were David Wheeler, David Polewko, Kevin Wilson, Hank Maklezow, Mark Tollefson and John Speckman.

Bradford, son of the John Chambers, 1021 N. Princeton, was 7 Nov. 10 and had a party Saturday afternoon. Saturday evening he and his brothers, Paul and Donald, were treated to dinner and the ice show at the Conrad Hilton Boulevard Room.

GLENN AND Lorraine Buckley, 1404 W. Elm, returned Saturday from an enjoyable week stay in Florida attending a convention. The weather was wonderful and there was much to do after meetings were finished.

Lindsey, daughter of Don and Julie Walsh, 648 N. Salem, was 5 Thursday. Guests at her party that afternoon were Jimmy Ortell, David Neal, Jeannie Baronowski and Lindsey's sisters, Cindy and Donna.

Julie and Don Walsh, 648 N. Salem, spent three days in Chicago as the prize in a contest Don won at Kraft Foods, where he is employed. They stayed at the Lake Tower Motel and saw plays, sampled many restaurants and toured.

FROM SHERWOOD

John and Charlotte Auld, 1009 Watling, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with an open house Sunday. Their sons, Robin, home from college for the occasion, and Jim were on hand to help celebrate as well as their best man, Jack Anderson and his wife, Eileen, from Eastwood, a bridesmaid, Constance McPherrin, her husband, Richard, and son and Mr. and Mrs. James Auld from Michigan. Mrs. McPherrin is John's sister.

Charles R. Smith III and Doris Ann Schultz were married in LaPorte, Ind. on Nov. 6. Charles, a graduate of Arlington High School, lived in Sherwood with his parents, the Charles Smiths, 1131 N. Harvard. Bill Burfeind, 1130 N. Harvard, was an usher. (A

Marie Marshall CLearbrook 5-2936

Tom Curtin, son of the Jack Curtins, 420 S. Forrest, was in his parents' thoughts on his birthday Saturday, even though they were not able to contact him personally, since he was on his way from a naval assignment in Algiers, La., to a new ship at an as yet undisclosed base.

Tom is to be congratulated on his recent promotion to petty officer third class.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Kleinhuizen, 512 S. Phelps, were married 27 years Nov. 12. Their daughter, Janet, helped them celebrate by taking the day off and joining her parents in spending the afternoon at Sportsman's Park, after which they had dinner at Klas' Restaurant in Berwyn.

ANOTHER anniversary couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frisk, 528 S. Phelps. Nancy and Bob had dinner with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Frisk of Evanston, at the Tower Restaurant in Skokie in honor of their third anniversary Nov. 10.

Congratulations of a different sort go to Margaret Marshall, daughter of the Frank Marshalls, 432 S. Forrest, who has been nominated for a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship. Margaret is a senior at Northwestern University.

A [illegible]ck-hop and slumber party made a lively weekend at the [illegible]utsen home, 432 S. Prindle. It was in honor of Margi's 12th birthday Nov. 12. Guests were Teresa Verley, Pam and Sandy Kunz and Marcia Longrie, who survived a practically sleepless Friday night to do justice to a gourmet breakfast Saturday.

SUSAN BRUNSFELD, 10 Nov. 15, celebrated by giving a party Saturday afternoon for Robin Glynn, Nancy Byrnes, Janet Glaser and Nancy Spoto. After birthday cake and ice cream, the guests were treated to the movies.

Susan is the daughter of the John Brunsfelds, 416 S. Phelps.

Mrs. Gust Hermanson, 437 S. rest, was treated to Sunday brunch at the Carousel a week ago by her husband and son, Gary, in honor of her Nov. 7 birthday. In turn, Esther prepared an elaborate dinner at home later for her family, including their son, Larry and his wife.

At a festive dinner at the James Dwyer home Saturday, 14-year-old Betty received the best wishes of her parents and sister, Donna, on her Nov. 13 birthday.

The Dwyers live at 516 S. Forrest.

A WEEKEND guest of the Lyle Longries, 433 S. Forrest, was Helen's brother-in-law, Bill Ebert of Los Alamos, N. M., who was en route home after a business trip to Washington, D. C. Mr. Ebert is with the Atomic Energy Commission.

Mrs. Gust Hermanson, 437 S. Forrest, reports a surprise dropin visitor last week was Mrs. John Lynch, her former next door neighbor who is now living in Mount Kisco, N. Y. Joan was accompanied by her sons, Mark and Frank, and regretted that time did not permit her to visit more of her old friends in the neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kremer, 417 S. Prindle, were hosts a week ago Sunday at a celebratory dinner. The occasion was the Nov. 9 birthday of their daughter, Barbara, who came with her husband, Michael Banks. (A

But Captaincy Ended

2 Positions Added In Police Department

A resolution setting the total strength of the Mount Prospect police department at 29 personnel was passed by the village trustees Tuesday night.

The total includes the chief of police, four lieutenants, four sergeants, 19 patrolmen and one policewoman.

A resolution adopted in 1963 had set department strength at 27, with the chief, one captain, three lieutenants, four sergeants, 17 patrolmen and one policewoman making up the total.

THE NEW RESOLUTION deletes the captain spot, adds a lieutenant position and adds two to the patrolman total.

Lt. Ambrose E. Kranz, a 20-year member of the department, resigned from the force effective Nov. 30, and is on vacation until the effective date.

Patrolman James Stanek also tendered his resignation, effective Nov. 15, to enter private business. He had been on the force about one year.

Three new patrolmen will be sworn in Monday, Nov. 22, at the village hall. They are James E. Bock of Bensenville, and Charles Watkins and Edward Hastek, both of Arlington Heights.

POLICE CHIEF Newell Esmond said he hopes to enter the three new men in the Chicago Police Academy, if openings are available. The academy offers an extensive 13-week course, he said.

Sgt. John Savage and Ptlm. James Creamer were elected trustees to the Police Pension Fund Board by members of the department.

Lt. John Homola was elected to represent the department to the Illinois Police Association.

Order Lease Negotiated With Railway

The village manager and attorney were authorized by the Mount Prospect Board of Trustees Tuesday night, to negotiate a lease with the North Western Railway covering the present village parking lots on railway property along Northwest Highway.

The board further suggested the possibility of purchasing the land from the North Western.

2 Plymouths Purchased As Squad Cars

Two new squad cars are to be purchased by Mount Prospect from Mark Motors in Arlington Heights for $3,885.

The village board authorized the purchase Tuesday night by a 4-2 vote. Trustees Harry Bruhl and Parker Ekren cast the negative votes.

Mark Motors was the second low bidder on the two cars, being $34 higher per car than the George Poole Ford of $3,817. The police department had indicated their preference for Plymouth automobiles, the make of car on which the Mark Motors bid was made. (M

2 Villages Consult On Weller Creek

A joint meeting between Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect village officials last Wednesday has started the ball rolling on an engineering study of the Weller Creek drainage problem.

Meeting in the Arlington Heights village hall, the officials made an informal agreement to have the engineering departments from the two villages make the study with no deadline set for its completion.

Both parties agreed that the project is "something that is going to take time to work out," but "It is better to tackle the problem right now than wait until the entire unincorporated area in the drainage district is fully developed." (A(M

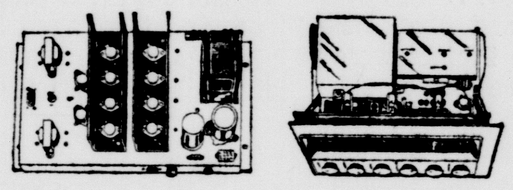
Magnavox
new ASTRO-SONIC Stereo High Fidelity

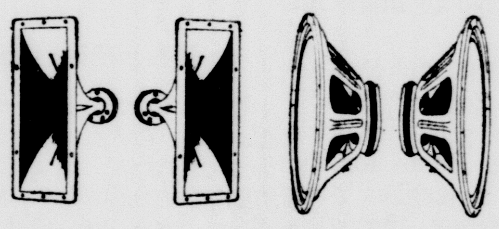
this space-age technology surpasses all previous advances in high fidelity... produces ten times more music power than the average tube sets

The Astro-Sonic has such great tonal dimension it can fill a concert hall like a great symphony orchestra—and in your home can "whisper" the full beauty of music or shake the walls with the crescendo of a great symphony orchestra—yet all this without a single tube!

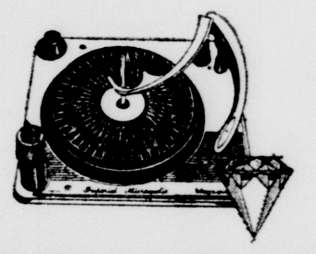
Now solid state circuitry—a by-product of the billion dollar space age—provides greater Stereo FM/AM performance with more audio power—has ten times the efficiency of comparable tube sets—yet uses but 1/10 the power—no more than a small electric light bulb.



Vacuum tubes and component. damaging heat—the source of most service troubles—are eliminated—in fact, the Astro-Sonic is so reliable that parts are guaranteed for five years—twenty times as long as the standard industry guarantee for tube sets.



Now, large exponential treble horns—ten times as efficient as conventional cone speakers—reproduce treble tones without a blemish of distortion—high efficiency 15" bass woofers give you bass definition you have never heard before.



The new "Micromatic 60" record player completely eliminates pitch distortion—for turntable speed is as accurate as your electric clock! The new pickup plays at only 1/10 ounce touch, banishing record and stylus wear—therefore the diamond stylus is guaranteed for ten years, and your records can last a lifetime.

YOUR CHOICE... NOW ONLY $298.50

in your choice of Fruitwood or decorative Antique Ivory finishes. Model 1-ST647, Annual Sale priced.

Magnavox solid-state components guaranteed 5-years—replaced by dealer if found to be defective through normal use. Service (labor) is guaranteed one year.

Magnavox 10-year Diamond Stylus guarantee—because the Micromatic Player banishes discernible record and stylus wear; the Diamond is guaranteed against excessive wear for 10-years, replaced by dealer upon return.

Other Magnavox solid-state stereo consoles are now priced from only $138.80

A MESSAGE TO CLASSIFIED USERS

Before you call an ad-visor to place your

consider this:

You are about to invest money for an ad and you are entitled to get results. To accomplish this it is necessary for you to TELL ALL about the details of your offer. Be sure you don't make any of the following errors that prevent results:

1. DON'T OMIT THE ADDRESS

Many out-of-town readers will write you, but will not spend money for a long distance call.

2. DON'T OMIT THE PHONE NUMBER

Many readers will call you but do not find it convenient to come to your home.

3. DON'T USE BLIND BOX NUMBERS

Avoid them if at all possible. They are difficult to answer and many people are suspicious of them.

4. DON'T CONCEAL THE PRICE DESIRED

Surveys show that a high percentage of readers will not answer an ad unless the price is given.

5. DON'T LEAVE HOME ON THE DAYS YOU ADVERTISE

Many good prospects will not call the second time if your phone is unanswered.

6. DON'T OMIT IMPORTANT WORDS TO SAVE MONEY

Readers can't guess on important details. Remember, a well written informative ad will get results faster and amount to much less in the long run.

7. DON'T OVERLOOK OUR LOWER RATE FOR CONSECUTIVE INSERTIONS

You'll get the biggest parade of readers at the lowest price. Your Needs Satisfied thru Paddock Publications Classified.

Winston Party Line

Jim and Jean McDonald decided, on short notice, to take in the Army Regiment reunion. Jean made a quick trip to Oak Park and brought her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hanna, back to take over the household and keep the boys company in their absence. They spent 10 days in Miami Beach, at the Diplomat.

William and Margaret Maddock, 1357 Virginia Drive, had family dinners for Marilyn, 9 Nov. 9, and Marsha who became a teenager Nov. 17. Saturday, following Marilyn's birthday, they took her and five girlfriends to the movies.

Cathy, daughter of Chester and Mildred Dyszel, invited 10 classmates to her home at 1334 Michele Drive for cake, ice cream and games to celebrate her 10th birthday.

A family party was held for Cathy Caldwell on Saturday, after the Hillbilly Dance at Fremd High School. Cheryl Dunik was an overnight guest.

AL AND ELEANOR Oswald, 1165 Pratt, were hosts to the Fred Gusewelles, Frank Frons and the Bruce Smyths, on Nov. 6, after the group spent the early part of the evening bowling at Hoffman Lanes.

Lynn Comp, 262 N. Babcock Drive, had the girls from her neighborhood in for the usual partyfare to celebrate her 11th birthday Nov. 13.

The second birthday of Lois was observed in the Louis Bissa home, 930 Babcock Drive, on Nov. 7. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bissa came from Dolton and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Drucker and sons, Tom and Bill, came from Des Plaines, for the family dinner.

Previous to Stephen Loverdi's second birthday, Nov. 9, his grandparents, the George Loverdis of Chicago, were invited to Sunday dinner. Monday his parents, Stephen and Carol, again entertained by having his godparents, the Edward Zanders and friends, the Don Andersons of Winston Park, William Barriers from Carpentersville, and grandparents, the Henry Andersons from Chicago as guests in honor of Stephen's birthday.

GET WELL WISHES are going to Mrs. Harold Blum, 259 Richards Drive. She entered Northwest Community Hospital four weeks ago and is making satisfactory progress, according to her mother. Mrs. Marie Breseman of Chicago is with the family and says she will stay as long as she is needed. Her daughter may be home for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kunzweiler attended the Illinois Michigan football game in Champaign on Nov. 6, returning in time for the St. Thomas dinner-dance at Riverswood Country Club, where they joined the Michael Clearys, William Carrolls and the Bob Murrays for the evening.

Weekend guests in the Yount home, 1453 S. Norman Drive, were Dean's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Florian Walker from Franklin, Ind.

The previous weekend Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wolf came from Deerfield. After cocktails in the home, they went to the Alpine House in Lake Zurich for dinner.

This week Anita had a chance to visit with her cousin, Mrs. J. Miles White who is here on a furlough from Munich, Germany.

HAVING TWO birthdays within a month, the Robert Martins picked a date in between for Robert, 5 Oct. 27, and Rosemary, 4 Nov. 25. Saturday afternoon 20 neighborhood children were invited to a costume party and the usual birthday menu.

Guests in the Joseph Dougherty home, 315 N. Lytle, are the parents of Mary Lou, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Norris, who flew in from Morehead City, N. J., on Saturday, in time to help celebrate the birthday of their grandson, Richard, 15 Nov. 14. They will remain to spend Thanksgiving with the family.

Rudy Kandlbinder took his son, Kurt, and friends, Jim Haggenjos and John Nally, to the Rod and Custom Show at McCormick Place on Nov. 6. As well as being of keen interest to the boys, it was Kurt's 15th birthday occasion.

JOHN AND ANN Nally had just gotten settled when they moved from Norman Drive to a larger home on Virginia Drive, when the decision was made to move back to their former locale in California. They left Monday with their children, John, Tim, Larry, Dennis and Kathy, to a suburb of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Robert Nelson, 409 Rohlwing Road, returned by train Monday morning from an 11-day trip to Houston, where she visited her brother, Dr. Emery Miller, with NASA. He took her to every place of interest, including a tour of the battleship "Texas," a view of the city from the monument of Sam Houston and the new modern art center where they heard a concert presented by the Houston Symphony Orchestra. At Rice Institute, where her brother attended school, she met his former professors, saw the medical center and the various parks of Houston, now the sixth largest city in the United States.

A DAY ON the Gulf of Mexico gave her an opportunity to visit the oldest city in the southwest, Galveston. There she saw the new eight-story Flying Ship Hotel, which is built on stilts, met the captain of the Texas A and M boat who showed them through this former Cunard Luxury liner which has been converted into a government project used for deep sea exploration, and viewed the cotton barges which go all over the world.

Mrs. Nelson was pleased with the warm weather conditions and her view from her motel which overlooked the new Astrodome, also included in her many tours.

Rev. Williams to Leave His Pulpit in Long Grove

Members at last Thursday night's Consistory meeting heard Rev. Alfred Williams' "bombshell" announcement that he wishes to give up the pastorate at Long Grove Church. He will leave his nearly 10-year post here to become the director of Christian Education of the Illinois Conference of the United Church of Christ.

In accepting the position, he believes it will offer him an opportunity to work extensively in the area of the residential parish, always an area of deep interest and concern to him. In his resignation letter he said, "To be called to this directorship is a high honor and an overwhelming responsibility. Only time will tell if I am adequate to meet its demands."

The minister stated he believed this to be the opportune time to leave Long Grove.

"From every indication the Long Grove community is on the threshold of another new era," he said. "For the church this will mean new opportunities for ministry to the community. Better that a new pastor come just prior to the change than after it has begun.

"Leaving Long Grove is not a happy prospect for either Jean or me. No pastor could ask for a more vital church or for more endearing friends. Your concern for us has been constant and your acceptance of us into the life of the community has been complete. We take with us precious memories of persons who have ministered profoundly to us both. If the congregation continues to nurture the spirit of dedication, openness and creativity as it has in the past its future is bright with promise.

"We love Long Grove Church and we are confident about its future. The man whom you call to serve you as pastor will be most fortunate and many times blessed."

REV. WILLIAMS' new position will mean that he begins full time work in February. Beginning the first of January, he will devote two days per week to his new field.

Following the announcement, Consistory President Charles Johnson made plans to name a pulpit committee to provide the congregation with a selection of candidates. One of Johnson's first steps was to meet with James Smucker, minister of the Northeast Assoc. It was agreed that the pulpit committee would be made up of representatives from all the various departments and age groups of the church.

Thanksgiving Day services at Long Grove Church will be at 10 a.m. A sitter service will be provided for pre-school children. The offering of the morning will be designated for benevolent work. Immediately following the service all college students and service men and their families are invited to an open house at the parsonage.

REVISIONS AND additions to Long Grove's Subdivision Control Ordinance will be given an airing at a public hearing called by the village plan commission on Dec. 7. Present to answer questions will be spokesmen for General American Realty Co. concerning the proposed 363 acre so-called Wild development. The Dec. 7 meeting replaces President Coffin's initial act of appointing a special committee of four to study and discuss the issue.

Coffin canceled the earlier committee appointment when Trustee Burt Schell voiced dissatisfaction. Schell contends no one should be excluded from the meeting with the subdivision developers, that at any discussion that takes place all village trustees and plan commission members should have the right to be present.

Legal Counsel Murray Conzelman reported the codification of ordinances will be ready before the next meeting. Ordinances not included are those of transitory type and the building code.

A need for a better clarification of the requisites for securing a building permit was discussed. In regard to shops, the question came up, "Where does one draw the line in reguard to seal and display?'

THE QUESTION of whether it would be to Long Grove's advantage to institute a manager type government was discussed. The manager would serve as building inspector, grant building permits and perhaps grant operating licenses, the latter serving to bring in revenue as well as be a form of control. To convert to a city manager type system, a referendum would be necessary.

In answer to Mrs. William Sayle's question on how much longer do we wait before the sewage system is definitely decided, a recommendation was passed to wait a little longer, pending the decision on the Wild proposal. As directed by the village, Engineer Bleck is continuing with a survey.

It was announced that a letter, specifically to aid new residents, on the subject of "Know Your Village" will soon be ready for mailing, pending examination by trustees at the next meeting. This letter, subject to approval, is a revision of a similar type communication sent to residents about four years ago. The village will underwrite cost of mailing.

Trustees passed a motion to allocate $500 to repair several holes on village roads.

THE SUBJECT OF public meetings versus committee meetings was brought up by Burt Schell. Attorney Conzelman said that a state attorney general cannot give opinion to apply to municipal governments, therefore the opinion of the village counsel must be respected. Conzelman stated that according to law, meetings not open to the public may be held if they are special committee meetings. Schell was told his only recourse would be to file a law suit against the village board and go to court if he is dissatisfied with an action.

Will Stevenson High School be able to afford a foreign student? This depends on how much money can be raised at the Flap Jack Feast and Salad Bar to be held Nov. 20, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Mrs. Bea Whitney asks that those donating salads have them at the school by 10:45 a.m. the day of the event. Ardent workers for the cause in this area are the Jack Schaums, the AFS co-presidents; Bea Whitney, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Coffin and Mrs. Orville Held, the latter a long-time promoter of AFS interests.

On Sunday, Nov. 21, Stevenson's official dedication will take place. Serving as a representative from this area, Mrs. Robert Loudon met with members of the dedication committee last Thursday at the school to lay plans for the afternoon of activities.

CEREMONIES are to get underway at 2 o'clock. Open house will prevail, with parents invited to inspect the facilities, Among speakers will be Ray Page, Illinois supt. of Public Instruction.

Copies are still available of the new student directory which lists separately those attending Lake Zurich Community High and Stevenson High. Drop by the school or contact an AFS committee member.

The push will soon be on to determine what interest there is in an adult evening study program at Stevenson, the classes to begin in January. If interested, contact the office.

Congratulations go to Stevenson's dedication queen, Chris Collyer. We erred last week when mentioning her to be Chris's sister, Cathy. Last weekend's treat for the sisters was to travel to Monmouth to visit Bonnie Salzman.

Becoming especially library minded this season are the members of the Aptakisic Tripp School Community Club. President Mrs. Betty Horvath and treasurer, Mrs. Robert Pruitt, are among the committee members planning potluck supper activities for this Saturday to benefit the book shelves.

ACCORDING TO Kildeer's Book Fair chairmen, Mrs. John Cook and Mrs. Carl Buhl, the school's receipts will amount to about $240. Volunteers Mrs. Stewart Richmond, Mrs. Eugene McIntosh, Mrs. Robert Coffin, Mrs. William Salzman, Mrs. Mrs. John Hunter, Mrs. Charles Harding, Mrs. Doris Dombrow, Mrs. Byron Siler, Mrs. Burt Schell, Mrs. James Schlesser and Mrs. Joseph Young helped throughout the two days.

If the new book, "Is Paris Burning?" holds a special fascination for Mrs. Ed Wachs, it's no doubt because of her recent three-week stay in that colorful city. Making it a special delight for Connie was to live with her daughter, Marcia, in a 200-year-old dwelling, rich in its 18th century interior decor and 16-foot high pillars. Marcia is staying in the home of a count and countess while her husband, Ken, is on leave of absence from teaching and is studying via the Ford Foundation.

Connie was especially impressed by the architecture of the city, noting that much of its sandstone has been cleaned and renovated to give the streets their loveliness.

Whenever one travels it becomes a small world, according to the travelers. While in Paris they attended services in a church whose organist had been Harold Turner's teacher during Harold's one-year stay some years ago.

WHEN MRS. ANTON Berg brought forth decorated wedding anniversary cake the Nov. 10 Long Grove Church choir practice turned into a surprise party for the Jim Korbeliks. To say Jim and Esther were surprised would be to put it mildly, both of them having been living under the disillusionment that no one in Long Grove knew that Nov. 16 marked up 25 years of wedded life for them.

the activities in the Berg home, — 20 some vocalists sharing in the fun.

Director Betty Edmunds urges singers to be prompt for the 8 o'clock Christmas choir practices and for the 8:30 sessions which follow for the regular choir members. Tardiness at the first session puts a snarl into the next one. All rehearsals are to be held at the church on Wednesdays.

The Clem Umbdenstocks and the Sam LaBues are among those who attended the Lake County Farm Bureau dinner and dance Saturday night. The event was an anniversary celebration for the couples.

Cancer Education Chairman Mrs. Emil Geest and volunteer leader, Mrs. Arthur Reimers, drove to Waukegan on Nov. 8 to attend a gathering of 30 some county district volunteers. Those present received instructions and materials pertaining to next spring's crusade.

Evening's activity for the two women included dinner at Joe's Fireside Restaurant in Libertyville.

THOUGH THEY didn't pull in any muskies while near Hayward, Wis., David Edmunds and his brother-in-law, Jeff Dowell, had their fill of fish, the small vairety, that is. Meanwhile the rest of the Dowells, here from Mahomet, visited with Woody and the children.

Putting a bit of variety in Woody Edmunds' schedule is the course in art education she is taking at Barrington High in preparation for her master's degree.

If the atmosphere at the William Salzman home always seems to have a fresh lively touch, it's probably because out-of-state visitors keep it that way. Making it a recent threesome for lunch were Mrs. Anne Behnke of Scottsdale, Ariz., who arrived with Mrs. Everett Dovale and Mrs. James Wolfe of Wilmette. On another occasion the Salzmans' Mount Prospect next door neighbor for many years, Mrs. W. Blair, visiting from Winston Salem, N. C., was a luncheon guest, along with Mrs. Elmer Walters of Mount Prospect.

Fourth graders made it a Tuesday supper party at Craig McCann's home, celebrating his birthday.

Birthday wishes also go to Larry Jacobs and Joyce Didier, Nov. 18; Ruth Ann Eckel and Randa McCartney, 20th; Lynn French and Vincent Allen, 21st; Kurt Knauth, 24th.

AMENDMENT TO AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE CONTROL AND ABATEMENT OF DUTCH ELM AND OAK WILT, SO-CALLED TREE DISEASES, IN THE VILLAGE OF INVERNESS, COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES of the Village of Inverness that Ordinance No. 63-24, an ordinance to provide for the control and abatement of Dutch Elm and Oak Wilt, so-called tree diseases, in the Village of Inverness, Cook County, Illinois, passed and approved on August 20, 1963, is hereby amended to provide as follows:

SECTION 1. TREES INFECTED WITH THE DUTCH ELM DISEASE DECLARED TO BE PUBLIC NUISANCES. Any tree of the species of elm, zelkova and planera, infected with fungus Ceratostomella ulmi, fungus Gruphium ulmi, Phloem Necrosis, or other tree infection, commonly called Dutch Elm disease, as determined by laboratory analysis, located on property not owned by the municipality or dedicated for public use, is hereby declared to be a public nuisance, and shall be removed and burned within thirty (30) days following notice as herein provided. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation being the owner of property whereupon any such diseased tree is situated to possess or keep such a tree after the expiration of thirty (30) days following said notice.

SECTION 2. BREEDING PLACES OF ELM BARK BEETLES DECLARED TO BE PUBLIC NUISANCES. Trees, or parts thereof, in a dead or dying condition, including stumps and wood in wood-piles, that may serve as breeding place or places for the European Elm Bark Beetle, Scolytus Nultistriatus, are hereby declared to be public nuisances, and it shall be unlawful for the person, firm or corporation owning property whereon the same are situated to possess or keep the same.

SECTION 3. TREES AFFECTED WITH OAK WILT DISEASE DECLARED TO BE PUBLIC NUISANCES. Any tree of the species of oak, affected with the fungus Chalara Guercina Henry, commonly called Oak Wilt, as determined by Laboratory Analysis, located on property not owned by the municipality or dedicated for public use, is hereby declared to be a public nuisance, and shall be removed and burned within thirty (30) days following notice as hereinafter provided. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation being the owner of property whereupon any such diseased tree is situated, to possess or keep such a tree after the expiration of thirty (30) days following said notice.

SECTION 4. ENFORCEMENT OF ORDINANCE. The Village Forester is charged with enforcement of this ordinance, and after giving notice to the resident thereof, if any, of his intent and purpose, he or his duly authorized representative may enter upon property not owned by the municipality or dedicated for public use at all reasonable hours for purposes of inspecting such premises for the presence thereon of infected trees, or of breeding places of the European Elm Bark Beetle, as described in Sections 1, 2 and 3 of this ordinance, and may remove such samples, portions, or specimens therefrom as are required for purposes of laboratory analysis to determine whether any tree thereon is infected. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to prevent the Village Forester, or his duly authorized representative, from entering upon such property for purposes of carrying out his duties hereunder, or to interfere with the Village Forester, or his authorized representative, in the lawful performance of his duties under the provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 5. NOTICE TO REMOVE INFECTED TREES AND OF PUBLIC NUISANCES. The Village Forester or his representative shall give notice as herein provided to the person to whom was sent the tax bill for the general taxes for the last preceding year on the property. Said notice shall be personally served or sent by registered mail not less than thirty (30) days prior to removal by the Village of the tree or trees located on the property. The notice shall state that it is given pursuant to the Illinois Municipal Code and this ordinance, shall contain the substance of the applicable portions of this ordinance, shall identify the property by common description and identify the tree or trees affected or the breeding place or places affected, and shall state, in substance, that if the owner refuses or neglects to remove said tree or trees or breeding place or places within thirty (30) days from the service of the notice, the Village will remove the same and collect from the property owner the reasonable cost thereof and that this cost is a lien upon the real estate affected, superior to all other liens and encumbrances except tax liens, providing the Village files a notice of lien in the office of the Recorder of Deeds or Registrar of Titles of Cook County pursuant to the Illinois Municipal Code.

SECTION 6. DUTY OF OWNER. It shall thereupon become the duty of the owner of said premises to cause such diseased tree or trees, breeding place or places, to be removed and burned under the direction and supervision of the Village Forester or his authorized representative within said thirty (30) days.

SECTION. 7. EFFECT OF PARTIAL INVALIDITY. Should any Section, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance be declared unconstitutional or invalid for any reason, the remainder of this ordinance shall not be affected thereby.

SECTION 8. CONFLICT OF ORDINANCES. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

SECTION 9. EFFECTIVE DATE OF ORDINANCE. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication as provided by law.

An Ordinance

AMENDING THE MOUNT PROSPECT BUILDING CODE TO AUTHORIZE THE GRANTING OF VARIATIONS THEREFROM

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF MOUNT PROSPECT:

SECTION ONE: Section 9 of Chapter II of the Mount Prospect Building Code is hereby amended by deleting therefrom the words, "Duties and Power of Board of Appeals," and inserting in their place the words, "Appeals From the Building Committee," and by deleting from the said Section the words, "Board of Trustes, who shall act as the Board of Appeals, and," and inserting in their place the words, "Board of Appeals," so that the said Section 9 shall thereafter be and read as follows:

APPEALS FROM THE BUILDING COMMITTEE:

9. Whenever the Building Committee shall reject or refuse to approve the mode or manner of construction proposed to be followed or materials to be used in the erection or alteration of a building or structure, or when it is claimed that the provisions of this code or of any duly adopted rules do not apply, or that an equally good or more desirable form of construction can be employed in a specific case, the owner of such building or structure, or his duly authorized agent, may appeal from the decision of the Building Committee to the Board of Appeals, whose decision shall supersede that of the Building Committee and shall be final.

SECTION TWO: Chapter II of the Mount Prospect Building Code, as amended, is hereby further amended by adding a new Section 10 thereto, the said new section to be and read as follows:

10. VARIATIONS.

(A) In any case in which the strict or literal application or enforcement of the provisions of this Building Code impose an unwarranted or unnecessary hardship, the Board of Appeals of the Village may, upon application by the owner or occupant of the premises affected, grant a variation from the terms of this Building Code.

(B) An application for a variation shall be made to the Superintendent of Building who shall transmit the application to the Board of Appeals.

(C) The Board of Appeals shall hold a public hearing on all applications for variations from the Building Code. At such public hearings the Board of Appeals shall give the applicant and any other interested person an opportunity to be heard with respect to the application.

(D) A notice of such public hearing shall be sent by mail, not more than 30 nor less than 15 days before the date set for such hearing, to each person who paid the general taxes for the last preceding year in which taxes were paid on each lot, tract or parcel of land, all or any part of which lies within 100 feet in each direction of the property on which is located the building or structure as to which an application for a variation has been made. The number of feet occupied by public roads, streets, alleys and other public ways shall be excluded in computing the 100 foot distance. Such notices shall be mailed by the Village Clerk, but the applicant for a variation shall provide the names of the persons to whom such notices are to be sent.

(E) The Board of Appeals shall not grant a variation from the terms of this Building Code unless it shall find that the strict application of the provisions of the Building Code will create an unwarranted hardship, that the proposed variation will be in harmony with the intent of the provisions of this Building Code, and that the public safety and welfare will be protected. In determining the extent to which the aforesaid requirements have been established, the Board of Appeals shall consider:

(1) Whether the strict application of the provisions of the Building Code will actually impose a hardship as distinguished from a mere inconvenience for the applicant.

(2) Whether the conditions upon which the application for a variation are based are unique and would not be generally applicable to other buildings of the same type or character within the Village.

(3) Whether the alleged hardship has been created by any person who presently has an interest in the building or structure.

(4) Whether the granting of the variation would be detrimental to the public welfare or injurious to other buildings or structures in the neighborhood in which the subject building or structure is located.

(5) Whether the proposed variation will increase the danger of fire, endanger the public safety, or substantially diminish or impair the value of other buildings or structures in the vicinity.

(F) The Board of Appeals may impose such conditions, safeguards, and restrictions upon any building or structure benefited by a variation as may be necessary to comply with the standards set out in subsection (E) of this Section 10.

(G) The provisions of this Section 10 of Chapter II shall not be construed to supersede or nullify Sections 110.1 and 110.2 of the provisions of the 1960 Edition of the Basic Building Code, recommended by the Building Officials Conference of America and adopted by reference by Section 2.1 (a) of Chapter I of this Building Code.

SECTION THREE: This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication in the manner provided by law.

Ordinance No. 326

AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE ACQUISITION OF A WATERWORKS SYSTEM AND A SEWERAGE SYSTEM, COMBINING SUCH SYSTEMS INTO A COMBINED WATERWORKS AND SEWERAGE SYSTEM OF THE VILLAGE OF SCHAUMBURG, ILLINOIS, AUTHORIZING THE CONSTRUCTION OF IMPROVEMENTS AND EXTENSIONS THERETO, AND PROVIDING FOR THE ISSUANCE OF $225,000 WATERWORKS AND SEWERAGE REVENUE BONDS OF THE VILLAGE TO PAY THE COST OF SUCH ACQUISITION, EXTENSION AND IMPROVEMENT, SUCH BONDS TO BE PAYABLE SOLELY OUT OF THE REVENUES OF SUCH SYSTEM.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF SCHAUMBURG, COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS, AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. (a) The Village of Schaumburg, Cook County, Illinois (the "Village"), determines and declares it to be necessary for the public health and welfare of the Village to acquire by purchase and to combine a waterworks system and a sewerage system into a combined waterworks and sewerage system in the Village, in accordance with Division 139 of Article 11 of the Illinois Municipal Code, approved May 29, 1961, as amended (the "Act"), by acquiring all of the waterworks and sewerage facilities now existing in the Timbercrest Subdivision in the Village and those to be constructed outside of the Subdivision from American National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago, as Trustee under Trust No. 18672, pursuant to its agreement with the Village, such facilities consisting of a water plant including mains, well, pump, controls and appurtenances and a sewage treatment plant with mains, controls and appurtenances. From and after the date of acquisition by the Village such waterworks system and such sewerage system shall be owned and operated by the Village as a combined utility, known as the combined waterworks and sewerage system of the Village (the "System").

(b) It is further determined and declared that it is necessary for the public health and welfare of the Village to improve the System by the construction by the Village of approximately 9,000 lineal feet of sewer main to be connected to such treatment plant, with lift station and necessary appurtenances, such sewer main being herein designated as the "Improvement."

Section 2. The estimated cost of acquiring by purchase and improving and extending the System, including engineering, legal and other expenses, together with interest on Bonds issued to pay the cost of constructing improvements and extensions to a date six months subsequent to the estimated date of completion of such improvements and extensions, as prepared November 8, 1965, by Charles W. Greengard Associates, Inc., the engineers employed by the Village for the making of such estimate and as hereby estimated, is the sum of $225,000. It is advantageous and to the public interest that the Village borrow the sum of $225,000 and issue Bonds therefor in evidence thereof. The period of usefulness of the System is determined to be in excess of forty years from the date of this Ordinance.

Section 3. For the purpose of paying the cost of the acquisition, improvement and extension of the System as aforesaid, waterworks and sewerage revenue bonds in the principal amount of $225,000 (the "Bonds") shall be issued and sold by the Village under the authority of the Act. The Bonds, together with interest thereon, shall be payable solely from the revenue derived from the operation of the System and shall not in any event constitute an indebtedness of the Village within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory limitation. The Bonds shall be designated "Waterworks and Sewerage Revenue Bonds, Series 1966," shall bear interest prior to the maturity of the Bonds evidenced by interest coupons attached at the rate of five per cent per annum, and such interest shall be payable July 1, 1966, and semi-annually thereafter on January 1 and July 1 of each year. The Bonds shall bear the date of January 1, 1966, and mature January 1, 1990. The Bonds shall be of the denomination of $1,000 each and shall be numbered 1 to 225, inclusive. Both principal and interest of the Bonds shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the office of the Village Treasurer in the Village of Schaumburg, Illinois. The Bonds may be redeemed prior to maturity at any time at the option of the President and Board of Trustees at the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest at the coupon rate to the date fixed for redemption. Notice of the call of any Bonds for redemption shall be given by mailing notice by registered mail to the holders of registered Bonds, by filing notice at the place of payment and by publication once in The Bond Buyer in the City of New York, New York, or, in the event it ceases publication, then in a financial newspaper published in the City of Chicago, Illinois, not less than thirty days preceding such redemption date. Bonds called for redemption in such manner shall not bear interest after the date fixed for redemption if the paying agent has funds on hand to redeem such Bonds.

There shall be set aside and paid into the Bond and Interest Account each fiscal year, beginning January 1, 1970, the sum set forth below as a sinking fund installment to pay the principal of the Bonds at maturity:

$5,000 in each of the fiscal years ending December 31, 1970 to December 31, 1974, inclusive;

$10,000 in each of the fiscal years ending December 31, 1975 to December 31, 1979, inclusive;

$15,000 in each of the fiscal years ending December 31, 1980 to December 31, 1989, inclusive.

Section 4. The Bonds shall be signed by the President and attested by the Village Clerk, and sealed with the corporate seal, and shall have interest coupons attached bearing facsimile signatures of such President and Village Clerk. Such officials by the execution of the Bonds, shall adopt their respective facsimiles on such coupons as and for their own proper signatures.

The Bonds may be registered only as to principal in the manner and with the effect as stated on the face of the Bond, as appears in the form of Bond hereinafter provided.

The Bonds shall have all the qualities of negotiable instruments.

Section 5. Such Bonds and coupons shall be in substantially the following form:

(Form of Bond)
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
STATE OF ILLINOIS COUNTY OF COOK
VILLAGE OF SCHAUMBURG
WATERWORKS AND SEWERAGE REVENUE BOND,
SERIES OF 1966

Number.................. $1,000

The Village of Schaumburg, Cook County, Illinois, for value received, hereby promises to pay to bearer, or, if this bond be registered as hereinafter provided, then to the registered holder hereof, solely from the revenue derived from the combined waterworks and sewerage system of the Village, as hereinafter set forth and not otherwise, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) on January 1, 1990, together with interest thereon from the date hereof until paid at the rate of five per cent (5%) per annum. Interest shall be payable on July 1, 1966, and semi-annually thereafter on the first day of January and of July in each year, upon presentation and surrender of the interest coupons hereto attached as they severally become due. Both principal of and interest on this bond are payable in lawful money of the United States of America, at the office of the Village Treasurer in the Village of Schaumburg, Illinois.

This bond is issued for the purpose of paying the cost of acquiring and improving and extending the combined waterworks and sewerage system of the Village, and is payable solely from the revenue derived from the operation of such system and shall not in any event constitute an indebtedness of the Village within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory limitation.

This bond is one of an authorized issue of bonds in the aggregate principal amount of $225,000 of like tenor and effect, except as to number, issued under the authority of Division 139 of Article 11 of the Illinois Municipal Code, approved May 29, 1961, as amended. Under such Code and the ordinance authorizing the issuance of these bonds, all revenue received from the operation of the combined waterworks and sewerage system of the Village shall be deposited in a separate fund, designated as the "Village of Schaumburg Waterworks and Sewerage Fund," to be used only to pay the cost of operation and maintenance of the system, to provide an adequate depreciation fund, to pay the principal of and interest on the waterworks and sewerage revenue bonds of the Village issued under the authority of such Code, and to maintain the special accounts created by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of these bonds.

The Village reserves the right to call for redemption prior to maturity at any time, at the option of the President and Board of Trustees, any or all of the bonds at the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest at the coupon rate to the date fixed for redemption. Notice of the call of any of the bonds for redemption shall be given by mailing notice by registered mail to the holders of registered bonds, by filing notice at the place of payment and by publication once in The Bond Buyer in the City of New York, New York, or, in the event it ceases publication, then in a financial newspaper published in the City of Chicago, Illinois, not less than thirty days preceding the date fixed for such redemption. Bonds called for redemption in such manner shall not bear interest after the date fixed for redemption if the paying agent has funds on hand to redeem such bonds.

It is hereby certified and recited that all conditions, acts and things required by the Constitution and the statutes of the State of Illinois to exist, be performed or happen precedent to or in the issuance of this bond exist, have been performed and have happened, and provision has been made for depositing in such Waterworks and Sewerage Fund revenues received from the operation of such combined waterworks and sewerage system, to be applied in the manner hereinabove set forth. It is hereby covenanted and agreed that the rates charged for water and sewerage service shall be sufficient at all times to pay the cost of operation and maintenance of such combined waterworks and sewerage system, to provide an adequate depreciation fund therefor, to pay the principal of and interest on all waterworks and sewerage revenue bonds issued by the Village under the aforesaid Division 139 and to maintain the special accounts created by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of these bonds.

This bond may be registered as to principal only in the name of the holder in the Bond Register of the Village in the office of the Treasurer of the Village, and such registration shall be noted hereon by the Treasurer on the back hereof. If so registered, this bond may be transferred by the registered owner in person or by attorney upon presentation of this bond to the Treasurer with a written instrument of transfer on a form approved by the Treasurer and executed by such registered owner. If this bond be so registered, the principal shall thereafter be payable only to the person in whose name it is registered, unless this bond shall be discharged from registry by being registered as payable to bearer. Such registration shall not affect the negotiability of the coupons, but such coupons shall continue to pass by delivery.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Village of Schaumburg, Cook County, Illinois, has caused this bond to be signed by its President, its corporate seal to be hereto affixed and attested by the Village Clerk, and the coupons hereto attached to be signed by facsimile signatures of such President and Village Clerk, which officials, by the execution of this bond, do adopt as and for their own proper signatures their respective facsimile signatures appearing on such coupons, all as of the first day of January, 1966.

Section 6. For the purposes of this Ordinance the following words, terms and phrases shall have the following meanings:

(a) The words "Gross Revenues" shall mean and include all income, revenues and receipts received directly or indirectly from the initial and continued use and operation of the System, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, interest received on and profits realized from the sale of investments made with revenues of the System.

(b) The phrase "Expense of Maintenance and Operation" shall mean all costs reasonably incurred in connection with the operation, use and maintenance of the System, including repairs (other than capital improvements) necessary to keep the System in efficient and economical operating condition, including the payment of premiums for insurance hereinafter required to be carried on the System and generally all expenses (exclusive of depreciation), including without limiting the generality of the foregoing salaries, wages, cost of materials, supplies and power, which under good accounting practice are properly chargeable to and are reasonable and necessary for the efficient maintenance and operation of the System.

(c) The term "Net Revenues" shall mean the excess of the Gross Revenues over the Expense of Maintenance and Operation of the System.

(d) The term "Parity Bonds" shall mean bonds hereafter issued on a parity with the $225,000 principal amount of Bonds herein authorized under the provisions of Section 8 of this Ordinance.

(e) The term "Connection Charge" shall mean any fee paid for connecting users to the System.

(f) The term "Village Board" shall mean the President and Board of Trustees, the governing body of the Village.

(g) The term "Principal Requirements" shall include serial bond maturities and sinking fund installments, but shall exclude term bond maturities.

Section 7. The Village covenants and agrees with the holders of the Bonds and coupons that so long as any of the Bonds remain outstanding and unpaid either as to principal or interest:

(a) The System shall be operated on a fiscal year basis, beginning on the first day of January and ending on the last day of December of each year. After the issuance and delivery of any Bonds issued under this Ordinance, the Gross Revenues from the operation of the System shall be set aside upon receipt thereof and deposited in a national or state bank in Illinois in a fund to be designated as the "Village of Schaumburg Waterworks and Sewerage Fund." Such fund shall be used only to pay the cost of operation and maintenance of the System, to provide an adequate depreciation fund, to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds issued by the Village under the provisions of Division 139 as aforesaid and to create the special accounts hereinafter provided.

The entire Gross Revenues of the System shall be credited on the first business day of each month, except as hereinafter provided, to the following accounts in the Waterworks and Sewerage Fund, in the order named:

(1) Operation and Maintenance Account. There shall be credited to this account an amount sufficient to pay the reasonable Expense of Maintenance and Operation of the System for the next succeeding month, and including one-twelfth of all such expenses as might properly be paid on an annual basis.

(2) Bond and Interest Account. Beginning not later than January 1, 1967, there shall be credited to this account an amount not less than one-fifth of the interest becoming due on all Bonds and Parity Bonds on the next succeeding interest payment date, until the amount so due is on hand, and there shall also be credited a sum equal to one-tenth of the Principal Requirements payable in each fiscal year for the payment of the principal of the Bonds and Parity Bonds, until such Principal Requirements shall have been accumulated in said account. Principal Requirements in each fiscal year, as used in the preceding sentence, shall be comprised of the sinking fund installment for such year and the principal of any serial bonds due on the next succeeding January 1.

From and after the issuance of any of the Bonds hereby authorized, and upon receipt of the purchase price therefor, there shall be credited to this account all accrued interest derived from the sale of the Bonds plus an amount sufficient to pay all interest due July 1, 1966, and January 1, 1967, on the Bonds.

All moneys in such account shall be used only for the purpose of paying interest on and principal of the Bonds and Parity Bonds.

(3) Bond Reserve Account. Beginning not later than July 1, 1966, there shall be credited to this account the sum of $100 each month; and beginning January 1, 1970, the sum of $300 each month or such higher amount in each fiscal year thereafter as the Village Board may determine.

The moneys in such account shall be used only to pay Principal Requirements of and interest on the Bonds and Parity Bonds when there are insufficient funds available at any time to pay such Principal Requirements or interest from any other source; provided, however, whenever the balance in such account equals the maximum Principal Requirements and interest requirements on the Bonds and Parity Bonds for any fiscal year, any surplus over and above such maximum amount shall be used for the retirement of Bonds and Parity Bonds.

(4) Depreciation, Improvement and Extension Account. Beginning not later than July 1, 1966, there shall be credited to this account the sum of $150 each month; and beginning January 1, 1968, the sum of $400 each month or such higher amount in each fiscal year thereafter as the Village Board may determine. The moneys in such account shall be used first to provide an adequate allowance for depreciation, as the Village Board may determine, or, if not so needed, may be used from time to time to pay for any repairs and maintenance or improvements and extensions of the System. Such moneys shall be used at any time to pay Principal Requirements of and interest upon the Bonds and Parity Bonds when other funds are not available.

(5) Surplus Revenue Account. There shall be credited to this account any revenues remaining after providing for all of the credits listed above.

At the end of each fiscal year funds in this account shall be used to make up deficiencies in prior accounts numbered (1) through (4). Thereafter, any balance of funds remaining in the account shall be credited to the Bond Reserve Account until an amount equal to the maximum annual Principal Requirements and interest requirements on all outstanding Bonds and Parity Bonds is accumulated therein. From any remaining balance in this account an amount equal to the sums received as Connection Charges during such fiscal year shall be credited to the Depreciation, Improvement and Extension Account or to the Bond Reserve Account. Thereafter, any balance may be transferred to the Depreciation, Improvement and Extension Account or used for any lawful corporate purpose, as determined by the Village Board.

(b) Cash in the Waterworks and Sewerage Fund shall be deposited in banks or trust companies in Illinois designated by the Village Board and secured by direct or fully guaranteed obligations of the United States of America to the extent that the deposit exceeds the limits of the deposit guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Such bank accounts shall be separate from all other Village bank accounts, provided that all moneys in the Waterworks and Sewerage Fund may be deposited in a single bank account, except moneys in the Bond and Interest Account and in the Bond Reserve Account, which shall be deposited in one or more separate bank accounts.

Moneys in any of the accounts, not required for expenditure within ninety days of the date of investment, may be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America maturing not less than fifteen days prior to the date on which moneys in such account will be needed, but in no event more than five years from the date of investment. Income from such investments shall be credited to the Waterworks and Sewerage Revenue Fund.

Section 8. While any of the Bonds issued hereunder are outstanding, the Village will not issue any other bonds or obligations of any kind or nature having a lien on the revenues of the System, except as provided in this section.

(a) The Village may issue additional bonds if additional funds are necessary to pay the cost of acquiring, improving and extending the System, as provided in Section 1 of this Ordinance; the need for additional funds to be evidenced by a certificate of a consulting engineer, setting forth:

(1) The amount of the purchase price of the System;

(2) The amount of funds necessary to complete the construction of the improvements and extensions of the System described in Section 1 of this Ordinance; and

(3) The amount of funds available for the foregoing purposes,

which certificate shall be approved by the Village Board and shall be made of record in the proceedings of the Village before such additional bonds are authorized and issued; or

(b) Such additional bonds may be issued to provide additional funds to construct improvements, replacements and extensions of the System or for the acquisition of an additional waterworks or sewerage system or any combination thereof, or for the purpose of refunding any of the Bonds or bonds hereafter authorized under this section, or for any combination of such purposes, but only if the Village shall have complied with the following requirements:

(1) The amounts required to have been credited to the respective accounts (1) through (4) of Section 7(a) of this Ordinance, up to the date of authorization of such additional bonds, shall have been credited to such respective accounts.

(2) The Net Revenues of the System for the fiscal year then next preceding, or the average adjusted Net Revenues of the System for the two then next preceding fiscal years if adjustment has been made as herein provided, have been equal to not less than 135% of the maximum annual combined Principal Requirements and interest requirements for any succeeding fiscal year during the life of such then outstanding bonds on:

(i) all bonds then outstanding payable from the revenues to be derived from the operation of the System; and

(ii) the additional revenue bonds then proposed to be issued.

Net Revenues for the purpose of this subparagraph (b)(2) shall be evidenced by an audit of the independent certified public accountant who made the last audit of the System, or if such accountant is not available then by another such accountant who shall follow accounting principles consistent with such last audit. Principal Requirements and interest requirements for any fiscal year shall be those required to be credited to the Bond and Interest Account in such year pursuant to Section 7(a)(2) hereof.

In the event there shall have been a change in the rates of the System from the rates in effect during either of the two immediately preceding fiscal years, which change is in effect at the time of the issuance of any such additional bonds, then the Net Revenues as provided in this subparagraph (b)(2) shall be adjusted to reflect the Net Revenues of the System for each of the two immediately preceding fiscal years as they would have been had such then existing rates been in effect during all of each of such years. Any such adjusted Net Revenues shall be evidenced by the certificate of an independent consulting engineer employed for that purpose, which certificate shall be approved by the Village Board prior to issuance of the additional bonds and filed with the Village Clerk.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the Village may issue bonds to refund any of the Bonds or Parity Bonds authorized hereunder, provided they are issued to refund Bonds or Parity Bonds due or redeemable within three months of the date of refunding and for the payment of which no other funds are or will be available at the maturity or redemption date thereof.

(d) Any additional bonds issued as Parity Bonds shall be on an equal basis in all respects with the Bonds, shall share ratably and equally in the revenues of the System and shall mature as to principal on January 1 and as to interest on January 1 and July 1.

Section 9. The Village hereby covenants and agrees with the holder or holders of the Bonds herein proposed to be issued, or any of them, that it will punctually perform all duties with reference to the System required by the Constitution and laws of the State of Illinois, including the making and collecting of sufficient rates for water and sewerage service, and segregating the revenues of the System and the application of the respective accounts established by this Ordinance; that it will not sell, lease, loan, mortgage or in any manner dispose of the System, including any and all extensions and improvements that may be made thereto, until all of the Bonds shall have been paid in full, both principal and interest, or until provision shall have been made for the payment of all the Bonds and interest thereon in full, provided, that the foregoing shall not prevent the Village from disposing of any property which in the judgment of the Village Board is no longer useful or profitable in the operation of the System, nor essential to the continued operation of the System (the receipts from the disposition of any such property to be credited to the Depreciation, Improvement and Extension Account hereinabove established in Section 7); that it will maintain in good condition and continuously operate the System and maintain insurance on said properties of the same kind or kinds which would normally be maintained by a private company engaged in a similar type of business or as recommended by a consulting engineer employed for such purpose (the payment of premiums on any such insurance to be deemed an operation expense and paid from the revenues of the System); that it will require that proper connections to the System be made wherever water or sewerage service is available; and that all waterworks and sewerage properties hereafter constructed or acquired by the Village shall be included in and operated as a part of the System.

Section 10. Provisions of this Ordinance shall constitute a contract between the Village and the holders of the Bonds, and after the issuance of the Bonds no changes, additions or alterations of any kind shall be made hereto in any manner except in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, or until such time as all of the Bonds and the interest thereon shall be paid in full, or unless and until provision shall have been made for the payment of all the Bonds in full. This Ordinance may be modified or amended by supplemental ordinances with the written consent of the holders of at least two-thirds in principal amount of the Bonds and Parity Bonds which are outstanding at the time such consent is given, except that if any such modification or amendment will by its terms not take effect so long as any of the Bonds remain outstanding the consent of the holders of such Bonds shall not be required. No such modification shall permit a change in the terms of redemption or maturity or the principal of the Bonds or of any installment of interest thereon or a reduction in the principal amount or the redemption price thereof or any rate of interest thereon or make any modification or amendment of this section, without the consent of the holders of all the Bonds.

Section 11. Bonds shall be delivered in payment of the cost of acquiring the facilities herein described and immediately upon the receipt of the proceeds derived from the sale of the remainder of the Bonds all accrued interest received from the purchaser and a sum equal to an amount of interest for one year shall be by the Treasurer transferred and credited to the Bond and Interest Account. The balance of the proceeds shall be placed by the Treasurer in the "1966 Construction Fund Account" of the Village, which is hereby created. Such funds shall be kept separate and apart from all other funds of the Village and deposited in a bank or banks, from time to time designated as the Depositary or Depositaries for the funds of said Construction Fund Account. Such funds shall be held and used solely to construct the Improvement and shall be held for the benefit of the Village for the purposes herein provided and for the benefit of the holder or holders of the Bonds hereby authorized as their interests may appear. Such funds shall be withdrawn from said Depositary or Depositaries from time to time by the Treasurer of the Village only upon submission to him of:

(a) A duplicate copy of the order signed by the President and the Clerk, or such other officers as may from time to time by law be authorized to sign and countersign orders on the Treasurer of the Village, stating specifically the purpose for which the order is issued and indicating that the payment for which the order is issued has been approved by the Village Board; and

(b) Each order on the Treasurer for payment to a contractor or contractors for work done in connection with the construction of the Improvement shall also be accompanied by a certificate executed by the engineer in charge of the construction of the Improvement stating the nature of the work completed and that the amount thereof is due and payable.

Within sixty days after completion of the work in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor, and after all costs have been paid in connection with the construction thereof, the engineer shall certify to the Village Board the fact that the Improvement has been completed according to plans and specifications. Upon approval of the completion of the work based upon the engineer's certificate by the Village Board, and after all costs have been paid, the President, the Village Clerk and engineer shall execute a certificate and file it with the Depositary certifying that the work has been completed in accordance with plans and specifications and that all costs have been paid. If at any time thereafter any funds remain in the Construction Fund Account, such funds shall be credited to the Bond and Interest Account if needed to meet Principal Requirements and interest requirements for the current fiscal year and if not so needed such funds shall be credited to the Depreciation, Improvement and Extension Account.

The cost of engineering, legal and financial services, the cost of surveys, designs, soundings, borings, rights of way and all other necessary and incidental expenses shall be deemed items of cost of construction of the Improvement.

If the Village Board shall determine at any time that the amount of proceeds in the Construction Fund Account is in excess of the amount necessary to meet authorized expenditures therefrom during the next ensuing thirty days, it may by resolution direct the investment of such excess in interest bearing bonds or other general obligations of the United States Government having a maturity not later than the dates the funds will be needed, and all such investments as well as income therefrom shall be carried to the credit of the Construction Fund Account. As and when such funds are thus needed, a sufficient amount of such investments shall be sold and converted into cash to the credit of the Construction Fund Account.

The proceeds of the sale of the Bonds (including all obligations held or investments thereof and the proceeds of such investments) shall be applied as provided in this section, and pending such application shall be held for the further security of the holders of the Bonds until paid out or transferred as herein provided.

Section 12. The System accounts shall be audited at least once in each year by a recognized certified public accountant, and such audit shall be open for inspection at all proper times to any taxpayer, user of the System, or holder of Bonds issued under the provisions of this Ordinance. Reports of the operation of the System shall be furnished the Village Board quarter-annually, and copies of the reports, as well as the annual audits, shall be promptly mailed to the principal underwriter of the Bonds and summaries thereof shall be furnished to any holder of Bonds upon request.

Section 13. If any section, paragraph, clause or provision of this Ordinance shall be held invalid, the invalidity of such section, paragraph, clause or provision shall not affect any of the other provisions of this Ordinance.

Section 14. This Ordinance, after its passage and approval, shall be published once in the Hoffman Herald, a newspaper of general circulation in the Village, and if no petition is filed with the Village Clerk within twenty-one days after such publication, then after the expiration of such twenty-one days this Ordinance shall be in effect. But if, within such period of twenty-one days, a petition is filed with the Village Clerk signed by electors numbering 15% of the number of electors voting for President of the Village at the last preceding general municipal election asking that the question of acquiring, improving and extending the System and the issuance of revenue bonds therefor, as provided in this Ordinance, be submitted to the electors of the Village, the Village Board shall call a special election in the manner provided by law to vote upon such question. If a majority of the voters voting upon such question at such election vote in favor of acquiring, improving and extending the System and the issuance of revenue bonds therefor, as provided in this Ordinance, then this Ordinance shall be in full force and effect, but if a majority of the votes cast are against acquiring, improving and extending the System and the issuance of revenue bonds therefor, as provided in this Ordinance, then the Village shall proceed no further under this Ordinance.

Robert McIntyre, son of the Harry McIntyres, Pine Street, celebrated his fourth birthday Saturday afternoon with Kitty and Kevin Hamza, John Gegenhuber, Connie Hansen, Ricky Hemauer, Tommy Koch and Lauri Jensen. Grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Gus Haarman, Chicago, came on Saturday to help with the party and to spend the weekend.

Robert Werneske, son of the Anthony Werneskes, Pine Street, celebrated his 15th birthday Nov. 11 with a day off from school and a family party.

Saturday evening Fred and Marie Weidner, Elm Street, and Ferd's brother and sister-in-law, Vince and Elsie Weidner, Arlington Heights, had a smorgasbord supper and attended the harness races at Maywood Park.

The Carl "Whitey" Eglunds, Elm Street, were guests of Martin and Ferne Eskeli of Chicago on Saturday evening.

Joanie Borst, Elm Street, spent the weekend at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Stanley, Chicago, as part of her birthday celebration. Joanie will be 6 Nov. 19.

THE ED Uptons' son, Robert, Elm Street, celebrated his 14th birthday Nov. 13 with a family party. Guests for the evening were aunts and uncles, the Bill Hughes of Palatine and the Ken Spilletts of Hoffman Estates.

Jack Bouchonville, Ash Street, drove to Milwaukee on Sunday to attend the Green Bay Packer-Los Angeles Rams football game at the County Stadium.

Last Wednesday Mrs. Helen Stephen, Ash Street, and Mrs. Hulda Hesketh of Evanston drove to Round Lake Park for luncheon at the home of Helen's niece, Mrs. Diane Phillips.

Thursday evening the Bill Stobie family dined at George Diamond's Steak House in Antioch. Saturday evening they visited Eleanore's sister and family, the Al Altmans in Chicago.

On Sunday, Jack and Chickie Paupa, Walnut Street, attended the wedding of Miss Barbara Zweifel of Chicago and Lee Thornton of Lincolnwood in Lincolnwood and the reception following in Chicago.

BEST WISHES for a speedy recovery go to Nancy Tenglin, daughter of the Herb Tenglins, Walnut Street, who underwent an emergency appendectomy Saturday night in Swedish Covenant Hospital, Chicago.

Also to Janice Weber, daughter of the Art Webers, Walnut Street, who had a tonsillectomy Thursday in Northwest Community Hospital. She is convalescing at home.

Nancy Killeen, daughter of the Michael Killeens, Elm Street, celebrated her 17th birthday Nov. 13 with a dinner party for her family and friends.

Last Tuesday Loraine Bushell, Glencoe Road, had lunch with Juanita Radcliff of Arlington Heights at Uncle Andy's Cow Palace. On Wednesday Loraine spent the day in Chicago. Jerry joined her and they were supper guests of Loraine's aunt, Miss Frances Johnson.

Thursday evening Loraine and Jerry Bushell had dinner at Old Orchard Country Club.

SUNDAY THE infant daughter of the Allen Schmidts, Glencoe Road, was baptized Laura Joan at Immanuel Lutheran Church by Pastor Stieter. Godparents were George and Edith Richard of Kewaunee, Wis. A buffet dinner was served later at the Schmidt home to Joan's parents, the George Fagers, Niles, Allen's parents, the Henry Schmidts, Des Plaines, Joan's grandparents, the senior George Richards of Evanston, and her sister and family, the Ottmar Kuehels of Kewaunee. Joan's nephew, Ottmar Kuehel Jr., also celebrated his 14th birthday.

On Sunday, the Pryor family visited S. Sgt. Dick Troutman and family at Glenview Naval Air Base.

Visiting at the Stewart Tesnow home, Chicago Avenue, on Saturday evening were Stewart's parents, the Edwin Tesnows from Northbrook. On Sunday, Stewart, Pat and the Edwin Tesnows drove to Milwaukee and had dinner at the Karl Ratzsch Restaurant.

Birthday wishes this week go to Michael Virginelli, Nov. 14; Ginny Miller and Leslie Burbey, Nov. 17, Billy Tesnow and Steven Hemauer Nov. 18. (P

News of Palanois Park

Best wishes for a quick recovery go to Mrs. Carl R. Nordstrom, 534 E. Chicago Ave., who was released from Northwest Community Hospital on Saturday. She is reportedly doing fine after undergoing major surgery.

These wishes are also due Mrs. Ernest Dettinger, 10 N. Ashland, who returned home Monday after another five-day stay in Ravenswood Hospital, Chicago, for surgery.

Because of Mrs. Dettinger's recent hospitalization, she and Ernie are postponing for a few days their plans for dinner out, in celebration of their 21st wedding anniversary, Nov. 16.

Luck was with the Dettingers during the wee hours Tuesday morning. Apparently cigarette ashes were still hot enough when they dropped, unnoticed, on the bed. Smoldering for some time, they finally created a good deal of smoke, arousing Mrs. Dettinger in time for them to get the situation under control without having to make a fire call. Although the bedding and her gown were scorched, fortunately there were no body burns.

WHEN THE ED Rogans traveled to Madison for the University of Wisconsin football game on Saturday, they also spent some time on campus with Bonnie. Also there for the game was their son, Edward. Even though he is doing graduate work at the University of Illinois, he has a season ticket for the Wisconsin games.

Although getting settled after moving is enough to keep one busy for days, Mrs. Kenneth Schwarz took on additional duties.

About a month ago Julie, Ken and their 4-month-old Steven moved to 41 N. Greenwood from an apartment in Elk Grove Village.

Since then Julie and Steven have spent two weeks in Dallas, returning here Nov. 3. Mrs. Schwarz took over the care of her brother, Bill Faber and his eight children, ranging in age from 6 months to 12 years, while Mrs. Faber was hospitalized and staying until she was able to be up and around.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Felkel and their youngsters, Denise, 8½, and David, 5, are no longer newcomers to Palanois Park, having moved to 208 S. Greenwood from Cincinnati more than a year ago, but this is their first introduction through the column.

ARRIVING HERE from Charleston, S. C., a couple of weeks ago was Mr. Felkel's mother, Mrs. J. E. Felkel. She will stay until after Thanksgiving, when she will go to Miami, Fla.

Saturday evening the Ken Phillips family, 20 N. Linden, went to the Amphitheatre to see the Royal Marines. According to Mrs. Phillips, it was fabulous.

In celebration of the Francis P. Mulroys' youngest, Maureen, becoming a teenager Nov. 12, the whole family went to Mill-Run Playhouse at Golf-Mill to see "Carousel." Even her sisters, Peggy and Eileen, were here from Milwaukee for the occasion.

Ill with the flu since the weekend is Maureen's brother, Pat. Having missed only two days of school in the last six years, he hopes to be back in school before the column goes to press.

Also ill and at home with the flu was Mrs. Roy MacIntosh, 120 S. Linden. And last week the Winston Park column had to take a back seat, while Mrs. Frank Fron took her turn with the flu.

A DINNER party in the W. Carroll Shelton home, 25 S. Elmwood, Wednesday evening celebrated the 21st birthday of their son, Jim. Present, in addition to the family, was Miss Marcia Munk of Arlington Heights. Grandma, Mrs. Laura Shelton was unable to come over from Magnus Farm on Central Road. She fell the other day and is now nursing a few bruises.

Jim is commuting to Elmhurst daily to attend classes at Elmhurst College.

Many happy returns of the day are due to at least six this week: Elizabeth Scheffer, 6 Nov. 10; Bruce Callahan, 9, and John Phillips, 18, Nov. 11; Jim Madden, 16 Nov. 12; Bonnie Ramberg, Nov. 14; Jack Donahoe, 20 Nov. 15. And belated greetings go to two who had birthdays in October. They are Julia Clifton who was 7 and Douglas Hayes, 5. (P

Camp Fire Girls Set for Candy Sale

Candy, candy, candy. . .in pretty blue and red boxes!

The Far Northwest District of Camp Fire Girls, one thousand strong, are busy at their annual candy sale sweetening the homes in Arlington Heights, Buffalo Grove, Rolling Meadows, and Schaumburg. The candy sale lasts from Nov. 20 through Dec. 13 and all the girls are working hard to meet the deficit in their budget by selling as much as they can.

Approximately 25 new Camp Fire groups were formed in this Far Northwest District this year, most of which were new second grade Bluebird groups.

THIS ACHIEVEMENT is credited to district chairman, Mrs. Robert Rodig and leadership chairman, Mrs. Myron R. Austin, both of Arlington Heights and district representative Mrs. J. Russow, of Rolling Meadows. The Far Northwest District is a part of the Chicago Area Council of Camp Fire Girls Inc.

Besides fun and friendship and service, the Camp Fire program is teaching girls to become happy, well-adjusted useful citizens. These girls are tomorrow's wives, mothers, business women and community leaders and well deserve community support.

Candy sale chairman this year is Mrs. Dennis Bergren, 1204 N. Belmont, Arlington Heights. Her assistants are Mrs. M. B. Schoeneck and Mrs. Melbert Anderson and the 52 Camp Fire leaders in the area.

Air Force Openings Told for Enlistees

Recent announcements by the U. S. Air Force report an increased listing of openings for prior servicemen of all branches and the opening of a two year tour of duty for qualified nurses.

In a new program aimed directly at technicians and specialists, the Air Force will enlist veterans of all armed forces.

Air Force enlistment in rank held at time of discharge is being offered to many former members of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard and Air Force under the recruiting program.

To be eligible, a veteran must possess one of 289 Air Force specialty code (AFSC) skills. Skills can be converted from other service specialty numbers.

Qualified veterans can be assured of rank, pay, job and assignment before enlisting in the Air Force and arrangements for filling a vacancy at a sopecific base can be made on the spot by the recruiter.

THE TWO YEAR tour of duty for nurses contrasts with the usual four year airman and officer elistments.

USAF nurse entrance requirements include qualification as a registered nurse which enables them to go directly to duty assignment after a short Air Force orientation.

A nurse in the Air Force has all of the advantages of a civilian hospital with the additional features of prestige, pay, responsibilities and life as a commissioned Air Force officer.

The nurse has every opportunity to train into many specializations both as part of regular duty and in self study.

Training is available as staff nurse, operating room nurse, neuropsychiatric nurse, nurse anesthetist and even as administrative nurse.

For current listing of Air Force jobs open to veterans and information on a nursing commission contact SSgt James L. Edick at 8 W. Miner St., Arlington Heights or phone 392-1424. (B-10

Two Local Doctors On Hospital Staff

Two Mount Prospect doctors have been elected as officers of the Holy Family Hospital medical staff for 1966.

They are Dr. John A. McMahon, vice president, and Dr. John J. Lynch, secretary-treasurer.

Elected as president of the staff was Dr. Eugene H. Narsete ofPark Ridge. Dr. Narsete is former chief of surgery at the hospital.

DR. McMAHON, former chairman of the hospital general practice section, is a native Chicagoan. He was graduated from Loyola University Medical School and interned at St. Francis Hospital, Evanston. Following two years' duty with the armed services, he returned to the Evanston hospital for an additional year's training in surgery.

Dr. McMahon opened his office in Des Plaines as a general practitioner in 1950.

He and his wife have eight children. They live in Mount Prospect.

A member of the internal medicine section, Dr. Lynch maintains his office in Mount Prospect. With his election as secretary-treasurer, he becomes a member of the executive staff of the hospital for the first time.

Dr. and Mrs. Lynch live in Mount Prospect. (B10

Spilled Nails

One night a truck driven by Donald Akers of Winston, Oregon, accidentally spilled nails all over Interstate Route 5. Before morning 60 cars reported flat tires including a tractor-trailer rig that had 18 flats.

Mothers Distribute Diabetes Test Kits

Some 1,289 free diabetes test kits were distributed at Randhurst Monday by the Mothers of Diabetic Children.

Through the cooperation of Sun Drugs at Randhurst a special booth has been set up on the mall during Diabetes Detection Week, Nov. 15 to 20. The booth, manned by mothers who are members of the Service Unit of the Diabetes Association of Greater Chicago will be open every day this week from 10:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.

THE DETECTION program is important because of the yearly increase in the number of unknown diabetics. One person in every 50 is a diabetic, and it is estimated that there are about 1,600,000 Americans who have diabetes but do not know it.

Goal of the detection program is to find as many as possible of the undetected diabetics and to educate the public on the signs and importance of early detection and control of the condition. (B-10

THOMAS DRABANT of 339 W. Old Plum Grove Road, Palatine, was one of 19 Knox College (Galesburg) students who recently sent a statement to President Johnson expressing gratitude to U. S. servicemen, particularly to those in Viet Nam. The move was designed to counteract anti-war demonstrations and in protest at the burning of draft cards.

At Illinois Wesleyan

Nancy Louise Staadt of 314 S. Evergreen, and Paula Bloomquist, 2102 Verde Drive, both of Arlington Heights, are engaged in an educational experiment involving the use of programmed learning instruction booklets in two classes of "Introduction to Christian Thought" at Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington. The program is designed to free the teacher from routine-type teaching tasks.

Arlington Heights resident Julie Kehe, 628 N. Highland, is a recent pledge of Sigma Kappa Sorority at the university.

At Marshall U.

Cadet Robert B. Applehans Jr., 177 Brentwood Drive, Palatine, has been appointed operations officer for the Marshall University ROTC Battalion for the academic year, a position carrying the rank of Cadet Major. He is also a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity, Alpha Kappa Psi, Association of the United States Army, National Rifle Association and the Fox Valley Arms Association. (10CC

On Advisory Council

Winifred Severin has been appointed to the Women's Advisory Council of the Kennedy Student Government Association at Highlands University in Las Vegas where she is a senior. Winifred is the daughter of Palatine residents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Severin of 2205 Forest. (10CC

Sorority Initiate

At National College

Scholarship and leadership were honored at National College of Education, Evanston-Wilmette, with the recent initiation of nine students to membership in Kappa Delta Pi, national honorary education society. Included are Jane Moore (Mrs. William L.), 84 W. Wayne Place, Wheeling, and Janis Schroeder, 953 Bissell Drive, Palatine. (10CC

Inside Randhurst

Unknown Wonders in Randhurst Catacombs

By BEVERLY AIRTH

Behind, or rather below, the scenes at Randhurst is an underground truck tunnel. The tunnel is circular in design, one-half mile long, and wide enough to accommodate three huge trucks side by side. Each store has its own loading dock and some stores have underground storage rooms. All deliveries and shipments are handled 'round the clock in this service tunnel.

This truck tunnel could be thought of as an added service for our customers, in that our customers do not have to fight truck traffic in the parking lot, sidewalk deliveries, boxes and packages in front of store entrances, and the exhaust and noise from trucks. I know this added service can go unnoticed by the everyday shoppers; that's why I write a weekly column so that I can let you know about the wonders of "Inside Randhurst."

ALSO DOWN in the catacombs of Randhurst is a large room that holds all the secrets of "what is about to happen." The room is barred by two large steel doors, secured by heavy pad-locks, framed with one-way glass, and equipped with a secret combination lock that can only be opened by Dick McCarthy, the Promotion Director of Randhurst. On one of the chamber doors is a sign that reads "Promotion Plan Room" and on the other is a very direct message that reads "Keep Out."

Well, the nerve of some people keeping secrets from us like that! But I would imagine they have to do that or else everyone, including me, would be taking peaks to see what is going on behind those doors. Besides, if they didn't keep that door locked, those over anxious reindeer might get loose on the mall or Santa Claus might get the notion to go up on the mall to get a few pre - Christmas orders from boys and girls.

But don't worry, no one can keep this gal from knowing the "Behind-the Scene secrets." Recently I was able to hide behind some boxes next to these doors and when a little man opened the door to feed the reindeer and bring Mr. and Mrs. Claus their lunch, I sneaked in with the goodies and had myself a wonderful afternoon browsing about the Promotion Plan Room.

SANTA CLAUS, himself, was more than happy to show me through his beautiful chalet. This is one old-fashioned Santa house you will not want your children or grandchildren to miss. It reminds me of a little Swiss chalet that was brought out of the mountains for this very special occasion. The stained glass windows are gayly trimmed with little shutters, the roof tops are all covered with sparkling snow flakes, the reindeer barn is somewhat overcrowded with awaiting reindeer, Santa's sleigh is packed with decoratively wrapped Christmas presents for all the boys and girls, and all the little elves are overlooking a wonderful work of art.

I just can't stand to see an organized Santa Claus, as he tells me he will be able to interview all the children by Friarrival you will not want to miss. Just nine more days and the 1965 Christmas Parade will be "ready to roll."

The Randhurst Merchants cordially invites all the boys and girls, and fathers and mothers too, to come out to see the real Santa Claus drawn by his own reindeer Nov. 26, at 9 a.m.

The parade will start from the Randhurst Truck Tunnel and proceed around the outer roadways of the parking lot and then arrive at his old fashioned throne at approximately 10 a.m.

SEVEN Protestant churches of Mount Prospect area are sponsoring and coordinating a Union Thanksgiving Eve Worship Service in Randhurst's Town Hall on Wednesday, Nov. 24, at 8 p.m.

Randhurst is being increasingly recognized as a community meeting center for the northwest area. With the Town Hall as a focal point, the worship service becomes a community activity for the seven cooperating churches and the general public at Randhurst. This will be the first religious activity held in Randhurst's Town Hall.

The seven churches coordinating this worship service welcome everyone to join in on this Union Thanksgiving Worship Service. Sharing in the Thanksgiving Eve Service are the following local churches: Church of the Master, United Church of Christ, Community Presbyterian Church, Prospect Heights Community Church, South Church-Community Baptist, and Trinity Methodist Church.

On Saturday, Nov. 20, the Northern Chapter of the Illinois Gladiolus Society is sponsoring "Gladiola Workshop." The workshop is open to the general public and is free to everyone. This program will take place in Randhurst's Town Hall from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The Society is sponsoring the following programs throughout the day:

10:00-1:00 p.m. Gladiolus bulb showing and competition

10:30 a.m.—How to recognize the fertilizer needs of plants.

11:30 a.m.—Growing miniagladiolus.

1:15 p.m.—Growing and showing glads for the beginners (Slides)

2:00 p.m.—Fine points on refrigeration — Preparation and transportation of Show Specimens.

3:00 p.m.—Gladiolus diseases and their symptoms and how to control them. (Rh

Chairmen Report On Doughnut Day

Sums raised by Salvation Army "Doughnut Day" taggers in local communities on the centennial year tag day held last June 11 were reported by community chairmen as follows:

Wood Dale — $272.16, Mrs. Ernest Olsen, 150 E. Potter, Wood Dale, chairman;

Ontarioville — $428.98, Carlyle Wulff, 2016 Lake St., Hanover Park, chairman;

Long Grove — $20.84, Mrs. Orville Keiler, Route 2, Box 154, Long Grove chairman;

Medinah — $117.32, Mrs. Robert Kretchmer, 22W345 Crest, Medinah, chairman;

Roselle — $236.53, Mrs. Robert S. Keen, Williams St., Box 69, Roselle, chairman.

THE DRIVE WAS held throughout Chicago and 138 suburbs in Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry, Will and Lake (Indiana) counties.

Contributions from the public on "Doughnut Day" help support The Salvation Army's program of emergency assistance and social-welfare services for the troubled men, women and children of the greater Chicago area.

In all communities where Salvation Army service units are organized, 20 per cent of the funds raised in the local "Doughnut Day" drives will remain with the community reidents serving as local treasurers for The Salvation Army. These funds will be available for emergencies or disasters in the communities, and to finance unduplicated programs of health care or other service. The other 80 per cent of the tag day contributions will help support the area-wide social services maintained by the Army. (A-15

Rumsfeld Spotlight Shines on 3 Issues

Cong. Donald Rumsfeld (R-13th) has cited rising prices, lack of information on government, and disregard for the law as three important issues to which Congress must give serious attention when the Second Session of the 89th Congress opens in January.

In his annual Legislative Report, to be mailed to 13th District residents this week, Rumsfeld says:

"The cost of living continues to rise. Inflation hits hardest those who can do least about it—elderly citizens living on fixed incomes. Government spending ($119.3 billion authorized for fiscal year 1966 alone) is an important factor in the wage-price spiral. At some point, Government must establish priorities in Federal spending."

IN THE AREA of the public's right-to-know, Rumsfeld comments:

"All interested citizens are increasingly aware of the fact that the public is not being kept fully informed on the conduct of government. Up to this point, the White House has vigorously opposed right-to-know legislation, and, and a result, it remains bottled up in committee. Hopefully, next year will see sufficient public interest in a Freedom of Information bill that we will achieve favorable consideration."

In looking ahead to 1966, Rumsfeld says it is likely that the Administration will concentrate on repeal of Section 14(b) of the Taft-Hartley Act, increasing to $1.75 the minimum wage, and funding the already authorized rent subsidy program.

"Regrettably, there is justification to charges that the 89th Congress did not function as a deliberative body this year," Rumsfeld notes.

"UNDER OUR system of separation of powers, it is not healthy when the Executive Branch totally dominates the Congress. We, as a nation, face complex problems and can settle for no less than the very best solutions to these problems. The best solutions come from debate and discussion, not from dictation by all-powerful Executive."

The Illinois Congressman concludes:

"As 1965 draws to a close and one reflects on the progress made, it is difficult not to feel that we have fallen short of our goals.

"The power of the American system is great. Our system depends on both private and public effort, and the success of both depends directly on the interest and participation of each person privileged to live in this free society.

"I believe we can do better." (B-10

Roosevelt Grads Plan Reunion

Preparations are being made for a 30-year reunion of the 1936 June graduates of Roosevelt High School in Chicago.

It is known that several of the graduates live in the Arlington Heights, Palatine, and Mount Prospect area.

The 1936 class had 460 students. Many held a reunion last year.

GRADUATES interested in the 30-year reunion should contact Mrs. Delores Pittman, 1727 S. Vine, Park Ridge, at TA 5-5885.

Tentative date of the affair is June 25, 1966. More definite plans will be made when it is learned how many will attend. (A-15

EVERYTHING KNOWN IN MUSIC

LYON HEALY

"NOVEMBER IS STEINWAY MONTH AT LYON-HEALY"

Your child will play better on a STEINWAY—the choice of great pianists!

—and it's easier to afford than you may think!

Yes, it's a fact: your child (and any artist) will play better on any Steinway (grand or vertical) than on any other piano. There are two basic reasons:

WHAT'S IN THE STEINWAY

First, Steinway pianos possess physical and mechanical superiorities that permit superior playing. Patented Accelerated Action, for instance, means that a Steinway responds to thé touch of a key faster than any other piano. Steinway's tapered soundboard of sitka spruce results in a more resonant tone quality than other pianos can produce.

These and other Steinway qualities have been acknowledged by virtually all outstanding concert pianists for generations, from Rachmaninoff to Rubinstein, Horowitz, Serkin and Van Cliburn. While these superiorities may seem small to a non-musician or beginning student, a beginner cannot be too young to start training the ear to the recognition of superior piano tone and to start benefiting from the readier response of the Steinway action.

WHAT A STEINWAY DOES—

The second reason your child will play better on a Steinway might be called inspiration or motivation—whatever makes someone try harder to excel! That certain spark may be fanned by a stimulating home environment, by the guidance of a superb teacher, and most certainly it will be fired by the pride and pleasure there is in learning at the keyboard of the finest instrument made.

THE COST IS WITHIN REACH

You may be surprised to learn how comfortably you can afford a Steinway—for as little as 50¢ a day more than a medium-priced piano, on our liberal 36-month payment plan. If you have a piano or organ to trade in, the terms will be even more attractive.

WHY NOT CHECK THE FIGURES

For trade-in estimate, prices and payment plans—with full-color brochure on Steinway styles and the full details on Steinway construction—phone or visit your nearby Lyon-Healy store tomorrow!

Steinway pianos, only at Lyon-Healy in the Chicago area. Verticals (consoles) from $1550, grands from $3250. Liberal terms.

What to Do If Faced with Armed Robber

FBI Agent Speaks To Elk Grove Meet

By JOAN LORENSON
Staff Writer

It was like Saturday afternoon at the movies except the bantering crowd was adult.

And the movies at the Elk Grove Village Hall, 666 Landmeier Rd., last week were not designed to entertain but to inform. Village and area bank and store personnel as well as police were finding out what to do if they faced an armed robber. They were also learning how to accurately identify people.

"You look for recognition, not identification of people when you see them," an FBI film explained.

THE SRO audience listened to FBI and Wauwatosa, Wis., policemen's suggestions for remembering identities. Special agent Harvey Johnson of the Chicago FBI office, warned that bank robberies were increasing and Mount Prospect and Des Plaines already had had a bank robbery.

The FBI advice to bank tellers was simple:

—Set off the alarm right away when the robber probably will not notice a teller's action. Johnson cautioned this should be done only in safety.

—Obey the robber by giving him all the money in sight but no more. "Hurry slowly."

—Try to judge physical build and remember characteristics of speech, mannerisms, and jewelry. Know gun types so you can provide this information.

—Telephone police and have someone outside to meet them after the event since police policy is not to enter a bank while a robbery is in progress.

—Keep clues protected with paper.

—Each witness to the robbery should write down his impressions of the man or men involved. Police do not want a "composition" picture arrived at by a number of employes. "Different people get different impressions of a person," Johnson explained.

JOHNSON ADVISED one woman her idea of faking a faint would not work if there were more than one robber.

John Howard, Wauwatosa police chief; and Lt. J. A. Cormack believe their police department has developed an effective training program for identifying a person involved in a crime.

The blue-uniformed police with their "courageous, competent, courteous" badges used cartoons to show their system. Howard estimated the mastery of the identification technique proved 80 per cent effective. "You can learn to do this even in fear," Howard contends.

Careful identification is based primarily on the differences in anyone's head shape, eye brows, eye lids, and lips.

The audience learned of basic head shapes — square, round, oblong, pear, and triangular; of eyebrows that had raised ends, lowered ends, angled ends, were arched or horizontal. When they learned eye lids were double end fold, normal, inner fold, outer fold, and no fold, they could be caught sneaking looks at their neighbors to check the veracity of such identification.

Bette Davis was given as a classic example of a person with no fold eyelids.

Lips were easiest with small upper lip; small lower lip; thin lips, normal lips, or full lips. Women would be most aware of this characteristic, the police commented. They also guaranteed women would be able to tell if someone had ear lobes or did not.

EVEN NOSES CAN be distinguished, the group found. There are noses with straight lines, downtilt noses and uptilt ones; roman, hooked, bulb tip or broken.

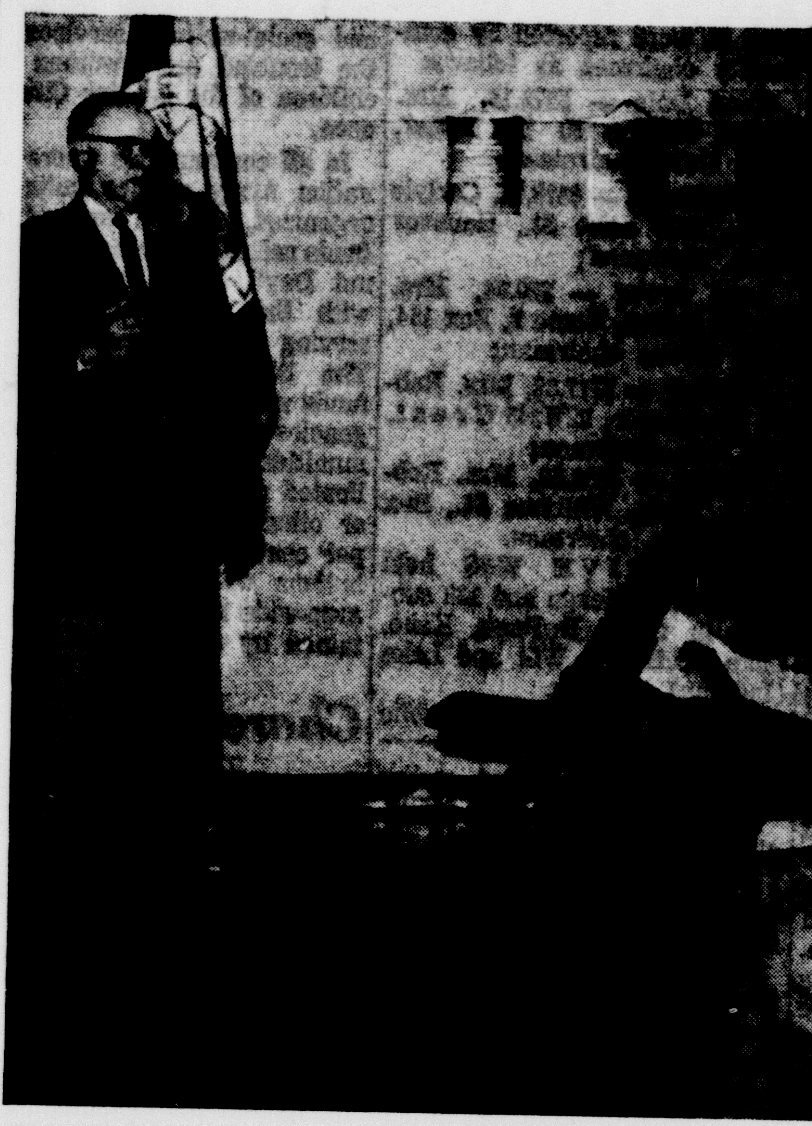
The real professional can note refinements such as posture attributed to someone with a paralyzed arm, hunchback, or back deformity.

"Don't look into the eyes of the robber," Howard said. "They can hypnotize you. Look around them so you're able to observe."

No classroom-seminar session would be complete without a test to see if the lessons were learned.

The Elk Grove Village police department maintained its reputation befitting a host for the session. Raised hands after the test of identification showed its men formed the biggest segment of those with perfect or almost perfect scores.

The Wauwatosa Police Department promised certificates to those making an 80 per cent or better score. (B10



CONCENTRATING ON identification of characteristics of a "robber" they've just seen on a screen, people in the audience at Elk Grove Village Police Department's "armed robbery seminar" last week take a test to see the kind of witnesses they would make. Rolling Meadows Patrolman Verne Wandersee, right, one of the invited policemen, made a perfect score. Lt. J. A. Cormack, of Wauwatosa, Wis., presented a "system" for identifying people that his department claims is 80 per cent effective.

Sheriff's Police Hit 2 Wirerooms

Investigative and enforcement efforts of the Cook County Sheriff's Police Department struck a blow at crime syndicate operations during the month of October, as revealed by the monthly activities report.

Arthur Bilek, chief of the Sheriff's police, said that both division officers and members of the department's vice control unit made 10 raids on gambling and vice activities during the month and closed down two syndicate wirerooms. Seventeen persons were arrested and formally charged as a result of the raids.

Bilek estimated that revenue from the operation of the two wirerooms alone brought in more than $780,000 a year to fill syndicate coffers.

OTHER RAIDS made by the sheriff's men covered tavern betting and violation of liquor laws. A total of $3,458.75 in cash and property was seized in these raids.

In addition to the vice statistics the monthly report showed a total of 386 persons arrested. Of the total, 214 persons were arrested for felonies and misdemeanors and 172 persons under the age of 18 were arrested for juvenile offenses.

A breakdown of the figures showed arrests made by district police to include eight persons arrested for criminal homicide, two for burglary, 10 for larceny and theft, one for armed robbery and 32 for aggravated and other assaults.

Five adults and two juveniles were arrested in October for auto theft and nearly $48,000 worth of stolen cars were recovered in Cook County by Sheriff's Police.

DURING THE second month of operation under a new law which makes the Cook County Sheriff's Police responsible for all vehicles used in a felony, Sheriff's officers seized a total of six cars. Three of the autos were turned over by the Chicago Police Department, one from Maywood Police, one from the Forest Park Police and one was seized by Sheriff's police.

The traffic accident rate in Cook County rose slightly for the first time since the month of June. Sheriff's police investigated 279 accidents and issued a total of 1,845 traffic citations.

The October accident figures included 64 personal injury accidents; 209 property damage accidents and 28 hit-and-run. Four persons died as a result of traffic mishaps on Cook County highways. Three of the four were pedestrians.

JUVENILE OFFICERS working in the unincorporated suburban areas of Cook County—the primary jurisdiction of the sheriff's office—handled 172 cases involving 109 boys and 38 girls under the age of eighteen.

The Civil Division of the Sheriff's Office served a total of 9,553 writs during the month and the County Jail processed a total of 1,730 prisoners in October. (B-10

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

The Little Dears Blue Bird group held an unusual fashion show for the patients at the Lutheran Old Peoples Home yesterday (Wednesday). The girls wore their mother's clothes.

The Little Dears Blue Birds are Melissa Curtis, Carol Erd, Beth Kunberger, Sandra Morris, Vicki Olson, Robin Raitt, Moreen Ronayne, Laura Sylvester and Peggy Zoellick.

Mrs. Howard Morris is leader for the group and is assisted by Mrs. Barron Zoellick.

PALATINE

Tami group of Camp Fire Girls took a trip to the Morton Arboretum Nov. 6 where they walked the evergreen trail and learned to identify many of the trees. Mrs. Harvey Kolstad and Mrs. Howard Anderson accompanied the girls.

The Friday after Thanksgiving the group will go to Deer Grove for a late fall hike and picnic. Both of these trips fulfill Trailseeker requirements.

The girls in the group are Beth Anderson, Kathleen Buckley, Nancy Counihan, Peggy Doss, Janet Henin, Nancy Kolstad, Peggy Knotek, Kathy Koutnik, Nanette Manz, Sue Mayes, Sue Mezger, Carol Parmele, Karen Polan, and Linda Slater.

MOUNT PROSPECT

E-HA-WEE-WA-KI-YA group had a Halloween party Oct. 27. A "witches brew" supper and a "Goblins" dessert was served followed by candy treats and a scavenger hunt.

Nov. 3 the girls visited radio station WNWC-FM station in Arlington Heights. They toured the station and saw the actual broadcasting.

The group includes Linda Bantz, Susan Bejcek, Carole Engibous, Elizabeth Gottschelk, Janice Ibbotson, Mary Ellen Kirchoff, Renee Linhart, Marlene Lortie, Jane Lucarz, Susan Macchia and Ellen Marie Scheenberg. They are under the leadership of Agnes Linhart and assistant Lona Kirchoff.

GIRLS IN the O-Tan-Kiya Camp Fire group recently had a cook-out at Deer Grove. This group also made autumn arrangements for their mothers and Halloween tray favors for Northwest Community Hospital.

Girls in the group under the leadership of Mrs. Henry Nieman are Nancy Clauter, Candy Dornquast, Susan Heckelmann, Jennifer Krampert, Lyn Beth Neylon, Laurie Nieman, Patricia Rutkowski, Laurie Warren, Sally Welch, Judith Wrigt and Michelle Yoe.

MA-NU-PSA-YA Junior High group had a Halloween party for the Giggling Blue Birds. The older girls made a spook house and led the Blue Birds through two at a time. They planned games and refreshments for the younger girls and finished the party in Barbara Burnier's back yard by teaching the Blue Birds a square dance.

It's Tough Changing School District Lines

Other Ways Eyed To Ease Inequities

by Tom Edwards
Staff Writer
(Second of two articles)

Consolidation of small school districts into more workable units is generally acceptable, and this has been almost entirely accomplished in the northwest suburbs.

But transferring a portion of one school district to another is rarely done, even if such a boundary realignment would equalize a vast gulf in the relative financial abilities of the two districts.

Main reason, according to County School Supt. Nobel Puffer, is that a "rich district" isn't inclined to "pick up a poor district."

EXPECTING such boundary rearrangements would be like expecting villages to be willing to consider giving up chunks of territory under certain conditions. It runs into "patriotic" difficulties, and just isn't done.

A vivid example of this is the failure of Elementary District 110 in Stickney Township to consolidate with Elementary District 109. The former district has a property assessed valuation of $238,604 per pupil compared with $10,970 for District 109.

No such disparities in wealth exist in the northwest suburbs, although some school districts do have distinct financial disabilities compared to others.

PIE IN SKY

Change of the Wheeling-Buffalo Grove Elementary District 21 boundary has been suggested by a Wheeling trustee to alleviate financial problems in that district. But there has been a negative response to this as a solution.

And unless a majority of half to two-thirds of the people of both districts involved are for such a change, there is practically no local possibility of boundary shifts under present state law.

Puffer feels, though, that reorganization of school boundaries is perhaps one of the "best ways" of equalizing the per pupil tax base between districts.

"I think this would be very nice if it could be done," Prospect Elementary District 23 Supt. Louis Pansino also said. "But it is kind of a 'pie in the sky' idea."

FISCAL REFORM

Most favored by Puffer and a majority of area school administrators as the way for financial equalization of educational opportunities, is through state fiscal reform.

With more state aid and less dependence on real estate and personal property tax income, individual local tax bases would make much less difference. Poorer districts could be given more state aid to bring them up to a financial par with wealthier districts.

For instance, why should the taxes from Randhurst Shopping Center, a regional shopping center, accrue mainly to the benefit of only the elementary school district in which it happens to be located (Feehanville District 26)? Situations such as this could be largely rectified through extensive revision and enlargement of state school aid, it is hoped.

But it seems that present basic forms of collecting and distributing taxes are going to be with us for a long time, and boundary adjustments therefore could be one form of eliminating school financial inequities.

CONSOLIDATION DONE

Yet now that the consolidation of small school districts has been largely completed (indicated by the missing numbers among the county's school districts), there seems little likelihood that there will be more boundary changes in the near future, even though many present boundaries are over 100 years old.

Unless there is state enabling legislation to encourage it, perhaps the absorption of former Elementary District 24 to Arlington Heights District 25 in 1961 will be the last boundary change in the foreseeable future.

"Once a district is formed it is a district," commented Arlington Heights Supt. Ralph Clabaugh, who faces the prospect of someday losing a present financial advantage because of a lack of prospects for industrial development within his district.

As referred to earlier, a psychological barrier to making school boundaries more fluid is that people rarely are amenable to giving up territorial jurisdiction. (Which is perhaps a reason why consolidation of old rural school autonomies succeeded — it involved territorial expansion.)

UNIT DISTRICTS

One type of boundary change is highly feasible, though, and probably would have a majority support among school administrators, although they are little talked about.

That is, going to "unit" school districts, or combining high school and grade school districts into one.

This evidently has the good connotations of consolidation.

Although Cook County has "dual" districts (separate high and grade school administrations), the great majority of the state's school systems are unit districts.

Puffer favors unit districts. "Experience all over the state" is that they have "some advantages" over dual districts," he said.

So are they strongly favored by Kenneth Gill, superintendent of financially oppressed Wheeling-Buffalo Grove School District. He warns, though, that they shouldn't be overly large.

But, outside of tending to equalize per pupil assessed valuations, there would be little financial advantage to unit school districts, Puffer indicated.

Also, under present state law there is a block to the formation of such districts — but one that could be easily removed. Unit districts have been given about half as much bonding power as dual districts, five per cent as opposed to 10 per cent. And rapidly growing suburban districts need this extra bonding power to build new buildings.

Despite opposition to other school boundary changes, there is a new factor which could eventually force some. That is, the construction of expressways, junior expressways and divided highways, because of the cross transportation problems they can present.

PROMOTES DIVERSITY

An argument in favor of fixed school boundaries and maintaining some semblance of the present tax structure, is that districts may be forced into more diversified development than would otherwise result.

Unless a district expects to be able to limit itself to high-income single-family residential development, they must attempt to achieve a blend of industrial, business and residential development to guarantee necessary tax income.

On the other hand, forcing such heterogeneous development on a more narrow local basis could mitigate against some healthier regional clustering of industry and business.

For it is usually considered more desirable from the standpoint of providing a healthy living environment to set such factories as steel mills well apart from residences.

There is now also a trend for the nation's elderly to cluster into regional multi-family developments, with one of the reasons being to avoid the higher property tax couples in single family homes normally have to bear

EXCLUSION

Still another problem that can be coupled with zoning for diversified development is "zoning people out," or regulating development to maintain a relatively low population density.

Efforts to this end have brought frequent accusations that schools are making zoning the "whipping boy" for their financial problems.

As former state legislator Robert Marks of Evanston was recently quoted, "If no one can or wants to educate these children (resulting from the expanding urban population), who will? Someone must take the initiative, in the local communities and in Springfield."

Since school boundaries do affect school financial problems, a restudy of them in the light of providing the best educational opportunities in fast growing suburbia may be only around the corner. (B10

The Way We See It

Zoning Loopholes Endanger Suburbs

Suburban members of the Cook County Board of Commissioners are right in asking delay in adoption of a sweeping planned development amendment to the county zoning ordinance.

The proposed amendment contains loopholes which could be most damaging to suburban interests.

One of the most important safeguards suburban villages have possessed against substandard housing on their borders is the right to approve or disapprove plans for subdivisions within 1½ miles of village boundaries.

By a technicality in the wording of the proposed county zoning amendment, municipalities could lose this right in the case of planned developments. It is easy to see how unscrupulous developers would attempt to qualify substandard projects as "planned developments" and evade the jurisdiction of municipalities. This loophole must be plugged. Municipalities must retain their 1½-mile authority.

Furthermore, since the proposed amendment designates planned developments as "variations" from established zoning, rather than as rezonings, another loophole is opened up.

At present, if a municipality objects to a proposed rezoning, the change must be approved by a three-fourths vote of the county board. This gives the five suburban commissioners veto power over any rezoning.

Such a three-fourths vote is not required for variations. Thus the proposed amendment threatens to deprive suburban towns of a second important safeguard.

The five suburban commissioners have obtained professional help for their study of county zoning. They have involved the Urban Land Institute, the American Society of Planning Officials, and the National Home Association. Surely it will be worth waiting a few weeks to get the advice of such qualified experts.

The suburban commissioners say the proposed amendment falls short of providing for planned developments in the proper terms of the concept.

They say planned development should satisfy these requirements:

—Be appropriate to the existing suburban communities surrounding it (these communities will eventually take in all unincorporated land).

—Compete successfully in the market for all varieties of housing demand, such as one-family, townhouses, and apartments.

—Be able to function separately and carry its own load in taxes.

—Be completed within a reasonable length of time.

If standards like these are followed, the planned development concept will improve county zoning, because it will permit the use of imagination in the design and building of future housing. Planned development has been a useful tool for many municipalities in guiding their own growth.

But there is no need for haste which will open up zoning loopholes harmful to the suburbs, which are most concerned with the county zoning law. Let's make sure everything is airtight before an amendment is adopted.

Equality of Education

Suburban school districts have undergone great transformations in the last decade or so.

Some began in the last century as rural districts, perhaps supporting a one-room elementary school.

Others were small-town districts, with a typical small-town enrollment and schools.

All of them had a comparable tax basis in those "good old days."

Tremendous suburban expansion has changed the picture.

A school district may now be part of two or more towns, and school and municipal boundaries never coincide.

Expressways carve off corners of districts, separating pupils from their schools.

Big new industrial or commercial developments may make one district comparatively rich, while a vast housing development in a neighboring district may bring swarms of children without corresponding tax dollars.

These factors irk some officials and parents, who would like to see school boundaries changed to make more sense geographically and financially.

However, this is not a practical possibility. One school official dubs the idea "Pie in the Sky." In most cases, the obstacles to redrawing school district boundaries are insuperable. Assets and liabilities would have to be divided. Voters would have to be persuaded to give up tax advantages. Traditional ties would have to be cut. The difficulties are so great that the effort is rarely made.

The chief concern in this situation must be for the child who may not be getting an adequate education purely as the result of living in the "wrong" district.

Consolidation can sometimes be used to eliminate school poverty pockets. As state aid comes to represent a larger share of the cost of educating a pupil, inequities will become less.

However, special measures should be taken promptly where needed. Officials of districts hit too hard by the tides of shifting population should make their voices heard in Springfield. Every child in the state should have equal educational opportunity.

Reaping the Reward

Chances are considered better than even that a site in northwest Cook County or DuPage County will be picked for a $300 million federal atom research facility.

This is the opinion of State Rep. John A. Kennedy, Winnetka Democrat, who has been keenly interested for years in attracting scientific industries to the area.

Such a facility would employ between 1,500 and 1,800 engineers and about 1,500 supporting personnel.

"It would make the area the center of scientific study in the United States," Rep. Kennedy observed.

Among the reasons for considering our suburban sites are the educational, recreational and civic advantages to be found here. Without these, scientists and engineers would not consider the area as their future home.

If one of our sites is chosen, then, it will be partly because of past citizen support for schools, parks, and other facilities. This is something to remember the next time we take a referendum ballot into the polling place.

Few Views on Sex Teaching

by JOHN NEUKOM
Staff Writer

Contrary to popular belief, the entire world is not constantly thinking about sex.

And although many school districts are doing an average or above average job of teaching the subject in classrooms, too many parents have no knowledge of how much or how little "young Charles" is learning about sex—either in the classroom or on the playground.

At least that was the finding when people were queried on this week's Speak Up question: Do you think there is too much sex education in schools today, or not enough?

Right from the start it was evident that area citizens either had to have more time to think about the question, or were not interested in expressing their views to a "voice" on the other end of the telephone — if they had a view at all.

NEUKOM

"Morals have been lost by the younger generation," was the way one Mount Prospect man expressed himself. "Sex subjects now are freely mentioned at home, at social functions, and at work and play. It could be that schools should be much more aggressive in their teachings on the subject, in order to counteract all the false sex facts that younger children and teenagers pick up on the playground," he said.

"I REALLY don't think there is enough taught on the subject," a Hoffman Estates mother commented, after some thought. "It's usually left up to the parents, and I think it's hard for parents to teach their children the facts of life. We plan on getting material from the church to help us teach it to our sixth grader."

Mrs. Ronald C. Zinke of 2804 Campbell St., Rolling Meadows, said, "I think there should be sex education in schools as well as in the home. I think there is enough in schools right now, especially in the lower grades."

"I wasn't taught very much on the subject when I was in high school six years ago, and I doubt very much if today's schools are delving into the subject in any greater detail," were the words of a young Schaumburg mother. "I think it should be taught according to the child's ability to learn and comprehend, much the same as other school subjects are. After my children are older, I'll have more interest in what the school is teaching them.

A MOTHER living in Wheeling also said she would be more interested in how much or how little the schools were teaching on sex after her children were older. "There might be enough taught on the subject right now," she said, "although children never say too much about what they are or are not learning in school."

"It seems adequate," Mrs. Wade K. Abbott of Mount Prospect said. "Actually, sex education in schools has to be a cooperative effort between the home, the church, and the school. The school doesn't have to do it all. I believe teachers are giving students the scientific background and the very basics on sex education."

More than 40 homes were called in the survey, a very small sampling when considering the population of the entire area. But, from the answers received, it is evident that many parents are waiting until a question arises at home before they ask what their children are being taught in school about sex.

AN ARLINGTON Heights mother brought this point home when she said, "My children are really too little for me to answer this. They are all in the lower grades and I haven't come up with any questions or teachings on sex."

Maybe this same question should have been directed towards today's educators, not the parents. What do you think?

Frankly Tourists

By HESTER KLINE
Staff Writer

There's nothing more boring than listening to a returned vacationer talk, when you could recount much more interesting experiences enjoyed on your own holiday.

It's going to take all the will power I can muster to keep my fingers from pounding out the highlights of our European tour.

But then I realize that the "grand tour" is "out." "Camp" folks go on cruises.

There we were, frankly tourists, traveling by motor coach with a tour director, albeit one who spoke the language of every country we visited and who was wellbred as well as well versed in history, art and world affairs.

AFTER BRIEF experiences on our own, we aren't a bit hesitant about recommending the guided tour trip to others.

In England we rented a car and visited relatives some 100 miles from London. Not only is it a traumatic experience to drive on the "wrong" side of the road, but there is an infernal intersection design called the turn-about. Talk about going in circles! We went round and round in London's exclusive Belgravia sector until we felt right at home.

And there was our side trip from Brussels to Bruges. The only good thing that can be said about milord hustling those two suitcases is that they kept his shoulders even, even if tilted sharply downward.

I'LL GET ON with a more erudite subject for this column in a moment, but first let me try to paint an impressionist word picture of the cities at night.

Kline's travel law number one is that every city should be seen first at night to capture the essence that is lost in the hustle and bustle of daytime. That illusion will set the mood for daylight sight-seeing on the morrow.

In Bruges we walked along the cobble-stoned quais in an amber glow (Who is the planner clever enough to abstain from floodlighting medieval houses and ancient bridges over the canals? He deserves a medal.) and for a fleeting hour we were transported 5 hundred years back in time.

GHOSTS OF THE early Christians hover in the dim shadows of the Colosseum at night.

It was pure magic to stand in the Place de Trocadero as the lights gradually brightened over the "city of light."

The Impressionist painters tried to capture a brief moment on canvas.

Our brief tour abroad was but a series of impressions. We were awed by the cathedrals, vaulting toward heaven; held our breath at the grandeur of royal palaces; marveled at the culture of Pompeii; savored strange foods; watched the passing parade from the vantage point of a sidewalk cafe.

PEASANT WOMEN working in the hay fields we passed off as part of the typical European scene. We felt a bit different about the women working on the roads.

We learned you have to really like bells to enjoy Europe. You will be certain to find a bell tower right outside your bedroom window. So don't try to sleep. Go out and walk about the town.

Each day was crammed with new and exciting experiences — new countries, new cities, new people. We came home realizing how little we really understand what makes Europe tick.

And that's what I'd like to write a thought-provoking column about — the need for better international communications on a people to people level.

MY EDITOR SAYS I've run out of space! It's impossible to stop me once I get started talking about our trip.

And I really did want to develop the theme that European ways aren't "foreign." No more so than our ways are "foreign" to the people of Europe. And visiting other lands makes one so appreciative of the good things here at home.

A Banner Year for Toys

by BOB CUMMINS
Staff Writer

As a five-time father, I was honored last weekend by an invitation to serve on a panel of parents which judged new developments in the field of Christmas toys and awarded prizes.

The idea of the competition, which was sponsored by toy manufacturers, was to share new ideas on flimsy construction and reward outstanding progress made toward the goal: "The sun of Christmas day shall not set on an unbroken toy!"

CUMMINS

As a comparative ancient, who can remember when toys were put together with welds and stove bolts and would sometimes last a year, I was amazed at the progress made since then.

BELIEVE ME, it was not easy for our panel to choose among the many cheap toys shown us.

As we have arrived in the grand ballroom of the Loop hotel where the competition was held, the preliminaries were ending. A boy was bounding on a pogo stick but it refused to break and he and his sponsors were banished in disgrace.

A girl was opening and closing the oven door of a toy stove but the door refused to fly off its hinges, and she, too, was eliminated.

Before the finals began, a top toy official thanked us for consenting to judge the competition.

"Ladies and gentlemen," he told us, "tonight you are going to see the results of another year of intense effort by the toy industry. We believe that nothing has been spared to develop glue that is less sticky, nuts that are looser, plywood more prone to develop cracks, and plastics that are more brittle. In short, 1965 has been a banner year in the development of flimsy toys. Parents who were sickened by the cheap construction of a year ago will be absolutely nauseated this year. Now . . . on with the show!"

THE FIRST contestant was a boy with a football. He kicked it from one end of the ballroom to the other, then back and forth again. On the fifth kick there was a popping sound and all the air went out of the ball. He left amid vigorous applause.

"We're off to a good start," I heard a toy maker whisper to a colleague.

The next contestant was a girl with a doll buggy. She tried to adjust the hood so the bright ballroom chandelier lights would not shine in her doll's eyes but the hood was immovable. Then she wheeled the buggy around the ballroom. On the second circuit, a wheel started wobbling and soon fell off.

The applause was deafening. "Beautiful . . . just beautiful!" the toy manufacturer said.

THE NEXT entry was a boy with a drum. He took his stance in the center of the ballroom, drum sticks poised, then played a flourish. It sounded good but nothing else happened. A look of surprise crossed his face. He began hitting the drum harder and harder and harder, but still it didn't break. By this time he was in tears and fled the stage.

"Poor kid," my neighbor, the toy manufacturer said, "he must have got a lemon. Well, some inspector's head will roll Monday morning."

The final entry was a girl with a lovely doll. She pirouetted in the center of the room, singing, "Wing awound the wosy, a pocka foo of posies . . . " holding her doll by the hand as they whirled. Suddenly the doll's arm ripped loose from its body and sawdust spilled on the floor.

THE APPLAUSE was torrential. A winner had been crowned!

I left full of admiration for the achievements I had seen demonstrated. I do not hesitate to predict that by 1967 the toy manufacturer's dream will come true: The sun of Christmas day shall not set on an unbroken toy."

Says Points Overlooked in Editorial on Slot Machines

Seeing I have been taken to task by the Editorial Page on my letter of last week, I believe you overlooked a few important facts and questions.

First of all, children do not freely walk into the Tioga Home. Being a private club, they would have to be accompanied by an adult, card-carrying member, which no doubt would be their parent, as you must be 21 in order to have a card.

I doubt very much if any decent parent is stupid enough to encourage their children to show contempt of the law. In the many times I have been a guest at this particular club, I have seen children on rare occassion. Also, which to me is significant, I have not seen any machines in evidence.

Second, you missed the point entirely. I asked this particular reporter what he intended on doing to help replace this money that is lost.

Third, when will he start exposing syndicate operations?

What kind of a law is it that tells you you must have a gambling stamp and have it registered in order to have gambling equipment? And at the same time if you have gambling equipment your are violating the law? Somebody's thinking has gone off the track somewhere. It seems a lot of our laws are double talk. You're damned if you do and you're damned if you don't.

Also, if you read my letter closely, I said nothing of the indicated story. I referred to the story several wetks ago which stated on the front page that the VFW had purchased a stamp, etc. It's odd that other newspapers in the area did not report this story on the purchase of the stamp or even the indictment. If they did, it was insignificantly placed in their papers. Why is it this newspaper goes in for sensationalism where Bensenville is concerned? Why wasn't the fact that the Tioga VFW post gave oxygen units to all the churches in town reported on the front page? This would be good reading for the children you are so concerned about instead of the sensationalism.

Also, what kind of a man is our state's attorney that he gives his word there will be no more publicity, then turns around and has his picture taken with slot machines and gives out a big story. To me a man who gives his word and then breaks it so easily is far from being an honorable and honest man.

Thinks Paper Applies Labels Too Frequently

I feel that your newspaper makes much too frequent use of labels such as "right-wing," "conservative" and "liberal."

If you persist in using them, I certainly wish you would at least explain exactly what you think they stand for.

I always thought a conservative stood for a minimum amount of centralized federal government and sound fiscal policies.

I'm now confused — they seem to be derogatory remarks now.

Mrs. Klingaman.

Hopf Praises Editorial on Slot Machines

You have earned my gratitude and commendation for your editorial "Contempt for the Law" which appeared in the Oct. 28 edition of your newspapers.

You have answered the question that we in law enforcement so often confront. Your editorial is of great public service, and I expect that I will be referring to it in future talks I'm asked to give.

In addition your reporting of this incident has been excellent. This too is appreciated because positive action on the part of law-enforcement agencies is pretty meaningless unless accompanied by an informed citizenry.

Indignant at Publicity on Slot Machines

Because of all the undue publicity against the Veterans of Foreign Wars Tioga 2149 regarding slot machines, I for one will not renew or buy your Register from now on. It was all so unnecessary on your reporter's part.

With regard to the article in the Fence Post, that writer was very wrong in stating that funds from that source are used to buy uniforms, flags, etc., as all these things are purchased from funds raised by different committees within the post and auxiliary and none are provided from slot machines.

I am also advising my neighbors and friends to consider carefully before subscribing to your smear sheet.

Pastors Offered Hospital Programs

An increasing number of educational opportunities for area pastors are being offered by the department of pastoral care at Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge.

Among the programs offered are:

A one-year residency program beginning in June each year. Residents in the program participate in educational programs and work as hospital chaplains. A three-month quarter of clinical pastoral education is offered on request.

FOR CLERGYMEN in the parish, an eight-week seminar meeting at various times throughout the year to discuss the pastor's role in the hospital. Lectures, discussions and demonstrations are included at the meetings.

A chaplain, a psychiatrist and a social worker participating in three sessions offered each year on the "Pastor as a Counselor."

Special seminars are conducted in the spring and in the fall, running for eight to ten weeks. Past seminars have covered "The Pastor as Marriage Counselor," "Alcoholism" and "Pastoral Acts."

Each spring, a two-day institute of pastoral care is sponsored by the department.

Folders describing the various programs may be obtained by contacting the pastoral care department at Lutheran General.

Grateful for Promptness on Inhalator Call

We should like to express our sincere appreciation to Officer Ruggio of the Rolling Meadows Police Department, the Rolling Meadows Volunteer Fire Department and to Dr. F. Patience Noecker, on behalf of our son John.

It was necessary for John to have the inhalator last Wednesday morning, and without a moment's hesitation, this team was at work.

It gives us great pride to know we live in a community of people who really do care — especially in this world that oftentime takes the "Care Less" attitude.

Sincere thanks to all of you.

Happy at Way Firemen Dealt With Opossum

We are all too quick to find fault with our fellow man and spend very little time in considering the good in people. This is an open letter expressing our personal thanks to the Mount Prospect Fire Department and the two firemen from the new fire house on Route 58 and Busse Road.

Last Friday night, Oct. 29, an opossum got into our garage and settled himself at the back door leading into the family room.

We honestly didn't know what to do, as a cornered animal is always dangerous. We called the Fire Department and explained our interesting problem. Not only was their answer reassuring, but it was backed up by action within 10 minutes.

It wasn't easy for them to get rid of this animal, and when they finally did get him out it was discovered that he had been injured and could therefore be considered doubly dangerous. It is certainly reassuring for my family to know that we have men of this caliber and thoughtfulness in positions that are so vital to the total welfare of the citizens of Mount Prospect.

Just another reason why we consider Mount Prospect the finest place to live.

'Enrichment Of Education Is a Luxury'

No doubt as this letter is being read many people will, or I hope so, stop and realize the power they have as a voter to help control our taxes. Before us we have three important educational issues to decide by vote.

Our largest tax output of the three is the referendum for District 12, Roselle. This money being sought is a large amount compounding it to our present over-all tax burden. The word burden seems strong when education enters the picture. We, as taxpayers, can hardly meet the present rate without an increase.

Our district is made up primarily of two groups of people. We have many retired citizens, who with the inflated dollar, cannot bear more strain than they now have.

We also are a community of young families, with children to raise. These children are deserving of a good family life — two parents to rear them. In a good many of these homes either both parents work or the Dad holds two jobs. This is not for luxury in most cases but of necessity. Any more financial strain only means more work hours away from the home.

We as families have to learn to live within our means. We as a school district must also learn this lesson in life. We have only so much money to spend and we must find the best possible outlet for this money. Our basic education should be uppermost on this list. Emrichment in education is a luxury, not afforded in this community. We have building bonds that are an important debt at present — when these debts are paid in full, we can then go into our finery in education.

I fully realize that the educational fund has not had an increase in several years. But, in these several years we have had building fund increases, enough so that we are tax poor.

We now must face the fact that every ballot counts, yes no. The elected school board or officials must know and realize what we can afford and judge our money accordingly.

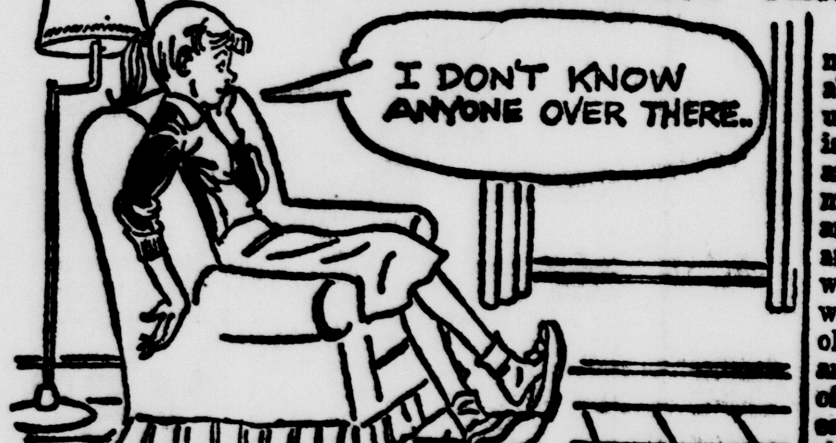
FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS

She Doesn't Want To Move And Lose Friends

By C. D. Smith



I DON'T KNOW ANYONE OVER THERE..

THE WEEK'S LETTER: I am twelve years old and will be moving to the country in the next state. I don't know anyone over there and the school is in the country. I have a boyfriend here in the eighth grade and I don't want to move because of him and my other friends. Is there anything I can do?"

OUR REPLY: It would be nice if you could take your friends with you, but this is impossible. Rest assured, however, that you will find new friends, wherever you happen to go.

Accepting changes, meeting new people and new situations, all of this is a part of growing up, and as well, a part of life. It is very likely that your parents are also hesitant to leave a community that has been "home" and move away from neighbors and friends of long standing. Yet, we cannot always do what we want to do. We never grow so old that time and circumstances are not likely to force some kind of "change" in our lives. It is easier to accept change if we consider that we are not giving up our old friends. We'll still have them, as well as the opportunity to make new friends.

If you have a teenage problem you want to discuss, or an observation to make, address your letter to FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS, COMMUNITY AND SUBURBAN PRESS SERVICE, FRANKFORT, KY.

Look for it in next Thursday's papers . . .

NEWS OF GREATER PALATINE

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sturm, North Quentin Road, on Monday the son and family, the Kenneth Sturms, prepared to return to their home in Fence, Wis., having been houseguests since the previous Wednesday. Activities during the visit included sightseeing trips to Hawthorn-Mellody Farm and O'Hare Airport.

An 18th wedding anniversary, Nov. 7, of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Ritchie Jr., Arrowhead Drive, Reseda, was celebrated on two consecutive Saturdays. Nov. 6 companions were Dr. and Mrs. Paul Frederickson of Hinsdale for dinner at Drury Lane and the play "Charley's Aunt." Saturday they exchanged congratulations with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swingley of Palatine who recently marked a 27th wedding anniversary by going to Pheasant Run Playhouse in St. Charles for dinner and play, "The Festival."

Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Kleiner, West Ellis, welcomed their daughter and son-in-law, Ruth and Bill Wordel, on Nov. 3. The Wordels closed their summer resort in Hackensack, Minn., and are here for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Mattson, West Dundee Road, hosted a family dinner party on Sunday, in honor of the mother, Mrs. Harold Mattson of Evanston, to celebrate her 72nd birthday. Guests were 25 relatives from surrounding suburbs.

There was leave taking at the home of Mrs. David Cairns, North Martin Drive, Lake Park Estates, on Sunday, when Mrs. R. M. Ramsay, a houseguest for three weeks, left for her home in Birmingham, Mich., bringing her visit to a close with an outing Saturday to Rockton to have dinner at The Wagon Wheel.

THE FAMILY get together at the South Clyde home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Petkunas on Nov. 9 was to celebrate the birthday of Mr. Petkunas. Joining them for the evening, in addition to the daughter and her family, the Robert Hamiltons, were the son and family, the Ray Petkunas of Chicago.

Monday morning contained a special fun time for several neighborhood ladies, including Bobbete Gullet, Dorothy Dougherty, June Dinburg, Marcie Wolferd, Dolores Zadny and Ruth Renack. Bringing refreshments, they surprised a new mother, Mrs. George Bridwell, West Wilson, with gifts for Timothy Alan, born Nov. 2.

Wishes for continued happiness go to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stefonek, Palos Road, who marked their 10th wedding anniversary Nov. 12.

A fifth birthday, Nov. 5, coupled with double celebrating has been the main activity for the William Garrel family, North Martin Drive, Lake Park Estates. Helping Billy celebrate Nov. 6 at afternoon partying were 10 neighborhood friends. That Sunday he was honored at a family dinner party. Included were his grandparents, Mrs. Edward Garrel of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Galligan of Oak Park, Mrs. Theodore Grider, the great-grandmother, and his godfather, who is also his great-uncle, and the aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kraft of Glen Ellyn.

The Robert Hamill home, East Herron Drive, Northview, will be the setting for a reunion when East Coast visitors come for Thanksgiving. Expected to arrive Tuesday are the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jamill of Lynn, Mass., who will be houseguests until Nov. 29.

IT WAS JUST learned that Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dougherty, Bobby, Colleen, Brenda and Jimmy who made their home on West Wood for a number of years made a change of address last month. Wishes for good luck go to the family, first time home owners now at 157 S. Quentin Road.

Cause for triple greetings in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Nordin, North Clyde, are the respective birthdays of Mr. Nordin and 2-year-old Pete, Nov. 10 and 13, and Ricky, 12 Wednesday. A combination celebration took place Sunday at a dinner party with relatives as guests. Next week they will welcome Mrs. Nordin's mother, Mrs. Marvel Kolberg back home. Expected to arrive in time for Thanksgiving, Mrs. Kolberg spent the past six months visiting her children in Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Litchfield, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Reuter, North Quentin, celebrated their 15th wedding anniversary of Nov. 3 on Nov. 6 with Mrs. Reuter's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Andrews of Marengo. The foursome drove to Burlington, Wis., for dinner and entertainment at Johnny Reynolds.

TRAVELS TO Iowa the first weekend of the month were made by the Ralph W. Morris family, Arrowhead Drive, Reseda. In Burlington, they deposited the children with Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Lynn, while they went on to the State University of Iowa in Iowa City, alma mater of Mrs. Morris and where Ralph earned his doctorate. Activities on campus included a pharmacy seminar, with Mr. Morris sharing the platform as one of the principal speakers, dinner at The Carousel and the football game on Saturday before returning to Burlington to retrieve the children and have a brief visit with the parents before returning home Sunday evening.

Striving to keep abreast of newcomers is difficult, consequently a belated welcome is extended to two new families in the Lake Park Estates area. They are Jack L. and Mary Jo Bishop and Vicki, 12, who moved to North Martin Drive on Aug. 27 from Skokie. However, North Springfield, Va. is really home to them.

Mr. Bishop is an employee of the U. S. Government and working with the Dept. of Defense at O'Hare Field.

Having undergoing surgery in Having undergone surgery in Great Lakes Naval Hospital Oct. 25, Mary Jo is still convalescing.

Companionship for the children was the decisive factor causing Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Knaack to choose a home in the Lake Park Estates area. Formerly from McHenry, they moved to North Martin Drive Sept. 1. Two occasions celebrated by the family since here were the birthdays of Kathy and Jeffrey, 4 and 7 Oct. 18 and 20, respectively. (P

Hospital Is Monument to Power of 35 Women

Founders Battled Apathy, Prejudice

by Helene Bristol
Staff Writer

Never underestimate the power of a woman!

Put together 35 women, even in the Victorian Era without female suffrage, and great things may happen.

Sherman Hospital, Elgin, is a continuing monument to the collective power of 35 women and the continuing interest of members of the Elgin Woman's Club.

The woman's club, founded in 1888, started a six-bed hospital in a home donated by an Elgin businessman. The only "price" was the stipulation that the hospital bear his name.

Today the hospital has 350 beds and 51 bassinets. It is completing a $4 million expansion program and launched a new $1 million enlargement project this month.

Not only did the women of the club have to start the hospital from "scratch," they had to overcome serious Victorian prejudice against women spending time on activities which did not center on their families or their church. There even was a strong prejudice against hospitals.

UNTIL ABOUT 1850 (or even later in many areas) many hospitals really were dangerous to their patients and only the strong or very lucky survived. Cleanliness and sterility had not been heard of. By 1888 this was changed but the charge that hospitals only brought together sick people to start epidemics lingered on.

In spite of apathy of the public, opposition by businessmen (who saw money going into the project someday) and real fear of epidemics by many residents, the club opened their hospital and made it a success. It was so successful that in five years ground was broken for a four-story "real" hospital building.

The original hospital building was opeend in 1895 and enlarged in 1904. The clubwomen actively operated the hospital alone until 1929. This included the construction of two more sections in 1917 and 1927. In 1929 a hospital administrator was hired and a men's advisory board was initiated.

OWNERSHIP OF the hospital was continued by the club until 1945 when it was turned over to the Sherman Hospital Association, a not-for-profit corporation organized to operate the institution. A 16-member board of managers now directs the hospital through Harold W. Salmon, hospital administrator. Salmon is only the second administrator to direct the hospital, with the first administrator appointed by the woman's club in 1929 staying for 30 years.

The club asked for no financial compensation for their gift to the City of Elgin. Since the founding of the hospital, the clubwomen have operated the institution as a service for their community and neighboring areas.

For many years Paddock area residents had the choice of only Elgin, Evanston or Elmhurst for hospital service. It was not until the early 1950's that Resurrection Hospital, Chicago, was built—and that still was as far and traveling time as long as Sherman Hospital.

IT WAS ONLY little more than five years ago that Northwest Community Hospital, Arlington Heights; Holy Family Hospital, Des Plaines, and Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge, were erected to provide closer hospital help to part of the Paddock area.

Today Paddock readers in Bartlett, Roselle, Hanover Park, Streamwood and the rest of Hanover Township, Palatine, Arlington Heights, Hoffman Estates, Schaumburg, Medinah and Itasca still use the Sherman facilities.

As part of the terms of the transfer of the hospital to the non-profit hospital association, the club retained the right to name four of the 16 members of the board of managers—an arrangement which continues today.

IN ADDITION to founding the hospital, the Elgin Woman's Club founded the hospital school of nursing before the turn of the century. A graduate of the class of 1901 still writes to succeeding graduates on the occasion of their annual alumnae banquet.

The nursing school was closed in 1952 primarily because of expense.

During World War I, approximately 250 nurses from all over the United States went overseas. Of this group, 17 were graduates of Sherman Hospital Nursing School, operated by the Elgin Woman's Club.

The woman's club is the only federated woman's club ever to found or operate a hospital singlehandedly. It probably is the only woman's club in the world to successfully carry on such a project. The women actually owned and operated the hospital for 57 years.

WITH PART OF the hospital structure built by the Elgin Woman's Club as background, Mrs. C. A. Reber checks a plaque in front of Sherman Hospital. The plaque marks a yard-wide stump, all that is left of a memorial tree planted by the woman's club during 57 years the club owned and operated the institution. Mrs. Reber, a member of the club since 1927, was president during the 75th anniversary year in 1963 and has served as a woman's club representative on the hospital board.

TIMES HAVE drastically changed. During the first year of operation in 1888, Sherman Hospital and the Elgin Woman's Club served 35 patients. The first "birth" at the hospital was multiple—the pet cat had kittens. In 1888 women stayed home to have their babies.

The last fiscal year at Sherman Hospital, which ended April 30, there were almost 13,000 patients cared for in the hospital, with about 10,000 patients handled by the hospital emergency room. There were 2,476 babies born at the hospital.

Throughout the years the woman's club donated money and equipment to the hospital. Typical of these donations was a $500 contribution in 1957 to completely furnish a hospital room in honor of the hospital's first administrator.

THE ORIGINAL hospital buildings, dating back to 1895 and 1904, were torn down and replaced in the $4 million expansion program. The 1917 section, which was stripped to the outer masonry wall, is being totally rebuilt and should be opened later this year. The 1927 addition is now the "old" section of the hospital. Before the $4 million expansion program was launched in 1963, new facilities had been added in 1951, 1958 and 1960.

With completion of the new $1 million expansion program, total value of the hospital will be about $10 million, according to estimates by Salmon.

Some of the traditions in the hospital started by the woman's club continue. An annual ice cream social, which raised $2,100 last year, is now sponsored by the Sherman Hospital Auxiliary. Both the ice cream social and the women's volunteer auxiliary were founded by the woman's club.

AT THE SAME club meeting which approved turning the hospital over to the non-profit corporation, the woman's club started the Women's Auxiliary of Sherman Hospital.

Today the two hospital volunteers with the highest number of service hours are long-time members of the Elgin Woman's Club. Working toward their 4,000-hour mark are Mrs. Raymong Leitner, Elgin, a woman's club member since 1925, and Mrs. J. G. Massey, Dundee countryside, a club member since 1934.

Mrs. Massey, who worked full-time at the hospital during World War II, heads the volunteer program. Mrs. Leitner is a past member of the board of managers and Mrs. Massey is a present board member.

ANOTHER long-time woman's club member and a past member of the hospital board is Mrs. Hugh H. Stout, Elgin, who is approaching her 2,000-hour mark in volunteer hospital service.

The 75 members of the Elgin Woman's Club who are members of the Sherman Hospital Auxiliary today are continuing to prove that Elgin and the surrounding communities should not underestimate the power of a woman—it can accomplish miracles.

THE MOST POPULAR volunteer service at Sherman Hospital, Elgin, is the traveling coffee cart which makes rounds through patient areas during the morning "coffee break" period. Two "life" members of the Elgin Woman's Club who have contributed between 3,000 and 4,000 volunteer hours for top standing are Mrs. J. G. Massey (left) and Mrs. Raymond Leitner. Both actively supported the hospital when it was operated by the woman's club and were among the first volunteers to sign up when the club originally founded the hospital women's auxiliary.

WITH MORE THAN 1,500 volunteer service hours to her credit, Mrs. Hugh H. Stout of the Elgin Woman's Club is a familiar face at the reception desk of Sherman Hospital, Elgin. Her work and familiar face are reminders that the woman's club and the hospital share a joint history since 1888 when the hospital was founded by the first club members.

Physical Fitness Theme For Homemakers Program

A district meeting of the Bloomingdale, Glenrise and Keeneyville units of the Homemakers Extension Association will be held tomorrow (Friday) at St. Paul's United Church of Christ in Bloomingdale.

The day's program will start at noon with a dessert luncheon served by Mrs. W. A. Kroeger and Mrs. E. W. Steinbeck, Bloomingdale; Mrs. C. Frank and Mrs. R. Seib, Glenrise, and Mrs. Sheridan H. Pipkin, Keeneyville.

A SHORT BUSINESS meeting will precede the lesson on "Health and Physical Fitness," to be given by Miss Linda Whitney, a nurse from the DuPage County Health Department.

The lesson will consider the preventive aspects of heart disease, cancer, diabetes, arthritis, nutritional problems, tuberculosis, medical and dental care and health services.

Mrs. Charles Franzen, president of the Bloomingdale unit, invites any homemaker who would like to attend the lesson to call LA 9-2803.

CHRISTMAS ITEMS made at craft day in Lombard will be displayed by Mrs. Fred Sigwalt, special feature chairman of the Bloomingdale unit.

The Cloverdale Maidens 4-H Club, sponsored by the Bloomingdale unit, will hold a bake sale following the luncheon tomorrow.

The Homemakers Extension Association cooperates with the University of Illinois Extension Services in disseminating the latest information on all phases of home economics. Lessons are taught at monthly meetings of the 29 units in DuPage, half by local leaders and the other by members of the university staff, Mrs. Rachel L. Crabb, home advisor, and her assistant, Miss Janice Johnson. (SF

Early Deadline

Since there will be no mail deliveries on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 25, Paddock Publications newspapers will be delivered in the Nov. 24 mails. Early deadlines have been set up for all sections of the newspaper.

Deadline for the women's section will be noon on Saturday, Nov. 20. News chairmen able to bring in releases prior to the deadline are asked to please do so. Cooperation of all chairmen and individuals submitting news for the women's section will be greatly appreciated.(SF

Nursing Director Is Auxiliary Guest

Elizabeth Wessling, director of nurses at Northwest Community Hospital, will be guest speaker at the fourth general meeting of the hospital women's auxiliary Tuesday, Nov. 30.

The meeting will be held at the Arlington Carousel Restaurant, Euclid and Rohlwing Road, Arlington Heights. A social hour will start at 11:30 a.m. with luncheon following at 12:30 o'clock.

Following a short business meeting, Miss Wessling, who was born in the Netherlands, will describe highlights of her life in Holland and the United States.

MISS WESSLING completed her basic nurse's training in her native land, according to Mrs. Robert Lockwood of Palatine, auxiliary program chairman. Since coming to the United States, she has earned her bachelor's degree and a master's in education from Loyola University.

Also on the program will be a display of handicrafts made in colorful glass, plastic and tin from the Handi Craft Workshop of Mrs. Gladys V. Franek of Algonquin. Mrs. Ronald Cook of Rolling Meadows will comment on the exhibit, giving details of construction.

Reservations should be made with Mrs. Robert Alfini, hospitality chairman, at 259-1871. She will be assisted by Mrs. J. K. Hart, Arlington Heights; Mrs. Warren Frost, Palatine, and Mrs. Robert Jacobs, Prospect Heights. (SF

New Officers Head Grandmothers Club

When Mount Prospect Grandmothers Club holds its meeting tomorrow (Friday) at 1 p.m. in Mount Prospect Country Club, new officers will be presiding. All were installed at the club's October meeting by Mrs. Frances Bouma, national vice president, and Mrs. Violet Clark, national organizer.

Mrs. Fay Carlson is now president; Mrs. Marguerite Hinckley, vice president; Mrs. Jean Derr, secretary; Mrs. Lillian Lenz, treasurer; Mrs. Helen Lavigne, chaplain.

CHAIRMEN INCLUDE Mrs. Emily Deck, membership; Mrs. Mrs. Conway, ways and means; Mrs. Irene Corris, social; Mrs. Opal Mills, sunshine; Mrs. Joan Komkol, historian; Mrs. Catherine Salika, hostess.

All grandmothers living in the local area are welcome to any of the club activities. (S

Montessori Method Is Guild Topic

Believing that any conversation about education of preschool children is incomplete without discussion of the Montessori method, St. James Catholic Woman's guild has asked Mrs. Ralph Casciaro to speak on "Principles and History of the Montessori Method" at their 8:15 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 18 meeting.

The speaker is a Mount Prospect resident and has a child attending the Northwest Suburban Montessori School at 259 E. Central Road, Des Plaines. "Even though your children do not attend the school. many of the methods can be used daily in the home to stimulate the pre-schooler," Mrs. Casciaro will tell her audience.

FIRST introduced in the United States in San Francisco 50 years ago, the Montessori opened a Northwest Suburban School in September, 1964. Enrollment is made up of 100 children whose ages range from 2.9 to 6 years.

In keeping with the liturgy of the church, Mrs. Jack Crump will demonstrate the construction of an advent wreath and other advent customs.

A mass will be celebrated at 9 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 20, for both living and deceased members of the Guild. (SF

Fond Memories

There's No Place Like That First Apartment

By BETTY AINSLIE

You can move into many new houses, each one better than the previous one, but never find one that is so full of cherished memories as that very first apartment.

Daughter and Son-in-Law moved into a brand new apartment shiny with chrome and tile and furnished in early Ainslie. All the time she busily made slipcovers and shopped for drapes, I kept remembering the first apartment Pop and I had.

A month before we were to be married, I journeyed to Battle Creek, Mich., where Pop worked, to hunt for an apartment. The budget was cramped as I was marrying a strictly cash and carry man so our furniture was bought and paid for by puncturing the bank account. We were shopping for a place not over 35 dollars a month (Oh yes you could find plenty of apartments for rent at that figure back 25 years ago.)

NOTHING SEEMED right until we discovered a brand new duplex with the upstairs vacant. Here was a living room with a real woodburning fireplace, a dining room, two bedrooms with walk-in closets, a modern kitchen and a tiled bath.

The rent was beyond our pocketbook — a whopping 45 dollars a month. We sat in the car, after viewing it, manipulating the budget figures around. We could take a bit from food and clothing, and Pop could carry his lunch, but we knew we had to have that apartment. It was just right!

The duplex stood along a tree-shaded street where old homes peeked out from among trees, and we stretched the budget still further as we added a dining room set.

THE PLACE glistened with our new, maple furniture and bright patterned rugs. The 16 windows in the sunroom opening off the living room took readily to the gay chintz drapes I made, and two people couldn't have been happier.

Pop worked with about a dozen other young engineers on an expansion dream of one of the vice presidents of Kellogg's Corn Flakes. This group of fellows all were newly married or about to be, and the gang would get together every Saturday night for a record or bridge session. Mostly we gathered in our apartment which seemed to hold so many people easily. Plus we were all young, and our fireplace cast a romantic glow as we toasted marshmallows or roasted wieners.

We had our first big party there — a Halloween dress-up affair that has never been duplicated for fun.

THE YOUNG WIVES made periodic trips to the Kellogg plant where visitors always received sample cereal packages. Incidentally, ice cream is delicious sprinkled with Rice Krispies, and it topped off many of our get-togethers even though the fellows groaned at being reminded of their rather shaky jobs when there was a shift in administration at the plant.

Paid every week, Pop would report as he wiped the Saturday night dishes that this or that fellow from our gang had been laid off, and in 1939 this was a catastrophe as jobs were very scarce.

Couple by couple our group dwindled until Pop announced casually, "This Saturday Melbourne, Todd and Ainslie got it." So we faced our first big problem, and after only a few months in a dream apartment, we moved.

IN IOWA, WITH our furniture in storage, we took a one-room efficiency with a studio couch that doubled as davenport and bed. All my cakes baked on a slant as the stove rested unevenly on a slope in the small kitchen.

Apartments in Fort Dodge were even then practically nonexistent, and our third apartment in less than six months was a reconverted attic.

Our entrance was a winding fire escape and the only place Pop could stand up straight was in the middle of the apartment as there were low dormers on four sides and he bumped his head before he greeted me every night.

There were other apartments during the war years, but when I smell fall leaves burning or Halloween rolls around, I think of Battle Creek and that very first beautiful apartment. (S

Inverness Club Makes Change

Members of the Garden Club of Inverness are reminded of a change of location for their Nov. 18 meeting. The club will convene in the home of Mrs. F. E. Wood instead of the Inverness Fieldhouse as planned.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Frank Raufeisen and Mrs. Edwin Friesendorf. (S

Here's HAUGH to Plan a Party

Here is a Party for Those Who Enjoy Helping Others

by DOLORES HAUGH

Let's get together for a cup of tea and bring along a good idea for a senior citizen. Jet age-zip-zing-time goes by and we fly around thinking of our own families which is right but isn't there a little time to think of someone else? Oh, you say, you give to charity, you go to church, but does it end there? No, time is the one thing that elderly people need and crave, not gifts of material worth but the intangible time. At one time of the year namely Thanksgiving and Christmas it seems the thing to do, think of some one other than ourselves who is less fortunate. Well, now is that time. But here is the twist, this party is for January, March and July, not for Thanksgiving and Christmas.

INVITATIONS

You know your friends, the ones who think of others all year round, the ones that tend a neighbor's child when the mother is sick, or visits hospitals and donates endless hours, these are the ones you want for this party. They are the backbone of the American way of life and thank God for them.

Invitations should be simple, You may just wish to call but receiving a surprise invitation in the mail is so much fun and a treat to the heart.

Cut a heart from bright shiny paper and place it on a doily. They might even think that you flipped and thought it was like Valentine's Day. Mount doily and heart on double fold green paper and write the following inside:

Have a HEART and come to tea,
Share an idea or two with me,
Something that you cannot see
Love in a basket, our theme will be.

State time, place and ask them to respond, for the recipients interest will be intrigued by such an invitation. Keep the number below eight. Ask each guest to bring a tiny basket or enclose one in the invitation, made from red construction paper.

PREPARATIONS

The fun part is the surprise. As each guest calls explain that she should think of something unusual that a shut-in would enjoy and if possible bring a sample of same. You may wish to contact some small, state or private homes, especially those where the patients are bedridden, or find out if they may be taken out of the home, or just what the restrictions would be.

Better still, have each guest choose a Home for the Aged and find out all this information and bring it to the party. It may even be a group of Senior Citizens who would enjoy a pitch in supper.

As hostess, have small index file cards or bright little note books with matching pencils for each guest. If you use index cards make felt holders of bright green and shirr lace around a red felt heart, glue or paste edges of folder or even staple them if you have less time, but have them attractive so that every guest may carry them proudly, favors for favors.

MENU

Tea of course, and make it fancy as you will want to emphasize what fortunate beings we are, and use that china you store away for company, the silver and linen. This idea also helps you get a head start on the holidays as all of your cleaning of said items will be done. Use bright holly and red hearts. Bright heart-shaped cookies can be a head start on Christmas cookies too if you double the batch and fretze half or tiny cakes if you haven't time and want to "show off" your blessings even more. Serve old fashioned Christmas candy and nuts for the idea is the thing at this affair.

PROCEDURE

As each guest arrives hove her take her notebook or file favor. Then on a large cardboard, write the names of the homes, what restrictions they have, how many patients, men or women, if they are bedridden and list this on one side of the cardboard.

Then leave plenty of space to the right and make a column for each guest—use two cardboards if you have to. Have each guest as she arrives sign her name at the head of each column. After tea, let each girl state what she has found out about the home, giving the address and name so each guest may copy the information on her card. This now becomes the guest's home: Sally's Home, visiting hours, address. Sally then states in writing on the cardboard all the information asked for by you as hostess on the phone.

She also, we hope, has decided what Love item to put in the basket for the folks at her home. It may be cookies, checking for diabetics and how many, or it may be a car, for they can be taken to the store or to visit a friend. It may be something they need such as sox or bedjacket for which she has made a sample.

THEN EACH guest is asked to choose a month for her home. She is responsible for notifying the rest of the group and having a Have a Heart Tea at her home and making her Love gift ahead of that date and arranging for transportation and clearance with each home or group. But nothing is to be done at the "ease your conscience months" of December, February, April, October or November. The churches and other philanthropic groups take care of them.

Not one guest is obligated to come to this party, for this is indeed a party where each guest must give a little of her time, a lot of energy and a part of herself—and you will be surprised at the happiness each of your guests will receive as a prize, for giving is winning.

So Have a Heart. Love can stop wars. Peace starts in the individual heart, not a country, state or city.

It also starts the season of Christmas on the intended note, love. (SSD

Hairdressers Seek Aid for Salon Week

Area hairdressers, members of Affiliate 47 of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association, are seeking all area beauty operators and enlisting their help for National Beauty Salon Week. Each year, on the first day of Salon Week, local beauticians travel to three area homes to donate their services.

These homes are the Maryville Home in Des Plaines, where several hundred girls are given haircuts, permanents and sets, the Lutheran Home and Service for the Aged in Arlington Heights and Mount St. Joseph Home in Lake Zurich. The beauty service is completely free to the residents.

At their recent dinner meeting, the group installed officers. Serving a second term as president is Mrs. Adeline Pedersen of McHenry. First vice president is Jack Fahn of Rolling Meadows, and second vice president is Lawrence Pupillo of Park Ridge. Ruth Montgomery of Mount Prospect is secretary and Doris Silver of Arlington Heights is treasurer. Historian is Marge Kencie of Palatine and financial secretary is Helen Pfursich of Wauconda. (SSD

'Elephant Parade' For Hospital Fete

The third "Elegant Elephants Parade," sponsored by the Service League of Lutheran General Hospital, will be held Wednesday, Dec. 1, in the new ballroom of O'Hare Inn, Rosemont.

Luncheon, a fashion show and an "Elegant Elephant" sale will highlight the social event. The latest in holiday and resort wear fashions will be presented by the Park Shop of Park Ridge.

TICKETS MAY be obtained from the Service League office at Lutheran General Hospital, 692-2210.

"In addition to the tickets, we are asking each person attending to donate an 'Elegant Elephant'—that's a white elephant of the elegant variety—which will be on sale at the luncheon," says Mrs. Erwin Hurt, chairman.

The sale begins at 11 a.m., followed by the luncheon and the fashion show. (S

Palatine WSCS Honors Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Browne were honored on their 50th wedding anniversary at the November meeting of the Woman's Society of First Methodist Church, Palatine. Mrs. Browne was presented with a special membership pin from the society.

Friends of the Brownes from Irving Park Methodist Church were also invited to the party.

A play was given by the WSCS members, entitled "Blueprints" and featuring Mesdames J. Ellis, R. Strickland, K. Grant, M. Miller, W. King, G. Williams, R. Welty and W. Childress.

Crafts Day For Palatine Homemakers

A crafts day will be conducted by the Palatine Homemakers Extension unit Monday, Nov. 29, at the home of Mrs. R. H. Golterman, 143 S. Hale St., at 9:30 a.m.

"Language and Behavior Patterns That Help Us Understand People" was the lesson presented to the members at the Nov. 9 meeting, held at the home of Mrs. C. E. Comfort, 308 N. Fremont.

Lesson leaders were Mrs. V. C. Veschuroff and Mrs. D. Lowther. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. G. R. Neal and Mrs. G. Voss.

NEW MEMBER joining at that meeting was Mrs. L. Johnson, 2160 S. Ela Road.

The homemakers group will hold its Christmas party and luncheon at noon Dec. 14 at the Arlington Carousel, Euclid Avenue and Wilke Road, Arlington Heights. (S

Yellow, White Color Scheme For Heine-Pearson Wedding

A yellow and white color scheme surrounded the Oct. 9 wedding of Elaine Ruth Heine, daughter of the Arthur Heines of Hanover Township, and Gerald Phillip Pearson, son of the Walter Pearsons of Crystal Lake. The couple repeated their vows at 7 p.m. in Immanuel United Church of Christ, Hanover, and then were feted by 450 guests at a reception in Crystal Lake's Moose Lodge.

The yellow in the wedding decorations was seen in the bridal attendants' gowns, their floor-length empire sheaths in a soft daffodil shantastic with a floating back panel. Karen Heine, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and another sister, Mrs. Marian Nesler of Hanover Township, was bridesmaid, along with Virginia Taylor of Elgin and Sharon Clausing of Garden Prairie.

The maid of honor carried yellow roses with white mums, and the bridesmaids carried yellow roses and yellow mums.

A NIECE AND nephew of the bride, Susan Heine, 3, and Robert Heine, 5, both of Palatine, preceded the bride down the aisle as flower girl and ring bearer, respectively. Susan was dressed in yellow peau, floor-length, and carried a basket of yellow roses.

The bride, attired in white silk parchment taffeta with appliques of Venetian lace, carried a handkerchief which her mother had carried on her wedding day. The bridal gown was simply styled with scooped neckline, long sleeves and bell skirt, but also featured a floating train which extended from the shoulder line. the lace applique at the neckline was studded with seed pearls.

Her headpiece, trimmed with seed pearls, held her elbow-length veil in place, and white orchids, stephanotis and ivy composed her bouquet.

ESCORTING THE bride's attendants were Daniel Doty of Cary, who was also best man, and ushers Warren Nesler of Hanover, Wolfgang Langhenrich of Crystal Lake and the groom's three brothers, Thomas, Richard and John Pearson.

Both mothers of the couple were attired in lace dresses for the day's festivities, Mrs. Heine in a medium blue with matching accessories and Mrs. Pearson in olive green with brown accessories. Each had two white orchids pinned to her shoulder.

THE BRIDE IS a graduate of Copley Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, Aurora, and also attended Elgin Community College. She is now a nurse at Sherman Hospital, while her husband is a registered inhalation therapist at St. Joseph Hospital, Elgin. He took his training at Holy Family Hospital.

The newlyweds are living at 568 Lincoln Ave., Dundee. (S

Sorority Activities

PANHELLENIC

The monthly meeting of Northwest Suburban Panhellenic Council will be held today, Nov. 18, at 10 a.m. in Old Orchard Country Club.

Plans for the Dec. 29 brunch for collegiate sorority members and their mothers will be discussed.

KAPPA DELTA

"A loaf of bread, a jug of wine" . . . and spaghetti will complete the menu when the Northwest Suburban Kappa Delta Alumnae Association treat the men to an Italian dinner at 8 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 20, in the Rolling Meadows home of Mrs. L. Arentsen, 4298 Wilson Ave. The Italian chefs will be Mrs. J. Murphy and Mrs. J. Glueckert.

Mrs. T. N. Hackney is in charge of table decorations and name tags are being made by Mrs. J. Schildgen. Tossed salad will be prepared by Mrs. P. Pearson and Mrs. T. Pitchford.

SIGMA KAPPA

Northwest Suburban Sigma Kappas will celebrate the 91st anniversary of the founding of their sorority at a Founders' Day Dinner Monday, Nov. 22, at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William O'Donnell, 119 Emerson Lane, Mount Prospect. Mrs. Ronald Scheck of Arlington Heights will be co-hostess for the event, which has become an annual affair.

This year the newly-formed evening group will join the afternoon group for their first joint meeting. For reservations and further information Sigma Kappas may call Mrs. Scheck at CL 3-1894.

DELTA DELTA DELTA

The 77th anniversary of the founding of Delta Delta Delta at Boston College on Thanksgiving Eve 1888 was observed by Northwest Suburban Alumnae Chapter at a Founder's Day luncheon Nov. 17 at the Americana Inn, River Road, Des Plaines.

Special guest, Mrs. Elton Jones of Mount Prospect, spoke on "The Function of the Executive Office." Mrs. Jones is currently national executive secretary of Delta Delta Delta as well as a founding member of Northwest Suburban Alumnae Chapter and its first president.

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

Busy baking early this week for Wednesday evening's Alpha Sigma Alpha cookie exchange were Miss Marilyn Kanwischer, Mrs. Leo Bondurant and Miss Ginny McGillivray, all of Mount Prospect. Members of the West Suburban Alumnae chapter, the women traveled to the Oak Lawn home of Miss Judy Matusek for the exchange.

BETA SIGMA PHI

Mrs. Bernard Bird of Arlington Heights presented the program, "Good Lives" Nov. 17 to members of Xi Zeta Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi when the group met in the Hoffman Estates home of Mrs. Robert Howe. Mrs. Bird, service chairman of the chapter, is making up a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family in the area, an annual service project of the group.

On the agenda was the discussion of a Christmas dinner dance on Dec. 18 and a rummage sale slated for next spring.

Tuesday of this week the group held a coffee for new members in the Mount Prospect home of Mrs. Ray Copeland, and during the week members are staffing the Diabetic Detection Week booth at Randhurst Shopping Center.

Guests at the Nov. 10 meeting, hosted by Mrs. F. V. Schlexer of Arlington Heights, were Mrs. Sig Haaland of Mount Prospect, Mrs. Robert Lewis of Palatine and Mrs. Tina Weepie of Arlington Heights, all recent transferees to this area. (S

First on the list of coming events for the new St. Edna's parish in Arlington Heights is the annual Fall Festival, set for Saturday, Nov. 20, at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 15 S. Hickory St. An evening of dancing and social activities, beginning at 9 p.m., will be followed by a refreshment period.

Tickets may be purchased at the door.

WITH A VIEW to the holidays, the Woman's Club of St. Edna's presented a demonstration of flower arranging at the Nov. 17 meeting. "Decorate with Flowers" was the theme chosen by Sauerland Flower Shop of Arlington Heights for the showing of centerpieces and table arrangements. (S

Juniors Aid Over 50 Club

Members of the Senior Citizen Committee of the Arlington Heights Junior Woman's Club have been participating in the activities of the Over 50 Club this fall. Once a month, Juniors have taken dessert and coffee to the Over 50 club meetings. This Thursday, Nov. 18, they are providing refreshments for the combined meeting of the Wheeling and the Arlington Heights Over 50 Clubs.

The months ahead find the Arlington Juniors planning to entertain the Over 50 Club with a chorus concert and a drama presentation, and the Senior Citizen committee has made arrangements for the Over 50 Club to be taken by bus to the Don McNeill Breakfast Club Show this winter. They are also providing transportation to Over 50 Club meetings for those members who are without a car. Mrs. Ray Crouch is chairman of the Senior Citizens committee. (S

Miss Klima Is Autumn Bride of New Yorker

Autumn flowers and foliage accented the royal blue velvet and satin gowns worn by attendants of Mary Ann Klima for her Oct. 9 marriage to George J. Marx of Mount Vernon, N.Y. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Klima, 1001 Mayfair, Arlington Heights, but she has been living and working in Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., so the wedding was planned for that area.

The 11 o'clock Mass was performed by Rev. John McNamara in Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, Ardsley, N. Y., the altar also decked with fall foliage.

CARRYING cascade bouquets of gold autumn flowers, the bride's attendants entered the sanctuary in royal blue floor-length dresses and crown headpieces trimmed with seed pearls. Their gowns were fashioned with blue velvet bodice and satin A-line skirt.

Mrs. George Schneider of Chicago, a childhood friend of the bride, was her matron of honor. Bridesmaid was Bonnie Klima of Park Ridge, a cousin of the bride, and junior bridesmaid was Elizabeth Karl of White Plains, N. Y.

ALSO ATTIRED in royal blue velvet and satin was the groom's niece, 5-year-old Marie Murphy of Rye, N. Y., who was the flower girl.

The bride entered the sanctuary on the arm of her father and wore a white-ivory organza over slik gown, the bodice trimmed with an alencon lace and seed pearl motif which also appeared on a front panel of the skirt. The gown ended in a chapel train.

A coronet of seed pearls and flowers held her fingertip veil in place, and she carried a white prayer book with white roses, orchids and stephanotis.

THE GROOM is the son of Mrs. George Marx of Mount Vernon, N. Y., and the late Commander George Marx, USNR. Attending him were Joseph Murphy of Rye as best man and Walter Hollinger of Arlington, Mass., and John Harkins of Tacoma Park, Md., as ushers.

For the double ring ceremony and the reception immediately following at the Hilton Inn in Tarrytown, N. Y., the groom's mother was dressed in a blue brocade ensemble. Both she and Mrs. Klima, who wore a yellow silk shantung dress with a beaded lace bodice, had white orchid corsages.

WESTCHESTER, N. Y., is the new home of the bridal pair after their 2-week Caribbean cruise. The bride is merchandise manager for Scheri Shoppe in Dobbs Ferry, and her husband works for the Port of New York Authority.

The bride is a graduate of St. Patrick Academy, Des Plaines, and attended Bradley University in Peoria. The groom attended New York University before going on to graduate from Bradley. (S BIRTHDAY CAKE, presented by Arlington Heights Junior Woman's Club to the village's Over 50 Club, marks third birthday of the senior citizens club. Mrs. Ray Crouch of the Juniors congratulates Mrs. Gotshall, Over 50 Club president, and Mrs. Meyers, directress, on the success of their organization. (S

Here Are Gourmet Dishes for Holiday Fare

Men Especially Go For Spinach Bake

By LOIS SEILER

A special holiday deserves a few special dishes, and it's always fun to try something new along with serving the traditional favorites.

For your Thanksgiving dinner we suggest a few of Mrs. Robert K. Howe's specialties; you may wish to try one or all for that festive occasion.

If turkey and sweet potatoes are on your menu, we recommend dressing up the potatoes according to Mrs. Howe's method.

Either canned or cooked sweet potatoes, mashed, can be used in this recipe. They are combined with butter, seasonings and tiny marshmallows and formed into balls. The balls are then dipped into a honey glaze and rolled into chopped nuts.

Baked for a mere 15 minutes, they are attractive in appearance and delightful to taste.

If you like a vegetable that is a little different and quite delicious to accompany your holiday dinner, a Gourmet Spinach Bake will fill the bill.

MRS. HOWE makes this by combining chopped spinach with minced onion and hard-cooked eggs in a well-seasoned cream sauce. It is baked in a casserole with a flavorful topping of cornflake crumbs, grated cheese and melted butter.

"Men especially seem to like this dish," commented Elaine Howe, "and it can easily be doubled for a large crowd."

"It can also be made in advance, and chopped broccoli may be substituted for the spinach, if desired," she added.

The onion and cheese give this spinach a zesty flavor, and it is good with beef and ham as well as turkey.

A DELECTABLE dessert for your Thanksgiving or Christmas dinner is this good cook's unique Pumpkin Ice Cream Pie.

Made in a graham cracker crust, the filling for this pie consists of mashed pumpkin, spices and vanilla ice cream blended together. Frozen until firm, it is served garnished with pecan halves.

This pie has the advantageous feature that it can be made well in advance, and it combines the refreshing taste of ice cream with the spicy pumpkin flavor that is a tradition with most holiday dinners.

The mother of one young son, Steven, 4 months old, Mrs. Howe is a member of the Schaumburg Township Republican Women's Club and is publicity chairman for Xi Zeta Epsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

MRS. ROBERT K. HOWE of Hoffman Estates sprinkles a nippy cheese-flavored topping over one of her favorite vegetable dishes, a different and delicious Gourmet Spinach Bake. This is an excellent dish to serve as an accompaniment for a festive holiday dinner.

SWEET POTATO BALLS

2½ cups mashed canned or cooked sweet potatoes (1-pound, 2-ounce can)
¾ teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
¼ cup tiny marshmallows
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1/3 cup honey
1 cup chopped walnuts
Additional melted butter or margarine

Combine mashed sweet potatoes with salt, pepper and 2 tablespoons melted butter. Stir in tiny marshmallows. Chill for about one-half hour so that the potatoes are easier to work with.

Shape into balls, using about ¼ cup potato mixture for each.

Heat 1 tablespoon butter and the honey in a small skillet. When hot, add potato balls one at a time. With two forks, quickly but carefully roll in glaze, coating completely. Then at once roll into chopped nuts.

Place balls so that they do not touch each other in a greased, shallow baking dish. Drizzle with a little melted butter. Bake at 350 degrees for 15 to 20 minutes. Serves 10.

GOURMET SPINACH BAKE

2 10-ounce packages frozen chopped spinach
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk
2 teaspoons instant minced onion
3 hard-cooked eggs, finely chopped
2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1/8 teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup cornflake crumbs
½ cup grated cheddar cheese
2 tablespoons melted butter

Cook spinach according to package directions and drain.

Melt butter, blend in flour. Gradually add milk, stirring constantly, and cook until thickened. Remove from heat and fold in spinach, instant onion, eggs, salt, pepper and nutmeg.

Turn into a greased baking dish. Toss cornflake crumbs with cheese and melted butter. Spoon over spinach and sprinkle with paprika. Bake at 375 degrees for 20 minutes or until lightly browned. Serves 4.

PUMPKIN ICE CREAM PIE

1 cup canned or mashed cooked pumpkin
½ cup brown sugar
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon ginger
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
1 quart vanilla ice cream
1 recipe graham cracker crust

Combine pumpkin, brown sugar, salt and spices.

Stir ice cream to soften; then fold into pumpkin mixture until completely blended. Spoon into a 9-inch graham cracker crust. Freeze firm.

Remove from freezer 15 minutes before serving. Garnish with pecan halves. Serves 8.

Wine Substitute

Looking for a subsitute for wine in your cooking? Try cranberry juice. It lends that same piquant flavor and lift to a regular dish that puts it in the gourmet class of cookery.

Crisp Vegetables

Vegetables will stay fresh longer if you line the crisper with paper toweling to abosrb moisture.

The Howe family lives at 102 Chandler Lane in Hoffman Estates.

Timesaver

Save time at the supermarket by writing your grocery list in the order in which the items are found on the shelves.

Champagne

Wonder how much champagne you'll need to toast a new baby, warm a new house, say good-by to a traveling friend? The Mogen David Wine Corp. recommends one bottle for every four guests. If you're buying new glasses, consider the tulip shapes with long stems. Champagne bubbles last longer in them than in the traditional wide "saucer." (SH

Week's Best Food Buys

Thanksgiving promotions break this week. The better buys in turkeys are for larger sized birds. Fewer B grades quoted low at 29 cents a pound for sizes 22 to 29 pounds in toms and 35 cents a pound for the same grade of hens, frozen.

(Grade A. frozen toms range from 33 to 35 cents a pound, top grade hens mostly 39 cents a pound and small sized Beltsvilles from the new crop, 45 to 49 cents a pound.

Hams are a hot item at all market levels. Wholesale costs soar. Retail emphasis is on premium kinds, actually a better consumer buy, with top brand boneless tagged at 89 cents to $1.19 a pound. Large canned kinds quoted at 79 to 89 cents a pound.

BEEF IS A persistent bargain on the Chicago area food market.

Chicago-area food values:
Poultry: turkeys.

Meats: beef rib and rump roasts, round and sirloin steaks, blade cut chuck roasts, ground beef; premium hams, spareribs, loin roasts, center cut chops.

Produce: tangerines, oranges, grapes, grapefruit; lettuce, celery, radishes, carrots, cabbage, onions, rutabagas, squash, yams, potatoes. (SH

Chill Candles

Festive occasions call for candle light. Chill the candles for several hours before use. They won't drip and they'll burn more slowly. And did you know that lighted candles help keep the air free of tobacco smoke?

'Captivating Enchantment' Charms Luncheon Guests

ANTICIPATING the fashion show and luncheon presented last week by Prospect Heights Woman's Club were Mrs. James Hall and Mrs. William Boscamp, both of Prospect Heights. Proceeds of the affair, the ninth annual luncheon show given by the club, will go toward the Prospect Heights Library and other philanthropies of the club. Contrary to most fashion luncheons in which the show follows the luncheon, the show at this affair preceded the luncheon.

Engagements

Sharon Dutner

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Dutner of Hoffman Estates are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Lee, to John Crispino, son of the senior John Crispinos of Naperville, former Hoffman Estates residents.

Both young people are graduates of Palatine High School. Miss Dutner is now assistant bookkeeper at Allen Aircraft Radio Corp. in Elk Grove and Mr. Crispino is attending Bradley University.

The wedding is set for Jan. 29 in Prince of Peace Church in Hoffman Estates.

June Berube

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Berube of Highland Park announce the engagement of their daughter, June, to Robert Ptack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ptack of Hoffman Estates.

Miss Berube, a graduate of the University of Dayton, is now employed with United Air Lines at O'Hare Field in Passenger Service. Her fiance, also employed with United, will be finishing his education at the University of Illinois.

A September wedding is planned. (S

Bonita Hahn

Announcing the engagement of their daughter, Bonita Marie, to John M. Wulfram, son of Fred Wulfram of Chicago, are the Lawrence Hahns of Rolling Meadows.

Miss Hahn is a graduate of Arlington High School and Niles School of Nursing. She is presently employed by Northwest Community Hospital. Her fiance attended Lane Tech High School and the Illinois Institute of Technology. He is now stationed at Fort McPherson, Ga., and in January he will be discharged from the Army.

Diane Matis

A June wedding is planned by Miss Diane Matis and Ronald Seegers, whose engagement is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Matis of Hammond, Ind. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Seegers of Mount Prospect.

Miss Matis, a Spanish teacher at Morton High School, Hammond, was graduated from Valparaiso University where she was affiliated with Chi Sigma Xi Sorority.

Her fiance, a graduate student in geography at Western Illinois University, also has his degree from Valparaiso. He was a member of Sigma Pi Fraternity while there.

Mary Ann Jennings

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Jennings of 1708 Jonquil, Arlington Heights, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ann, to Daniel James Johnson of Peoria. His parents, the George Johnsons, are residents of Seattle.

Miss Jennings was graduated in August from St. Francis School of Nursing in Peoria, and the couple plan to be married next Jan. 15.

Antique Collectors Hear Talk

Members of Salt Creek Chapter of The Questers, organization of antique lovers and students, traveled to Park Ridge Tuesday to hear a lecture by Mrs. Russell Griess, lecturer, collector and teacher of antiques and floral art.

Mrs. Griess made several floral arrangements in antique containers and told of her collection of Staffordshire pot lids.

THE QUESTERS will hold their annual pot luck luncheon Dec. 14 at the home of Mrs. Robert Edwards, 150 Firth Road, Inverness. Each member will bring an antique or decorator item for the Christmas auction held among chapter members.

Salt Creek chapter includes women from Palatine, Arlington Heights, Barrington, Des Plaines, Park Ridge and other northwest suburban communities. It has 25 members. (S

KNITTED ENSEMBLE in taupe and brown, modeled by Mrs. Donald R. Schmidt, and a black and white checked weskit over a black dress, modeled by Mrs. Lewis T. Smith, were two of the ensembles from the Cynthia Shoppe paraded in last week's "Captivating Enchantment." The luncheon show was sponsored by Prospect Heights Woman's Club and was held in Rolling Green Country Club.

GREETING GUESTS from his satin-padded "cage" was this white poodle puppy who had a role in "Captivating Enchantment," the luncheon and fashion show presented last week in Rolling Green Country Club by Prospect Heights Woman's Club. Admiring the puppy and his first hair cut were Mrs. Norman Earl and Mrs. William Caputo, both of Prospect Heights.

Sharon Smith, Now Mrs. James J. Peck

White flowers deocrated the altar of Palatine's First Methodist Church Oct. 30 for a double ring service in which Miss Sharon Smith, daughter of the Harlow H. Smiths, 114 N. Cedar, Palatine, became the bride of James J. Peck, son of the Clarence F. Pecks of Barrington. Rev. Wilbur M. Childress officiated at the 7 o'clock ceremony.

For her marriage the bride chose a white knit suit with corsage of white roses and carnations. She was given in marriage by her father.

Only attendant to the bride was the groom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Peck of Des Moines, who wore a turquoise mohair suit with corsage of white and turquoise carnations.

Frank Peck served his brother as best man and ushers were the bride's brother, Bill Smith, and her cousin, George Smith.

THE RECEPTION for 70 guests was held in the home of the bride's parents where Mrs. Smith received in an aqua blue suit and Mrs. Peck in a turquoise floral print dress. Both mothers chose white gardenia corsages.

The couple honeymooned for eight days in the north central states. The groom, an ET 3.C, has been in the Navy for two years and is presently stationed in Norfolk, Va. where his bride will soon join him.

The new Mrs. Peck was graduated from Palatine High School and is employed at Palatine Pastry Shop. The groom was graduated from Barrington High School. (S

COMMITTEE MEMBERS who worked on the Prospect Heights Woman's Club luncheon and fashion show, "Captivating Enchantment," included Mrs. Wayne Vanderhoof and Mrs. Donald McGowan. The affair was held Nov. 10 in Rolling Green Country Club where tables, in keeping with the theme, were decorated with bird cages holding greens and ornamental birds. (S

Benefit Scheduled For Indian Center

A Thanksgiving benefit for the American Indian Center in Chicago will be held this evening at Pioneer Park, 500 S. Fernandez, Arlington Heights.

The program will begin at 8 p.m. There is no admission charge, but guests are asked to bring canned goods to be donated to the Indian Center.

FEATURED ON the evening's program will be a group of about 12 American Indian dancers and a singer.

Greg and Lizbee Oster, members of Children of the American Revolution, the oldest children's patriotic organization in the United States, will perform "How Betsy Made the Flag," a minuet and a mazurka.

The Nancy Gardner Dancers of McHenry, Ill., will dance three numbers, an authentic Hawaiian dance, a modern jazz number and one entitled "Hello Dolly!"

ALL PERFORMERS will be costumed.

Richard D. Poweshiek, program director of the American Indian Center, which is owned and operated by the Indians themselves, will be present. Jewelry, handicraft and Christmas cards made by the Indians will be for sale.

This evening's benefit was arranged by Mrs. James Brown of Arlington Heights and her fellow worker at the Jewel Tea Co. in Barrington, Mrs. Ardeth Ellis.

Theme of the event is "Let's Share Another Thanksgiving with the Indians." (S

Treat Grease Spills On Carpet Quickly

On the practical side of your holiday or special celebration feasts, be sure to keep in mind the greasy types of foods which might be spilled on your rugs and carpets.

A few drops of gravy, turkey drippings or mincemeat pie can cause unsightly stains on your carpeting unless fast action is taken.

Although such stains will be the basis of the problem, they will also cause more rapid soiling in the affected areas as dirt will cling to the greasy parts.

HERE ARE some tips on handling such special mealtime accidents:

First, wipe up the excess with white absorbent material. For extra greasy spills use small amounts of a dry cleaning fluid, blotting after each application with white absorbent material.

Mix a solution of one teaspoon neutral detergent to one-half pint of lukewarm water. Apply in small amounts, blotting after each application.

After you have removed the stain, place a one-quarter inch layer of white absorbent material over the area and weight down with books for six to eight hours.

DONE CORRECTLY, your own immediate treatment will probably remove the stain. But, if your rug is prone to receiving regular spills, you should not overlook professional cleaning.

This will give the rug an even cleaning without emphasizing areas that have been spot cleaned. (S

Newcomers' Dinner Dance Is Dec. 4

Arlington Heights Newcomers Club will open the holiday season with a Christmas dinner dance, "The Balle-de-Noel," on Saturday, Dec. 4, at the Elks Club, Wilke Road, Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Lou Runge, chairman, promises a gay evening, with cocktails beginning at 6:30 p.m., followed by a sit-down dinner at 7:30 and dancing later to the music of Jerry Dittman.

Decorations, being made by Mrs. Bill Flynn and her committee, will be traditional Christmas with a touch of Paris. Dress is semi-formal. Ticket information is available from Mrs. Warren Clements, 392-2845.

Newcomers with less than 18 months residency in the Arlington Heights area are invited to attend a luncheon or an evening meeting. Membership chairman Mrs. Walter Donahue may be called at 392-9198 for details. (S

Old Orchard Becomes a Winter Wonderland of Fashion

PADDOCK PUBLICATIONS THURS., NOV. 18, 1965

Suburban Living
Especially for Women

TWO VERSIONS of the multicolor crocheted sweater were modeled by Mrs. Wayne L. Wilkins of Palatine and Mrs. Lawrence Fontana of Arlington Heights at "Winter Wonderland" fashion show Nov. 9. Sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of Arlington Heights Elks, the affair also included a luncheon in Old Orchard Country Club. Fashions were from the Lorraine-Anne Shop in Arlington Heights.

MATCHING CAMEL orlon and mohair cardigan and wool slim line skirt was the first ensemble modeled by Mrs. William Flinn of Arlington Heights, while Mrs. Claude Daley Jr., also of Arlington Heights was in a cranberry wool 2-piece knit suit in last week's "Winter Wonderland" fashion show. Fashions for the show were from Lorraine-Anne Shop of Arlington Heights.

GUESTS AT LAST week's "Winter Wonderland" luncheon and fashion show at Old Orchard Country Club included Mrs. James B. Murphy of Arlington Heights and her sister, Mrs. William Butterbaugh, also of Arlington Heights. Presenting the luncheon and show were members of the Ladies Auxiliary of Arlington Heights Elks Lodge 2048.

Office Opened By Electrologist

Useful items to be distributed to needy children in Chicago at Christmastime will be made at a workshop of the Women's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd at its regular meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Kenneth Van Cura, chairman of the Christian Service Committee, which is planning the project, said it will not take "too much talent."

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Dennis McGarrity, Mrs. Allan Lindsay, Mrs. Tom Brannan and Mrs. John Loprieno.

CHURCH MEMBERS are reminded to bring clean used clothing and used toys to church this coming Sunday and again Sunday, Nov. 28. Articles also may be brought to the church during the week. These will be picked up by the West Side Christian Parish in Chicago and used for needy youngsters in the area served by that parish.

Another project of the Women's Guild this fall has been the making of cancer dressings. Women are asked to save old sheets, shirts and other white materials to be used in making the dressings. A group meets at the church every other Thursday at 1 p.m. to work on them. More information may be had by calling Jane Harris, 437-0162. (S

Dolores Thon Selects Wedding Bouquets from Family Garden

A recent Arlington Heights bride, Dolores Marie Thon, personally selected all of the flowers for her wedding, taking them from the Arthur L. Thons' chrysanthemum display gardens on Golf Road. The family resides at 25 W. Golf. Her bridegroom is Carl Eugene Martin, son of the Alvin Martins of Terre Hill, Pa.

Their marriage took place Oct. 9 at 5:30 in the afternoon in St. Peter Lutheran Church, Arlington Heights, and was followed by a dinner reception for 60 guests in the church hall. Later the wedding cake was cut and gifts were opened in the Thon home.

THE YELLOW mums which graced the church altar for the double ring rites were combined with white glads, and all of the girls in the wedding party carried mums which ranged from yellow to bronze in shades.

Picking her own bouquet, the bride chose a cascade of white Raggedy Ann mums with ivy. For "something borrowed" she carried the same handkerchief as her mother did on her wedding day.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of silk organza and imported French chantilly lace, the basque bodice with sabrina neckline trimmed with seed pearls and sequins. The bouffant skirt, ending in a chapel train, had a cut-away front with a lace edge. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a Juliet crown of seed pearls and crystal beads set on chantilly lace.

REV. ROBERT O. BARTZ officiated at the ceremony, and the St. Peter adult choir sang "Wither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bridal attendants carried yellow and bronze mums to accent their gold dresses. Maid of honor Kathy Clark of Denver wore a floor-length deep gold shantastic with a bell skirt and fitted bodice, complemented by an empire jacket of white Venice lace, a matching headpiece and white opera gloves. Her bouquet was composed of light and dark bronze mums with ivy.

THE TWO bridesmaids, Lois Hetke and Sharon Clark of Arlington Heights, carried bronze and yellow mums with ivy, complementing their light gold shantastic dresses.

Also wearing light gold was the flower girl, Carol Thon of Arlington Heights, 6, who is a niece of the bride. She carried a natural colored wicker basket of bronze and yellow mums.

All of the attendants' gowns were designed by the bride.

Paul Stauffer of Lititz, Pa., was his friend's best man, and seating the guests were Kenneth and Clifford Martin, brothers of the groom, and Dick Kaufmann of Hutchinson, Kan.

WITNESSING her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Thon wore an ocean blue dress of crystal satin with an enbroidery bodice, gold accessories and a corsage of yellow mums. Mrs. Martin chose a royal blue shantung dress with black accessories and a bronze mum corsage.

The bride is an Arlington High School graduate and a former United Air Lines stewardess, and the groom is attending the University of Colorado while working for Walt Flanagan & Co. in Denver. They are residing at 2855 Quebec St.

Their 2-week honeymoon was spent in Hawaii, with a week at Waikiki and the remainder of the time touring the outer islands. (Jenart (S

Linda Bartz, Michael Hasley Are Showered with Carnations

Not only the traditional rice, but also carnations, were showered on Linda Bartz and her bridegroom, Michael Hasley, as they left Palatine's Immanuel Lutheran Church following their Oct. 23 wedding. Pastor Splitgerber officiated at the 4:30 p.m., double ring service, in a setting of white fuji mums and pompons.

The bride is the daughter of the Edwin C. Bartzes of Dundee Road, Palatine, and the grom is the son of the M.L. Hasleys, former Palatine residents now residing in Monroe, Wis.

The bride's choice in wedding gown was a long-sleeved sheath of re-embroidered Alencon lace with full cathedral train of bouquet taffeta attached to a wide cummerbund. Her matching bouffant fingertip veil was of French illusion, and she carried a cascade of phalaenopsis, stephanotis and ivy. She was given in marriage by her father.

A COUSIN OF the bride, Sandra Nowobilski of Glenview, served as the bride's maid of honor and bridesmaids were the bride's aunt, Nikki Bartz of Niles, another cousin, Nancy Elsner of Des Plaines, and Pamela Graham of Mount Prospect and Charlene Kaiser of Palatine.

Their floor-length gowns were fashioned along empire princess lines with avocado velveteen bodices and back streamers and crepe skirts in vanilla with Venice lace trim marking the high waistlines. Their cascade bouquets were of fuji mums, bronze poms and croton leaves. Buff daisy poms were added to the maid of honor's bouquet.

Also in the wedding party were two flower girls, 6-year-old twins, Teri and Charm Vartanian of Palatine, who were gowned like the bridesmaids.

Roland Chidley of Palatine was the groom's best man and ushers were the bride's uncle, Dick Bartz of Niles, Bob McWilliams and Ray McCaskey of Palatine and Pat Hasley, brother of the groom from Monroe. Lighting the candles was Frank Kaiser Jr.

Following the service, a buffet dinner was served to 375 guests in Carpenter's Hall, Des Plaines. The bride's cousin, Jim Bestmann, and his orchestra provided the dance music.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bartz chose a 2-piece aqua lace dress with white orchid corsage. Mrs. Hasley's choice was a 2-piece beige brocade with white orchid corsage.

The newlyweds honeymooned for a week in Miami and are now residing at 169 E. Chicago Ave., Palatine. Both were graduated from Palatine Township High School. The new Mrs. Hasley was also graduated from the American School of Beauty Culture in Chicago and is now with Boutique Coiffures in Mount Prospect. The groom attended Northern Illinois and LaCrosse State Universities and is now with Illinois Bell Telephone.

Denver Romance, Prelude To Wedding in Arlington

A romance that began in Denver when the bride was based there as a United Air Lines stewardess, and the groom, an Air Force lieutenant, was attending Intelligence School, culminated in marriage Oct. 16 for Carol Ann Weiser and Lester Ware Rooker.

The bride, an Arlington Heights girl, is the daughter of the F. Walter Weisers, 1021 N. Illinois Ave., and the groom is the son of Mrs. Grace Rooker of Meridian, Miss.

Scene of the wedding was St. Simon's Episcopal Church in Arlington Heights where Rev. Samuel N. Keys performed the nuptials in a setting of yellow mums accented with rust mums. A double ring service, the ceremony took place at 11 a.m.

The bride was escorted by her father and wore a floor-length gown with train of off-white satin trimmed with matching lace and seed pearls. Her veil, also off-white, was held in place with a crown trimmed with [illegible] carried a bouquet of white roses and [illegible]

THE BRIDE'S sister, Mrs. Andrew M. Toth of Arlington Heights served as Carol's only attendant. Her gown was in avocado velvet fashioned with long skirt and empire waist, and she carried yellow mums with accents of bittersweet.

The bride's mother chose a 3-piece dress of pale rust with matching lace blouse and cymbidium corsage of blending color. The groom's mother was in a raspberry dress with cream colored bymbidiums.

Best man to the groom was his uncle, Richard Allen Hill of Jackson, Miss., and ushers were the bride's brother-in-law, Andrew M. Toth of Arlington Heights, and P. Porcher Gregg, brother-in-law of the groom from Virginia Beach.

A wedding breakfast was served to the family and a few close friends in Old Orchard Country Club before the newlyweds left on a 2-week wedding trip to Mississippi, South Carolina and Florida. The couple is now residing in Tampa where the groom is stationed at McDill Air Force Base.

The new Mrs. Rooker was graduated from Arlington High School and also studied at the University of Illinois and Moser Secretarial College. The groom is a graduate of Mississippi State University.

Sue Heilig Elected As Honored Queen

Miss Sue Heilig, 730 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights, was elected honored queen of Bethel 103, Job's Daughters, Arlington Heights, when the group met Nov. 10. Elected as senior princess was Miss Debbie Deehring, 502 S Patton, Arlington Heights. Miss Vicki Slater, 406 W. Fremont, was elected junior princess, and Miss Janet Montgomery, 561 E. Elk Grove Blvd., Elk Grove Village was elected as guide. Marshal is Miss Terri Sanderson, 1807 N Kaspar, Arlington Heights.

Officers and other appointed officers will be installed Saturday, Deu. 4, in a 7:30 p.m. ceremony in Arlington Heights Masonic Temple.

MEMBERS OF THE Bethel have been invited to form an escort Saturday, Nov. 20, at the Temple for the installation of Joseph Meisl of Rolling Meadows as worship master of Arlington Heights Masonic Lodge 1162 AF and AM. Mr. Meisl also serves as associate guardian of the bethel.

Next meeting of the group will be Tuesday, Nov. 23, instead of the regularly scheduled Wednesday meeting. (S

Hair Care, Wigs Are Topic of 'Y' Women

A hairdressing and wig show, highlighted by live models, will entertain the YMCA Women's Auxiliary at 12:30 p.m. Nov. 30 for a luncheon meeting.

Ray Raines, owner of the Beauty Bar in Arlington Heights, who has devoted his life to making milady more beautiful, says hair care and styling at the "Bar" and in the home is of great importance. "Women have discovered the delight and convenience of owning wigs," says Mr. Raines, "So great care should be taken in the selection of wigs and hair-pieces." New fall and winter hair styles will also be modeled.

MR. RAINES is a past president of the Hairdressers Asoication of Chicago.

The 'Y' Auxiliary meeting will conclude in time for mothers to meet school schedules. Luncheon tickets include baby-sitting service.

Mrs. John Gobeille, CL 5-8410, or Mrs. E. Ogier, 358-6430, should be called for reservations. (S

AN ARLINGTON HEIGHTS couple, Marilyn B. Colburn and Philip M. Smith, were recently married in Our Lady of the Wayside Church and are now living in Mount Prospect. The bride's parents are the Harry W. Colburns of 535 Burton Place, and the groom is the son of the Philip A. Smiths of 833 S. Beverly. A reception at Biltmore Country Club followed the rites, and the newlyweds honeymooned in California.

BRIGHT COLORED BROOMS will be among the hundreds of handmade gifts on sale today, Nov. 18, when the Service League of Lake Bluff Children's Home holds its annual pre-Christmas "Little Sale" and lunch. Proceeds will go to the Home's clothing fund. Mrs. Richard Bronwell and Mrs. Herbert Cornelius, both of Arlington Heights, admire some of the colorful brooms. The sale is being held in the Park Ridge home of Mrs. Russell J. Gustafson. (S

Dolores Mantey and Groom Honeymoon on West Coast

After a 2-week honeymoon flight to San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. John Luberda are residing in Mount Prospect. The bride is the former Dolores Mantey, daughter of the Henry Manteys of Prairie View, and the groom is the son of the William Ghionzolis of Des Plaines.

Their wedding took place at 3 p.m. Oct. 16 in Our Lady of Hope Church in Des Plaines with Rev. John Dewes officiating.

For her marriage the bride chose a white satin, floor-length gown with appliques of Alencon lace on the bodice. The appliques also trimmed the center front of the gown and extended to the floor and around the chapel train. Her silk illusion veil was held in place with an aurora borealis crown. Her cascascade was of phalaenopsis, stephanotis and white glitter wheat.

MRS. LILLIAN Koch served the bride as matron of honor and bridesmatrons were Mrs. Jacqueline Knox and Mrs. Diane Lippeth. All wore sleeveless gold brocade gowns fashioned with controlled floor-length skirts. Their headpieces were fashioned into cabbage roses and they carried rust pompons and yellow fuji mums in a cascade design.

Keith Burmeister was the groom's best man and ushers were William Koser and Spencer Koch.

The reception was held in the Lake Zurich Legion Hall where Mrs. Mantey received the 250 guests in a gold and moss green brocade jacket dress with moss green accessories. Her flowers were green cymbidiums. Mrs. Ghionzoli chose a delphinium blue sleeveless sheath with beaded bodice, white and navy accessories and a corsage of white cymbidiums.

Both young people are employed by Commonwealth Edison Co. (S

Marcella Sauerland, Bride Of Francis William Weber

Large blue and white mums from her own flower shop filled baskets on the altar of Our Lady of the Wayside Church in Arlington Heights Oct. 30, when Mrs. Marcella Schafter Sauerland, 432 S. State Road, Arlington Heights, became the bride of Francis William Weber, 7 N. Vail, Arlington Heights. Mums and poms for the reception also came from the Sauerland Shop in Arlington Heights as did the bride's bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis and her daughter's bouquet of white carnations and pink roses. Her daughter, Karen, served as her mother's only attendant.

Artificial flowers, also from the shop, decorated the bridal car.

For her marriage Mrs. Sauerland chose a French blue peau de soie street-length sheath gown with blue lace bodice, and a headpiece of blue netting with blue bows. Karen was in a hot pink crepe sheath with hot pink lace overdress.

THE GROOM'S brother, Edward Weber of Arlington Heights, served as best man.

The recetion for 75 guests was held at Gunnell's Restaurant in Mount Prospect after which the newlyweds left on a week's wedding trip to Louisville and a visit with the bride's parents in Newton on the return trip.

Since Nov. 6, the newlyweds have been at home at 432 S. State Road, Arlington Heights. The bride, a widow, has three children, a married son, Keith, 22, Karen, 18, and Mark, 15. The groom, a widower, has a son, Michael, 9. Mr. Weber is with Arlington Heights Entertainers, Arlington Heights.

Celia Close and Groom Make Home in Sandburg Village

Now making their home in the Carl Sandburg Village in Chicago are newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Edward Wolf, who were married Oct. 16 in Arlington Heights Methodist Church. The bride is the former Celia Ann Close, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Close, 534 Bristol Lane, Arlington Heights, and the groom is the son of the Edwin E. Wolfs of Bonduel, Wis.

Officiating at the double ring service was Dr. Birger Dahl, former pastor of the Arlington church, who is now pastor of the Aurora Methodist Church. Decorating the altar were two bouquets of large mums and glads.

Ivory satin was the choice of the bride for her wedding gown. An empire waist, trumpet sleeves and seed pearl detail were features of the gown. Her head dress was a waist-length mantilla of silk illusion edged with a wide band of Alencon lace, and orchids, plumeria, stephanotis, smilax and ivy made up her bridal bouquet. Mr. Close gave his daughter in marriage.

MISS LINDA CLOSE served as her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Sheila Breen of Chicago, Diane Dailey of New York and Evelyn Murphy of Washington, D. C. All wore identical gowns of turquoise with velvet empire bodices in deep turquoise and crepe skirts in a lighter shade. Their cascade bouquets were purple asters in varying shades of purple with blue delphinium, cornflowers and smilax.

The groom's best man was his brother, Gary of Bonduel, and ushers were Glenn Archibald of Chicago, Richard Hurd of St. Louis and Charles Close of Arlington Heights, brother of the bride.

The reception for 150 guests was held in the Pantry in Park Ridge where Mrs. Close received in a gold and turquoise floor-length gown and Mrs. Wolf in a floor-length gown with green velvet bodice and green satin skirt. Both had corsages of cymbidiums.

The bride is a 1958 graduate of Arlington High School. She also studied at the University of Colorado and is now with Shield Products in Chicago. The groom was graduated from Lawrence University and is now with United States Printing and Lith.

The couple honeymooned at Lake of the Ozarks. (S

Wide Categories in Reading Offered at AAUW Book Fair

Where can bargain-minded readers locate used encyclopedia sets, priced at a fraction of their original cost? Text books in sundry categories? Fiction of all kinds, in hard and paper back editions? Children's books for little more than pennies? Early editions, possibly collector's items, on virtually every subject? How-to-do-it books, from carpentry to cooking? Sheet music and records, including vintage 78's and current stereo 33-1/3 r.p.m.'s?

Volumes covering such a practically unlimited range of subjects, categories and forms will be available at the Used Book Fair sponsored by the Arlington Heights branch of the American Association of University Women Friday and Saturday, Nov. 19 and 20, at the Randhurst Shopping Center. Mrs. F. N. Palmatier, Book Fair chairman, announces that Book Fair hours Friday will be 9 a.m. until 9:30 p.m., Saturday 9 a.m. until 6 p.m.

AN IMPORTANT function of the Used Book Fair is the encouragement of reading as a wholesome and stimulating activity. The Used Book Fair keeps books in circulation which otherwise might be gathering dust in their donors' attics.

According to Mrs. Dan Farris, proceeds from the Used Fair will be directed toward the AAUW Fellowships Program, the largest and oldest such program exclusively for women in the Unitted States. The Fellowships Program now provides more than 100 graduate fellowships annually to American women and women from other countries.

AAUW members and branches contribute more than $400,000 a year toward these fellowships. One such fund-raising project is the Used Book Fair, through which the Arlington Heights branch hopes to top its record 1964-65 fellowships contribution of over $500.

Final plans for the Used Book Fair were discussed at the Arlington Heights AAUW Nov. 11 general meeting, at which Mrs. Leon Lamet, legislative chairman and revenue study chairman of Illinois AAUW, was guest speaker. Mrs. Lamet discussed highlights of the recent Illinois state legislature which reflected particular AAUW interests and stressed the importance of women's influence on legislation. (S

Sacred Heart Parent Council To Hold Dance

The Sacred Heart of Mary Parents' Council presents its fall dinner dance this next Saturday at the "Cafe Girls Galore" located at the high school, 2800 Central Road, Rolling Meadows.

An evening of fun and entertainment is planned. Starting at 7:30 there will be music furnished by the Silvertones for both dancing and listening pleasure. At 9:30 the Russ Newman Band will play for dancing. All intermissions will be played by the Silvertones. A floor show will begin at 8.30 p.m.

BETWEEN 8 AND 9:30 p.m. a hot buffet dinner will be served.

Tickets for the parents have been sent home with the students, and any additional tickets may be purchased through the girls.

Tables are being reserved upon request. (SSD

Chicago Florist To Give Holiday Decorating Ideas

"Christmas Decorations," a presentation by Chicago florist Albert A. Anderson will highlight the next meeting of the Arlington Heights Garden Club at Pioneer Park Monday at 8 p.m.

Anderson, of Albert A. Anderson Florist, is a well-known metropolitan speaker on floral and landscape design. Through the utilization of seasonal greens incorporated with artificial flowers, he will create centerpieces to bring the spirit of Christmas into homes.

The garden club extends an invitation to all interested area residents. For further information call Mrs. Edward R. May, CL 5-2649. (S

Woman's Club Plans Dance For Holiday

A Christmas dance will be the high point of the holiday season for Mount Prospect Woman's Club. It will be held Friday, Dec. 3, beginning at 9 p.m. in the Antlers Room of the Elks Club, 495 Lee St., Des Plaines.

Pete Kalis and his combo will play for dancing.

TICKETS MAY be obtained from Mrs. L. F. Ostrom, CL 5-6130, or from Mrs. V. J. Sullivan, 392-3816, co-chairmen of the dance committee.

The holiday decorations and dance are being prepared by Mrs. W. A. Nelson, Mrs. C. R. Hansen, Mrs. Vincent Sheridan ond Mrs. R. L. Howard. (S

LINDA MARIE GALLAGHER, daughter of the junior A. James Gallaghers of Plum Grove Estates, Palatine, is among the young women of the 1965 Stritch Junior Service League who will be presented at this year's Stritch School of Medicine Annual Award Dinner. The affair, a $250-a-plate black tie dinner, will be held Tuesday, Nov. 23, in the Conrad Hilton's Grand Ballroom and International Ballroom. Linda is a student at Sacred Heart of Mary High School in Rolling Meadows.

Pre-Schoolers, Topic of Study

In the discussion that Mrs. Rhoda Allen of Fox Valley Mental Health Association led at the November meeting of Barrington Child Study Group, she stressed many ideas helpful to mothers of pre-schoolers. Speaking on "Ages and Stages of Child Development," Mrs. Allen suggested that a child should be allowed the joy of discovery — an essential element for a creative mind.

Other points covered dealt with questions on death, discipline and preparation for a new baby.

Following the "give and take" discussion, Mrs. James Herrlin gave a treasurer's report and refreshments were served by Mrs. Edward Hardy and her committee. (S

Suburban Home Economists Meet at O'Hare

Cast Selected for VT Children's Play

Village Theatre's children's play, "Greensleeves' Magic," has been cast by director Harriet Smith and will be presented on Dec. 11 and 12 at Prospect High School, Mount Prospect.

The "Greensleeves" cast includes such VT notables as John Lobenhofer in the role of the good king and Dorothy Watkins as his daughter the Princess. The evil Grand Duchess will be portrayed by veteran Shirley Freeman, and the Queen by Janet Hausler.

David Breitsprecher returns to the VT stage in the comic role of Fitzsneeze, the Grand Duchess's Prime Minister.

SEVERAL TALENTED teenagers are part of the "Greensleeves" cast. Grensleeves himself, the ageless proponent of the theory that everybody has a right to be happy, will be played by Wendy Gell. Bonnie Luster and Linda Randolph have the roles of two of the three lovely Princesses. Hank Silver, Jack Christiansen and Dan Kelsey will play three strong young men.

There will be two "Greensleeves" performances at 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. both days. Tickets are available through box office chairman Alice Linde: phone CL 9-3200, 9 to noon weekdays, 7 to 9 p.m. Mondays and Tuesdays. Tickets also will be on sale at the high school box office before all performances.

Lyric Closes Fall Season with 'Aida'

Northwest Chapter of Lyric Opera will close its fall series of operatic interludes with Verdi's "Aida," produced by Kay Nighorn.

The program will be held today (Thursday) at 1:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Louis Gross, 1014 Blackburn Drive, Inverness. Assisting her will be Mrs. Gerald Fitzgerald, Mrs. Edwin Bruning, Mrs. Thomas Blake and Mrs. Frank Seery.

It was an aria from "Aida" that Kay Nighorn sang when she won the soprano division at the Chicago Musicland Festival, sponsored by the Chicago Tribune. She studied at both the American Conservatory and the Chicago Conservatory of Music. It was at the latter school that she concentrated on operatic scores, studying with Eucibio Concialdi.

The part of the young Egyptian warrior, Ra Dames, will be sung by David Borgeson, a dramatic tenor from Prospect Heights. He is a graduate of Wittenburg University, and also studied at the American Conservatory of Music with Theodore Harrison and with Robert Lang at Roosevelt College. He is currently studying with Edwin Kemp at the American Conservatory. Borgeson is a soloist at the North Shore Methodist Church in Glencoe.

THE TRIANGULAR love plot is completed with Amneris, the Egyptian soverign's daughter. She will be Betty Stroh, who earlier sang in "Madame Butterfly." Mrs. Stroh has studied with Alexander Grant at the University of Colorado School of Music, and is now with Maude Beard in Barrington. She is the alto soloist at the Salem Church and a member of the Barrington Women's Chorus.

Lorraine Spiller of Barrington will be the narrator. She is also a graduate of the American Conservatory, having studied with Silvio Insano. Miriam Stieger, who has been the pianist in other chapter productions, will be the accompanist.

For this performance, the arias will be sung either in Italian or English. The costumes were designed and made by Mrs. Nighorn and Mrs. Stroh.

'Sunday in New York'

M&S Play Well Paced

by JOAN LORENSON

Staff Writer

Any cook knows a frothy whip can be ruined if it is allowed to settle.

Masque and Staff, Elk Grove Village community theatre group, kept the froth of a play, "Sunday in New York," light and flippant under the direction of Shirley Johnson.

An appreciative audience at Dempster Junior High School Friday and Saturday nights laughed their way through a well paced comedy.

"SUNDAY IN New York" by Norman Krasna tells of a 25-year-old woman visiting her bachelor brother in New York City. In the two days span of the play she meets a young man on a Fifth Avenue bus and finds herself with him in a compromising situation in her brother's apartment.

The problem is complicated when her boy friend from Albany makes a surprising appearance and proposes to her, unaware the young man in the apartment is not her brother.

Liz Romero as Eileen, the young woman, obviously was much more comfortable with this role than she was with that of Laura in "The Glass Menagerie" last season. The first scenes seemed somewhat awkward for her but once past them, she developed believable characterization. He movements were natural results of the situations in which she found herself.

GUY MARSH AS Mike Mitchell, the young man giving Eileen all her problems, gave a quietly convincing performance. Perhaps not the extrovert the playwright described, he managed to make the cliched lines not only bearable but funny. His agitation after being found in a bathrobe by Eileen's suitor showed touches of excellent pantomime.

The bon vivant with his boyish exuberance came through in Jim Spahr's portrayal of Russell Wilson, the boy friend.

Wally Meyer as Adam Taylor handled his role as big brother with overall ease. His performance notably improved after the first act.

THE TWO minor characters, around whom many of the changes were made, served as stereotypes that evoked audience laughter. However, the characterization of the waiter in the Longchamps Restaurant was overdrawn in poor taste. A check with the original play shows this same jarring note apparent in the 1961 production.

The set was tastefully done and served as backdrop for a variety of scenes. Criticism of the use of the couch as the Fifth Avenue bus, the restaurant settings, the movie theatre and a car would have to be directed at the playwright. Krasna wrote this specifically as the way to handle the scene. The use of the couch as a bus really strained an audience's imagination and introduced a note of slapstick that seemed out of place. One can only say the set followed Krasna's direction.

Lighting and sound effects were well done. The mechanical effects particularly showed ingenuity.

ONE MAN AT intermission commented he saw some truth in the problem of morality the play posed. Perhaps a playgoer could skim off some scant meaning.

Masque and Staff managed a slickly done bedroom farce, making it the entertainment it was meant to be. (Bill

'Ipcress File' to Open at Golf Mill

"The Ipcress File," produced by Harry Saltzman, who produced the James Bond thrillers, opens at the Golf Mill Theatre tomorrow (Friday) for an exclusive limited run engagement.

Newsweek magazine hailed "The Ipcress File" as "a thinking man's 'Goldfinger,' funnier by far than any of the Bond films and more rewarding, too!" Time magazine said, "Ipcress proves again that one of the primal pleasures of movie-going is a tingling, no nonsense suspense yarn enlivened by honest good humor!"

The Saturday matinee children's show, "The Man from Button Willow," will be preceded by a Three Stooges comedy festival. Theatre opens at 12:30 and program starts at 1:30 ending at 4 p.m. (Bill

Add Series of Youth Concerts

By popular demand, The Orchestral Association will inaugurate an additional series of three youth concerts Dec. 7 at Orchestra Hall, Irwin Hoffman conducting.

The concerts will take place at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesdays, Dec. 7, Feb. 1 and April 19 of the current season. They will precede the 3 o'clock performance of the "C" series on the same day. The programs of this "D" series will be identical to the A, B and C, series.

Subscription information for the new series is available from the symphony office, 220 S. Michigan, 427-0362.

Lynn Williams to Speak at Salt Box

Lynn A. Williams, founder and president of an Elk Grove Village industrial firm and unsuccessful Congressional candidate, will lead a "dialogue", 8 p.m. to midnight Saturday at the Salt Box, 1200 Landmeier Road.

The Salt Box is a coffee house recently opened by a group of people interested in having a place where stimulating conversation could be encouraged.

Williams will use as his material a speech he presented to a pastors' retreat of the Church Federation of Greater Chicago.

IN HIS SPEECH, he charged the church with having no noticeable influence in any major temporal happening in the last 50 years. He will describe how the church has had little influence in the ending of the two great world wars, on the growth of communism or the ending of colonial empires.

Science has come to replace religion as a way of understanding daily encounters with nature and as a way of dealing with it, Williams will tell his audience.

He is expected to make his evaluation of what the role of a church should be as a layman sees it. (Bill

May Buy Tickets To Ballet Film

Advance tickets for "An Evening with the Royal Ballet," starring Margot Fonteyn and Rudolph Nureyev, are on sale at the Randhurst Cinema box office.

The ballet film is scheduled for Dec. 1 and 2 at the Cinema. Performance times both days are 2:15 p.m. for the matinee and 8:15 for the evening. There will be a special students and teachers matinee at 4 p.m. Dec. 1.

In addition to individual tickets, the theatre will handle special arrangements for group sales. Tickets also may be obtained by mail: an alternate date or performance should be listed. Call the theatre for further information. (Bill

Makes Debut In 'Arsenic'

PENNY WERHANE

JUDY GLAZER

One of the stars of Capri Players' upcoming production of "Arsenic and Old Lace" will be making her little theatre debut in the play.

Penny Werhane of Des Plaines, who plays Abby, is the newcomer to footlights. She is employed at General Telephone Directory Co. in Des Plaines.

Martha, the other beloved old woman of "Arsenic," is being played by Judy Glazer of Prospect Heights. Not new to little theatre, Miss Glazer has appeared in "Yellow Jacket" and "The Matchmaker." She attended the University of Chicago, the Chicago Art Institute and Parsons College and also is employed by General Telephone Directory.

TOM PETROSINO, besides portraying the part of Teddy Roosevelt, is also directing the production. He attended the University of Southern Colorado, Columbia and Goodman, where he studied all phases of drama and theatre. While at Colorado, he received an award for his direction of the musical, "Carousel." Petrosino now attends DeVry Institute of Technology, studying for his degree in electrical engineering. He serves Capri as president, director and laboratory class instructor.

Other cast members are Lynn Keller of Des Plaines, as Elaine, Denny Striegel of Wheeling as Mortimer, Joe Kapsis of Elmhurst as Jonathan, John Donahue of Wheeling as Officer O'Hara, Bob Fisher of Prospect Heights as Officer Klein, Phil Smith of Prospect Heights as Officer Rooney, Jim Glazer of Prospect Heights as Officer Brophy, Dan Striegel of Elk Grove as Mr. Witherspoon and Dr. Harper, Bob Anderson of Wheeling as Mr. Gibbs and Wally Olson of Wheeling as Dr. Einstein.

"Arsenic and Old Lace," a story of two elderly sisters who help old men to a peaceful state via the use of arsenic and wine, will be presented at the Prospect High School little theatre. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday nights, Nov. 27 and 28. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

HANDLING BEHIND scenes duties are Lee Scheidt, wardrobe; Kathy Striegel and Diane Petrey, make-up; Fred Borland lighting; Jean Ditier, co-ordinating director; Kathy Striegel, publicity; Judy Glazer, set design and Penny Werhane, ticket sales.

The set will be reversed to what the Broadway play was. The victorian feeling will be prevalent with many antiques donated by people in the area. The elderly ladies' costumes are made by Mrs. Gilda Monteleona.

Painter on Program For Elmhurst Guild

Artist Walter Parke will do a "Portrait in Pastels" at today's (Thursday) meeting of the Elmhurst Artists Guild.

In addition to fine art, Parke has done advertising art for many years. A resident of Park Ridge, he studied at the Chicago Art Institute and American Academy.

His list of one-man shows includes the Chicago Galleries, Nashville Museum of Art and Columbia, S. C. Art Museum. Numbered among group shows in which he has exhibited are Union League Club of Chicago, Art Institute, Palette and Chisel Academy, Artists Guild of Chicago, Cliff Dwellers and Illinois State Fair.

FIFTEEN OF HIS paintings have been purchased for the Vincent Price collection of Sears Roebuck.

The Elmhurst Artist Guilds holds its monthly meetings at the Youth Center, 407 W. St. Charles Road, Elmhurst, every third Thursday at 8 p.m. Visitors are welcome.

The guild will have its 20th annual Fine Arts Exhibition Thanksgiving weekend at the Elmhurst College Union Building. Exhibit chairman Bert Coughlin of Itasca expects over 200 entries in paintings and crafts.

RIBBON AWARDS will be given in traditional and modern oil, in traditional and modern water color, in sculpture, craft and ceramics, in pastel and in miscellantous media. In addition, the Huboi Award will be given by the Men's Garden Club of Elmhurst for the best painting of a horticultural subject.

Judges will be Irving Shapiro and Walter Parke.

The exhibit will be open Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 27 and 28, between noon and 5 p.m. The College Union Building is located at 190 Prospect, Elmhurst. (Bill

'A Far Country'

Freud Good Theatre

by JOAN REDDY
Paddock Drama Critic

It's said that we live in the age of Freud. If so, Des Plaines Theatre Guild's latest play is a most appropriate one. "A Far Country," the story of Freud's first successful case in psychiatry, is fascinating playgoing for any one who has ever played the game of amateur psychoanalysis—and haven't we all?

Playwright Henry Denker sets his play in Dr. Freud's office at the turn of the century and lets the case of the beautiful, young noble woman, physically crippled by her own hysteria, "unravel like a ball of yarn."

By the time the third act curtain is about to part, the audience is on the edge of anticipation waiting for the labyrinth of the patient's mind to give up its secrets.

Director Jerry Epperson has assembled a capable cast. None of the hopelessly amatuerish performances in minor roles — too often symptomatic of community theater — is present.

OUTSTANDING ARE Harold Terchin as Freud and Fran Grose as his mother.

Terchin evidences the assurance of his past performances in the role with another company. His Freud is a zeelot beset by the fervor of discovery, but the humanity of the man is always present.

Fran Grose is the typicol Jewish mother, worring about her doctor son's career. Yet her characterization has sufficient power to carry the scene where the accidentals are stripped away and the frightened woman is revealed.

AS ELIZABETH Von Ritter, the patient, Toni Sawyer is physically the picture of Austrian nobility. She has the stage presence which commands attention. However, her performance is not all of one piece. She is convincing in the highly dramatic scenes where her mind is being searched. But she is less capable of the more subtle portrayal of the seemingly calm woman teetering on the brink of hysteria.

Judy Herbst as Freud's wife turns in a competent performance. However, she should concentrate more on relating to the other players when she is not directly involved in a scene. Being a good listener is an admirable quality in any woman, but particularly in an actress.

Also her voice needs training in modulation. Her most emotional scenes are unnecessarily shrill.

A GOOD, SOLID performance is given by Bob Bonnell as Freud's friend and colleague. He conveys the strength of the man who fought for a place in Vienna's medical world and the weakness of the man who is willing to compromise in order to stay there.

Director Epperson's hand is most clearly evident in confrontation scenes between the major characters. He skillfully uses small movements to highlight the speeches avoid the static.

Theweakness of the production lies in the prologue and epilogue which generally are unconvincing. But the major fault is the playwright's. Not content to let the greatness of Freud remain evident in his work, Denker added these appendages so that the judgment of the man could be tied up with a blue ribbon. He should have had more faith in his play.

CONFIDENT IN the stability of an established group, the Guild is entering its 20th season with an excellent selection of plays. "A Far Country," to be given again tomorrow and Saturday and Nov. 26 and 27, is an above average choice for a season that portends even better things to come. Shaw's "Arms and the Man" is the Guild's next undertaking. (Bill

Travelers Aid Helps Young, Old, Stranded

Blue-White Globe Is Sign of Help

by Joan Lorenson
Staff Writer

A little boy gripped a bag — the kind airlines sometimes give their passengers.

"He's terribly upset and won't even talk to me in French," a caseworker told a Traveler's Aid volunteer.

People hurrying down concourse G at O'Hare Airport quite easily could miss the sign of the blue and white globe in the glassed offices of the Travelers Aid Society.

But two suburbanites are well aware of the activities of this organization founded in the 1880's. Lois Lowe, 229 N. Church Road, Bensenville; and Virginia Volid, 248 S. Hale St., Palatine, both have helped with cases like this small Quebec boy traveling by himself to join a family moved to the West Coast.

Mrs. Lowe recalls her first case after she had completed a three-day Travelers Aid Society training session for volunteers last spring. She had to help a mother with six children under 11 years old. The mother had never been more than 50 miles away from the Wisconsin town where she lived, Mrs. Lowe remembers. She had to get to Philadelphia where the Army would take over for the remainder of the trip to Paris to join her husband. Mrs. Lowe helped to make this mother's layover at O'Hare easier.

On a Saturday night Mrs. Volid aided a 10-year-old and a 12-year-old going home from camp. The late arrival of their plane meant a camp counselor could not meet them to assure their transfer to a Florida-bound plane.

Such children cannot be placed in a motel by Travelers Aid. Mrs. Volid was able to contact the children's mother. She later received a note that the family drove the long distance to Miami, arriving eight minutes before their children's plane taxied in. The parents had preferred the children be put on the next plane going to Florida rather than spend the night in an emergency foster home or other agency home Travelers Aid sometimes uses.

Travelers Aid Society in Chicago served about 133,000 people last year, according to its statistics. Besides its central office at 22 W. Madison St., Chicago, it has offices at the Greyhound Bus Terminal, all the Chicago railroad stations, and at O'Hare Airport.

Los Angeles' Travelers Aid pioneered airport service in 1950 with Chicago following at Midway in 1952. It later transferred its operation to O'Hare.

Last year Travelers Aid helped 2,000 stranded job seekers, 1,900 children traveling alone, 1,600 aged travelers, 1,200 foreign travelers, 1,075 handicapped travelers, 470 runaways, and 400 mentally ill or retarded persons. In addition to this caseload, it gave special services to 10,000 people; information service to 69,000; and worked with the USO handling 47,000 people.

"Whatever is at our door is our caseload for the day," explains Mrs. Betty Gordon, director of professional services. "Our 'waiting list' is on the bench."

"We see a lot of upset people," Mrs. Gordon explains. Many are traveling because of some personal or family crisis." It is the objective of the caseworker to try to get the person to draw on every ounce of self-determination he has to solve his problem, she explained.

Non-residents are not eligible for help from other agencies in the Chicago metropolitan area. This may mean Travelers Aid caseworkers—all with master's degrees in social work—may work with someone for months.

"We see a lot of young people who have not planned well in uprooting themselves and coming to the city," Mrs. Gordon said. Some need to be persuaded to return to their original homes, others helped in this transition.

The volunteers help in the agency's work by doing the legwork in many cases. They usually meet the planes or trains on which they've been notified their help will be needed.

Mrs. Lowe and Mrs. Volid explained they've been trained to detect how serious a problem is. If it is serious, they direct the person to a caseworker.

Mrs. Volid could handle a case of a Puerto Rican couple arriving at O'Hare Airport. The friends who were to meet them were not there. Neither the husband nor the wife spoke English and they had no telephone numbers where their friends could be reached. Mrs. Volid began checking with a city directory in the home office to see if a telephone number could be found. During this process, the friends were found and 10 people set off for Michigan by car.

"You have to like people," the two volunteers admitted. Both go into superlatives in describing their work. Mrs. Volid, an outgoing woman, has been a volunteer for three years. In addition, she does volunteer work with the Countryside Art Gallery and Northwest Community Hospital.

Mrs. Lowe had heard of Travelers Aid so it seemed a natural for volunteer work when her youngest child enrolled in college.

Volunteers soon learn to be "attuned to people," Mrs. Lowe commented.

At O'Hare it is not uncommon for the volunteers to meet adoptive children. "Often we stay with the nervous, adoptive parents, before they meet their child," Mrs. Volid said.

The two volunteers also have helped Job Corps youth in transit. The increased number of military personnel traveling means more servicemen need their help. Sometimes a serviceman plans his finances too closely, not allowing for an emergency, one of the volunteers commented.

Mrs. Volid had a case where two young people came out to see O'Hare Airport and didn't have sufficient fare to get home. Sometimes a caseworker must persuade a youth that he must turn to family or friends for help. Any situation involving insufficient funds must be handled by a caseworker.

Recently an airlines referred a case to Travelers Aid that did not involve insufficiency of funds but no legal documents or necessary vaccinations. A 30-year-old mother with three boys was returning to the Orient from North Carolina. She had been given the necessary money but said her documents had burned in a fire. The family was unwilling for her to return since a marriage apparently had been unsuccessful. Senior caseworker Virginia Carpenette was given this problem.

Mrs. Gordon explained that bus terminals sometimes get difficult cases involving unprepared young people coming to the city. But sometimes the most urgent cases requiring quick medical or psychiatric care may be handled at the airport, she added. The airport staff, for example, recalled the case of a young girl in her 20's who had become mentally unbalanced while on a plane from the West Coast. A Travelers Aid caseworker met the plane and shielded the girl from publicity. "They're working in a glass house," Mrs. Gordon noted.

A social worker arranged to have her admitted to a private hospital until the family could arrive and return her home.

Travelers Aid has a consulting staff psychiatrist.

The Travelers Aid Society has a definite procedure in handling runaways. A 16-year-old was brought into the central office by a young couple who had met her in Old Town and taken her in. A caseworker persuaded her to contact her parents.

In lengthy interviews she discussed the girl's relationship with her parents and the reasons for the desperate step of running away. When the frantic parents were reunited with the girl, they underwent some counseling. They agreed to seek a home agency's help. Not every case ends so fortunately, Mrs. Gordon pointed out.

The volunteers do not find the work tiring though they often are on their feet. They readily adjusted to the long treks involved in getting from one location to another at the nation's busiest airport.

"Some cases are sad and they do get to you," Mrs. Lowe commented. Another volunteer commented she finds "so many unfinished stories."

Travelers Aid Society lists itself as a social service agency dealing with every type of travel-related personal and sociol-economic problem. But to the traveler in distress the blue and white globe simply means help.

(A15

TRAVELERS AID Society volunteers Lois Lowe, 229 N. Church Road, Bensenville, and Virginia Volid, 248 S. Hale St., Palatine, do the "legwork" for the caseworkers in this social service agency that handles every type of travel related personal and socio-economic problem. Many people coming through O'Hare Airport are traveling because of family or personal crises.

Travelers Aid Needs Volunteers

Volunteers for Travelers Aid serving in Chicago's rail, bus and air terminals handle a variety of situations, including giving city directions and information about local transportation, theaters, museums and hotels; hostessing in the Travelers Aid-USO lounges at Union and Grand Central stations and in Loop USO Center; interpreting for foreign travelers and immigrants; helping locate families and friends and aiding the aged and handicapped.

Travelers Aid Society of Metropolitan Chicago tries to maintain a large corps of volunteers to allow the agency's caseworkers to devote most of their time to the travelers in serious trouble. Volunteers are carefully trained to assist the casework staff and handle the agency's information and USO hospitality services.

Because at least 300 volunteers are needed to work the three daily shifts in the agency's eight intake centers and two USO lounges, Travelers Aid recruits and trains new volunteers twice a year. Prospective volunteers may arrange for an interview by calling the volunteer bureau of the welfare council, AN 3-0640, for an appointment. (A15

Increase in Loan Losses Reported

The record rise in loans at commercial banks in the past four years has been accompanied by sharply higher loan losses, said the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago in the November issue of its monthly review, "Business Conditions."

Bank loans have gone up 60 per cent since economic activity began to rise in 1961, a much greater increase than in other recent periods of economic expansion. This rapid growth of bank loans, along with a few spectacular business failures and the rise in personal bankruptcies, has raised questions about the quality of outstanding loans.

The final measure of credit quality is whether a loan is paid off as scheduled. Potential losses cannot be measured in advance, but the trend in losses actually charged-off by banks provides some clue about changes in loan quality. As measured by this criterion, the quality of loans, although high in any absolute sense, may be somewhat lower than during the Fifties.

GROSS LOAN losses amounted to 400 million dollars at insured commercial banks last year compared with only 80 million dollars in 1950. As a per cent of outstanding loans, average net losses (gross losses minus recoveries on previous losses) in the past four years have been about double the average in the Fifties and are at a record high for the postwar period.

The Bank cautions that averages often conceal substantial variation. Despite the larger losses sustained by the banking system, the vast majority of banks have very low losses. Over the past ten years smaller banks have tended to experience greater net losses than the large — and medium-sized banks.

In the same period, loss experience has also varied by geographic location — member banks in Midwest Federal Reserve districts experienced lower net losses than those in the nation as a whole.

Unusual circumstances have influenced the loss statistics in a few years — part of the sharp increase in losses in 1960 reflected charge-offs at banks in New York and some other areas resulting from the Cuban revolution. Nevertheless, the increase in loan losses in the Sixties has been shared generally by banks in all the Federal Reserve districts and by all sizes of banks.

BOTH LOSSES and loan income are affected by the kinds of loans a bank makes. Evidence from the 1964 earnings reports of Seventh District member banks indicates a positive relationship between overall losses at individual banks and their concentration in consumer loans.

A study of loan losses in 1957-58 at Seventh District member banks revealed net losses on consumer and business loans were considerably higher than on other types of loans. Although higher interest or lower servicing costs may more than compensate for higher loss rates on classes of loans known to have higher risk, the Bank concludes that this may not have been the case in the past four years.

Coupled with loan earnings data, the information on loan losses indicates some inability on the part of some banks to balance increased risk with higher interest rates on loans.

Sproul Named Phone Engineering Chief

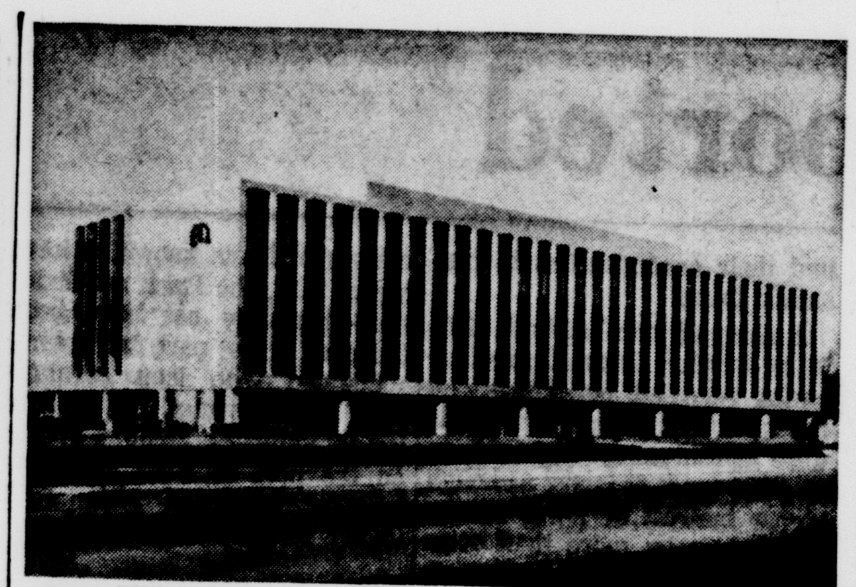
Malcolm R. Sproul, 1860 Durham Drive, Inverness, has been appointed north division engineering manager of Illinois Bell Telephone's Chicago area engineering department.

Sproul joined Illinois Bell in 1929 as a student in the state area plant department following his graduation from Iowa State College with a B.S. degree in mechanical engineering. He held various posts in that department until 1937 when he moved into engineering. In 1952 he was transferred to the operations and engineering department of American Telephone and Telegraph in New York.

HE RETURNED to Illinois Bell in 1958 as a staff and personnel engineer of the Chicago area. In 1960 he became division engineering manager of the north shore division and in 1964 was named to that post in the midstate division.

MALCOLM R. SPROUL

Sproul and his wife, Helen, have one daughter, Mrs. Patricia J. Wise; and a son, Dean.



THIS NEW HEADQUARTERS of The Austin Company's 15-state Chicago District and its rapidly expanding Process Division is conveniently located at 2001 Rand Road in Des Plaines just off the Tri-State Tollway and within five minutes drive of O'Hare Field. (10BB

Austin Has Long Chicago History

The establishment of The Austin Company's Process Division and its Chicago District in their own new headquarters at 2001 Rand Road in Des Plaines, calls to mind this city's strategic role in what has come to be one of the world's largest engineering and construction organizations.

For it was the opportunity to help rebuild Chicago after the great fire that lured Samuel Austin, a British journeyman carpenter who founded the company, to America in 1872.

Active in the Chicago area as a construction firm since 1895, Austin estimates that the value of the process and manufacturing plants, commercial buildings, broadcasting, publishing and other facilities designed and erected under supervision of its Chicago-based staffs since that time, is in excess of half-a-billion dollars.

IDEAL accommodations for more than 300 engineering and 50 office personnel have been provided on two floors of the 48,000 square foot structure. It faces a section of the Cook County Forest Preserve and dominates a triangular block bounded by Rand Road, Dempster Street and Garland Lane. Covered parking facilities are provided at the ground floor level where a glass enclosed stair and elevator lobby leads to the district and division offices and drafting rooms on the upper floors.

The Chicago District, headed by Vice-President Rollin R. Eiber, was established in 1918 and was located at 510 North Dearborn Street from 1927 until completion of the new Des Plaines headquarters. It provides all-inclusive design, engineering and construction services to Austin clients in 15 midwestern and adjoining states.

EXAMPLES OF Austin's earlier work in the Chicago area include the city's first large all-welded industrial plant for General Motors' Electro-Motive Division at La Grange; Sinclair Refining Company's Research Center in Harvey, and the world's largest timber structure and air field at what is now O'Hare Field, where Douglas Aircraft built Army transport planes during World War II.

Austin's more recent work locally includes Automatic Electric's manufacturing plant in Northlake; testing facilities for Underwriters' Laboratories, at Northbrook; expansion of Mars Inc's Chicago chocolate plant and Chicago Bridge and Iron's headquarters at Oak Brook.

Success Reported By Regent Park

The United Development Co. reports that in less than a year Regent Park, in Arlington Heights, has over three quarters of a million dollars in housing, sold and occupied. Another two million dollars in construction is now in progress with over a half million sold already. These sales are in both townhouse and condominium units.

With the major share of condominium construction taking place within the city, Regent Park's success could be an indication of a trend reversal—toward the suburbs. However, in Regent Park, residents are offered more benefits than they might expect to find in the usual condominium locations.

IN REGENT Park, which is built around the landscaped shoreline of its own private lake, there is a complete "caretaker" program. Lawnmowing, hedge trimming, exterior painting, and snow shoveling are taken care of. Maintenance is provided for the private swimming pool, tennis courts, lake and landscaped grounds.

Regent Park's condominium offer one, two or three bedroom apartments, all with electric heating, room-by-room temperature control and individually controlled air conditioning. Kitchens feature built-in oven range, dishwasher and disposal. There are "patio balconies" and carpeting included in each apartment. An automatic elevator serves all levels, including the covered, built-in garage. Units are priced from $20,900 to $33,400 (including private garage facilities).

Furnished model condominium apartments as well as model townhouses may be visited any day from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Regent Park is located in Arlington Heights, on Kensington Road, one-half mile west of the Randhurst Shopping Center. (15BB

Koeder Reaches 25-Year Milestone

LAMBERT KOEDER

Lambert Koeder, 717 Prospect Manor, Mount Prospect, is celebrating his 25th anniversary with Teletype Corp. in Skokie.

Koeder began his career with the communications equipment manufacturer in 1940 as a bench hand and within two years he advanced to machine setter. On that assignment, he was responsible for a number of years for instructing employes on new manufacturing procedures. Koeder assumed supervisory duties in 1956 when he advanced to section chief of expediting and machining.

Koeder is a member of the Loyal Order of the Moose and is also active in the Telephone Pioneers, whose membership requirement is activity in communications for 21 years or more.

Koeder and his wife, Genevieve, have three children: Lynn Karen and Sue. (10BB

Ends Long Career with Prudential

Joseph C. McChesney, an agent in Prudential's Lake View (Chicago) district, retired recently following more than 34 years with the company.

JOSEPH C. McCHESNEY

A native of Kentucky, McChesney was educated in Dawson Springs, Ky. He was in the real estate business prior to joining Prudential in 1931.

Mr. and Mrs. McChesney live at 3415 Campbell, Rolling Meadows. They are the parents of one son, John, and have five grandchildren. (10BB

Kjos to Speak On Choral Music

Choral directors and voice teachers from Midwest schools, colleges and churches will hear music publisher, Neil A. Kjos Jr., discuss choral programming at Roosevelt University's Vocal-Choral Conference, at 1:30 p.m. Nov. 27, in Rudolph Ganz Recital Hall.

Appearing with Kjos in a panel discussion concerning selection and performance of choral music are Miss Margaret Hillis, conductor, Chicago Symphony Orchestra Chorus, and Emile Serposs, director of music, Chicago Public Schools.

Roosevelt University's Director of Choral Activities, Martin R. Rice, will serve as moderator.

Kjos, 2709 Elayne Court, Arlington Heights, is sales manager for Neil A. Kjos Music Co., Park Ridge.

He has sung with the St. Olaf Choir, Northfield, Minn., and the Singvereign Der Musik Freunde, Vienna, Austria. A former director of the St. Olaf Viking Male Chorus, Kjos has also conducted several Air Force and church choirs. (10BB

PLUM GROVE VILLAGE: Courtway View. The courtway between homes at Plum Grove Village is spacious and well-cared for. It is kept cleared in all kinds of weather. The area is shared, semi-privately, by residents of four homes—each of which is entered via its own patio and garden entrance opening onto the courtway.

28 Women Join Builder in Home Ownership Symposium

How people in the prime of life can get the greatest enjoyment from home ownership was the theme of a recent luncheon discussion led by Albert Riley, builder of Plum Grove Village, a planned adult community at Plum Grove ond Kirchoff Roads, about one-and-one-half miles west of Arlington Heights.

Participating in the discussion were 28 representatives of various women's organizations in Rolling Meadows, Arlington Heights, Palatine, and Mount Prospect. The women toured Plum Grove Village before the luncheon discussion.

AT THE LUNCHEON meeting, Riley explained that Plum Grove Village is an adult community planned for families with children 13 years old and older. He pointed out that the idea behind it is to offer the advantages of home ownership without some of the burdensome responsibilities. The homes have air conditioning and homeowners have no physical responsibility of exterior upkeep.

Explaining the security measures, Riley said that all the streets are private and cars of residents must have a special sticker. Street parking is not permitted overnight. Each home has an attached two-car garage and patrolling police will investigate any car left outside at night.

In response to questions about the professional maintenance, Riley said all services provided, including the upkeep of grounds and maintenance costs, will run about $35 a month. The figure covers repairs, painting, tuckpointing of exterior walls, roof maintenance, care of private streets and lawn areas, insurance on the common land, snow removal, maintenance of signs and outside lighting, and maintenance of sewer, water and electrical lines to point of entrance into the indidivual home.

FOUR MODELS are being shown: two one-story, or ranch, plans and two two-story designs. Either two or three bedrooms are provided and every home offers two baths, basement, two-car garage and electric heating and air-conditioning. The specially-designed kitchen has many cabinets and matching eye-level oven, range, exhaust hood and fans, double sink and disposal.

The homes are priced from $29,000 to $33,000, site included.

Each Plum Grove Village home is designed around its own enclosed patio-terrace. It is surrounded on three sides by the house and garage — on the fourth side by a high, decorative brick wall. Main entrance to each home is through the patio, via an outer gate flanked by two antique wall lights.

Complete development of Plum Grove Village is proceeding and a park and lagoon near the center of the all-residential community will be finished in the near future. Entrance is on Kirchoff Road, about a half-mile west of Route 53. Models are open daily from 10 a.m. till dusk. (15BB

NEW TRIPLE ACTION faucet by Moen offers both an aerated stream and a spray plus providing wide swivel action so water can be directed to every corner in the sink. The ball socket design allows the spray or aerated stream to be revolved 190 degrees and swung up a full 35 degrees in any direction. The new Moen single handled faucet permits selections of both water volume and temperature by operating one handle. (15BB

Guild to Work on Christmas Project

Electrologist Bonita M. Garbe has recently opened an office in Arlington Heights at 1800 E. Northwest Highway. Noting the feminine problem of "Superfluous" hair, she declares that the only way to remove such hair is by electrolysis.

Miss Garbe explains that a hair is usually straight from its tip to the root where it reaches the papilla. She points out that tweezing may cause the hair to curve under the skin. Further, tweezing and waxing remove the whole hair temporarily and shaving and depilatories remove only the part of the hair above the surface of the skin. Both processes must be repeated frequently.

ACCORDING TO Miss Garbe, electrolysis helps to straighten the hair, making it possible to reach the papilla. The percentage of hair which will grow out again is very small.

The new method, moreover, is fast. It takes only a fraction of a second to coagulate the papilla. An electronic timing device shuts off the current automatically, eliminating the chance of human error.

The number of treatments necessary for complete hair removal depends on the amount of hair, coarseness and location as well as texture of the skin. There is no pain involved, only a slight tingling or warm sensation. (10BB

Railroader Writes On 'Steam Power'

A new volume on steam locomotives entitled, "Steam Power," covers an exciting era in American railroading.

"Steam Power" is the result of efforts of Charles T. Knudsen, who once served as a fireman or engineer on a number of the locomotives described. The book is Midwestern in locale in that it concentrates on the locomotives of the Chicago and North Western railroad over a span of 108 years beginning in 1848.

"STEAM POWER" represents the first time any collection of steam locomotive photographs of the Northwestern has appeared in book form. There are more than 300, ranging from the Pioneer, which was Chicago's first locomotive, to the heavy mountain type engines, relied on to move troops and material during World War II, in the 208 pages of "Steam Power."

Because the North Western has been on the Chicago scene for 117 years, there is much in the book to interest those Chicagoans and Chicago area commuters intrigued by the city's past. The book also brings reminders of an era that will never return to farmers, merchants, resort operators and others in the nine Midwestern states interlaced by the railroad's 10,000 mile network.

School Men Visit Phone Laboratories

VISITORS TO the Bell Telephone Laboratories in Murray Hill, N.J., Harold L. Slichenmyer, (center) Cecil E. Spearman, (right) and Thomas Maloney, (seated) receive a briefing on the features of the Picturephone from TV Crater, member of the Picturephone Studies Group. Picturephone, a new telephone service under study at the labs, allows the caller and the person he is calling to see each other provided both parties have Picturephone.
10BB

Harold L. Slichenmyer, superintendent of Township High School District 214, was among a group of high school science teachers and administrators from many states who recently visited Bell Telephone Laboratories at Murray Hill, N J.

Slichenmyer and Cecil E. Spearman, superintendent of School Districts 86 and 181 in Hinsdale, were guests of the Illinois Bell Telephone Co.

THE PURPOSE OF the visit was to inform educators of the Bell System's science student-teacher visit program at Bell Laboratories. As part of the Bell System's effort to encourage a continuing interest in science and engineering, the program gives outstanding science students and their teachers an opportunity to see current scientific projects in a laboratory setting.

Slichenmyer said, "The opportunity to witness business and research in action at the labs is a most valuable experience for school administrators."

Slichenmyer, a graduate of the University of Illinois, came as a member of its Legislative Committee.

In Arlington Heights he is a member of the Lions Club, a board member of the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce, and a former board member of the YMCA and Boy Scouts. (A to School District 214 in 1945 as dean of boys. He later served as director of guidance and then as administrative assistant to the superintendent before becoming superintendent in 1954.

He has served as chairman of the West Suburban Superintendents Club, president and program chairman of the Superintendents Study Club, president of the Superintendents Round Table of Northern Illinois, and secretary-treasurer of the West Suburban Conference.

Dorrington Named to Sales Post

Howard F. Dorrington has been appointed as a sales representative in the Illinois-Wisconsin district of W. R. Grace & Co.'s Dearborn chemical division.

Dorrington will serve customers in the metropolitan Chicago area who use chemicals and equipment for water treatment, metal cleaners and protective coatings.

A DEARBORN employee for the past eight years, Dorrington served as a laboratory technician in the research and development laboratory and later as district technical director, Illinois-Wisconsin District. He obtained his chemical training at the University of Illinois.

With his wife, Marianne, and family, Dorrington lives at 2907 Grouse Lane, Rolling Meadows.

Of course you enjoy the office, but home is where you keep the rest of your life!

A successful businessman is one who looks forward to going to work.

He has fun in the world of commerce, because he has a lot to contribute to plans, and people, and progress. He works very hard from 9 to 5, but probably the reason for his dedication and effectiveness is what happens in his life from 5 to 9.

Fox Point in Barrington would seem to appeal most to a particular kind of man:

He's still crazy about his wife.

He doesn't get boresome about it, but he is rather proud of his kids, and he wants them exposed to the best school system he can find.

His home is more to him than just a house.

It's a place that's not too far from the golf course, or the tennis courts.

Home is convenient to town, but not a part of it.

And though it seems a world away, it's only five minutes from the railroad station.

Home is built well enough to be at least somewhat carefree.

It's designed for the convenience of his wife, so that she has plenty of free time, too.

And it's the kind of place his children want to bring their friends to, so that he doesn't have to worry about where they are, and what they're doing.

And finally, home is a place in which he can be proud to entertain friends, and clients, and business associates. It is a satisfying reward for being so good at what he does from 9 to 5.

If this is the kind of guy you are, perhaps you should see Fox Point.

At least we'd like to see you, because you're our kind of people.

HINTS TO HOMEOWNERS

by Richard H. DeLano, Associate Farm Advisor

ALERT HOMEOWNERS DIAL DAILY 392-3060

Most people are about ready to give a sigh of relief as the lawn care season comes to an end. It means a temporary rest from a full season of activity. There are just a few final chores to do before snow arrives.

By all means keep cutting the lawn as long as it needs it. You can cut it at the same height or even a little shorter. Left long, it means you'll have to rake out a lot of dead grass next spring.

Disease problems will be reduced if all leaves are raked from the lawn now. Their soaking and matting will prevent air circulation and thus create favorable humid conditions for the various grass diseases.

EVEN BEFORE leaves are raked some lawns this fall are exhibiting powdery mildew. If severe, it can kill fall plantings of new lawns. A lawn heavily infected looks as if it has been dusted with flour or lime. Examination of the grass blades reveals a white, powder-like growth. Since this fungus grows on the outside of the blade of grass it can be easily controlled by an application of Karathane.

Some people apply fertilizer at this time. This eliminates storage of leftover partial bags which may become lumpy over winter. However, it can, during a warm late fall, cause a flush of growth that is less winter hardy. Many people feel it's safer to wait until next March.

This is a good time to have your lawn soil tested. Samples taken now, before the ground freezes, will provide the precise information you will need for next year's fertilization. A test once every three to four years is suggested.

THE SAMPLE IS prepared by obtaining a root free three to four inch slice of soil from ten locations in the lawn. Collect the slices in a plastic pail and mix.

About a pint of this soil mixture can be sent in for testing at the local farm advisers office. The usual charge is one dollar per sample. Be sure to indicate if the soil is from a lawn, flower or vegetable garden.

After all the lawn chores are finished it is a good idea to wind up with some special care for the power mower. A few minutes spent now will save hours next spring and will probably increase the mower's life.

Start by draining the oil and replacing it with new oil. Next run the motor to thoroughly circulate the new oil. Allow the motor to run until the gasoline supply is exhausted. This will dry the tank, fuel lines, and carburetor. Gasoline left in the motor over winter will evaporate leaving a gummy deposit. That will make spring starting difficult.

FINALLY REMOVE the spark plug and add a tablespoon of oil in the hole. If the spark plug is on a side, inject the oil from a measuring spoon with an eye dropper. Turn the engine over a few times by pulling the starter cord. This will coat the cylinder and valves with the rust preventing oil. Be sure to replace the spark plug.

Finally, check the air cleaner, the cutting blade and cover the exhaust pipe with a tin can.

Your lawn and lawn mower are now ready for action the first thing next spring. (15BB

Appraiser Wins M.A.I. Designation

Theodore R. Kowalski, 77 Forest Lane, Elk Grove, was awarded the M.A.I. designation by the Governing Council of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers at its annual meeting in Chicago, last May 10. This designation automatically admits Kowalski to membership in the institute. Fewer than 3,800 appraisers have qualified for this designation since the institute was founded in 1932.

KOWALSKI HAS HAD over seven years' experience in appraising residential, commercial, industrial, and special purpose properties. He has appraised real estate in eight states and was previously employed by Baird & Warner, Inc., Fairfield Savings and Loan Association, and Mid-America Appraisal and Research Corp. He is presently self employed as a real estate appraiser.

Kowalski is a member of the Chicago Real Estate Board, Junior Real Estate Board of Chicago and is a senior residential appraiser in the Society of Real Estate Appraisers.

He is a graduate of Northwestern University and Weber High School in Chicago. He also attended St. Benedist College, Atchison, Kan.

All-Star Idea Is Fine But . . .

Do you get the feeling, as we do, that some of these all-conference football teams in high school are getting out of hand?

The Suburban League named 35 boys to a first team and had 18 honorable mentions. The Des Plaines Valley honored 27 on its first team and 24 on the honorable mention list. The Mid Suburban named 23 boys to the first team with 13 honorable mentions, and this is only a six-team league. The West Suburban honored 23 but eliminated honorable mention.

It's always baffled us why all leagues don't pick offensive and defensive units. Some divisions do, but the majority stick with one team of linemen and backs.

The game today is filled with specialists and these specialists shouldn't be overlooked.

Where do you put the defensive halfback or safety who doesn't play any offense? Do you put him in a first team backfield loaded with youngsters who own big rushing averages and other sparkling statistics?

If a boy is a stickout linebacker and also excels in an offensive department, he can be honored on both units. But if a boy is restricted to defense because that's where the coach wants him, should he be overlooked when the post-season honors are passed out?

When we talked with La-Grange coach J. O. Jackson before the Arlington game, he discussed his star linebacker Oscar Sliva in terms of "All-State." But Sliva didn't even make all-league when the selections were made last week.

"Oscar is not only all-conference but all-state as well," Jackson emphasized again. "The problem arises from the fact that he played defense almost exclusively for us, and by tradition all-conference team members are boys who play both ways or just offense. That can't alter the fact, though, that Oscar was brilliant on defense. In fact, the only game we lost (Hinsdale) was the only game he didn't play. And we missed him."

The all-star idea is fine, but some changes could be made without hurting the selections. We'd welcome two eleven-man teams and then an honorable mention list. Some loops do it this way. Why not everyone?

Paddock Publications reporters covered 69 area high school football games for the 1965 season. In addition to the three regular members of the sports staff, others who helped out were Marv Prellberg Jr., Jim Fruehling, Randy Thomas, Dick Camp, Dick Davis, Fred Boedeker, and Tony Farrell. Paddock reporters will cover approximately 200 basketball games during the winter, starting this weekend.

Two Stars Who 'Got Away'. . .

Like fishermen, football coaches can also talk about the "ones that got away."

Urbana High School, one of the state's finest schoolboy elevens, captured the Big 12 championship last Friday with a 19-7 conquest of Champaign, and one of the key performers on that Tiger squad was a boy who spent his first year at Forest View High.

Brian Ford, a solid 180-pounder, earned all-conference honors as a halfback at Urbana this fall. He carried the ball 106 times for 623 yards, a fine 5.9 average, and caught three passes for 28 yards. He scored four touchdowns.

Ford, who also starred on defense, was a power runner and smashing blocker.

Ford was a standout end as a freshman at Forest View in the 1962 season. He was one of the big reasons the Falcon plebes, guided by Bob Walther, turned in a 4-1-2 record.

You can be sure Falcon coach Bob Scott would have welcomed Ford on both the 1964 and 1965 outfits.

An All-State end last fall was a Rolling Meadows resident in his final year of grade school. Mike Murawski, a 6-3, 220-pounder who earned all-state honors at Lockport and now is a freshman at the University of Illinois, was in the eighth grade in Rolling Meadows before moving to Lockport.

Lloyd Meyer, coach of Arlington's American Legion baseball team during the summer, reports that his ace southpaw Tom Lundgren, who prepped at Forest View, has been drawing raves for his work in fall baseball at the University of Missouri. In six innings against varsity pitching Lundgren, a freshman, struck out 15 hitters, walked two, and allowed three hits. Lundgren was drafted by the Cleveland Indians but decided to attend Missouri.

Mid-Suburban Teams Cited . . .

Ranking high school football and basketball teams sometimes borders on the ridiculous, but we were interested in the top ten prep elevens as selected by the Champaign News-Gazette.

The News-Gazette, generally recognized as a leading voice in high school athletics, ranks schoolboy teams throughout the season and also picks an All-State squad.

Thornton was acclaimed the top team in Illinois, and you can't argue with that. The Wildcats were unbeaten in nine games and didn't receive even a scare along the way.

Others in the top ten were East St. Louis, Evanston, Peoria Spalding, Chicago Loyola, Chicago Leo, Palatine, Maine West, LaGrange, and Pekin.

The selections give the Mid-Suburban Conference something to brag about with two of its members — Palatine and Maine West — labeled the seventh and eighth best teams in Illinois.

We wouldn't be too surprised if at least three-fourths of the college All-America backfield has already been selected. Doesn't it seem likely that the halfbacks will be Mike Garrett of Southern California (despite his bad day against Notre Dame) and Floyd Little of Syracuse and the fullback will be Jim Grabowski of Illinois? A few weeks ago Purdue's Bob Griese looked like a cinch for quarterback, but now that position rates a question-mark.

Ten Years Ago This Week . . .

Arlington halfback Johnny Sujack was named to the All-State backfield by the Champaign News-Gazette. . . Arlington toppled Woodstock 69-49 in the basketball opener with Sujack and Bill Randag collecting 20 points each.

Owens Directs Wildcat Unit

Wheeling Hosts Rich Central Saturday in Hardwood Debut

By MICHAEL HESS

Some teams can "live in the past" but for Wheeling cagers such a practice would be like no "living" at all.

Wildcats basketball, '65 - '66 version, starts this Saturday. Coach Mike Owens' quintet hosts Rich Central in that opening contest.

As a new campaign begins, resting on past laurels isn't possible for Wheeling. With just one season and a 1-19 record in their history, anything connected with 'Cats court past is best forgotten.

Thus, while recognizing that last year produced lots of experience and a poor won-lost mark, basketball emphasis for Owens & Co. must be on what's ahead. First step on the future trail is Rich Central.

PREPARING to face the RC Olympians is a starting five featuring facets which are old, new, borrowed and blue. Wildcats' hopes rest on the successful wedding of these elements.

"Old" on the beginning Wheeling crew are returning lettermen Tom Neukrantz and Scott Bischoff.

Neukrantz is a 6-1 guard who was tabbed as Most Valuable Player among 'Cats players last season. He was third highest scorer for Owens with 115 points in the school's initial campaign. His main value was as a playmaker.

Though he was just a sophomore one year ago, Bischoff ended as his team's leading rebounder and second high scorer. Shooting 40 per cent from the floor and 73 per cent from the foul line, Bischoff totaled 143 points and also pulled down 79 rebounds. Those totals resulted in spite of missing six games with injuries.

MIKE OWENS

A junior, Bischoff, 6-0, will open at forward.

The other guard and forward posts will be manned by a "new' element in Wheeling's cage picture, promoted JV players. They are Rex Peterson, a 5-10 junior at guard, and Bill Brown, a 6-2 senior forward.

"BORROWED" for the 'Cats use is the boy slated to fill the center position. That's Tim Strahan, a sophomore, who transferred to Wheeling this year from Niles West. He's 6-3 and could bring a "blue" note to the team because of a bone chip in

BISHOP McNAMARA'S highly touted fullback Steve Lampert, shown here crashing through the St. Viator line for short yardage, was bothered by a bad ankle Sunday and carried only six times for 36 yards as the Irish dropped a 20-6 decision to the host Lions. Lampert was the leading scorer in the Kankakee area for the 1965 season and had been pushed as an All-State candidate. (Staff Photo)

Thanksgiving Eve Opener

Three Lettermen on Cards' Cage Outfit

by BOB FRISK

They'll remember the 1964-65 basketball season at Arlington High School as the year of the slow start and fast finish.

The varsity Cardinals dropped five straight games at the outset of the campaign and then roared back with 15 victories in their next 20 games and a berth in the sectional tournament.

That was a club with three experienced seniors and two sophomores on the starting five.

Bob Conner, Chuck Lloyd, and Mike Frase — the three seniors — graduated in June and took with them 774 points.

Conner, a 6-foot-5 performer, was the leading scorer as a senior with 327 markers, and Bob dialed 583 points in his varsity career.

CONNER, LLOYD, and Frase will be missed, but the sophs are back — as experienced juniors — and that's a good start for Ted Wissen, who is starting his third year as cage boss at Arlington High.

Steve Allen (6-3) and Dave Lockwood (6-0), who started at guard and forward on the varsity Cards as sophs, and Bruce Hubbard (6-6), a reliable sixth man in the latter stages of the 1964-65 season, are the returning lettermen as Wissen prepares Arlington for its season opener Thanksgiving Eve with neighboring Palatine.

Allen, who earned all-conference honors at quarterback in football while establishing six new school passing records, pumped through 236 points in cage action last winter, an Arlington High mark for a sophomore in varsity play. Steve also topped the varsity in accuracy at the free throw line with a .727 percentage on 88 attempts.

LOCKWOOD, who with Allen is headed for nine varsity letters at Arlington in three sports, collected 224 points in the 1964-65 campaign, and Hubbard, an all-league end in football, flipped in 63.

Hubbard came on strong at the end of the season with some fine relief chores.

Wissen currently is working with 17 boys on the varsity squad. He has not decided whether any additional cuts would be necessary. Twenty-three boys reported for the initial drills Wednesday, Nov. 10.

OTHERS LISTED on the varsity roster are forwards Jim Jorgensen (6-4), Steve Conley (6-3), Bob Hecht (6-1), and Jim Swanezy (6-1); centers Jim Donchess (6-6) and George Bergstrom (6-5); and guards Terry Townley (5-10), Pete Barker (5-8), John Blomquist (5-11), Jim Bressler (5-10), Doug Fink (5-10), Mike Grant

But Could Be Tough

Lions Lose All-Stater

by BOB FRISK

Replacing a super-star, a youngster who excelled in all phases of the game, is the formidable task confronting St. Viator's Larry Nomellini as he prepares the varsity basketball Lions for their season opener.

Graduation ceremonies last spring at St. Viator took an All-Stater who rewrote the school record book with some spectacular performances.

Chuck Grandt, a 6-4 performer who scored 546 points for the season and 939 in an amazing varsity career, was the main graduation loss, but Nomellini, the Lions' cage boss, can still see some promise for the season ahead.

"The potential is there," he said earlier this week. "I doubt if anyone will come up to Grandt's performance although that's hard to tell yet. He was a great ballplayer, a real leader.

"WE COULD HAVE some balanced scoring on this team, but it's strictly a wait and see thing right now. Injuries have hurt. We haven't been able to work a unit together."

St. Viator will kick off its season on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 26-27, in the Immaculate Conception tournament.

Although Nomellini lost Grandt by graduation, he does have some size and experience returning. Paul Pomplun (6-7) and Paul Dumke (6-3) worked with Grandt under the basket last winter and combined for 507 points.

POMPLUN COLLECTED 286 points and was the club's top rebounder. Paul could be one of the area's finest performers this winter. He's a good jumper and shooter who hit at a .458 clip from the floor as a junior.

Dumke is a solid 6-3 forward. He tossed in 221 points last season while shooting .441 from the floor. He can also help out in the important rebounding department.

John Loughman, a 5-9 guard, is the other returning letterman. Loughman, who was an all-tourney selection on St. Viator's state finalist baseball team, scored 120 points in a reserve role but did work his way into the starting alignment at the end of the season. He's a good shooter and floor man.

CHUCK GRANDT
A Major Loss

Kinneman at Knights' Helm

Prospect Five Journeys To Libertyville Saturday

by MICHAEL HESS

One question and its answer will determine Prospect High School's basketball future.

The question is simple: Can athletic excellence in underclass play be successfully transferred to varsity competition?

The answer is complicated. A partial reply will come Saturday as the Knights open 1965-66 cage action with a trip to Libertyville.

Just one Prospect player has had varsity experience. All others have been standouts on soph or JV quintets. Knights' coach Dick Kenneman realizes his dilemma.

"There's very little experience on the team," said the headman, "but everyone has played a lot on the lower levels. As a result, we may not jell completely until around mid-season."

KINNEMAN IS back at Prospect's helm after a year's absence. The Knights were directed to an 18-7 record by Warren Collier last season. From 1959 to 1964 Kinneman guided Prospect cagers to 99 wins and only 24 losses.

Lone returnee from varsity play of one season ago is junior Tom Lundstedt. As a soph Lundstedt, 6-3, poured in 97 points in 48 quarters of play for that varsity outfit. He shot 48 percent from the floor and 70 percent from the foul line.

Lundstedt will open at forward against Libertyville. Joining him will be four who starred last year in junior varsity play. Tom Beard, Dan Agard, J. D. Thorne and Tony Kulasa. All are seniors.

Beard, 6-3½, will be at center. As a JV he averaged over 10 points per game and hit a high of 19 in one contest.

DICK KINNEMAN

Agard's high one year ago was 17 points and the 6-1 football standout will open at forward.

Guard spots go to Thorne and Kulasa. Thorne, 6-0. hit for over 20 points twice last year and averaged over 12 points per game. He and Kulasa, 5-11, are fast and specialize in nifty ball handling.

As junior varsity entries those four helped Prospect's JV quintet to a 17-1 mark. The only loss came against Libertyville in the opening '64-'65 battle. At the varsity level the Knights stopped the Wildcats 59-57 one year ago.

SIXTH MAN ON the Prospect varsity is a junior who helped pace last years sophomore aggregation to an unbeaten 16-0 standard. That's 6-4½ Dave Kingman who averaged 13 points per game for the sophs but is presently hampered by an ankle injury.

"Kingman is practicing now," offers Kinneman, "but he's not yet at full strength. He should

Under Laws of Gravity . . .

Prospect '65 Eleven Falls to 1-4-3 Mark

by MICHAEL HESS

Athletics, as well as apples, must have been on Isaac Newton's mind when he said, "What goes up must come down."

The gravity of Newton's statement certainly applies to some athletic entries at some schools. Just look at Prospect football.

After six seasons during which they compiled a 36-10 record, Knights gridders finally fell from the heights. Under coach Don Williams they recorded a dismal 1-4-3 mark in the just-completed campaign.

Consequences of Prospect's decline in won-lost totals were unfortunate. Chief among those bad results was the drop to fourth place, at 1-2-2, among Mid-Suburban League elevens. In addition, there were numerous adverse records set by the Knights of 1965.

AMONG THOSE records were:

—fewest wins in a season, one (old record was three in 1963);

—most ties in a season, three (there wasn't another in Prospect history);

—most times shutout in a season, four (only previous blanking for the Knights was a 13-0 loss to Proviso West in 1963);

—fewest points scored in a season, 53 (old record was 121 in 1959);

—most points given up in a game, 40 (Maine West set the old mark at 34 in 1963);

—most total yards given up in a game, 413 (the previous high of 402 was established by North Chicago in 1963);

—most touchdowns given up in a game, six (Maine West hit the old high of five in 1963);

—biggest losing margin in a single game, 33 points (a 34-14 score against Maine West in 1963 set the old record at 20).

THE SEASON, certainly a record breaker, started with a 20-7 loss to North Chicago. Then came three straight whitewash jobs as Prospect's offense just couldn't get started. First was a loss to Niles West 3-0 and then scoreless ties with Maine South and Wheeling.

While offensively the Knights were miserable during the first half of '65, they were excellent on defense. Still, at the halfway point, they showed an 0-2-2 mark. Then came a reversal.

Maine West pounded the defense in battle number five and re-wrote several records in winning 40-7. That drubbing gave life to the offense which tied Forest View 19-19, fell before league leader Palatine 28-0 and, finally, won its first game 20-19 from winless Conant.

"After the first four games," explains coach Williams, "we had to do something about our offense. We brought up some juniors and began working on nothing but offense. The juniors did well and we did some scoring, but our defense was hurt."

THOSE JUNIORS mentioned by their headman did very well indeed.

Best of the underclassmen was quarterback Tom Lundstedt. He ended up leading the Knights in total offense, mainly on his passing. He hit on 19 of 53 attempts for 406 yards and three touchdowns and scored one TD though he played just half the season.

Other juniors to perform well were Bob Destafanis, Vince Curry and Dave Kingman.

Destafanis rushed for 104 yards in 24 carries and Curry carried for 75 yards and two scores in the same number of tries. Kingman did all the Prospect punting, doubled on defense, and caught one TD pass.

At the top of the Knights rushing column are a trio of seniors. Nick Rutigliano banged for 232 yards in 61 tries, Fred Wesley for 124 yards on 28 carries and Bob Grady for 111 yards in 39 attempts. Rutigliano lunged for one six-pointer.

BACKING UP the passes of Lundstedt were those thrown by Gary Guerin. Guerin hit on 50 per cent of 58 tosses for 203 yards. With Bob Mutert's 40 yards passing the Knights totaled 649 yards through the air compared with 613 on the ground.

DON WILLIAMS

Along the line there were several standouts for Prospect. Best of them was guard Dan Agard though ends Tom Beard, J. D. Thorne, and others also had good years.

Agard totaled over 105 solo tackles and 90 assists for the year. He was selected as the Knights honorary Captain at season's end and "was the most valuable player we had" according to Williams.

"Beard played very well during the year," said Williams. "Though he was hurt at one point he caught many passes (two for scores) and was phenomenal in the defensive backfield. Thorne also played well allye ar."

Other linemen mentioned by Williams for their top flight play were senior Rick Bertoglio, who "was good at three positions," and juniors Rodger Anderson, Dave Chapmen and Jeff Bates.

AGARD AND BEARD were honored for their efforts with selection to the all Mid-Suburban League team. Agard was also tabbed for all-state honors by league coaches.

"Over-all," Williams said, "of course it was a disappointing season. We were hurt most by not having anyone with varsity experience and by the poor turnout of boys which was the smallest since I've been at the school."

And what about next year? Answered the Knights' headman:

"The juniors we had up with the varsity this season should give us a good nucleus to work with. But, we'll have to get more kids coming out. Without a bigger turnout, we just can't compete physically."

(5-10), Larry Malcolmson (5-8), and Mike Wadzita (5-10).

Barker, Bergstrom, and Jorgensen did score in varsity action last winter although their appearances were limited.

In two seasons at the helm Wissen has directed Arlington teams to 21 victories in 47 games. He followed 6-16 debut with that impressive 15-10 mark and regional championship in 1964-65 and now is hoping for another profitable season.

One thing is certain. Ted does not want another start similar to last winter when Arlington waited until Dec. 12 for that first victory.

Pirate Preview

The first public showing of Palatine's basketball players will be this Friday night.

The potential varsity and junior varsity performers for the 1965-66 season will go on view with an intra-squad game at 7:30 p.m. at the Wood St. gymnasium. The varsity is being handled again this year by Bud Mueller and the JV by Chuck Johannson.

Palatine athletic director Earl Stutzman advises that the event will be open to the public. All home Pirate basketball games will be played at Wood St., with the frosh-soph — and the wrestling and gymnastics — competition at the Fremd school.

Young and Old

Youngest member of the 1965 University of Illinois football squad is Tom Haeflinger, sophomore tackle from Milwaukee, who won't be 19 years old until Nov. 19. Oldest Illini is linebacker Bill Harper of Peo-

Arneson Heads Falcons

by MICHAEL HESS

"With envy"—that's the only way to describe how opponents must view Forest View's gathering basketball forces.

Coach Ken Arneson's cage Falcons don't open their new season until next Wednesday. But from the material returning it's easy to see that FV could be formidable.

In the '64-'65 campaign, Forest View compiled a 15-8 mark. Of the top seven scorers and top seven rebounders from that unit, five have returned. They are Jim Baumgardt, Pat Dunnigan, Jeff Grismer, Byron Borgardt and Bill Widinski.

One year ago Baumgardt scored 265 points and had 250 rebounds. Dunnigan tossed in 248 points and gathered 167 rebounds. Grismer had 165 points and 124 rebounds while Borgardt and Widinski made 190 points and 91 rebounds between them.

IF THEY maintain their averages from last season, those five senior letter winners would average 42 points and 30 rebounds. Those figures of course discount any reserve help and dismiss expected improvement. Forest View could easily be a basketball powerhouse.

Lone blemish on the bright picture at FV is an injury to Baumgardt. He hurt a leg playing football and could be out at least another two or three weeks. He'll definitely miss the Falcons first two games.

"Trying to fill the gap left by Baumgardt has been tough," commented coach Arneson. "He's 6-4, a good scorer and good rebounder and filling in for him won't be easy."

So, while forwards Dunnigan, 6-2, and Grismer, 6-2, and guards Borgardt, 5-11, and Widenski, 5-9, are tentatively scheduled to start for FV, finding someone to replace Baumgardt at center has been the Falcons chore.

Temporarily filling the vacancy might be either 6-3 junior Howie Brasch or senior Jim Rennhack, 6-0. "Whoever can get the most rebounds will get the job," said Arneson. "Of course it is possible that we'll move Dunnigan into center and put Buckholz or Mueller at forward."

BOTH JIM Buckholz and Steve Mueller are seniors. Buckholz is 6-0 ond was with the FV junior varsity team last year while Mueller, 5-11, saw part time varsity action. "Mueller has been hurt," explained Arneson, "but once he heals he should see lots of action for us."

KEN ARNESON

Other seniors on the team are Bob Erlander, 5-9, Rodger Mollenkamp, 5-9, and Kurt Koentopp, 6-0. The only other junior, along with Brasch, is 6-0 Bucky Jones.

"Jones was outstanding with the sophomores last year," said Arneson. "He's a good ball handler, excellent dribbler — a very good all-around prospect."

The opening game for Forest View is with Proviso West. Thus far the Falcons have been sticking to fundamentals in preparation for that contest. On the showings of his four possible starters Arneson offered the following capsule observations:

"Widinski so far has improved on the mistakes he made last year. He doesn't travel so much and has cut down on his fouling. He's definitely a spark plug of this team and a very good rebounder for his height.

"BORGARDT has looked good in practice. He seems to be much more dependable than he was a year ago."

"Grismer is definitely our best outside shooter. He seemed to lack aggressiveness on offense last year but has shown much more in our practices."

"Dunnigan (an all Mid-Suburban League and all Paddock Area pick last year) has been moving well. He's always been able to shoot and rebound and is very adaptable. He can play almost anywhere on the court and still do a good job."

There were 35 candidates who showed up for varsity and junior varsity basketball this year at Forest View. "Getting enough to come out has always been a problem here," stated Arneson, "but the turn-out this year is the best we've ever had."

Lion Basketball

JOININ UGHMAN at the guard slot are Frank Hogan (5-10) and Johnny Gregory (5-8), two promising juniors. Hogan owns a deadly jump shot and was a big scorer on the sophs in the 1964-65 season. Gregory is a fierce competitor who makes up for his lack of size with his determination.

In addition to Dumke, other forward prospects are Dan Collins (5-9½), Emille Bataille (6-0), Jim McNamara (6-1), Greg Polich (6-2), and Dan Miksta (6-0). McNamara, who has been working at forward and guard and showing some promise, has been sidelined with a leg injury.

Greg Ryan (6-4), a junior, backs up Pomplun at center.

"In general, we're coming along pretty well," Nomellini summed up. "I have about eight boys now who could help but I just haven't had a chance to get a good look at the group together. We're hoping everyone will be available this week."

Nomellini guided the Lions to a 14-11 mark last winter, a school record for victories.

No, it won't seem the same without Chuck Grandt around this season, but don't sell the Lions short. This could be an interesting club.

Wheeling Cagers

his toe.

"Strahan has been coming along very well," said coach Owens, "but his balance and moving have been hurt by that injury. I expect he'll be ready by Saturday."

As sixth and seventh men for Wheeling there are two 5-11 players with experience. Mark Newman, the 6th man, is a senior who led his team in scoring one year ago with 217 points on 93 field goals and 31 fouls shots. Skip Grandt is a junior who saw lower level action in '64-'65.

Leading the Rich Central aggregation is 6-1 senior guard guard Mike Logan.

Logan won his letter last year and also paced his team in scoring with a 15.5 point per game average. He was an all South-east Suburban League selection.

JOINING Logan at guard is another emblem wearer, 6-1 senior Tom Peters. Possibly replacing Peters in the starting RC scheme of things is 5-10 senior Carl Quanstron.

There are three candidates for forward jobs among the Olympians. RC coach Norm Held tabs seniors Randy Madderon, 6-3, and Bob Ewing, 6-1, along with junior Dick Blanchard, 6-2, as possibilities. "Madderon played about 50 per cent of the time on the varsity last season," said Held. "Blanchard and Ewing haven't had much experience."

Inexperience is also a correct label for the Olympians' starting center Mark Logan, brother of Mike. Mark, a 6-3 junior, "played some" on the varsity one year ago according to Held.

Held, in his first year as varsity coach at Rich Central, spent the past two years as an RC lower level coach. His younger teams compiled a two season mark of 41-9. Before that he was cage director in Potomac and Katlin, two downstate Illinois schools.

"I'm very optimistic about our chances this year," comments Held. "I hope we can win around 20 or more ball games. I really don't know what to expect in our opener against Wheeling."

WILDCATS' headman Owens is a bit unsure about what his team will do against RC. Said Owens:

"We're still trying to get into shape. While we haven't looked very organized yet, we'll be ready for Rich Central. They'll probably fast break a lot and we'll be using a zone defense. What we'll do on offense is hard to say but we'll play a lot of kids and see what everyone can do."

The varsity game at Wheeling's court will be preceded by a sophomore preliminary which is set to get underway at 7 p.m.

be able to play Saturday and may eventually do some starting for us, possibly at center."

Other front line subs are seniors Ray Kleinhuzen, 6-3; Craig Wolf, 6-1; and Rick Pauly, 6-1. All three are forwards. When others falter the replacement choice will be made from among seniors Gary Guerin, 6-; Fred Wesley, 5-11; Paul Peterson, 6-0; and Tom Johnson, 5-11.

As outlined by Kinneman, Prospect's offense will feature the use of just one guard, a double pivot and two wing or corner men. Lundstedt and Beard would be in the high and low pivots, Agard and Thorne on the wings and Kulasa at guard although numerous variations are possible.

"IT SEEMS TO be the best offense to use with our personnel," Kinneman said. "The boys have shown lots of hustle and desire up to now, we have fair speed and size, and maybe those qualities can overcome our lack of varsity experience."

In the Libertyville Wildcats, Prospect will find a strong test in the opening outing.

Under coach Larry Leon Libertyville was 11-10 last year and finished fourth, at 8-6, in North Suburban League play. Three senior lettermen return to pace the Wildcats as they start a new campaign.

Topping the returnees is Ron Pfenning. a 6-2 center. He averaged 12 points a game last season. "We have to count on Pfenning for a lot of our scoring and rebounding this year," said Leon. "Our main problems are size and experience and Pfenning has the most of each."

OTHER EMBLEM wearers are 6-1 Gary Jones and 6-0 Ron Kok-Alblas. They'll open at the forward positions for Libertyville. Rounding out the starting unit will be guards chosen from among juniors Mike Nutting, 5-11; Jim Mellen, 5-8; and Bruce Jordan, 5-7.

M-SL Statistics Show How Pirates Took Top

by MICHAEL HESS

One standout, yeoman defense and over-all consistency . . .

The above qualities won a Mid-Suburban League football crown for Palatine. Those aspects of grid play are reflected in final M-SL statistics.

John Ekeberg, a junior, was the Pirates' standout. He took conference rushing and total offense honors while tying for the league scoring lead. Ekeberg ran for 462 yards, passed for 13 yards, making a grand total of 475 yards, and scored 48 points.

Defense, combined with Ekeberg's potent bursts, led to most Palatine triumphs. Coach John Ellis' eleven didn't allow any M-SL opponent to score. They also gave up just 636 yards, 329 rushing and 307 passing, best of any league entry.

ELSEWHERE IN the Mid-Suburban numbers race Palatine didn't end ahead in any category but consistent showings put the champs always near the top. Only in passing, where they picked up just 228 yards, were the Pirates last.

Close behind Ekeberg in the rushing race, and tied with him for first in scoring, was Steve Ryden of Maine West. Ryden got 436 yards rushing, a figure which also made him second in total offense.

Three teammates of Ryden were also among the leading ten runners. Junior Ken Mandelky was third with 414 yards on the ground while soph Bob Banger, with 224 yards, was fifth and Jim Kautz was tenth with 127. Kautz was fourth in scoring with 30 points and Mandelky, whose 8.63 yards per carry mark was best in league, was sixth in scoring with 19 points.

Efforts by Ryden, Mandelky, Banger and Kautz put Maine's ground total at 1426 yards, the best, and also helped the Warriors take the total yards gained standard at 1659.

MW was also best in rushing defense, holding opponents to 273 yards, an average of 55 per game, but was worst in pass defense, giving up 522 yards, and next to worst in passing offense with 233 yards.

FOREST VIEW was tops in passing.

The Falcons stopped other aerialists with only 157 yards during conference action, a skimpy 31 yards per game, and were best in pass offense with a total of 649 yards. At the same time, however, FV was worst in ground defense, giving up 952 yards.

Individually the grid performer showing most balance in final totals was Forest View's Pat Dunnigan. He was third in scoring, 42 points, fourth in rushing, 290 yards, sixth in passing, 160 yards, and third in total offense, 450 yards.

Other Falcons to crack the statistical leaders were Chuck Boesenberg and Steve Mueller.

Boesenberg, eighth in scoring with 13 points, was the second best M-SL passer, throwing for 322 yards. A rushing figure of 25 put his over-all total at 347 yards, good enough for sixth place in total offense.

MUELLER connected on 11 of 27 air attempts for 167 yards. He rushed for 92 yards and his over-all 259 yards put him eighth in the total offense column.

Top Mid-Suburban League passer was junior Tom Lundstedt of Prospect. He hit on 19 of 53 passes for 406 yards, a 35.8 per cent standard. His throws were good for three touchdowns.

Best TD tosser in the conference was Conant's Jeff Klopf. He made contact with four receivers in end zones. Klopf's 46 air tries were second behind Lundstedt and he tied Lundstedt for the most completions at 19.

Rushing behind Lundstedt and Klopf for Prospect and Conant were Nick Rutigliano and Art Leitz. The Knights' Rutigliano was eighth in rushing with 153 yards while, at 143 yards, Leitz was ninth for the Cougars.

WHEELING placed two among the top performers in closing M-SL statistics. John Hittman, though he missed one league contest, was still sixth in rushing with 208 yards and Mark Newman, with 256 yards on 16 completions, was the third best passer.

'Little Mo' Here For Tennis Clinic

The former "Little Mo," Maureen Connolly, now Mrs. Norman Brinker, will give a tennis exhibition and clinic at the Barrington Tennis Club on Tuesday, Nov. 23, beginning at 3:30 p.m.

The indoor tennis club is located just north of the Northwest Tollway at Barrington Road. Everyone is invited to attend whether or not they are a member of the Barrington Tennis Club.

"Little Mo" has become famous for her tennis clinics throughout the country. She has devoted a great deal of her time to interesting and training young people in tennis. She played an important role in developing many of the prominent players of today.

The first half hour of her time will be devoted to a clinic where she will instruct on shot strokes and court strategy. Following that, there will be an exhibition doubles match with Gene Buwick, Wilson Sportings Goods representative, tennis coach, and winner of many major tennis events.

Also playing will be H. Steve Morgan, Manager and Professional of Barrington Tennis Club, and a fourth person to be announced later.

For Paddock Tourneys

Gals Loop Files 1st Reservation

Rolling Bowlers women's league from Rolling Meadows Bowl made the first official time reservation for the approaching Paddock tournaments.

"They wanted to be sure of the 3:10 starting time, so called in early," stated Marian Phillips, tourney secretary.

Mrs. Phillips is currently tracking down the last few league secretaries so they can receive tournament posters and entry blanks for the big events in January. She currently reports over 130 women's leagues, 115 men's and 72 mixed loops eligible with four more bowling establishments still to report in.

MEN'S EVENT is scheduled for Jan. 22-23 at Hoffman Lanes. Leading teams of all local men's loops as of Christmas morning will be eligible.

Women's tourney is scheduled to be held at Striking Lanes Jan. 30 with first place squads as of New Year's Day eligible. For the mixed leagues, the leaders as of New Year's Day will compete at Striking Lanes Jan. 29.

For Mount Prospect

Juvenile Skaters Are Club Strength

The conditioning of the Mount Prospect Speed Skating Club members promises to be advanced considerably as the Wilmette Park District has announced the opening of its artificial ice skating rink.

With reserved times at both the Polar Dome and Wilmette rinks, skaters are able to improve both their physical condition and skating techniques under the tutelage of coach Herman Haenisch.

Each year in the club's history it had a contender in each of the male division classes. But only the most optimistic of coaches would ever enetrtain the hope of boasting as solid an entry as Mount Prospect will feature in the juvenile boys division.

Heading the strength of the club will be Gary Jonland, a national contender last year, and Bob Knight, whose family recently moved to Mount Prospect.

Knight also was a 1964-65 national qualifier and will be a welcome addition to the Mount Prospect entry.

Add John Aido, John Griffin and Tom Tagney to this group and you have potentially the finest scoring group in one division in the Illinois Association.

The first indoor skating meet of the 1965-66 season will be held under the sponsorship of the Madison Skating Club at Madison, Wis., Saturday, Nov. 27.

Coach Haenisch and manager Bob Vehe will select a strong squad of indoor skaters to represent Mount Prospect in this competition.

Howard Miller to be at Tennis Club Open House

Howard Miller, nationally known disc jockey on Station WIND, Chicago, will be one of the celebrities greeting visitors at the Open House of the Barrington Tennis Club Nov. 20.

Open House Slated Saturday For Barrington Tennis Club

Tennis buffs, looking for a place to play in the winter months, don't have to look any longer.

They're invited to an open house this Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the new Barrington Tennis Club, located on Barrington Road just north of the Northwest Tollway and south of Route 62.

Approximately 300 players have already signed up from the northwest suburban area to play at the Barrington Road layout which features four indoor courts that will be available from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. seven days a week.

TENNIS CELEBRITIES, tennis exhibitions, and special prizes will be featured Saturday at the open house which will enable many net enthusiasts to get their first look at the new club.

The Tennis Club is open to anyone as long as there is available court time. Two or four people reserve a court at a given time each week for the 30-week indoor season.

A person can play for as little as $1.50 an hour plus a nominal membership fee.

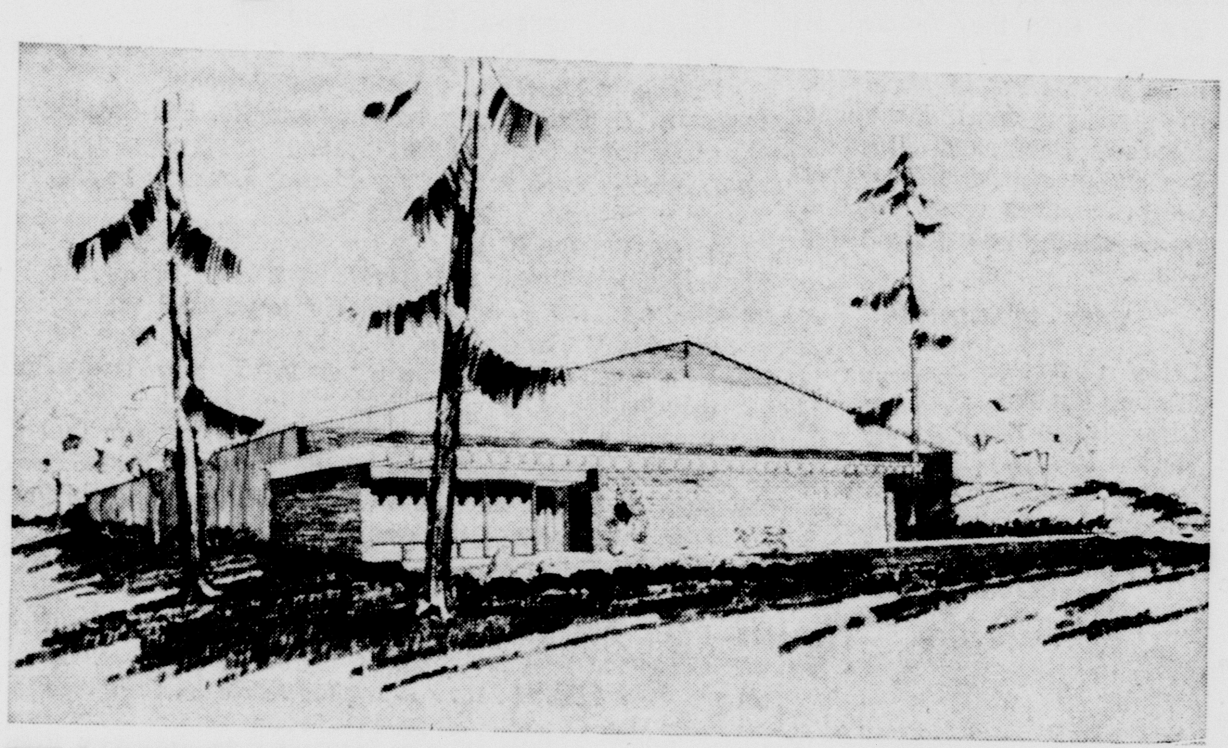
THE BARRINGTON Club boasts many individual features, including a lounge or 'Racquet Room' which overlooks the four courts. The room is carpeted and has a fireplace.

The greastex courts feature a resilient surface. The main structure of the building is 120 feet by 200 feet rising from the 16 foot eves at the backcourt to a center court height of 36 feet.

There are locker rooms for men and women, showers, a pro shop, and a snack bar.

The Tennis Club was organized by William Ylvisaker of Barrington and his first collaborators in the project were Steve Morgan and Daniel Donahue of Barrington. Morgan now is president and head professional.

Anyone interested in additional information on the club may contact Morgan at 381-2570. Lessons can be arranged.



THE BARRINGTON TENNIS Club, located at the intersection of Barrington Road and the Northwest Tollway, will hold an open house Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. The indoor courts are available from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. seven days a week.

Legion Banquet Coming Nov. 27

Time is running out for fans interested in purchasing tickets for the "Meet The Champs" banquet honoring Arlington's 1965 American Legion baseball team.

The dinner will be held Saturday, Nov. 27, at 7 p.m. at the Arlington Legion Hall, Douglas and Miner Streets.

A program will follow the dinner honoring the first Illinois Legion baseball team in 12 years to advance to the World Series. Arlington Heights finished fifth in national legion competition.

Dick Ellsworth, southpaw pitcher with the Chicago Cubs, will be a special guest at the banquet.

Anyone interested in purchasing tickets may contact Lloyd Meyer at CLearbrook 5-2426.

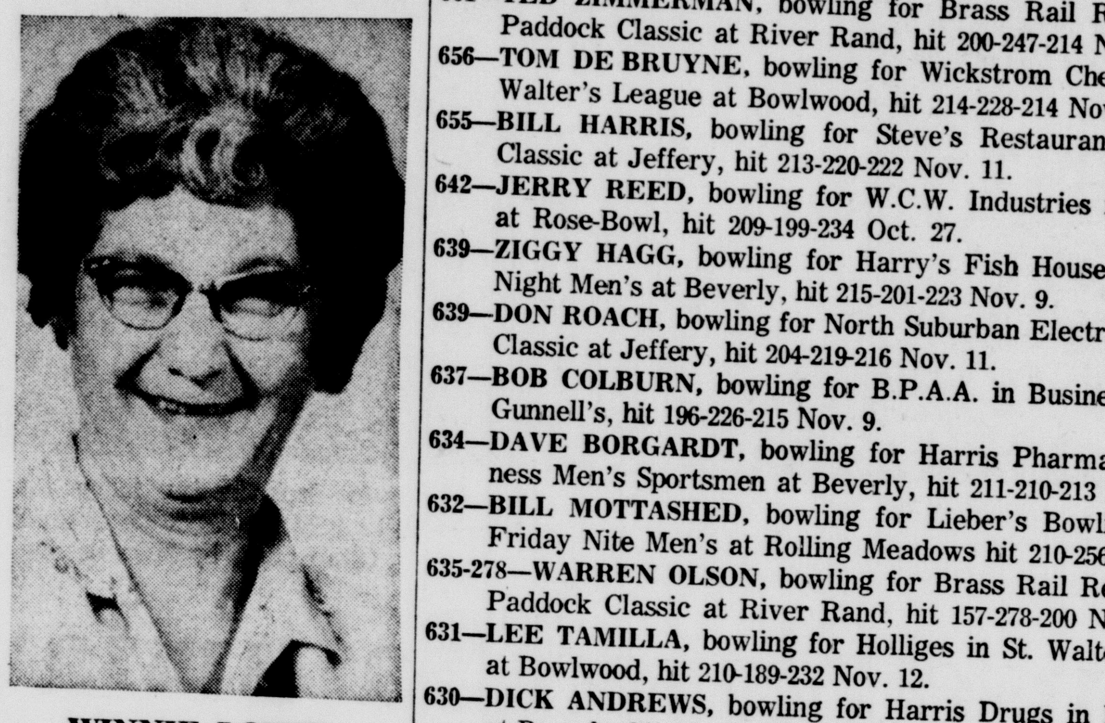
PWCTL Has Three Knotted

The one-team romp has become a four-team scramble. Such are the uncertainties of life and competition in the Paddock Women's Classic Traveling League.

Where two weeks before there was one team alone at the top with a seven-point cushion, there are now three—Lattof Chevrolet, Morton Pontiac and River Rand Bowl—in even dispute for that position. And there is a fourth—Steve's Restaurant—just three points back.



WINNIE LOHSE

It's the result of last Saturday's action, competition that produced the second straight blanking of once-lofty Lattof Chevrolet and the continued surging of Morton and River Rand.

The whitewash was authored by Steve's Restaurant, a team that won everything last season but has been suffering this campaign. Morton Pontiac rolled its own blanking, a 4-0 affair with Rolling Meadows Bowl. And River Rand Bowl, the team that shut out Lattof the Saturday before, went the 3-1 route versus Striking Lanes to set up the three-way knot.

PWCTL VETERAN Winnie Lohse, who has been having troubles of her own this season, led Steve's stunning of Lattof's. Winnie cranked out 189-211-192—592, her best effort of the current campaign and the best of the evening. Next high for Steve's — which also had the evening's best team game and series — was the 528 entered to match the average of the absent Bonnie Kuhn.

Lattof also had an absentee, Vi Douglas. Yet her average — 534 — was the best total entered for the losers. Of the four women who were on hand for the rolling, none could crack 500.

With Lattof's thus victimized on a chilly night, the Pontiac people spurted to take it all from Rolling Meadows Bowl. The first game was easy, the second two close, but all the results went the same way.

VIVIAN HERMAN was the dominant force for the victors, with 199-179-192—570, and Judy Reed was only 10 pins back. Kay Clark uncorked her best of the season for Rolling Meadows — a 569 series — but it and Jean Ladd's 519 didn't have enough support to surpass Morton's balance.

A battle of extremes marked the River Rand-Striking Lanes confrontation, with exceedingly low and high scoring marking the fray. Striking was consistently low — with all the bowlers under 500 — and it made the difference. The tops for the losers was Judy Anderson's 485.

For River Rand, the scores ranged from Hazel Steiger's 418 — exceptionally low for her — to Ethel Juenger's 580, her season peak. Gloria Lucchesi chipped in with a 509, and when the pins were totaled, River Rand also had a piece of first.

Something will certainly give this Saturday, for the headline match in the loop will pit the Pontiac team against the Chevrolet ladies at Striking Lanes. The last time they tangled, it was Morton 3 - 1. River Rand Bowl will defend its portion of the peak by meeting Rolling Meadows Bowl, and Steve's Restaurant will effort to knot the bunch even closer when it meets cellar-dwelling Striking Lanes.

Chuck's Shell Service held on to a two-point lead in the Wednesday Nite Ladies league . . . Scoring leaders were Sharon Sheldon 176, Bonnie Hofbauer 175-179 . . . Railsplitters were Darrell Frigo 7-8-10; Jean Haase 5-10; and Fran Stobbe 5-10.

Buick Blanked 7-0; Brass Rail To Top

If you don't call it "The Great Race," you might call the game "Who's on first?"

The race in the Paddock Classic Traveling League continues to be a splendid one, but even more enthralling now is the weekly mystery of who will seize the top.

Seizing it last Saturday night—supplanting short-term tenant Bill Cook Buick—was The Brass Rail. The Railers moved in front by two points when they clipped Concourse Sports Chalet 5-2, while the Buick men were being shocked 7-0 by a torrid Jeffrey Lanes quintet.

Brim's Pioneer Lanes, which kept the grip on first during the several early weeks of the campaign, took another beating —4-3 from reviving Morton Pontiac —and remained in third.

In the evening's fourth action, City Welding Sales and Service made another bid to escape the cellar with what was clearly its biggest win of the season: 7-0 over Karlsen Pharmacy.

WARREN Olson and Ted Zimmerman carried The Brass Rail to the pinnacle. Zimmerman had the big series for the winners, second biggest of the night with 200-247-214—661. Olson had the big game, biggest of the season in the PCEL as he ended just 22 pins shy of the elusive 300. Olson combined for 157-278-800—6v5. Don Oberg had 577 for the Railers.

For Sports Chalet, no one eclipsed 600, but Ray Neumann had 596 and Bob Gill 574.

The big thrashing was that handed out by Jeffery Lanes, with Bill Cook Buick unable to get a point despite team games of 1001, 922 and 984. The Jeffery-men blasted Buick's home lanes at Rolling Meadows Bowl with games of 1027, 936 and 1069, the 1069 being the third best of the campaign and the series of 3032 also the third best.

ANOTHER third best of the season — best for the evening—was the 671 series of Jerrery's Hec Healey. He paced the blasting with games of 207, 195 and 269.

But every man for Jeffery had a piece of it, and every man had at least one 200-plus game. Don Christensen was second best with a 614 total, while Bill Harris had 605, Whitey Hefferan 583 and Paul Zubak 559.

Bill Cook had a 612 from Paul Borvig, a 607 from Bill Todd and a 587 from Ed Williams, but it just wasn't enough.

Morton Pontiac got its four points by taking the first two games from Pioneer by slim margins, then getting clouted in the third game to lose the point for total pins as well.

A LARGE measure of the difference was George Schmidt. He missed the first game for Pioneer, and Roger Beecham rolled a 182 in his place. Then Schmidt came on with a 202 and a 225, the latter amply supported by his temmates as Pioneer totaled a 1041 third game and a 2939 series. The biggest portion of that was the 221-205-199—625 of Larry Thon.

The Pontiac team got its best from Bob Glaser, who ended with 184-214-215—613. George White was next best with 567.

Karlsen Pharmacy was hurt by the absence of big-average man Joe Simonis, but that probably mattered little as City Welding did the whitewash routine at its home Thunderbird Bowl.

BILL SMITH, though he dipped with a 160 second game, put a 221 and a 224 around it to lead City Welding with 605. Bob Rogers had 602 and Lobby Lobinsky 573.

For Karlsen's, Warren Karlsen was best with 574 and Herm Simonis next with 568.

Rose Bowl In Buffalo Grove: A New Mode

by KEN KNOX

Dinner by candlelight, yes. But bowling?

Yes, again. That is, if the bowling is at the Rose Bowl, the slick 24-lane facility on Dundee Road in Buffalo Grove.

It's all part of the gamut of gimmicks and games being offered at the establishment to spruce up its image and plump its business. Formerly the Rick Casares Pro Bowl, the house had a checkered history that almost ended permanently with a bankruptcy declaration.

But a new owner, bowling impresario William Rose of Joliet, stepped in to save it. He injected a new initiative and some new management into the place, dubbed it the Rose Bowl and set out to make it fulfill its potential as a bowling haven for suburban keglers and as a wayside for families and groups in search of entertainment.

TO MANAGE IT, he called on two of the more widely respected and known bowlers in the area, Al Paulin and Charlie Wood. Paulin, most recently the manager at Thunderbird Bowl and a veteran of several high class leagues in the area, will be the man in charge.

Wood will assist him, as will one man retained from the old Pro Bowl crew, Leroy Avenarius.

Their ideas and efforts include candlelight bowling, which is precisely that: bowling by candlelight. It's the feature every Saturday night at the Rose Bowl, when all the lights but those over the pins and the exit signs are extinguished, and candles set the mood. Special prizes are handed out for various achievements, such as the first strike, or picking up an unusual spare.

The Rose Bowl people have also been doing a brisk business with another innovation, pancake bowling. That's part of the program aimed directly at families, and it offers two games of bowling, pancakes, sausage or bacon, and coffee or milk at a modest package price. It's offered 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sundays.

YOU CAN also, if you like, play "Hop Scotch Doubles" or engage in a "Blind Turkey Shoot," and doubtless will get a chance in succeeding months to partake of other bowling-oriented diversions not yet germinated in the minds of the Rose Bowl men.

But it's not just games and gimmicks. A considerable amount of money and time has gone into refurbishing the building inside and out. Work on the inside has included a lot of redecorating in the coffee shop, the billiard room, a dining area and the lounge, still called "The Huddle." Outside the attention has been directed to a new parking lot and a new sign, soon to be erected. And, of course, the bowler has not been forgotten, for much of the investment was to refinish the 24 lanes and tone up the machinery.

"It was the sincere desire of the new owner and the new management," said Wood, "to operate the Rose Bowl as an attraction for family, civic, school and paternal groups. We're adding more and more to our program of recreation and entertainment."

THE ENTERTAINMENT includes live performances in the lounge, as well as the bowling. The current "Huddle" attraction is the Ed Morrissey Quartet. There's also a cocktail hour every Sunday from 4 to 6 p.m., following the telecast of the Chicago Bears' football games.

The Rose Bowl people are inviting leagues of all sizes to sign on, and Wood says a lot of choice times are still available for this season and next. There are numerous clinics for men, women and junior bowlers, by the group, mixed or individually.

There are signs already that things are perking up around the Rose Bowl. The business is reviving, the bowlers are bowling and the families are showing an interest in the multitude of attractions.

"Mr. Rose," said Wood, "came to the rescue of this place. I think he's done the community a favor."

If the Rose Bowl experiment succeeds, a lot of people will agree.

Card Passing Game Showed 1061 Yards

by BOB FRISK

Passing dominated the football story at Arlington High School for 1965.

Statistics released this week by Paddock Publications show that the aerial game guilded by junior Steve Allen accounted for 1061 of the 1747 total yards collected by the varsity Cardinals over eight contests.

Allen threw for 1016 yards on 73 completions and Tom LeStarge and Vaughn Strong chipped in with 45 more yards.

This was a turnabout from 1964 when the rushing game had a decided advantage (1019 to 388) over the passing attack.

ALLEN ACCOUNTED for six school records as he quarterbacked the Cards to five victories in eight games. He now owns marks for passes attempted in a single season (172), passes completed in a season (73), total yards passing for a season (1016, passes attempted in a single game (33), passes completed in a single game (15), and total yards passing in one game (207).

STEVE ALLEN

STEVE CONLEY

In two seasons as varsity quarterback Allen has completed 91 passes for 1225 total yards.

Another junior, fullback Steve Conley, took rushing honors for a 1965 with 343 yards in 73 tries, a 4.7 per carry average. Conley accounted for almost half of the Cards' rushing yardage as the team picked up 686, an average of 86 per game.

SENIOR AND co-captain Tom LeStarge was next in line in the rushing department with 188 yards in 51 cracks, a 3.7 average.

Bruce Hubbard, 6-6, 196-pound senior end, took pass receiving honors with 24 receptions good for 499 yards. Hubbard set a school mark with his total yardage but fell short of the season pass receiving standard of 28 set in 1959 by Gene Dahlquist.

In addition to Hubbard, other favorite receivers of Allen were Dave Lockwood, LeStarge, and Jim Donchess. Lockwood pulled down 18 for 259 yards and LeStarge added 17 grabs for 136 yards.

DONCHESS, A late-season starter, picked off 10 passes for 107 yards over the final four games.

Scoring honors belonged to Allen with five touchdowns and 13 extra points for 43 markers. That represented the best single season production by an Arlington player since All-Stater Mike Dundy scored ten touchdowns and one extra point in 1959.

Boast 4-4-1 Record

Lions Close Season With 20-6 Victory

By BOB FRISK

A whirlwind finish that showed three straight victories enabled St. Viator's varsity football Lions to salvage a respectable .500 record for the 1965 season.

Coach Joe Gliwa's aggregation, unable to collect a victory in the first four weeks of the campaign, rebounded effectively to nail down a 4-4-1 standard, climaxing the rush with a crowd-pleasing 20-6 conquest of Bishop McNamara last Sunday afternoon.

The Lions were outclassed in only one contest this fall — a 31-7 loss to powerful St. Patrick — as the three other setbacks were by a total of eleven points.

LARRY SNYDER, Mike Laird, and Bill Aylward did the scoring Sunday at the Forest View field as the Lions bumped the visitors from Kankakee in the non-league finale.

The Lions opened the scoring in the second period with a 59-yard march climaxed by a neat 11-yard pitch from southpaw Bob Stevens to Bill Aylward.

Key maneuvers in the opening payoff thrust were a 12-yard pass from Stevens to Aylward, 18-yard scamper by Snyder, and 11-yard burst by halfback Bill Roser.

THE SIX-POINTER came with 2:24 remaining in the first period. Aylward's attempted extra point was blocked.

The rest of the first half was played in Bishop McNamara territory, but the hosts couldn't push another score across.

It was an aroused McNamara eleven that took the field in the second half, and the Irish marched 61 yards the first time they handled the football only to lose the ball on downs at the Lion two yard line.

ON A FOURTH and five play at the five McNamara's Dave Kirchman, who authored 87 yards for the contest, was tripped up at the two with John Helmer in pursuit.

BILL AYLWARD

MIKE LAIRD

St. Viator moved out to the 11 when a fumble gave the visitors another chance. This time they cashed in on an 11-yard pass from Chuck Cassidy to Steve Coash. Denny Forston stacked up the running try for the extra point.

The Lions fumbled again at their own 30, but McNamara could move only six yards before yielding the football.

EARLY IN THE fourth period Stevens dropped a punt at the McNamara 13 yard line. Two plays later Paul Rocca covered an Irish fumble at the two yard line. Snyder cracked in from there with 8:11 remaining in the game for his eighth touchdown of an impressive season.

Aylward converted and the Lions held a 13-6 advantage.

It was 20-6 with three minutes remaining after the Lions capitalized on another McNamara fumble.

Forston recovered the ball on the Irish 38 and the locals struck in seven plays. Mike Laird, a 5-11, 180-pounder who has showed some hard running this fall but who hadn't cracked paydirt before, did the honors this time on a two-yard bolt. Aylward added the 20th and final point of the season.

Astros Fall in Hockey Opener

The Waterloo Blackhawks, defending champion of the United States Hockey League, completely overwhelmed the Fox Valley Astros in the Blackhawks' first game of the year, 16-4.

Four Blackhawks scored the hat-trick and the rout began early in the opening stanza. They finished with eight goals in the final period.

Wayside Varsity Captures Opener

Our Lady of the Wayside, of Arlington Heights, Varsity basketball team won their opening game last Sunday against St. Huberts of Hoffman Estates, 67 to 27.

The scoring leaders were Foreman with 18 points and Cullen with 12.

Wayside's Junior Varsity lost 52 to 28, while the fifth grade team won 32 to 12.

Wayside will play St. James of Arlington Heights next Sunday at the St. Viator High School gymnasium. The fifth junior varsity at 2 p.m. and varsity at 3 p.m.

JUST DOGS

By Dave Terrill

Your Veterinarian—

Dog owners can cooperate with their veterinarian by seeking prompt care for their pets when they are ill and by making certain that an emergency really exists before making a call for "emergency" treatment.

Some of the true emergencies are: an animal involved in a motor accident; a badly bitten animal; a pet which has become suddenly, acutely ill; a suspected poisoning; a pet that is having seizures or convulsions; a badly burned animal or a whelping of a litter in which problems occur.

Many times, however, out-of-hours calls are not emergencies at all. Often the pet has been sick for several days and should have been attended to long before. Most often the veterinarian will still offer his services, but principally because he feels sorry for the animal whose condition is largely due to the owner's neglect.

Don't fall into this latter category. If your pet shows signs of illness, have him attended to right away. Diarrhea, vomiting, lack of appetite, unusual swellings or discharges are all strong clues. When any of these symptoms are noticed, or if there are other problems, have the condition diagnosed and treated promptly. It will cost less in the long run, and your pet will live a longer, happier life.

Christmas Puppy—

Back to that time of year and the time that brings about the annual problem in many a household, if we are going to buy a dog, what kind shall it be?

The time to start looking is now. Visit some kennels, talk to friends who have dogs—their breed will always be the "best"—, and read some books about dogs. There are a number published, including some that you can buy on the newsstands.

As far as your own family is concerned, consider various things. There may be children involved, and most important, who is going to feed the new pup? On the latter score, Mother. Everyone else may offer at the start, but plan that you will be the one who will see to it that the new puppy is fed at the right time and also the correct diet. Think also about a large dog versus a small dog. The kind of a coat; will he be a housedog or will he have a place outdoors.

Above all, and I repeat it every year, do not bring him home on Christmas Day. With all the presents and everything else that goes along with the holiday, the poor pup may be left out of the picture. Bring him home a few days before and let him get used to the new surroundings. Tie a ribbon around his neck on the big day and let him join in the fun.

Facts of Life—

Many owners of new dogs are rather in doubt about a female and owning one. Often they are rather hesitant about asking someone regarding the "heat" period. Perhaps the following will help.

The first "heat period" usually occurs between the age of six months and one year and normally every six months thereafter. In some large dogs it is only every 12 months. The cycle usually lasts 18 to 21 days.

For the first eight days your female will probably refuse attention of male dogs. From the 10th to the 14th or 15th day, she will be very interested in receiving male attention. During the latter third of the period, her interest in males will have waned. The males, however, will still seek her out.

One thing to keep in mind, many a kennelman prefers a female dog as a pet—they don't wander as much.

Turkey Trot Entries Taken

Less than one week remains for filing entires in the Fourth Annual Turkey Trot, a cross country foot race sponsored by the Mount Prospect Jaycees.

Slated for Thanksgiving morning at 9:30 at the Mount Prospect Country Club, the Turkey Trot, an all-weather event, has already received more than 150 entries.

Entries may still be obtained from your school track coach, the Mount Prospect Country Club Park District office, or by calling 259-3606.

The competition will be divided into five events: a half-mile race for Jr. High boys (15 awards); a two mile event for frosh-soph age boys (shown above from a previous year); a two-mile race for junior-senior age boys (15 awards); a four mile competition for college age men (15 awards); and a final "Over 28" men's event of two miles (five awards).

Publicity director John Hakemian said this week that the Turkey Trot is a "proven appetite builder" for both the participants and spectators.

"We'd like to invite any sports or fitness fan to come out and watch or compete while Mom is roasting the gobbler," Hakemian said. "The old-fashioned five-cent cup of coffee will be served to warm the spectators."

Full Information on Costs

One of the points highlighting NSM-sponsored advertisements appearing recently in national magazines is that the public is entitled to full information in advance about funeral prices and services.

This is one of the principles governing this national association of funeral directors.

MOUNT EMBLEM

"Illinois' Most Beautiful Cemetery"

Site of the

OLD DUTCH MILL

Built in 1850

The DuPage County Historical Society presented an AWARD OF HONOR to Mount Emblem in 1956 for preserving the Old Dutch Mill as an educational and historic exhibit.

Visitors to the Old Dutch Mill are always welcome.

Autumn brings a glorious burst of color to the superb landscape of Mount Emblem. This is one of Nature's most impressive moments which we invite you to enjoy.

You will see acre upon acre of multi-colored effects from our great variety of trees and shrubs each lending its particular hue to the scene.

For such extensive landscaping you could reasonably expect to pay more. Yet our prices are moderate. It costs no more to own the best.

"It is better to have it and not need it— than to need it and not have it."

It's a small wonder

A model airplane kit, a razor blade and a tube of glue are the necessary raw materials. Combine these with the dexterity, determination and desire of a young boy and you have the makings of a model airplane. To view the finished product you would agree, he is a small wonder. Another small wonder is a Paddock Publications Want Ad. Small in size, it is capable of performing big tasks when it comes to selling no longer needed items around the home. Call today and a friendly ad-taker will be happy to assist you in wording your ad. Then you'll agree, a Paddock Publications Want Ad is truly a small wonder.

WANT AD INFORMATION

DEADLINES

Classified advertising now appearing in Thursday editions can also be scheduled in Sunday Suburbanite at the same time at advantageous discount. No classified advertising will be accepted for just the Sunday Suburbanite, without also appearing in the Thursday editions.

Tuesday at 3 p.m. for Thursday editions, and for Thursday-Sunday combination. Ads received until 10 a.m. Wednesday will appear in "Too late to Classify" section of Thursday edition. Thursday at Noon for Sunday Suburbanite for Sunday-Thursday insertions.

RATES

Reader classified rates: 20c a word first insertion, 17c a word repeated consecutive insertions. Minimum charge for any ad $2.00.

Display classified rates: $4.90 per col. inch first insertion, $4.20 per col. inch repeated consecutive insertions.

We also offer a contract rate to display classified advertisers. Special introductory offer, for limited time only, 50% discount on classified advertising appearing in the Sunday Suburbanite in addition to the Thursday editions.

BLIND ADS

A $1 service charge will be made for all ads when replies are to be received through this newspaper.

ADJUSTMENTS

If your ad appears incorrectly, notify us immediately. We accept responsibility for the first incorrect insertion only. Such responsibility is limited to such a proportion of the entire cost of the advertisement as the space occupied by the error bears to the entire space of the advertisement.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Ads will be taken over the telephone on a charge basis if the advertiser is listed in the phone book, or a subscriber to one of our newspapers. All ads appearing under "Situations Wanted" classification must be paid in advance.

AN INVITATION from workpower, inc.

The "Personal" Service

Diane Miller would like to extend an invitation to visit her and register for temporary work assignments at the new branch office of Workpower, Inc.—the service large enough to supply plenty of work, but small enough to give your skills and requirements our "personal" attention.

Work the full days, full weeks, full months that you wish—work for Our Customers in Your neighborhood.

If you have any, or all, office skills your visit will be of benefit to you. If you haven't worked in years and your skills are rusty, come in anyway. You can work back into the "swim" of things.

We need all office skills—stenos, typists, transcribers, keypunch operators, general office . . .

Carolyn F. Patton

Carolyn F. Patton, 9-month-old daughter of Herbert and Frances Patton, 101 Wilshire Court, Streamwood, died from pneumonia Friday, Nov. 12, at Little Angels Home, Elgin.

Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 15, at the First Methodist Church of Des Plaines, the Rev. Donald Niswander officiating. Interment was at Memory Gardens Cemetery.

In addition to her parents, she leaves a sister, Dianna; grandparents, Jess and Olive Hensley of Honesboro, Tenn.; and grandmother, Bess Patton of Hoffman Estates. (A-15

James E. Jackson

James E. Jackson, a resident of Arlington Heights from 1946 to 1955, died Monday, Nov. 15, in his home in Stuart, Fla. He was 58 years old.

Mr. Jackson was owner of Brookfield Athletic Shoe Co. of Bristol, Mass., manufacturers of ice skates.

Funeral services will be held Friday, Nov. 19 in Stuart, Fla., with interment in that city.

He leaves his wife, Vera; two sons, Robert of Chicago, and James, attending college in Denver, Colo.; and his daughter, Beverly Kost of Palatine.

SQUARE DANCE CLUB NEWS

Dorothy Meyer CL 3-2298

BRAVE AND MAIDS

There's a growing, go-go-going new club, meeting in Chicago and attracting lots of suburban dancers, that extends an open invitation to all of its pow-wows. Suburbanite Harry Glass of Roselle is the caller and he leads a happy tribe of braves and maids every first, second, third and fifth Monday nights.

Hiawatha Park Fieldhouse, 8016 W. Cornelia, is the B & M stamping grounds, square-'em-ugh time is 8 o'clock and the fun goes on until 10:30. Refreshments, too!

This is a 5-Monday month, so Braves and Maids have heap big chance to work off heap big Thanksgiving dinner. Join 'em!

SLOWPOKES

Tonight, not tomorrow night, is the time to dance with Mount Prospect's Slowpokes, who have planned a big "special" to take the place of their regularly scheduled third-Friday dance.

At the Slowpokes' mike for a one-night stand will be Pat Braffert of Big Rock, squarin' 'em up at 8:30 in Euclid School, Mount Prospect. Everyone's invited to enjoy this special event—and reminded that it's instead of (not in addition to) the club's usual Friday night dance.

Another reminder from the club underlines Dec. 3, the club's members-only Christmas party.

BRONCO SQUARES

Barrington dancers and friends are invited to tomorrow night's dance with guest caller, Lenny Roos, at the mike. Lenny won't bust any Broncs, but they'll know they've been dancing when the night's over. Refreshments will be served throughout the evening to keep energies full strength.

Roos will come out of the chute at 8 o'clock, immediately following a half-hour round dance session led by the Robert Sanders. Corral your favorite partner and come on over to Grove Avenue Grade School in Barrington.

ARLINGTON SQUARES

Lots of turkey-lovin' dancers turned out for Arlington Squares' pre-Thanksgiving party last Friday night. The turkey went home with Mike and Pam Burkhardt and the basketful of "trimmin's" went to Bob and Adele Geriske. Everybody else had a good time too.

There's two big dates in rapid succession coming up for the Arlington Heights club, one of them being of special interest to Knotheads. A Knothead trip to Madison, Wis. is scheduled for Nov. 27 and there are a few seats left. Reservations may be made via Fred Martin, CL 3-3362. Hurry.

Night before the trip to Wisconsin, Arlington Squares dance in St. Simon's Episcopal Church, Arlington Heights. Square-'em-up time is 8:30, and everyone is welcome.

We were almost able to announce that the local club had its banner back, but the Glenview Squares, who stole it in the first place, re-stole it! Arlington Squares will re-retrieve it, of course, but before we can get the news into print—who knows, Glenview may do a triple steal.

CIRCLE EIGHTS

An invitation to couples "who enjoy square dancing, whether experienced or beginners" comes from the Circle Eights of Wheaton, meeting Saturday, Nov. 27. Walt Mulqueen will square 'em up at 8:30 following a half-hour of instruction for those who would like to walk through a few dances.

Complete information about the Circle Eights may be had be calling the Arnold Schnabels, 668-2024, or the Gordon McFarlands, 231-0635.

DEADLINES

Thanksgiving will mean another early deadline to meet for this reporter as well as for club publicity chairman. News must be in by noon tomorrow stead of noon Saturday —my deadline will be Saturday instead of Monday. (A-15

Witnesses Plan for Bible Study

Local ministers from 16 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses in northern Illinois met Saturday (Nov. 13) to make plans for three days of Bible study meetings to be held in Palatine Dec. 24 to 26.

Albert Erickson, local presiding minister, said that more than 1,500 ministers are expected to attend the three-day seminar. The Saturday meeting was called to organize the 22 convention departments needed to serve the delegates, provide food, housing, program of instruction and other materials and services required.

A highlight of the assembly of ministers will be a public talk by Angelo Minera, a special traveling representative of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society. His subject will be, "What Does the Resurrection of the Dead Mean for You and Yours?"

Sunday Club Slates Film On Far East

"An Adventure in the Far East" is the next film to be shown members of the West Suburban Sunday Evening Club, Sunday, Nov. 21, as part of a series sponsored by the District 88 Program of Continuing Education. The film will be presented by John Goddard and will cover scenes from Japan, Hong Kong, the Philippines, Borneo and India.

Single admission tickets for the evening performance at 8 p.m. will be available and may be reserved by calling the District 88 Continuing Education offices, TE 2-4510, a few days ahead.

Single admission tickets for matinee showings at 4 p.m. will be available at the box office.

LEGAL NOTICE

1965 Cook County Personal Property Assessment List

For Township of Wheeling

This publication is the official notice to property owners of the 1965 personal property assessments made in the town and district indicated.

RETURNS and ESTIMATES

The law provides that, where a property owner fails to return a sworn schedule listing his property the assessor of Cook County must estimate its value according to his best judgment and information, and add thereto a penalty of 50 per cent. Assessments raised on estimates and returns have equal standing in law.

The amounts herein listed are the assessed values of personal property as of April 1, 1965, as determined by the Assessor of Cook County.

The amount listed as the assessed value is not the tax. The tax may be determined by multiplying the assessed valuation after it has been equalized by the Department of Revenue of the State of Illinois, by the tax rate in the Town and District in which the property is assessed. The Assessor has nothing to do with the equalization of values or the establishing of tax rates.

BASIS OF COMPLAINT ON ASSESSMENTS

Where a property owner has a specific claim of over or under valuation, complaint may be filed with the Board of Appeals in the County Building immediately after this notice.

INFORMATION ON ASSESSMENTS

Each property owner who has any questions in regard to the same, should inquire at the office of the Assessor of Cook County, Room 312, County Building, information will be furnished without cost.

P. J. CULLERTON
Assessor of Cook County

Houser Removes Hanlon as Precinct Captain

by DAN BAUMANN
News Editor

Thomas H. Hanlon has been removed as Republican captain of Precinct 36 by Wheeling Township GOP Committeeman Thomas Houser.

Hanlon is president of the township Regular Republican Club and a Village of Arlington Heights trustee.

Houser included Hanlon in a list of five captains he dismissed more than a month ago, citing "non-performance."

THE DISMISSALS were confirmed by Houser after the Herald learned of them from a third source Tuesday; the committeeman declined to name any of the captains involved, saying he saw "no particular need to embarrass them."

Hanlon, however, did confirm he was one of those discharged and he disagreed strongly with the "non-performance" label.

Houser denied the action against Hanlon signaled an inter-party rift, adding "most people (in the party) realize what I'm doing is based strictly on the (captains') record."

IT WAS apparent both men wanted to keep the personal rift — or factional rift, if that is what it amounts to — within bounds for the present:

—Despite Hanlon's prominence in Republican circles, Houser treated his dismissal routinely. He said there is a "fair amount of turnover" among captaincies and "I don't try to announce each one with a news release."

—Hanlon said he was "concerned for only one reason. I don't need this job particularly; I certainly have enough to keep me busy. But I am concerned that people may assume for one reason or another that there is a substantial rift in the party."

Hanlon added the time to settle the party rifts is "at the time party leadership is elected." He added he does not plan to run for Houser's job. There have been no formal announcements for the party elections next June.

"THIS ACTION basically is a private matter. I wrote them personal letters," Houser commented.

"I was delighted they could help the party in the first place and disappointed they could not carry on. These people are volunteers. If they don't perform, the only thing to do is relieve them."

Hanlon said his letter from Houser said he was re-evaluating precinct captains' work and noted Hanlon had twice failed to collect money in door-to-door campaigns. Hanlon subsequently sent a letter of rebuttal to the committeeman.

Hanlon said there were two fund raising drives this year; he said he appointed Bill Larson to substitute in his precinct for the first drive because of his responsibilities as an area chairman. He said he did not collect in the second drive.

"I feel the record indicates beyond a doubt that Precinct 36 turned out a substantial and beneficial vote for the Republican party on a regular basis, and this did not happen by accident."

"I DON'T agree it's appropriate to relieve one or five for the stated reason and not to relieve others who fit the same category, and I don't think it is appropriate for any organization to lose good people without discussion."

Hanlon said he does not "intend to involve myself in a running gunfight with the committeeman. It is his privilege to remove captains and he has exercised the privilege."

Hanlon was captain of the precinct, which covers a substantial part of Arlington Heights' northeast side, since September 1960.

A source told the Herald that those dismissed with Hanlon include Norman Atwater (Precinct 5), Eugene Ischinger (21), William Platte (32) and Richard Wildberger (47). With the 10 precincts added this year, Wheeling Township has 65 precincts.

CURB ON PARKING PROTESTED

Same as Village

Parks Okay Boundaries

Arlington Heights park district will attempt to keep its boundaries the same as those of the village.

The park district board Tuesday directed Pres. John C. Edwards to formally seek the village's cooperation in annexations, to insure the boundaries of the two taxing districts remain contiguous.

Park Supt. Thomas Thornton said commissioners decided on the policy informally, after enactment of state legislation this year which permits park districts to annex by ordinance in order to keep the same boundaries as the host village. Previously, such annexations had to be by petition of the property owners or by referendum.

THORNTON said the new park district policy conforms with the spirit of the new state law. The park district had been considering for more than a year a possible referendum to annex larage areas outside the village.

Since the park district now has the right automatically to annex parcels that come into the village, commissioners have asked the village to have property owners petition to annex to the district when they petition for village annexation.

Thornton said the district plans to notify in writing property owners who are already in the village but not in the park district, before passing annexation ordinances.

Voters May Register

Eligible voters may register locally in the office of the Arlington Heights village clerk at the Municipal Building through Tuesday, Jan. 18.

There will be no other precinct registration day before the June 16 primary election, Village Clerk Jeanne Novotny pointed out. Voters may register with the County Clerk, Room 230, County Building, Chicago, through May 16.

To register, voters must be American citizens over 21. They must have lived in Illinois for one year, in Cook County for 90 days, and in their precinct for 30 days by the time of the June 16 election.

'Center' Set For Teens

Facilities at Recreation Park will be open from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Friday (tomorrow) for junior high school students in Arlington Heights who are interested in furthering a "Tween Center."

The facilities of the Bo-Gi Youth Center will be open to all seventh and eighth graders for dancing, billiards, pool, table tennis and watching television.

THE NEXT NIGHT for junior high activity at Recreation Park will be during Christmas vacation, on Monday, Dec. 27.

Regular nights for junior high activity will be established after the beginning of the year.

Admission will be 25 cents.

$5,000 Damage In House Fire

Firemen estimated damage at $5,000 to a home and contents at 1236 N. Race Ave., Arlington Heights, in a fire caused by an overheated furnace Sunday morning.

The home is occupied by Mrs. Gail Wilson. Fire Chief Harvey Carothers said an investigation showed the first floor furnace malfunctioned and that attic rafters caught fire. Firemen cut a hole in the roof to vent the smoke while extinguishing the fire. They were at the scene less than an hour.

Eberharde Project Stalled As 2 Boards Reverse Okays

Status of a planned single-family and apartment development north of Arlington Knolls subdivision is up in the air this week after two village bodies reversed their previous actions approving parts of it.

—The plan commission last Wednesday reversed its approval for a street layout in the single family area.

—The village board Tuesday voted to reconsider its rezoning, from R3 (single family) to R5 (apartment) a 2.4 acre portion behind the A&P shopping center on N. State Road.

Owner of the land is Harold Eberharde, an Arlington Heights building contractor. His proposed development has been before the village board and plan commission on a number of occasions, and, until last Wednesday, apparently was inching forward toward approval.

THE PLAN commission originally rejected the R5 zoning; the village board sent it back for another look. The plan group subsequently approved it, subject to Eberharde's meeting certain requirements. And the village board approved the R5 zoning, subject to approval of a planned development layout.

The plan commission, meanwhile, had begun studying Eberharde's proposed subdivision layout for the single-family area (that included extended negotiations with School District 25 for a land swap at the Wilson School site).

On Oct. 27, the plan commission voted 6 to 5 to approve Eberharde's street layout. The layout dead-ends Vail Avenue at the north end of Arlington Knolls subdivision. Highland and Evergreen Avenues both curve into an east-west road, Lillian Street.

APPROVAL was based on Eberharde's making several changes. He returned with the changes last Wednesday. But several plan commissioners who supported him two weeks earlier were absent.

Although 11 members of the 14-member body were present at each meeting, they weren't the same 11 members. They voted 6 to 5 against the layout.

Recognizing the unfairness to the developer, they tossed the decision to the village board; "because of the willigness of the subdivider to do everything we asked as he understood it in spite of our diverse opinions," the plan group's resolution stated.

ACTING ONLY on the previous R5 rezoning, the village board Tuesday voted to reconsider at the suggestion of Trustee John White. The apartment and single-family proposals had come to the village board "in pieces" and should be considered together, he said.

(Eberharde had made the same suggestion to the plan commission several times but was told they were separate subjects.)

White did not indicate any reason for reconsidering the R5 other than to have all proposals on the development before the board at the same time.

No Spare Nike Land, Park Board Is Told

Vacant land at the Arlington Heights Nike base is not available to the park district — at least not for the present.

That's the word from the Defense Dpartment. Parks Supt. Thomas Thornton had written Sec. of Defense Robert McNamara, Rep. Donald Rumsfeld and Sen. Paul H. Douglas inquiring about the status of 140 acres at the site south of Central Road.

THE PARK district has plans to develop the land for a community golf course.

Col. Robert S. Palmer, deputy defense department director in charge of installations, wrote Thornton the land "is being retained to satisfy a possible future air defense requirement." Thornton said a Chicago-based Army engineer had told him "he couldn't tell me what the possible future use is."

A year ago, the park district had understood the land would be placed in the "surplus" category and it was included in the park district's tentative land purchase program.

The Army exercised its option to acquire the land before it was made surplus.

PALMER TOLD Thornton the park district's interest in the site would be made a part of the record and if the land is placed on surplus status the General Services Administration, which disposes of land, will be notified of that interest.

Village Hall Phones Jangle

by Mary Camille Schlott
Staff Writer

Some village residents are raising a ruckus over the rush hour parking ban proposed for State Road.

Trustee John J. Walsh Jr., public safety committee chairman, and other village board members have had numbers of phone calls from persons objecting to the suggested change.

And Village Mgr. L. A. Hanson, who recommended the State Road parking ban, has received a petition signed by 27 residents who are opposed.

Hanson has recommended to village trustees that parking be be banned — during rush hours only— on State Road from Hawthorne on the north to Fairview on the south.

PUBLIC REACTION to the no-parking recommendation apparently caused a reshuffling in village plans. The matter—originally suggested for last Monday's agenda — will now be heard by village trustees on Monday, Dec. 6. Objectors can be heard at that time and, if the board chooses to consider the matter further, at some future date.

Walsh's public safety committee was to consider the State Road parking proposal briefly Wednesday (yesterday) at a meeting at which Stonegate lighting was to be the principal subject.

Available to guide the trustees in considering the matter on Dec. 6 is an engineering study requested by them. It includes traffic flow counts and a survey of on-street parking use along State Road. Made by village employes, the survey covers various hours during a five-day period.

THE ENGINEERING report found the heaviest traffic flow to be between South and Grove and the on-street parking to be greatest below South.

The engineering report asserts, Walsh says, that at peak traffic hours even one or two cars can bottle up traffic flow a long way back.

It also points up another traffic problem — that caused by drivers attempting to make a left turn from Davis onto State Road just south of the trakcs.

Both Walsh and Police Chief L. W. Calderwood have made it plain that they think parking will ultimately have to be banned on State Road at all hours.

"WE HAVE reached the point where the public interest as a whole has got to be served. There is no alternate north-south route," Walsh commented on Nov. 2 when Hanson made the initial recommendation regarding the rush-hour parking ban.

Walsh said the installation of traffic signals at Sigwalt Street and subsequent traffic backups there had "brought the problem into focus." It will be intensified, he predicts, if and when the village is successful in getting access to the tollway from State Road.

Opening Tonight

"The Admirable Crichton" goes on stage Thursday (tonight), Friday and Saturday at Arlington High School's Little Theatre. The school's fall play is a comedy-fantasy by James M. Barrie; for details, see the High School Highlights section inside today's Herald.

2 Killed In Crash

Two Arlington Heights residents are dead of injuries suffered Saturday night in a two-car collision on Rand Road near Arlington Heights Road, just outside the village limits.

They are Edwin Hogreve, 65, 511 Rand Road, who died Sunday, and Mrs. Pearl Schoenbeck, 54, 203 N. Pine Ave., who died Monday.

Three others injured in the accident have been released from Northwest Community Hospital.

State police said the accident happened when a car driven northwest by Arthur Schoenbeck, 61, collided with a car driven southeast by Jay Arnette, 20, Des Plaines. Police said Schoenbeck was turning into a driveway.

MRS. HELEN Hogreve, 62, was released from the hospital Tuesday. Arnette and his passenger, Richard J. Theil, 22, Chicago, were treated and released after the accident. Schoenbeck was uninjured.

Police ticketed Schoenbeck on a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way and Arnette on a charge of failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

Holiday Issue, Early Deadline

Offices and plant of Paddock Publications, 217 W. Campbell St., Arlington Heights, will be closed next Thursday, Thanksgiving Day.

The Nov. 25 editions of all Paddock newspapers will be on newsstands and delivered to subscribers on Wednesday, one day early.

Deadline for all news releases and other editorial material for next week's issues is Saturday noon. Classified advertising deadline is Monday at 2 p.m.

Rumsfeld to Talk Tonight

Cong. Donald Rumsfeld of the 13th District will be the guest speaker tonight (Thursday) at the meeting of the Wheeling Township Regular Republican Club. The meeting will be at 8:30 p.m. in the VFW Hall, corner of Yale Avenue and Northwest Highway.

CONG. RUMSFELD

The meeting will be open to the public. A question-and-answer period will follow Cong. Rumsfeld's talk. Refreshments will follow the program. (ACW

The award is from Steinway through Lyon-Healy, their Chicago area dealer for the past 95 years. In the presentation are (left to right): Will Wais, manager, Lyon-Healy Randhurst store at Route 83 and Rand Road; Frederick Schmoyer; John H. Steinway; R. Gregory Durham, president of Lyon-Healy.

Women's Volleyball Play Starts Nov. 30

With the close of the Arlington Heights Park District's women's physical exercise class, the facilities at Recreation Park will be open to ladies in the area who are interested in playing volleyball.

Women are urged to form teams in their neighborhood, business or school in order to enter volleyball competition. Ladies who are unable to complete a team of eight players should call the park district office to join one of the teams.

FOR WOMEN who are looking for active participation, fun and friends, volleyball games will be held at Recreation Park Fieldhouse, 500 E. Miner St., on Tuesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock.

The first meeting will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 30. All women are urged to attend this meeting to complete teams. Games have been scheduled with teams from other park districts.

Rev. Evans to Be Installed As Head of Trinity College

The Rev. Harry L. Evans, 115 S. Rammer Ave., Arlington Heights, will be inaugurated as the 14th president of Trinity College and Trinity Evangelical Divinity School Sunday. The principle speaker at the event will be Dr. Walter Judd, 10-term former U.S. congressman from Minnesota.

The Rev. Mr. Evans will receive his presidential charge from Dr. Arnold T. Olson, president of the Evangelical Free Church of America, and will be invested under the direction of Leslie C. Lofdahl, chairman of Trinity's governing board.

Before election to Trinity's presidency last June, he had served for four years as chairman of Trinity's governing board. In his new position, he will direct the education of the 300 students in the college and the 230 in the divinity school. The divinity school was relocated from Chicago to Bannockburn, Deerfield, Ill., three years ago. The college moved there this fall and will be dedicating its new $2 million campus Saturday.

THE BANNOCKBURN acreage, formerly the Sunset Estate of Richard E. Welch, head of the Welch Scientific Co., was purchased by Trinity in 1960. It is located in a rolling, wooded area of large estates along the Tri-State Tollway at Half Day Road.

The Rev. Mr. Evans served congregations in Brooklyn, N. Y., Gothenburg, Neb., and Arlington Heights, before being elected to his present position. He was at Arlington Heights Evangelical Free Church, 8 W. St. James Street, from 1958 until his appointment.

He is a graduate of Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. In his years in the ministry, he served as a chairman of the Midwest District Conference of his denomination, president of the Camp Willabay, Wis., board member and chairman of the Billy Graham Northwest area crusade in June, 1964.

His family includes his wife Dorothy, daughter Susan, 12, and son Scot, 14 months.

REV. EVANS

Dr. Judd's speech is entitled "The Christian School in a Free Society."

TRINITY College is a four-year, co-educational liberal arts college offering the B. A. degree. Trinity Evangelical Divinity School is a graduate school of religion offering the B.D., Th.M., and M.A. degrees. The schools, now in their sixty-ninth year, are sponsored by the Evengelical Free Church of America.

The Evanses will continue to live in Arlington Heights.

Thanksgiving Story Hour This Saturday

A Thanksgiving story hour will be presented Saturday at Recreation Park fieldhouse in Arlington Heights.

Games, songs and stories will constitute the 10 a.m. program for all youngsters third grade and under.

High school volunteers who will be helping with the story hour are Debbie Stefan, Rita Sauve, Kathy Grosche and Marilyn Compton.

The Christmas story hour will also be held at Recreation Park on Saturday, Dec. 18. (A

2 Drivers Ticketed After Crash

A Prospect Heights woman was treated at Northwest Community Hospital after an auto accident Monday at State Road and Oakton Street, Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Elizabeth R. Koske, 48, of 602 N. Elmhurst Road, was taken to the hospital after complaining of chest pains. Her car was eastbound on Oakton when it collided with one driven south by Miss Guillermina S. Vega, 19, of 1215 W. Palatine Road.

Police ticketed Miss Vega on a charge of driving too fast for conditions and Mrs. Koske on a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way after stopping at a stop sign. The accident occurred at 12:45 p.m. (A-G

Young Women Injured in Auto Accident

Two young women were treated for head injuries and released from Northwest Community Hospital last Thursday following an auto accident at Central Road near Ridge Avenue, Arlington Heights.

They are Miss Anita Cicero, 18, 1530 S. Monterey, Roselle, and Miss Patricia Rinne, 17, 130 S. Circle Ave., Bloomingdale.

They were riding in a car driven east on Central by Miss Cicero which struck the rear of a car driven by Albert Jordan, 33, 630 W. Central Road, Arlington Heights. Jordan had slowed his vehicle. Police ticketed Miss Cicero on a charge of driving too fast for conditions. (A

Making the presentation to Mrs. Briel, who is dining room supervisor of the company's Arlington Heights data processing center, is J. E. Wax, Illinois Bell's division data processing manager. She also received a gold bell charm.

Trip Tips

Wayne Griffin

Everyone liked Leo. He was our driver-guide on my last tour to the island of Maui, Hawaii. Leo claimed every native on the whole island was his cousin (and he might be correct). Leo eats poi — lots and lots of poi as you can tell by his size. And every ounce of him is happy. He sings, he narrates, he loves to talk about his home island of Maui.

You'll agree with Leo too, that the island is lovely. It's only 45 minutes by air from Honolulu and boasts the famous dormant crater — Haleakala, plus the freakish Iao needle, which we visit. Then we drive along the rocky southern coast to the Kaanapali shores where Lahaina, the old whaling village is located. We'll stop long enough to stroll around the sites and stop at the old hotel for a short repast on the veranda. Our two nites on Maui will be at the new Sheraton Maui Hotel. Ocean bathing or pool swimming are superb — and for the golfer, a Robert Trent Jones course at your doorstep. And don't forget the food — ah, those buffets!

Maui is one of three outer islands to be visited on our two week tour to Hawaii which I will escort from Chicago on March 5th. Space is still available and I do want to mention that single women are welcome. You may have single hotel accommodations, or we will make every effort to have you share a room. Our colorful brochure is ready now. Write Wayne Griffin Travel at 104 N. Evergreen, Arlington Heights, or call CL 5-7010.

Almost forgot — Leo claimed his cousin was a great musician too. He was right. It wasn't his cousin — it was Leo himself, playing the bass fiddle after dinner in the cocktail lounge at the Sheraton Maui hotel.

Community Council to Hear Panel

Is Arlington Heights a Split-Level Jungle?

Arlington Heights' Community Council (COMMCO) will pose this question in a panel discussion at the general meeting Nov. 30. Richard Cowen, program chairman, has announced the panel guest will be: L. W. Calderwood, chief of police in Arlington Heights; Tony Borhorfoush, chairman of the Arlington Heights Youth Council; Ralph Clabaugh, school district 25 Superintendent, and the Rev. Leonard Martin, St. Peter Lutheran Church.

Following the panel discussion, the question will then be presented for discussion by the delegate-members from individual member organizations, and for a vote on whether COMMCO should sponsor an anti-vandalism program.

Also to be heard is a report from Virgil Bass, chairman of the Northwest Church Council on Migrant Aid, on problems facing migrants in this area, what is being done to help them and what individual civic, charitable, and fraternal organizations can do to help. Bass will also comment on the proposed health clinics to be developed with the assistance of federal funds.

The meeting will be held at Windsor School, Miner and Windsor, Arlington Heights, and will start at 8 p.m. The public may attend; there will be extended opportunity for discussion from the floor and for questions directed to the guests. Refreshments will be served.

Chestnut, Marion Projects Approved

Improvement of two streets in Arlington Heights was formerly approved by village trustees Monday.

The board voted to designate Chestnut between Wing and Campbell as an arterial street so that motor fuel tax funds can be used to pave the one-block extension.

Also approved, at the request of the board of local improvements, was the special assessment paving of Marion Road between Yale and Harvard in Sherwood Subdivision.

THE SPECIAL assessment project was given a total cost of $20,988.

Expenditure of $57,000 in motor fuel tax funds available to the village was authorized in a resolution that accompanied the one designating Chestnut as an arterial street.

The $57,000 will be used to acquire the right of way and put in utilities and paving on Chestnut.

Carl Mees, chairman of a special board committee to handle the Chestnut matter, said that the village will purchase part of the right-of-way from builder-architect Robert Babbin, for $9,000 and that $20,500 will be used to purchase the Bender property needed to complete the roadway.

HE SAID that part of the cost of acquisition could have been spread to around-the-corner property holders if special assessment financing had been used by the village instead of the motor fuel tax funds. The committee felt, however, the project might actually have cost more in the end because of extra costs that accompany special assessments. (A

Don and Judy Swindell and children, Jeff, Kathy and Mark, 1409 N. Race, traveled to South Bend on Sunday to visit Don's brother and family, the Jack Swindells.

Homecoming festivities at Northern Illinois University in Dekalb were attended by Bernard and Dorothy Roser, 1447 N. Race, on Nov. 6. Dorothy attended Northern. The Rosers attended a tea at Dorothy's sorority house while there. On the way home they stopped at the Living Room near Roselle for dinner.

Visiting Howard and June Soisson, 1251 N. Chicago, from Thursday to Monday were Howard's parents, the Howard Soissons of Pittsburgh. Saturday night the two couples dined at Weller's in Morton Grove. Sunday night the Soissons and guests attended "Carousel" at Mill-Run Playhouse.

A two-day trip to Canada was recently enjoyed by Michael and Sandra Kauffman, 1224 N. Chicago. They left for Windsor, Ontario, on Nov. 4, stayed Thursday night at the Prince Edward Hotel and returned home Friday evening.

THE TERRACE bids farewell to Paul and Irene Pedersen and children, Paula, Karen, Christine and Eric, who moved on Saturday from 1216 N. Chicago to 2155 Davis Court, Plum Grove Countryside.

Word has been received from Rodney Clinite, ex-Terrace resident, concerning the serious illness of his wife, Jean. The Clinites recently moved to Rockford and Jean gave birth to a baby on Oct. 13 and has been in serious condition since. Blood donors are needed. If anyone in the Terrace would be willing to give blood, call Clorinda Roberts at 392-2589.

Robin Hanus, son of the Paul Hanuses, 1337 N. Race, was 1 Nov. 11 and a family party was given Sunday. Present were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hanus and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schenfeld, all of Chicago, aunts and uncles, the Robert Hanus family of Wheeling, Tom Hanuses of Elk Grove Village, Les Bang family of the Terrace, Steve Bagneschi family of Arlington, Robin's godmother, Miss Marilyn Seido of Chicago, and other friends of the family.

Paul and Judy Hanus celebrated their second wedding anniversary of Nov. 9 by going out to dinner and a show Saturday night.

ON SUNDAY, Mary and Margaret Shellander, twin daughters of the Albert Shellanders, 1716 W. Olive, were honored at a family birthday party to celebrate their Nov. 9 birthdays. Guests were their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shellander St. of Chicago, aunt, uncle and nine cousins, the James Schillings of Glenview, and their brother and sister, Tom and Nancy.

Jim Murray, 1244 N. Chicago, was home from Stout University in Menominee, Wis., to spend the weekend with his family.

Hal and Phyllis Fluhrer and children, Linda, Janet and "Skip," 1433 N. Race, enjoyed a visit in Minnesota from Nov. 5 through 7. They visited Hal's mother, Mrs. H. H. Fluhrer in Glenville.

On Nov. 11, Lena Duss, 1322 N. Race, entertained at an evening neighborhood coffee. Present were Alice Bauer, Jo Rozdalovsky, Carole Kurtz, Ethel Emmons, Joan Blackburn, Kay Platte, Pierrette Leckie, Rosemary Shellander, Catherine Goodpasture, Lillian Larson and Naomi Ruprecht.

Sunday dinner guests of Ralph and Barbara Wiederhold, 1322 N. Chicago, were Barbara's parents, the W. H. Alexanders of Park Ridge. They celebrated the Nov. 4 birthday of Mrs. Alexander and the Nov. 13 birthday of Mr. Alexander.

Arriving Monday night to spend several days with the Clifford Harmons, 1408 N. Yale, were Mr. and Mrs. John Egan of Boston who were on their way back to Boston from a month's tour of the Orient.

On Nov. 10 Nancy Pollard, 1400 N. Yale, was hostess at a plastic party attended by 12 friends.

Jerry and Nancy Pollard and daughter, Paula, traveled to East Moline on Sunday to attend the birthday party of Nancy's niece, Jennifer Price.

NOV. 12 was the second birthday of Jeffrey Edwards, son of the Karl Edwardses, 1204 N. Race. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene F. Damstra of Dayton, came to help him celebrate Friday evening; they also spent the weekend with the family.

Sally Peterson, daughter of the Phillip Petersons, 1433 N. Wilke, was 2 Nov. 12. She celebrated Sunday at a family party attended by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Peura of DeKalb, her aunt, uncle, and cousins, the Larry Petersons of Elgin, and her sisters, Susy and Sandy.

On Sunday, Jay Hoban and daughter, Patty, 1436 N. Race, motored to Stevens Point, Wis. with Jay's mother and sister to visit his sister, Kathy Hoban, a freshman at Wisconsin State University.

Saturday evening guests of Bob and Kay Roden, 1212 N. Illinois, were the Dick Sobys and the Jim Ordners.

Attending the stage play, "Barefoot in the Park," Saturday night were Jim and Dianne Rudolph, 1413 N. Chicago, accompanied by friends from Prospect Heights.

On Nov. 14, Laurie Bartel, daughter of the Frank Bartels, 1210 N. Race, was 7. She celebrated at a party Saturday attended by Thea Larson, Barbara Schmidt, April Krug, Cathy Fogarty, Cynthia Kilby and her brothers, Danny and Mike.

VICKI GLEESON, daughter of the Jack Gleesons, 1239 N. Illinois, was 3 Nov. 9. She shared honors at a family party on Nov. 7 with her brother, Marc, who was 2 Oct. 28. Guests were their grandparents the L. A. Mackenroths of Glenview, aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mackenroth Jr. of Northbrook, the Howard Lacina family of Morton Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Syed Abdullah of Chicago.

Dorothy Roser, 1447 N. Race, attended a bridal shower in Highland Park on Sunday for Maureen McGrath, a sorority sister of Dorothy's at Northern Illinois University.

Jesse and Genevieve Galloway, 1111 N. Wilke, attended the Bears-Colts football game Nov. 7. They were guests of Jesse's employer who also took them out to lunch and dinner.

Ronald Becker of Skokie is visiting his parents, the Werner Beckers, 1440 N. Race, while his wife and baby are visiting her parents in Seattle. Ron, in the Naval Reserves, will be moving to Joliet in December, having been transferred from Evanston.

Janice Murphy, 1326 N. Chicago, was hostess at a coffee Tuesday, in honor of Barbara Wiederhold's birthday. Attending were Donna Garland, Francine Elder, Deanna Olson, Ellen Wiley, Carole Kurtz and Alice Eisenhuth. (A

Technology Impact Is LWV Topic

The effect of technological change on Chicago industry and labor will be discussed next Tuesday at a Cook County League of Women Voters meeting attended by two local LWV members.

Representing the local 100-member LWV at the County Council meeting in Chicago will be Mrs. Thomas E. Lunak of Des Plaines and Mrs. Ralph O. Waterhouse of Mount Prospect.

Mrs. Lunak is Arlington Heights LWV delegate to the county council and Mrs. Waterhouse is a member of the county resource committee which is directing the Cook County Leagues' new study of metropolitan problems.

Speaking on the effect of technological change will be Thomas Coulter, executive director of the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry and Frank Igolka, Chicago area supervisor for the Illinois bureau of labor. (B10

'No' Votes Lacking At Board Session

Village trustees were in an agreeable mood Monday evening.

Not one "no" vote was cast as the Arlington Heights board passed and approved a long group of rezoning, annexation and regulatory ordinances.

Approved — without dissent — were:

—ANNEXATION OF the 14-acre Franzen-Manke property and an adjoining 21 acres on which the new Weber Marking Systems plant will stand east of Old Elk Grove Road between Algonquin Road and the tollroad.

—Rezoning to M-1 (industrial) of the Weber land, the Franzen-Manke property and another five acres owned by Dorothy and Robert Engelhardt directly east.

—Resubdivision of a part of Sherwood subdivision so that Delbert Joost, 1202 N. Burgoyne Road, can purchase 30 feet of back yard he had mistakenly thought—because of a surveying error—that he owned before.

—Annexation of three one-lot parcels in Arlington Knolls at the request of their owners.

The board voted to pass a resolution objecting to rezoning from R-4 to R-5 of the Magnus farm south of Central Road unless a covenant restricting its use to a nursing home were added to the deed. That resolution, too, got a unanimous vote.

VILLAGE ATTY. Jack Siegel told the trustees, in regard to the Magnus property, that a 25-year covenant had been agreed to. But he said he thought the village should still be on record with the County Board of Zoning as being in opposition. Siegel said the Magnus farm, long in use for a nursing home, will have its nursing facilities expanded and that some single-family dwellings—designed as retirement cottages—would be built on part of the land.

Approval of the annexation and rezoning to M-1 of the parcels that will include the Weber plant had been recommended by the plan commission. The commission had also recommended approval of the Joost resubdivision request. (A

By The Arlington Heights Fire Department

Fire chiefs estimate that well over 11,000 persons die every year as a result of fire. The average for the last decade is 11,600 a year. Children, five years old or younger, account for a large percentage of that total.

Why are they so often fire's victims? One reason is their utter helplessness, more often their inquisitiveness and lack of fear of fire. If trapped, for instance, in a burning building, they are powerless to help themselves. You must help them first. Teach them good safety habits, always keep the Fire Department telephone number in sight and never leave children alone at home at any time.

John Birch Bust Given To Pastor

Rev. Paul D. Lindstrom of Palatine recently received awards from the Republic of China and the Anti-Communist League of America. Rev. Lindstrom is pastor of the Church of Christian Liberty which meets in Des Plaines.

The presentation of awards was made Nov. 10 following a talk on "Your Freedoms" by the evening's speaker, Princess Catherine Caradja of Romania.

The first award, presented by John Crippen, executive secretary of the Anti-Communist League, was a bust of former Baptist missionary to China and World War II Army captain, John Birch.

The second award, a flag of the Republic of China, was presented by Crippen in behalf of Frank Sia, consul general of the Republic of China. (B-10

Duplex Units Opposed In Apartment Zoning

The prohibition of duplex units in R5 (apartment) zoning districts has been endorsed by the Arlington Heights Plan Commission.

The commission last Wednesday approved a resolution recommending deletion of R4a (duplex and two-family town houses) from the permitted uses under R5. If the board of trustees concurs with the action, the plan commission will schedule a hearing to change the ordinance.

THE VILLAGE has a number of sizable R5 districts waiting for development; it has had several requests to develop R5 districts with townhouses and expected to receive other requests when the plan commission's zoning committee was asked to study the question.

Normally, any zoning district may be developed in a "higher" use. Thus, single family and duplex developments may be built in R5 areas, retail businesses (B1) may be built in heavy commercial districts (B2), and so forth.

The "higher" residential uses are supposed to be less "dense." That is, a larger lot area is required per unit and therefore, theoretically, per person.

But a study done in Park Ridge and local experience indicate duplex developments are more densely populated than apartment developments. While apartment units in Arlington Heights generally are limited to one and two bedrooms, duplex units generally have three and four bedrooms.

APPARENTLY ONLY one R5 zoning district—Sugarbrook, in the northeast section of Arlington Heights-has been developed in duplex units. But at least two requests for similar developments are a matter of record. Prospect Heights school District 23 has expressed concern over the school population generated by Sugarbrook.

Effect of the ordinance change would not be to eliminate duplexes but to limit their construction to zoning districts specifically created for two-family units. (AF(G

United Fund May Hit Goal for First Time

The Arlington Heights United Fund may reach its goal for the first time this year, officials of the fund indicate.

General Chairman Paul E. Collins announced Saturday the United Fund drive had topped 75 per cent of its goal during the week.

Hopes that the three-year-old organization, which supports the work of 13 local agencies, would make its goal for the first time were strengthened by returns from the educational division. With $3,100 pledged as of Tuesday, that division had reached 95 per cent of its goal. The residential and commerce and industry divisions also have shown gains in the latest report.

COLLINS explained that District 214, because it covers Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, Wheeling, Elk Grove Village and Buffalo Grove, is conducting one campaign and then reporting a proportional amount to participating United Fund community drives. Dr. Eddie Gilbert of Arlington Heights headed the drive in all schools of 214 and in District 25 and the parochial schools.

The governmental division is complete and the professional division is nearing completion, with local physicians still not completely reported. Dentists and lawyers have made their largest contributions in the history of the local effort. L. A. (Rudy) Hanson, Village Manager, and George Beacham head governmental and professional divisions respectively. James Warriner, commerce and industry chairman, has urged local businessmen and his solicitors to get all pledges in and reported before the holiday season intervenes.

All residential solicitors were urged to complete their work by this weekend so that the drive would not have to continue past Thanksgiving. Pledges and report envelopes may be deposited at any time at the Bank of Arlington Heights in the Arlington Market shopping center.

THE ARLINGTON HEIGHTS United Fund this year became part of the Metropolitan Crusade of Mercy. If the Metropolitan Drive goes over, all participating local agencies will receive their full amounts. Local volunteers pass by homes displaying the "We Gave Metro" stickers. (AF

Reading his letter to County Commissioner Floyd Fulle before the township auditors Tuesday, Elk Grove Township Supervisor William Rohlwing announced that they had lost a road but gained a lake.

Rohlwing was reporting on the status of Bisner Road which had been closed two years ago.

He said the County Highway Department informed him that Bisner Road would not be reopened because a retaining lake will be constructed where the road runs through Forest Preserve land. The new lake will be located in Ned Brown Forest Preserve in the area east of Route 53 and south of Higgins Road.

IN ANOTHER report, the County Highway Department informed the township auditors that there was not enough traffic at the intersection of Arlington Heights Road and Devon to warrant the erection of four-way stop signs there.

The township board had asked the county highway department in August if four-way stop signs could be erected at the intersections of Busse Road and Dempster Street and at State and Devon. Signs at Busse and Dempster waere erected about a month ago, according to Township Highway Commissioner Ronald Bradley. (E(M

A downtown cultural center built around the Village Theatre is still a possibility.

Park commissioner Charles B. Cronin was asked by the park board last month to present tentative plans for a Village Theatre building to the village. He told the park board Tuesday, after discussions with Village Mgr. L. A. Hanson, that the village is actively working to locate a cultural facility in the downtown area.

THE PARK district and Village Theatre group have had an agreement for some time, under which the private group will construct a theater building on new park district land near Surrey Ridge subdivision, in the southern part of the village.

The park board, village and Village Theatre met last summer to discuss possibility of locating the facility downtown instead. The downtown revitalization plan, drafted by Tec-Search planning consultants, recommends a cultural facility there.

The meeting, however, was inconclusive. While the park district and Village Theatre appeared willing to cooperate, financing of a downtown facility seemed an obstacle, particularly with the cost of land.

CRONIN TOLD commissioners Tuesday however, that the village has under consideration a lease-purchase agreement. Under new state legislation, taxing bodies may arrange to have facilities built by private investors and acquire them through a long-term lease purchase without issuing general obligation bonds.

The park board asked Cronin to inform the Village Theatre of the development. Cronin said Hanson plans a meeting of the village and park boards when he has more information.

Recreation Building Groundbreaking Sun.

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the Wheeling Park District's $205,000 recreation building will be at 2:30 p.m. Sunday.

Representatives of other governmental bodies have been formally invited to attend.

The four low bids for the construction work were approved by the park board at a special meeting last Thursday.

Of a large number of bids received, the four low bids for the construction work were approved by the park board at a special meeting Thursday. The bids were opened at the regular park board meeting Nov. 4.

FLEETWOOD Construction Co. is to be the general contractor, with a low bid of $117,758.

Electrical work was awarded to Charles Johnson Electrical Co. for $37,675, heating to the H. E. Anderson Co., $19,600, and plumbing to the H. Aneises Co. for $1,190.

Burke and Co., architectural firm, was retained for an additional two per cent of the cost to provide full-time inspection. Its fee for designing the building was reported at about 6½ per cent of the cost.

TOTAL COST of the building, to include an ice rink and lighted softball field, was $187,223, only $23 off the estimate given the board by Burke, it was pointed out.

A contingency fund of $9,400 in case of additional building expenses has also been provided by the board on the recommendation of the architect.

A purchase of $2,000 worth of trees from Palmgren's Nursery was also approved by the park board last Thursday.

The trees are to be planted on the 66-acre park and the Mark Twain School playground.

Will Enforce Regulations On Parking

The Elk Grove Village Police Department will begin enforcing parking regulations Dec. 1.

Motorists will be given warning tickets for violations until that date.

The village has received new parking tickets, reported Police Chief Harry P. Jenkins. The tickets also are usable for other village ordinance violations.

A procedure in the village clerk's office is being arranged to process tickets and fines.

JENKINS explained the tickets will list the date when fines are due. If the fines remain unpaid after the due date, a delinquent notice will be sent from the clerk's office.

If this notice is ignored, a court summons with a court appearance date will be sent to the offender. Ignoring the court appearance will result in a warrant sworn out by the court.

Zadrow Quits Plan Commission

Jack Zadrow of 404 Glendale, Buffalo Grove, has resigned from the village plan commission after more than two years' service.

No one has been named yet to take his place by Village Pres. William J. Farrington. He recently reappointed Norman Kortus of 428 Navajo to the commission. Kortus has been on the board for one year and his term expired Nov. 5.

Zadrow, who joined the commission May 16, 1963, gave pressure of business as his reason for resigning. (BG

HEmpstead 7-1323

Their holiday in Greece has been the main topic of conversation at 870 Maple Court, home of Sylvia and Don Oehl, as they related highlights of their trip to friends, neighbors and their daughters, Nancy, Susan, Sally and Caryl.

Arriving in Athens, and staying at the Athens Hilton, overlooking the ocean, the week-long holiday was filled with places to see and things to do. They visited the Acropolis, where they saw the historical ruins of the parthenon, the nearby countryside of Delphia and Sounion, where additional Historical Ruins can be found, took a cruise to the Island of Aegina to see the ruins of ancient temples and one morning they saw the Queen Mother Frederika shopping at their hotel.

In the evenings, they went nightclubbing and saw authentic Greek belly dancers. The Oehls returned home with rolls of film to keep their trip fresh in their minds and hearts for years to come.

MARY WALZ, daughter of Evie and Art Walz of 342 Birchwood Drive, made her First Holy Communion in Queen of the Rosary Church on Nov. 6. A brunch followed for her family, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Connelly of Chicago, and aunts and uncle, Pat and Tom Kearney and Miss Carol and Vivian Connelly. Later in the day Mary was treated to dinner and a movie downtown.

Preparing for Christmas at a recent toy demonstration hostessed by Mary Harrell, 519 Magnolia Lane, were neighbors, Barbara Fichtner, Rose Lucarz, Dee Post, Joyce Enxing, Carol Kane, Eleanor McCusker, Gloria Cook, and Joyce Andrews of Wheaton.

A speedy recovery is wished Mary Hendricksen of Elmwood Lane, who recently returned home from Wesley Memorial Hospital.

Halloween-birthday decorations were noted at 484 E. Elk Grove Blvd., when the Al Kiehls' daughter, Kathy, celebrated her recent eighth birthday. Decked in their costume were Ellen Meyer, Kathy and Chrissie Robb, Susie Cavanagh, Debbie and Donna Chesney, Brook Harwood, Tracy Schmehl, Patty Ann and Susie Selvig, Cindy Borchas and Janet Hermansen.

Among those attending the Mask and Staff production of "Sunday in New York" at Dempster Junior High Sunday evening were Corky and Vince La Paglia and Arlene and John Ray. Later they stopped at the Salt Box and then went on to the Golden Pheasant.

THE JACK PERRYS' daughter, Anne, made her First Holy Communion Saturday morning in Queen of the Rosary Church. The occasion was feted with a dinner party attended by aunts, uncles, cousins and her grandmothers, Mrs. Charles Perry and Mrs. William Cassidy, all of Chicago.

At 535 Grosvener Court, the Trevor Colvins' son, David, celebrated his fifth birthday Saturday afternoon at a luncheon party and by going to the Cinema to see "Sleeping Beauty." Among his guests were Chris Balla, Michael Arnieri, Paul and Donald Froehlke, Mark Anderson, Paul Zirlin, Jerry McCullough, Jimmy Jacobsen and Steven Farmer, and David's brother and sister, Jackie and Diane.

Michael Fitzgerald, son of Pat and Bill, 378 Maple Lane, made his First Holy Communion on Nov. 6 in Queen of the Rosary Church. A family breakfast feted the occasion at the Pancake Plantation.

Costumed Halloween guests at the 45 Keswick Lane residence of Jean and Wayne Blount were neighbors, the Mike Kostos, Tom Rodgers, Glenn Freitags, Bob DeCores, Gene Meyers, Joe Borsts, Al Forsythes and the Fritz Frasiers.

MARILYN AND Paul Jordon report a busy weekend at their 210 Brookhaven Drive home. They entertained Lois Jones and daughter, Denise, of Assumption, Ill. They arrived on Thursday and Dick Jones flew up on the weekend to join his family.

On Nov. 6, Michael Durkin, son of Marcy and Martin, 526 Maple Lane, made his First Holy Communion in the Queen of the Rosary Church and was feted with a luncheon at Plentywood Farm attended by the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Donnelly of Chicago, and his sisters, Janet, Jeanne and Maureen.

Sympathy is extended to Ramona and Roy Forsythe, 592 Brantwood Court, on the death of Roy's father in Hickman, Ky.

Colorful decorations and five pink candles atop a decorated birthday cake were noted at 535 Maple Lane, when the Don Mitchells' daughter, Margaret, was 5. Among her guests Saturday afternoon were Ellen Stewart, Maureen and Jeanne Durkin, Diane Bruce, Carol Lynn Jones, Beth Carleson, Lee Ann and Pammy Mache, Lauri Ann Rittle, Sheryl Micolay and Margaret's sister, Carrie.

At 215 Brookhaven Drive, the John Bulkas' daughter, Diane, celebrated her ninth birthday on Sunday. They took her to McCormick Place for the opening night performance of the Royal Danish Ballet. They also dined at the President's Walk, where Diane was impressed by the formal attire of numerous First-Nighters.

ALWAYS enjoyable is a combined business and pleasure trip, such as the one recently enjoyed by Barbara and Robert Fichtner, 542 Dogwood Trail, and their daughter, Beth, and son, Paul. The 10-day holiday began by driving to Treasure Island to the Belmar Beach Motel. They swam in the Gulf, a great deal of time was spent sightseeing to such places as the Aquatarium in St. Petersburg and in Tampa they dined at the renown Columbia Restaurant. They also did some sightseeing en route home, stopping in Chattanooga, Tenn., to see Rock City atop Mount Lookout. While the Fichtners were vacationing, Dirck was cared for by the Al Fichtners of Morton Grove.

Colorful and spooky decorations greeted the costumed guests of Mary Lou and Jim Ryan at a recent Halloween party in their home at 467 Cedar Lane. Participating were the Tom Wienckowskis, Phil Nashes, Ed Lukases, Don Mitchells, "Ziggy" Zurawskies, Don Werners, John J. Smiths, Jim Murrays, Carl Magsamens, Bill Walthouses and the Bob Dunns.

Peter, son of Dorothy and Louis Gennuso, 795 Bonita Drive, made his First Holy Communion on Nov. 6 in Queen of the Rosary Church. The occasion was highlighted with a dinner party for relatives. Included were the grandparents, Mrs. Ray Chanoux and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gennuso of Chicago, and Peter's godparents, Mrs. Earl Martensen of Des Plaines and Peter Gennuso of Chicago.

A PARTY was given at 641 Charing Cross by Pat and Harry Petersen on Halloween Eve for villagers, the Harry Turnblooms, Clare Esches and the Mel Levines; the Eric Graepps from Deerfield, Rob Petersons of Niles and the William Youngs of Palatine.

Twelve pink candles topped the decorated maypole birthday cake of Shelley Zirlin, daughter of Ted and Harleen Zirlin, 517 Grosvener Court, when she feted her Nov. 10 natal day with a pajama party Thursday evening. Her houseguests were Andrea Horsley, Susie Schlamp, Nancy Allen and Sally Teele and Shelley's sister, Lori.

A PROGRESSIVE dinner party Saturday evening began with cocktails at the Sycamore Drive residence of Joanne and Tom Wienckowski; to Barbara and Mity Weiss's home for champagne and salad; main course was prepared by Joe and Darlene Mazur and all the couples, including Pat and Jack Anderson, wound up at Roseann and Daryll Skarda's home for dessert and dancing.

Linda Skibinski, daughter of Grace and Eugene, 612 Maple Lane, made her First Holy Communion on Nov. 6 in Queen of the Rosary Church and the occasion was feted with a breakfast afterwards attended by the grandmothers from Chicago, Mrs. Charles Gjondola and Mrs. Mary Skibinski and a family dinner at the Green Tree Restaurant in Bensenville. In the evening, a joint celebration was held in Chicago at the Ken Bower home, as Marlene Bower also made her First Holy Communion. (E

A 13-year-old Arlington Heights boy received hip and knee injuries when the bike on which he was riding was hit by a car at State and Sigwalt shortly before 5 p.m. Saturday.

He is Robert A. Landwehr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Landwehr, 900 S. Evergreen Ave.

The youth was struck by a car driven by Mrs. Eunice N. King, 52, 350 S. Burton Ave., and dragged 208 feet under the car before it came to a stop outside the Sigwalt Street fire department entrance.

HE WAS treated and released from Northwest Community Hospital. He told police the traffic light was green when he entered the intersection, but the light changed to orange just before the mishap occurred.

The youth was given first aid by firemen and taken to the hospital in a police squad. He is an eighth grade student at St. Peter's Lutheran School.

Police ticketed Mrs. King on a charge of negligent driving.

Law Passed On Grading Vacant Lots

An ordinance to regulate the grading on vacant lots was passed by Arlington Heights trustees Monday.

Village Mgr. L. A. Hanson said the ordinance was needed because some vacant lots are left with heaped-up dirt mounds that are almost impossible for anyone—the owner or the village—to mow.

HE SAID IN some cases half-excavated basements have been left unfinished for a year or more.

Passage of the ordinance means that the village will be able to direct the lots be graded properly or do so itself. Payment for the grading will have to be sought by asking for a lien, Village Atty. Jack Siegel said.

Fulle to Speak At GOP Meeting

Cook County Commissioner Floyd Fulle will be the guest speaker at the next meeting of the Wheeling Republican Action Committee Tuesday, Nov. 23.

Fulle, of Park Ridge, is one of five Republicans on the county board.

The meeting will begin at 8:30 p.m. at the Hartman House Restaurant on Milwaukee Ave.

Grant Is Sought to Plan Teacher Training Center

Elk Grove School District 59 will request a $21,400 planning grant from the federal government.

The grant would allow the school district to plan a supplementary educational center for the training of teachers and other educational personnel.

Supt. Roger Bardwell explained Tuesday the District 59 administration believes "the public school is" the most significant agent for educational change and innovation."

Colleges and universities are not producing the educational innovations being used in school systems like District 59's, Bardwell said. This means many teachers graduating from colleges and universities are not trained in using new techniques and systems.

ASST. SUPT. Ludwig Bodzewski cited the interest Northern Illinois University, National College of Education, and Illinois Teachers College have shown in having their students observe District 59 teaching practices.

Bardwell added that the ungraded organization, team teaching, and individualized instruction are examples of programs originated at a local school level rather than through teacher training programs or research in colleges and universities.

District 59's application for federal funding of this planning is based on the administration's belief it can convince the U.S. Office of Education that District 59 has the ability to do such planning.

District 59's program for talented youth receiving almost $¼ million from the state, its team teaching, learning centers, non-grading, and dual enrollment with the parochial school have shown its ability, according to the application.

As a demonstration project, new programs could be attempted and new teacher or supervisory behavior be studied. It would allow practice under colleague and staff observation.

The demonstration center could even be used for training of Negro teachers displaced as a result of southern schools' desegregation.

THIS WILL bridge the gap between theory and use of teaching innovations, the application states.

If its proposal is accepted, District 59 administrators plan to ask for planning cooperation from area elementary and high school districts, local Catholic and Lutheran parochial schools, and seven colleges and universities.

Gloria Kinney, director of the gifted program, would head the planning if the District 59 receives a grant. (EF(M

Test Greater Use Of Parks at Night

Authorization for a "pilot" program for informal evening recreation was authorized Tuesday by the Arlington Heights Park District commissioners.

Commissioners created an "evening recreation supervisor" position to test out a recommendation from Supt. Thomas Thornton for greater night time use of park facilities by the general public. Thornton's proposal envisions eventual hiring of supervisors at the three major parks: Pioneer, Recreation and Hasbrook.

Evening use of facilities, outside the swimming pools, currently is mainly for outside organizations or for regular classes. Part-time night watchmen presently are used; their duties are limited more to policing the grounds and assisting groups who have use of the buildings.

A PRIMARY function of the night recreation supervisors, would be to make recreation facilities available to non-organized groups. They would also be charged with policing the grounds.

The job would require at least two years of college education. At $2.50 an hour, the supervisors would replace night watchmen, who are paid $1.85. Thornton said the change would cost only about $300 a year.

Commissioners appeared skeptical about the long list of duties assigned to the night supervisor so decided on the one-man "pilot" to determine how the job works out before adding two additional supervisors. Assignment of his time was left to the administration.

School Named for Late Centex Chief

The new junior high school in Elk Grove Village was named the Tom Lively Junior High School Monday.

The school board unanimously approved the name in appreciation for Centex Corp. contributions to Elk Grove School District 59.

A letter will be sent to Mr. Lively's widow to inform her of the school district's action. Mr. Lively died in a boating accident this spring.

School Board President A. M. (Bud) Bernstein said Centex and Lively, the former president of the company, had been "amazingly cooperative ... well beyond measures necessary."

School board member Vance Folkman considered the naming of the school after someone of the area deserving recognition as "a step forward."

After the quick and unanimous decision on naming one school, the board tried for another. School board member Douglas Burns suggested Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr. as a befitting name for the junior high school for the northern section of the district. The board approved the name of the former associate justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

Holmes was an instructor in constitutional law at Harvard and edited the Harvard Law Review.

The board decided an elementary school west of Arlington Heights Road, south of Kennedy Boulevard in Elk Grove Village should not be named since it may be part of another school site complex.

Board member Joseph Schefter's suggestion of Thomas Jefferson for the elementary school east of Arlington Heights Road and north of Algonquin Road failed to get the necessary votes. Schefter argued that Jefferson's intellectual pursuits epitomized what children should emulate.

Board member Nancy Swearingen led the opposition when she argued the board's idea was to have euphonious names, unique, and with a message, honoring some lesser known figures.

Vance Folkman's nomination of Douglas MacArthur as "a fine man with great achievement" failed to get the necessary votes.

The board then agreed to postpone the naming of the school for another meeting.

Rules Passed for Yule Tree Sales

Arlington Heights village trustees have reacted—after a fashion—to those reminders that Christmas is "just around the corner."

They passed an ordinance to regulate the sale of Yule trees in the village.

As summarized by Village Pres. John G. Woods, the ordinance requires that persons be licensed if they wish to sell Christmas trees in the village; that a license not be issued unless the zoning ordinance permits such a business at the place proposed; that the proposed sales site meet safety requirements, and that a $50 cash bond be posted to insure that the sales spot be cleaned up when Christmas is over.

VILLAGE OFFICIALS assured inquiring board members that licensing requirements could be waived for charitable organizations asking that this be done.

The ordinance was requested by Village Mgr. L. A. Hanson.

He said he was doing so "not to thwart free enterprise but to control it" and cited instances of unsafe practices and messy after-holiday conditions because an ordinance was lacking to regulate the trade. (AF

Faner on Panel On School Costs

Stay-at-Homes Preparing for Thanksgiving

With Thanksgiving festivities only a matter of days away, many Arlington Heighters are staying at home planning for the holiday, and for this reason, activities seem to have been reduced somewhat. Others continue with the hustle involved with the celebration of birthdays and the excitement of travel or entertaining in their homes and keep up a lively pace.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kilheffer left Nov. 9 for their home in Rogersville, Tenn., following a four-week visit here with their daughter and son-in-law, the T. P. Johnstons, 902 W. Miner.

Halloween weekend guests in the Edward J. Taylor home, 25 S. Dwyer, were Mrs. Taylor's sister and family, the Zack Monroes from Peoria.

Among the activities during the Monroes' visit was a Halloween party Saturday evening, at which 23 children were present. The party, held in the basement of the Taylor home, featured streamers among the decorations, refreshments in the form of two cakes, shaped and decorated in the form of witches, games, with prizes awarded to game winners and those in the best costumes.

ON NOV. 5, Mrs. Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kunkel of Peoria, arrived to spend the weekend and to help celebrate the third birthday of Tamra Taylor. At a family party, highlighted with a "Little Red Riding Hood" theme, and complete with balloons and streamers, Tamra and her brothers, Trent and Todd, enjoyed a special dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Crooker and sons, Bob and Jim, 12 N. Gibbons, returned recently from a 10-day business and pleasure trip east. Mrs. Crooker and the boys spent the time in the Allentown, Pa., home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Genshart, while Mr. Crooker motored on to Atlantic City, N. J., to attend a convention.

The M. R. Kepharts, 801 S. Evergreen, accompanied by their son, Michael, and daughter, Carol, traveled to Iowa City on Nov. 5 to visit their son, Mirrell Jr., a sophomore at the State University of Iowa. Mirrell, a member of the SAE fraternity, took his family to several fraternity parties. The Kepharts also attended the football game on Saturday and later enjoyed a Dave Brubeck concert.

ON SATURDAY a dinner party in the home of the Arthur Burmeisters, 1134 N. Dunton, was attended by neighbors and six friends with whom the Burmeisters share an interest in bowling.

The LeRoy Montis, 1012 N. Highland, and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ross of Oak Lawn, enjoyed a luncheon in Chicago on Saturday and the matinee performance of "Funny Girl." They concluded the enjoyable day's activities with dinner in Chicago.

Mary Ellen, daughter of the junior George K. Gabrielsens, 705 S. Walnut, was guest of honor Friday evening at a pizza supper at home, in celebration of her 11th birthday. Six girl friends were present to share in the merriment of the supper followed by games.

MR. AND Mrs. Russell Ward, 132 S. Highland, returned Nov. 5 from a three-week motor trip to Florida, Louisiana and Missouri. They visited Miami, Fort Lauderdale, Hollywood, Clearwater Beach and Pensacola and then traveled to New Orleans. In Canton, Mo., they visited their son, Russell Jr. at Culver-Stockton College.

On Oct. 16, the day before their departure, Mrs. Ward gave a surprise "Sweet 16" birthday party for her daughter, Barbara.

Barbara was sent on a shopping trip and returned home to find four Arlington Heights girl friends, her cousin, Susie Cihlar of Chicago, grandmother, Mrs. Julie Monsen of Chicago, and close friends from Elmwood Park waiting at the door to greet her with cries of "Surprise!"

THE STEPHEN JURCOS, 217 S. Windsor, joined the Louis Fischers, former Arlington Heights residents, on Saturday to attend the Wisconsin-Illinois football game in Madison.

Miss Linda Mitchell marked her 17th birthday Saturday at a family dinner at the home of her parents, the Robert E. Mitchells, 330 S. Gibbons. Joining the family circle was her brother, Bob, in from the University of Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Miller, 1301 Woodford, spent the Oct. 29 weekend in Cedar Rapids, attending the homecoming game at Coe College. By chance they met five couples, all former Coe College classmates.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Strobel, 1319 Mayfair, went to St. Louis over the weekend to visit their daughter, Judy, who has been living in St. Louis since shortly after graduating from Valparaiso University. She accepted a position as director of Christian Education in Glendale Lutheran Church. Mr. Strobel's father, John Strobel of Mount Prospect accompanied them.

THE CHARLES H. Watkins, 105 S. Drury, will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, at an open house for their area friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Oberlin, 201 S. Dryden, spent the weekend on a combined business and pleasure trip to Decatur.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Wesler, 332 S. Derbyshire, recently returned from a three-day stay in Oshkosh, Wis., where Mr. Wesler attended the Wolf River Planning Conferences at the Pioneer Motel.

After the meetings, they went to Milwaukee for a family party, celebrating the 80th birthday of Mrs. Wesler's father, Robert Graf.

The senior Mrs. Dunlop, who makes her home in Stonegate with her son and family, the Richard Dunlops, 1115 Mayfair, enjoyed a surprise visit Tuesday from her sons and daughters-in-law. The came to offer birthday congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Norman, 634 S. Dryden, spent the weekend in Appleton, Wis., visiting their daughter and son-in-law, the Bruuce Fahlbergs, who have just moved into their first new home. The Fahlbergs will come to Arlington Heights for the Thanksgiving weekend and the Normans hope that their son, Dr. Stanley Norman, can take time off from his hospital duties in Duluth to come with Mrs. Norman for the holidays.

Rick Faner will be home from DePauw University in Greencastle, Ind., next week, to spend Thanksgiving with his parents, the Joseph F. Faners, 615 Mayfair.

MR. AND MRS. Charles Langrall and Mr. and Mrs. William J. Stull of Scarsdale welcomed guests at a party honoring patrons, gallery artists and officers of the Countryside Art Center on Saturday in the Countryside Gallery. Assisting them were John Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rebbeck, Mrs. Robert Cournoyer, Mrs. D. G. Provost, Mrs. Donald Norman Smith and Mrs. Kenneth Siegfried.

The William G. Frankes, 126 S. Pine, are back home from a week's business and pleasure trip to Oklahoma City. En route home, they took a tour of the Ozark Mountains.

Mrs. John Lindstrom, 824 S. Beverly, returned home Friday from a 10-day trip to the West Coast. She spent a week in San Francisco, visiting her mother, Mrs. G. P. Stankard, and then flew to Helena, Mont., to spend a few days with her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Bovington.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Gutru, 531 S. Pine, went to Newman Grove, Neb., last week to do some pheasant hunting and to see old friends and neighbors in their former home town.

ARRIVING HOME in time for Thanksgiving is Willard Neu Jr., son of the Willard Neus of 515 E. Fairview, after three years of army duty in the United States, and most recently, Alaska. Also coming home for the holidays, is Holly Jean, a student at Simpson College in Indianola, Iowa. She will bring a friend and former Scarsdale resident, Miss Nancy Lenehan of Columbus, Ohio, who is currently attending Iowa State University.

Miss Pat O'Connell came last weekend from Southern Illinois University to visit her parents, the Frank O'Connells, 516 S. Belmont.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Kleisner, 602 E. Park, were in East Lansing, Mich., Friday through Sunday, to visit their son, Fred, a senior at Michigan State University, and for the Dad's Day program. They were accompanied by their daughter, Maryjane, and one of their younger sons, Jack, who spent the weekend at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity house with Fred. Saturday they all attended the Michigan State-Indiana University football game.

Dr. and Mrs. E. Arthur Reynolds, 414 S. Dryden, spent the past weekend in Macomb, visiting their son, Tom, a freshman at Western Illinois University.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Mary E. Tribbey, 721 S. Mitchell, on the death of her mother, Mrs. Johanna Fassbinder of Ingleside, Calif., on Nov. 10; to Robert R. Rankine, 501 E. Euclid, on the death of his mother, Mrs. Anna B. Rankine of Denver, on Nov. 11, and to Mrs. Jean Hartry, 1721 N. Kaspar, on the death of her mother, Mrs. Marie R. Kipling of Chicago, on Nov. 11. (A

Junior Highlights

by LEE STROBEL

By LEE STROBEL

It's that time of year again when the seven junior high schools in this area begin competing with each other in basketball. The schools, Miner, South, Thomas, Central, Lincoln, Dempster and Grove each have seventh and eighth grade teams. The season consists of 10 games beginning on Dec. 3.

Four of the junior highs participating are not located in Arlington Heights. Dempster and Grove are in Elk Grove Village and Central and Lincoln are in Mount Prospect.

All of the schools feel they have improved teams this year, and it should be a real battle to place first. Last year, Miner Junior High School's seventh grade team and South Junior High's eighth grade team had the best records. (A

FOR 32 YEARS Arlington Heights Village Hall was located in old triangular building (above) at Davis and Wing Streets. It was razed in 1962 to make way for new Jewel Tea Co. supermarket. Present village hall (below) is $450,000 municipal building at 33 S. State Rd., dedicated in February, 1963. First village meeting place was above a tavern at 2 N. Dunton St. in 1887. The "hall" was moved in 1891 to the upper floor of the Meyer Building, 14 E. Campbell, until 1893 when a residence near Davis, Wing, and Vail Streets was taken over for the village. In 1913, the offices moved to 107 W. Davis St. and in 1930 the familiar triangular building was occupied. (Staff Photos)

Forest View News

A combined picnic and Christmas tree cutting was enjoyed Saturday by three Surrey Ridge Drive families, the Steve Odahowskis, Ed Tellers and the Don Kings. They went to the Ray DeCola Woods in Spring Grove. The afternoon was especially enjoyed by the chileren who had quite a time selecting and cutting their own trees from the more than 2000 Scotch pines.

Birthday greetings this week go to Fred Lauing, Terry Jo Scopa, Christine Elliot, Marty Boron, Edgar Hutchings, Pete Leuzzi, Alvera Press, Edward Ellesson, Joan Zoia, Jim Kingsborough, Christine Baldassari, Mike Turner and Kay Swensen.

Best wishes for their anniversaries go to Mr. and Mrs. Francis Krebs and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hilgeman.

LAKE BRIARWOOD

Briarwood neighbors and guests turned out in good number for the fourth annual Halloween party held at the K. C. Hall in Des Plaines. Costumes were aplenty and square dancing was the order of the evening. The music and the calling of the squares were supplied by Dolce.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jorgensen, Briarwood Drive, East, became grandparents again. The fourth grandchild, but the first born to their daughter, Judy, a boy, Randy Scott, was born Oct. 27. Judy and Rod Luebcke live in Woodland Heights.

On Oct. 22 Mrs. Anna Schar Briarwood Drive, East, entertained friends of the Presbyterian Church of Elmhurst Bible class at a potluck luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Grosch, Elaine Court, were delighted to have as a houseguest for the weekend, Margarethe Schneider, whose home is near Frankfort, Germany. Judy enjoyed entertaining Margarethe and being with her for her first Halloween and a homecoming football game.

COLONIAL HEIGHTS

Three anniversaries kept the Carl Baardsen family busy this past week. On Wednesday, Carl and Kathie celebrated their ninth wedding anniversary by dining at the Maitre d' in Elk Grove with their daughters, Karen, Carlene and Kristen. Friday Kathie's brother and wife, the Karl Nystroms celebrated their 10th anniversary.

On Sunday the Baardsen children dined out with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nystrom. Later Carl and Kathie went to Chicago to help the Nystroms celebrate their 34th anniversary at a dinner and to bring the children home after their pleasant weekend with their grandparents.

Janet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Livingston, Hatlen Avenue, celebrated her fifth birthday Nov. 1 at a luncheon party for Coleen Finnerty, Mary Ann Galgano, Karen Lucas, Lisa Andronico and Debbie Bracki.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Mendenhall, Robbie Lane, spent Saturday afternoon at the Chicago Art Institute. Sunday they drove to South Bend to see the campuses of Notre Dame and St. Mary College.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Anderson, Kim Avenue, were Dave's cousins, the George Puplis from Grand Rapids, and a business firned, George Gruen from Kansas City. Saturday evening other relatives, the Walter Andersons of Chicago, John Wojtal family of Arlington Heights and the Ronald Andersons of Des Plaines joined them.

ROSANN BUFFA, Kim Avenue, attended an annual club outing on Nov. 4 with eight friends. The evening started with cocktails and dinner at "On the 34th," a restaurant in the new United Building, and attended the play "Funny Girl."

The Bill Camerons, Martha Lane, had as Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gastel of Cicero. Monday night the Camerons celebrated the 55th birthday of Nadine's father, E. Guertin of Westchester.

On Sunday, Ed and Judy Wuchterl took Joey to the Museum of Science and Industry while Danny stayed with his grandmother, Mrs. William Carroll in Chicago. Later the Wuchterls had dinner with Mrs. Carroll.

Ted Strand, Hatlen Avenue, and his roommate, Gerry Worms, came home for the weekend from Southern Illinois University in Carbondale to celebrate Ted's birthday with his family. His brother, Bill came in from North Central College in Naperville.

This being Gerry's first trip to the Chicago area, much time was spent sightseeing. They had a birthday dinner at the Country Kitchen Restaurant in Chicago Saturday evening and later visited the Otto Gorgiuses on Busse Road.

Arlington Greens

Couples Bridge for November was hosted by the Pete Johnsons, Ken Jahnkes, George Letts, Jerry Kluballs, George Robys and the Bob McLeans.

High scorers for the month were the Tony Bengals, 5440; Dick Persickes, 4070, and the Se Rechts, 3470.

The November meeting of Arlington Greens Community Association, will be held Tuesday, Nov. 23, at 8 p.m., in the home of A. J. Tomaso, president, 635 E. Clarendon. All residents are welcome.

Plans for the annual Christmas dance will be completed. The affair will be held Saturday, Dec. 4, at the VFW Hall on Northwest Highway. Reservations for tickets are being accepted and those interested may call CL 5-4102.

A NUMBER OF Greens ladies and their guests were among those who attended "Winter Wonderland" at Old Orchard Country Club on Tuesday of last week, sponsored by Elks Auxiliary. Busy with last-minute preparations earlier in the day were board members Mrs. A. J. Tomaso, Mrs. Ed Zelsmann, Mrs. Mark Jenkins and Mrs. Dick Sims.

Jim Coleman of North Beverly Lane was a voting delegate, representing St. James Parish, at the CYO Convention held at McCormick Place last week. Also representing St. James was Miss Joyce Brune of North Dryden.

Jim is a student at Arlington High School and Miss Brune attends Sacred Heart of Mary High School.

LYNN MARIE, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilczynski of North Hickory, was christened at St. James Catholic Church on Nov. 7, by the Rev. Robert A. Strzelecki. Godparents were an aunt and uncle, Gene and Roberta Williams of Toledo. Also on hand for the occasion and a weekend visit was the baby's grandmother, Mrs. Rose Williams. She joined her son and daughter for the motor trip back to Ohio on Monday of last week.

George Paul II, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rateike was christened at St. Peter Lutheran Church on Sunday, following the morning service, by Pastor Robert O. Bartz. Godparents were the baby's sister, Ginger, and cousins, Norman Pfortmiller of Roselle, home for the occasion from classes at Cornell College in Iowa; Walter Schuler of Arlington and by proxy, Walter Schuler Jr. of Carol City, Fla.

A dinner party in their North Pine Court home following the ceremony was attended by the sponsors and their families, grandparents, Mrs. Paul Rateike who makes her home with the family, and the Elmer Schalks of Des Plaines. Later in the day a buffet supper was attended by 50 relatives from the village and nearby suburbs. (A

Illinois Secretary of State's office has reported that motor vehicle registration for the first three-quarters of 1965 was 117,570 greater than for the entire year of 1964, and was 200,544 more than on Sept. 30 a year ago.

For the first nine months of this year, registration reached 4,638,060, as compared with 4,437,516 at the same time a year ago and with 4,520,490 for all of 1964. Increases were noted in all categories.

Most phenomenal increase was in motorcycles and motor scooters, whose number rose from 35,174 in 1964 to 53,198 on Sept. 30, a jump of 50 per cent.

Pharmacist Will Speak

George A. Harris, representing the Illinois Pharmaceutical Association, Arlington Heights, will discuss "Individual and Group Membership Benefits of IAP" at the second annual meeting of the Illinois Association of the Professions in Chicago's LaSalle Hotel Sunday.

The IAP, founded in 1963, is a 700-member non-profit organization formed to exchange opinions and information, to foster higher standards of professional ethics and to stimulate leadership by the professions in public service activities on community, state, and national levels.

Its membership is comprised of representation from the following organizations: Illinois State Medical Society, Illinois State Bar Association, Illinois State Dental Society, Illinois Council of the American Institute of Architects, Illinois Pharmaceutical Association, Illinois Society of Professional Engineers, Illinois State Veterinary Medical Association, and the Illinois Association of Certified Public Accountants.

Meeting to Discuss New School Laws

The office of the Illinois Superintendent of Public Instruction announced recently that a special meeting will be held 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday at Prospect High School, 801 Kensington Road, Mount Prospect, to discuss the Elementary and Secondary Act of 1965.

County, local and independent school officials will attend the session. General discussions will be followed by group meetings discuss the specifics of Titles I, II and III. They will also include methods for making application for funds to be granted under the act.

The Mount Prospect meeting is for administrators from the northern divisions of Cook County and from Lake, McHenry, DuPage and Kane Counties. (15 BB

Also at the luncheon, the association will honor the law enforcement officials from the communities it serves. (15-BB

License Plate Mailing Begins; Earliest Ever

Secretary of State Paul Powell announced today that the motor vehicle division of his office has been delivering 1966 license plates to the post office in Springfield since last week and that approximately 100,000 plates are on the way to motorists.

Secretary Powell said that according to Richard Shomaker, supervisor of the motor vehicle division, this is the earliest that license plates have ever been placed in the mail in the history of the office.

Powell pointed out that the license plate envelope carries a printed warning that it is against the law for the new registration plates to be displayed prior to Dec. 1, 1965.

Pat Suzuki Next Star At Mill Run

Another Rodgers and Hammerstein musical is due to open at the Mill Run Playhouse in Niles with Pat Suzuki starring in the role she created on Broadway.

"Flower Drum Song" will open at the Mill Run next Tuesday, following Gordon MacRae in "Carousel," which ends Sunday. "Flower Drum Song" will play through Dec. 12.

For a change of pace the Mill Run will bring next Van Johnson in the comedy, "A Thousand Clowns." Returning to musicals after that, the theatre will bill Cole Porter's "Kiss Me Kate" for a two-week run with Earl Wrightson and Lois Hunt as the stars.

DENNIS DAY will appear in the musical adaptation of James Thurber's "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty," starting Feb. 1.

"Oklahoma" with John Raitt opens a three-week run at the Mill Run March 8. (Bill

Actor to Play Witch In 'Rapunzel'

Hank Ralston of Hoffman Estates will be appearing in his third children's play when the curtain goes up on the Guild Players' production of "Rapunzel and the Witch."

The play will be given Friday, Nov. 26, at 8 p.m. and Saturday, Nov. 27, at 1 p.m. and again at 4 o'clock in the auditorium of Lake Park High School, Midinah.

Ralston is portraying Mother Gothol the witch. Playing the part of Margot, mother of Rapunzel, will be Micki Gerstein, also of Hoffman Estates, who has performed in one other children's play. She was Greensleeves in "Greensleeves' Magic."

Tickets for "Rapunzel" are 50 cents each. For ticket and other information call 894-5033 or 894-5044. (Bill

Pianist to Solo with Symphony

Wilhelm Kempff, noted German pianist, will make his first orchestral appearance in this country with the Chicago Symphony. He will play the Beethoven Third Piano Concerto at subscription concerts of Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 25, 26 and 27. Jean Martinon, music director, will conduct. The three concerts will begin at 8:15 p.m., 2 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. respectively.

The program for the three concerts will include the first performance at subscription concerts of Roger Sessions' Symphony No. 3. Rossini's Overture to "William Tell" will open the three programs.

Next Tuesday, the orchestra, under the direction of Irwin Hoffman, will present the second concert of the "A" series of youth concerts. A winner from the Nov. 12 youth concert auditions will appear on the program.

For information on all performances, call Orchestra Hall, 427-0362. (Bill

Another Opening Night For Best-Off-Broadway

Tomorrow (Friday) at 8:30 p.m. the curtain will rise on the opening of Best-Off-Broadway Players' production of the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical comedy, "Flower Drum Song." It is being staged in the Barrington High School Auditorium, 616 W. Main St., Barrington, tomorrow and Saturday and again Friday and Saturday, Nov. 26 and 27.

"Flower Drum Song" is a show of ballads and belters of rhythm and ritual, of poignancy and piquancy. Its songs include the "I Enjoy Being a Girl," the gliding pseudo-Oriental "You Are Beautiful," the searching "Love Look Away," that is a fine example of the art of Rodgers and Hammerstein, the peppery "Chop Suey" and "Hundred Million Miracles."

The crisp, compact orchestra, under the baton of John Shaw, will startle audiences with violin sequences played in Oriental-sounding parallel fourths and fifths, rather than the more conventional thirds and sixths.

AN UP-TEMPO segment of "Grant Avenue" will dissolve into pure Chinatown or anytown jazz; the strains of "Sunday" will make even the most restrained listener wish he could do a soft shoe routine.

There's something in this show for almost everyone's musical taste. For the younger set there is a children's chorus to lament in song about their elders that "The more we see of grownups, the less we want to grow!"

The setting of "Flower Drum Song" is San Francisco's Chinatown, and the plot revolves around two sets of lovers. Sammy Fong (Ted Weiss of Elk Grove Village) is romantically linked to Linda Low (Marge Collins of Palatine), a nightclub singer and dancer. The elders (Ed Joyce and Barbara Thiel of Arlington Heights, Jerry Butz of Mount Prospect and George Lee of Wauconda) have chosen for him Mei Li (Laurnell Martin of Arlington Heights).

SAMMY, WITH an assist from Madam Liang (Rita Reinert of River Grove) and her servant (Joan Buck of Mount Prospect), manages to interest Mei Li in Wang Ta (Allen Johnson of Hoffman Estates).

The romantic pursuits are enlivened by two nightclub entertainers (Jim Scott of Mount Prospect and Vera Karst of Palatine), complicated by unhappy seamstress Helen Chao (Betty Myers of Prospect Heights), and parodied by two precocious teen-agers (Katie Lauing of Itasca and Steve Buck of Mount Prospect).

"Flower Drum Song" is directed by Richard Tyler, choreographed by Robert Wendt and musically coordinated by John Shaw. This same trio produced last summer's "Kiss Me Kate." For ticket information call Lynn Jessen at 392-3190.

St. James Play on Schedule

Preparations for the St. James Theatre Group's forthcoming production, "The Man Who Came to Dinner," are moving along on schedule, according to stage manager Ralph Elwart.

The stage set was completed in record-breaking time, said Elwart, as members of the crew and the cast devoted three nights to building and painting the scenery.

The set was designed by Evelyn Guttenberger, Julie Alm, Carole Harmon and Joan Murray and built by Bob Gallagher, Jack Bartik, Tom Birgon and Chuck Miller, Everyone joined in the painting.

OTHER behind-the scenes workers include Carl Traina, stage bill and advertising; Ann Gillen, publicity; Marilyn Ostrowski, ticket sales; Frankie Stefanik, costume design; Gladys Leake, properties; Angie Kessinger, seating; Jim Lee, sound engineer; and Dave Donkers, lighting engineer. All are from Arlington Heights.

"The Man Who Came to Dinner" will be presented Dec. 3, 4 and 5 at the little theatre of Prospect High School, Mount Prospect. (Bill

Lorenz Says Hefty New Taxes Needed

Does State Face Highway Fund Crisis?

by PAT HENSEL
Staff Writer
(First of a series)

One thing wrong with the nation's Great Society is that Illinois is having some trouble keeping up with it.

No sooner was Gov. Otto Kerner off on his good-will tour to Japan than all heck broke loose on the home front. Right in the middle of it all was Illinois' great big beautiful road program.

And out on the road, fresh out of motor fuel taxes and dodging from one lane to the other, was Francis Lorenz, director of the state's public works and buildings.

He set off a series of explosions which finally erupted in a breach between his state and the Great Society.

THE WHOLE thing began when Lorenz said Illinois would stop work on many highway projects unless there is a gas tax increose.

Then he said he will ask the Illinois Highway study Commission to consider increasing motor vehicle registration fees to help meet road costs.

Then he announced there isn't enough money left to meet matching funds with the federal government for road projects.

Finally he charged that the federal government was lax in allocating funds to Illinois in time for letting of bids on road work.

As an afterthought, he called for "another session of the legislature in 1966, in which I would hope the Governor would consider the highway problem."

BEFORE LORENZ could turn around, the lowest blow was struck. But, this time it was not from him—it was at him.

Chicago's American reported federal funds had been "frozen" because of "irregularities" in the state's land acquisition procedures for road right-of-way.

Lorenz answered a lot of questions from a lot of people for a couple of days. Then, just as suddenly as it erupted, the furor suddenly was quelled.

It may have been quelled in a meeting of Lorenz with the Illinois Highway study Commission on Nov. 9, after Republicans had reaped a heap of political hay.

Sen Russell Arrington (R-Evanston) continued to demand "a detailed breakdown of highway expenses—not this hurried and generalized accounting."

BUT, OUTSIDE of Arrington's demands, the surface calmed down.

After the Nov. 9 meeting C. S. Monnier, chief of the U. S. Bureau of Road's office in Springfield, said, "Federal funds at this time are not being withheld."

Lorenz said, "It has been clearly established that no federal funds are being withheld from any project."

The bi-partisan commission remained on the sidelines, refusing to "be used as a political football."

UNDER THE calm surface, however, there is trouble.

Illinois is at the bottom of the scale in the 50 states on gasoline tax rates.

The tax tab here is five cents, as well as in Wyoming, Texas, Missouri, Kansas, and Hawaii. All other states collect six to seven cents, and Alaska and California collect eight cents.

Even if there were to be a gas tax increase, Lorenz would not be satisfied.

Road funds from gas taxes are split roughly one third between counties - townships, municipalities, and the state.

Exact breakdown is: 35 per cent to the state, 32 per cent to municipalities, 12 per cent to all counties outside of Cook, 11 per cent to Cook, and 10 per cent to all other townships.

Lorenz said a one-cent gas tax increase would net the state $13 million—"a mere drop in the bucket."

He prefers a $10 increase in motor vehicle registration fees. With four and a half million cars registered in Illinois, he estimates a $45 million ante for the road fund.

But, Lorenz wants both. The gas tax would be a stop-gap measure to hold the road work steady until registration fees were collected for 1967 license plates.

ON THE SIDELINE, Republicans are getting political mileage out of the road wrangle.

They're blaming an apparent shortage of highway construction funds on the Democratic administration for failing to accept a one-cent increase in the gasoline tax during the last session of the legislature.

Democrats are replying as best they can.

They're blaming the whole thing on Republicans who tried to divert two cents of a three-cent gasoline tax to non-highway uses.

Lorenz was questioned by this newspaper about his road-aches prior to the report that federal funds had been "frozen" until Illinois revised its land acquisition procedures.

At that time, Lorenz warned of a $3.5 million state shortage needed to match federal funds on a 50-50 basis for highway construction.

He said three road programs in the west and northwest suburbs had been trimmed to the tune of $3.5 million to compensate.

Those projects were a Roosevelt Road intersection improvement at First Avenue, a Harlem and Archer avenue intersection improvement, and improvements to Waukegan Road through Glenview.

"When you haven't got the money, you have to choose up sides," he said, indicating sides would be chosen soon, when district engineers put finishing touches on the 1966 road program.

ON THE OTHER hand, he said that federal funds, which are allocated once a year and dispersed quarterly, didn't get to his office in time for a letting of contracts about two weeks prior (or one month ago).

"They can't give it unless they've got it," he said, explaining that the federal trust fund from which road monies were dispersed apparently was temporarily depleted.

"If there were more federal funds, we could do more work," he complained. "When they're (the federal funds) behind a week, it holds us up a month."

ABOUT $253.4 million was expected for road improvements in the state during 1965. Almost two-thirds of this wuld be available for use on interstate highways, and the remainder on non-interstate highways.

The state funds for road improvements are derived from motor fuel taxes and from vehicle registration fees.

Added to this are specific improvements paid for in part by counties and municipalities, and specific highways designated by and paid for in part by the federal government.

The Federal Aid Highway Law provides that all funds appropriated for federal aid to highways must be paid from a special trust fund.

The U. S. Bureau of Public Roads has a schedule calling for a limit in the amount of federal funds a state may obligate in a quarter-year.

The state was forewarned that the federal funds wold not always be available on schedule, and that timing of bids and contracts should be geared to the federal timetable.

ROGER NUSBAUM, deputy chief highway engineer, expects next year's road program to be less ambitious than it was supposed to be this year.

"I'm certain that we're not going to stop work on a project that we've already started," he explained, "but our department will have to make strict priority recommendations."

Illinois is divided into 10 highway districts. Each district engineer submits his list of priority projects.

"The funds we have available are divided according to need. We have means of determining these needs, according to formula outlined in the central highway office," Nusbaum said.

THE FORMULA takes into consideration the amount of travel in a given area, and the condition of roads in that area.

He said this year's road program is about 60 to 65 per cent complete—which is about normal.

He concurred with Lorenz that federal funds haven't been pouring in the way they were expected to: "Our program this year was a little generous. We anticipated a release of federal money which has not been forthcoming."

THE AMERICAN Farm Bureau began a campaign about three months ago to get Congress to investigate land-buying practices.

The bureau claims farmers are not being adequately compensated for land taken from them under condemnation proceedings.

The campaign took on momentum.

Other interests entered into it, until finally federal highway authorities began to check. It was found Illinois uses methods which may have to be reformed.

According to Lorenz, he's willing to change his methods of acquiring land for highway right-of-way, but the price would be an increase in road construction costs and a slowing down of the highway building program.

IS THE STATE'S ROAD construction program periled by a serious depletion of funds? This question is being asked by government and civic officials following an alarm from Francis Lorenz, state director of public works and buildings. He claims Illinois lacks funds to match with federal funds for the interstate program, which calls for 90 per cent financing by the U. S. and 10 per cent by the state, and for the state program, much of which is financed on a 50-50 basis. (Staff Photo)

THE METHOD used by Lorenz requires the state to appraise the land it needs and set a value on it. Lawyers bid, using prices recommended by the appraiser, minus 10 per cent.

Lorenz explains this permits the property owner to "bargain" the state into the higher (appraised) price.

The Bureau of Public Roads has charged this method sometimes requires the landowner to hire a lawyer to negotiate, and that the resulting bargaining between lawyers on both sides could lead to "collusion" or "kickbacks."

The federal government, however, has cited no actual instances to confirm the charges.

THE CHICAGO Motor Club will take a spectator's seat to watch the fray, but will offer no comments from the sidelines until an Illinois Highway Study Commission report is completed.

The commission, established in the 1963 General Assembly, submitted an interim report to this year's legislature, stating there was a shortage of state road funds.

This report was the basis of Governor Kerner's request for a three-cent increase in gas taxes, with one cent going to road funds and two cents for education.

At that time, it was reported the study commission indicated a preference for three cents for road funds, but no stand was taken.

In any event, the legislature turned down the two-cent diversion of gas taxes to education, and the rest of the package was tossed out by the governor.

FINALLY, the study commission, still in existence and with a new appropriation for expenses, hired Wilbur Smith and Associates of Connecticut to do another road study for Illinois—this time with a half million dollar tab to be paid for out of the division of highways planning and research funds.

Until this report is completed, the Chicago Motor Club will remain silent.

According to Gordon Lindquist, director of the CMC highway traffic and safety division, a similar study in 1948 resulted in a gas tax increase from three to five cents.

Truck license fees also were increased, during the Adlai Stevenson administration, but later put back almost to their pre-1948 rates under the William Stratton administration.

WILL A FUND shortage cause state highway projects to suffer?

"There has been no breakdown of expenditures — past or future," Lindquist answered. "Until there is, there's no way of knowing how much — if at all — we are going to suffer."

CMC will make a policy statement on raod funds after studying the Smith report, Lindquist promised.

He said almost certainly another recommendation will be made to hike truck license fees, since trucks do the most damage to roads.

An increase in gasoline taxes, Linquist added, would be "a last resort as far as the Chicago Motor Club is concerned."

NO LESS opposition to gas tax increases comes from the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry.

"We're strongly in favor of secondary road improvements," said Hayward Hirsch, director of community and commercial development.

"But our organization recognizes that we can't go on and on forever, building new expressways. We have to move toward a moratorium on continuously expanding the network."

The CACI did not support legislation to increase gasoline taxes in this year's General Assembly, though Hirsch concedes that road construction financing would have to continue to come from motor fuel tax funds.

The association is hard at work on another idea for moving people to and fro.

"The pendulum is going to have to swing away from an emphasis on roads as a means of getting people around," Hirsch said.

Then he launched into his favorite topic: mass transportation.

"While we agree that we have to continue with the immediate projects now under way, and start those that are being held in abeyance, we can't keep on building more and more expressways until Chicagoland is just one big driveway and parking lot."

IF IT'S true that Illinois road construction is in peril—whether the fault lies in backward state legislation or in an overambitious Great Society—one thing seems certain:

Governor Kerner will be greeted with the problem on his return from Japan. (A-15

CAN ILLINOIS AFFORD to wait any longer to raise funds for widening of congested roads like this? The Illinois Division of Highways says that new-road construction is periled unless the state can find a source of revenue immediately. It has been suggested the governor call a special session of the legislature to enact a one-to-three cent gasoline tax increase and/or a hike in motor vehicle registration fees.

College Architect Choice Next Week

Final selection of an architect for Community College District 301 is expected at a special meeting next week.

There are four finalists from a field of 22 architectural firms. The architects were recommended by two subcommittees of the college board. The subcommittees each heard 11 firms in one-to-two hour interviews.

Recommended by the subcommittee headed by board member A. M. (Bud) Bernstein of Elk Grove Village are Fridstein and Fitch, Chicago, and Orput and Orput, Rockford.

The firms selected by James Hamill's subcommittee are Caudell, Rowlett & Scott of Houston, and Harry Weiss & Associates, Chicago. It was suggested that Charles Stade & Associates of Park Ridge might work with the Houston firm as local representatives.

COLLEGE PRES. Robert Lahti is checking with Chicago-area clients of the four firms. He will report to the board on the experience of past clients. He will investigate designs, engineering, how well buildings meet requirements for use, costs and the quality of on-site supervision during construction.

The regular meeting of the college board, which would fall on Thanksgiving, has been canceled. The next regular meeting will be Thursday, Dec. 9. A special meeting is expected next week to consider architects, with notification to be given to board members, the representative of the League of Women Voters who attends each regular meeting, and the news media.

Caudell, Rowlett & Scott were the architects for Maine South High School in Park Ridge. They have designed many college-level buildings throughout the United States. Stade & Associates are credited with a variety of buildings at Valparaiso University in Indiana.

Harry Weiss & Associates designed buildings at Bethany Seminary, Chicago, and have just completed a junior college in St. Louis. They have designed many college buildings across the country.

Orput and Orput have designed schools for Elk Grove School District 59.

THE much-publicized design for the new South Shore High School in Chicago is the product of Fridstein and Fitch. The firm is currently designing new buildings at Illinois State University, Normal. Conant High School in Hoffman Estates, a low-cost air-conditioned school for Palatine-Schaumburg District 211 also was designed by Fridstein and Fitch.

The community college building will be designed for an initial enrollment of about 2,000 students. Plans probably will include preliminary design suggestions for additional areas or buildings. The estimated $7.5 million construction plan, with a large portion of the cost to be underwritten by state and federal funds, will go before voters of Wheeling, Elk Grove, Palatine and Schaumburg Townships next year. Republicans Seek Delay

Loss of Suburban Authority Charged in Zoning Changes

Charging that proposed amendments to the Cook County zoning ordinance restrict the power of municipalities, the five suburban county commissioners this week said they will draw up their own recommendations.

Speaking as chairman of the Republican minority group on the board, Comm. Floyd Fulle of Des Plaines announced at a press conference Monday that they will ask for a delay in action on the amendment at next Tuesday's meeting of the commissioners.

The proposed amendments—which have met with concern by small municipalities in the northwest area — open the path for planned developments in the unincorporated county areas.

However, according to the Republican commissioners, these amendments "contain many iniquities."

A CHIEF CONCERN for suburban municipalities is potential loss of their veto power over subdivision plans within a 1½-mile radius of their borders. According to a 1961 statute, approval for such subdivisions must be given by the municipalities concerned as well as the county, and planned developments could possibly escape the definition of subdivisions.

In addition, in the major technical point cited by Fulle, the amendments as proposed include planned developments as zoning variations, rather than rezoning. For rezoning cases, municipalities within the 1½-mile area must be notified of proposals and hearings, and given the opportunity to object. No notification is required for variations.

"All rights which the municipalities now enjoy under county and state statutes will be preserved under the amendment we will propose," Fulle said.

He pointed out that Cook County 10 years ago had jurisdiction over more than 500 square miles of unincorporated land. Now it governs about 300 square miles, and the figure will continue to diminish as more land is incorporated by municipalities.

THUS, THE suburbs should be vitally involved with planning for the unincorporated land surrounding them, since it will some day be part of the communities, Fulle said. There is no unincorporated land in Cook County now which does not lie within the 1½-mile extra-territorial radius for at least one suburb, according to Fulle.

The Republican commissioners plan to have their alternate amendments ready in about seven weeks. The work will be done with the guidance of professionals — including the Urban Land Institute, American Society of Planning Officials, National Home Association.

Fulle said the suburban group hope this professional counsel will help win over the other commissioners, all 10 Democrats from the city of Chicago.

"To our knowledge," no municipal planners were consulted in preparation of the amendments now pending, he said. In addition, the suburban commissioners were antagonized because none of them had been consulted about the planned development measures.

FULLE WAS THE first to request study of possibilities for such planning, following submission of plans for high rises in the county. His resolution was passed in March 1964. At a board meeting last spring, he commented about apparent delay of the study and urged that it begin immediately.

The proposed amendments were presented early this fall, and a hearing was held last month.

And, these amendments do not actually provide for planned developments, but cluster housing. Both concepts allow for wider imagination by builders in planning for [illegible] space use.

HOWEVER, [illegible] philosophy of planned dev[illegible] "to allow developmen[illegible] complete cycle of [illegible] both anticipated and [illegible] for," Fulle said. The c[illegible] idea includes primarily housing units of the same sort — single family, duplexes or multiple.

As guidelines to follow, Fulle quoted the Federal Housing Administration requirements for planned developments. He said they should be: 1) appropriate to the existing surrounding communities; 2) able to compete successfully in the market for all demand ranges, from single family to multiple; 3) able to function separately from the community and carry their own tax burdens; 4) completed within a reasonable period of time.

Toastmasters Host 20 at Guest Night

At its recent "Guest Night" meeting, the area Toastmasters Club entertained 20 guests, including men from Mount Prospect, Palatine, Rolling Meadows, Hoffman Estates, Wood Dale, and Park Ridge, as well as Arlington Heights.

The visitors included Chris Alexander, twin brothers Bill (from Park Ridge) and Joe (from Wood Dale) Blomquist, Joe Braun (a transfer member from Westfield, New Jersey) Noel Casavant, Gerry Chapman, Wallace Daughtry, Dean Eggen, Harold Gaudion, Wayne Griffith, Harry Grider, Ed Gratzer, Andy Kallas, Bob Mahr, Ted Mendl, Bob Perschbacher, Paul Reynolds, Art Schott, Art Travers and Willard Walworth.

THE GUEST NIGHT idea was simply to acquaint visitors with Toastmaster activities. After attendance at three meetings, guests may apply for membership.

Cup for best speech of the evening was won by Bob Foster of Glenview, club president, for his six-minute speech entitled, "The Best Winner of Friends."

The Table Topics" cup was awarded to Raab Sechrist, 3305 St. James, Arlington Heights, for his extemporaneous response to a question concerning juvenile delinquency. The assignment for the "30-second go-round," in which every member participates, was to tell a "tall tale."

Bob Lanz of Roselle presided, and Les Ploetz of Arlington Heights was toastmaster of the evening.

Notes from Arlington Acres

Marie Marshall CLearbrook 5-2936

Tom Curtin, son of the Jack Curtins, 420 S. Forrest, was in his parents' thoughts on his birthday Saturday, even though they were not able to contact him personally, since he was on his way from a naval assignment in Algiers, La., to a new ship at an as yet undisclosed base.

Tom is to be congratulated on his recent promotion to petty officer third class.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Kleinhuizen, 512 S. Phelps, were married 27 years Nov. 12. Their daughter, Janet, helped them celebrate by taking the day off and joining her parents in spending the afternoon at Sportsman's Park, after which they had dinner at Klas' Restaurant in Berwyn.

ANOTHER anniversary couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frisk, 528 S. Phelps. Nancy and Bob had dinner with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Frisk of Evanston, at the Tower Restaurant in Skokie in honor of their third anniversary Nov. 10.

Congratulations of a different sort go to Margaret Marshall, daughter of the Frank Marshalls, 432 S. Forrest, who has been nominated for a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship. Margaret is a senior at Northwestern University.

[illegible]ck-hop and slumber party made a lively weekend at the [illegible]utsen home, 432 S. Prindle. It was in honor of Margi's 12th birthday Nov. 12. Guests were Teresa Verley, Pam and Sandy Kunz and Marcia Longrie, who survived a practically sleepless Friday night to do justice to a gourmet breakfast Saturday.

SUSAN BRUNSFELD, 10 Nov. 15, celebrated by giving a party Saturday afternoon for Robin Glynn, Nancy Byrnes, Janet Glaser and Nancy Spoto. After birthday cake and ice cream, the guests were treated to the movies.

Susan is the daughter of the John Brunsfelds, 416 S. Phelps.

Mrs. Gust Hermanson, 437 S. rest, was treated to Sunday brunch at the Carousel a week ago by her husband and son, Gary, in honor of her Nov. 7 birthday. In turn, Esther prepared an elaborate dinner at home later for her family, including their son, Larry and his wife.

At a festive dinner at the James Dwyer home Saturday, 14-year-old Betty received the best wishes of her parents and sister, Donna, on her Nov. 13 birthday.

The Dwyers live at 516 S. Forrest.

A WEEKEND guest of the Lyle Longries, 433 S. Forrest, was Helen's brother-in-law, Bill Ebert of Los Alamos, N. M., who was en route home after a business trip to Washington, D. C. Mr. Ebert is with the Atomic Energy Commission.

Mrs. Gust Hermanson, 437 S. Forrest, reports a surprise dropin visitor last week was Mrs. John Lynch, her former next door neighbor who is now living in Mount Kisco, N. Y. Joan was accompanied by her sons, Mark and Frank, and regretted that time did not permit her to visit more of her old friends in the neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kremer, 417 S. Prindle, were hosts a week ago Sunday at a celebratory dinner. The occasion was the Nov. 9 birthday of their daughter, Barbara, who came with her husband, Michael Banks. (A Standing Ovation! In the short time since its introduction, the 1966 Cadillac has already earned universal acclaim for its smart and distinctive new styling, its brilliant new performance and its unsurpassed luxury.

Certainly there has never been a finer Cadillac! Acceptance of the 1966 models by both owners and admirers points to another triumphant year! Cadillac's gracefully refined exterior style instantly suggests to all who see it the superb craftsmanship to be found inside the 1966 "car of cars". Those who have driven this Cadillac can't find enough good things to say about its remarkably quiet ride and its many extraordinary comforts. New variable ratio power steering has won immediate praise for its deftness in traffic and ease in parking. And, of course, Cadillac's many standard safety features present a wonderful sense of well-being. Drive the new 1966 Cadillac soon. The finest of them all awaits your vote of approval... at your authorized Cadillac dealer's.

But Captaincy Ended

2 Positions Added In Police Department

A resolution setting the total strength of the Mount Prospect police department at 29 personnel was passed by the village trustees Tuesday night.

The total includes the chief of police, four lieutenants, four sergeants, 19 patrolmen and one policewoman.

A resolution adopted in 1963 had set department strength at 27, with the chief, one captain, three lieutenants, four sergeants, 17 patrolmen and one policewoman making up the total.

THE NEW RESOLUTION deletes the captain spot, adds a lieutenant position and adds two to the patrolman total.

Lt. Ambrose E. Kranz, a 20-year member of the department, resigned from the force effective Nov. 30, and is on vacation until the effective date.

Patrolman James Stanek also tendered his resignation, effective Nov. 15, to enter private business. He had been on the force about one year.

Three new patrolmen will be sworn in Monday, Nov. 22, at the village hall. They are James E. Bock of Bensenville, and Charles Watkins and Edward Hastek, both of Arlington Heights.

POLICE CHIEF Newell Esmond said he hopes to enter the three new men in the Chicago Police Academy, if openings are available. The academy offers an extensive 13-week course, he said.

Sgt. John Savage and Ptlm. James Creamer were elected trustees to the Police Pension Fund Board by members of the department.

Lt. John Homola was elected to represent the department to the Illinois Police Association.

Order Lease Negotiated With Railway

The village manager and attorney were authorized by the Mount Prospect Board of Trustees Tuesday night, to negotiate a lease with the North Western Railway covering the present village parking lots on railway property along Northwest Highway.

The board further suggested the possibility of purchasing the land from the North Western.

2 Plymouths Purchased As Squad Cars

Two new squad cars are to be purchased by Mount Prospect from Mark Motors in Arlington Heights for $3,885.

The village board authorized the purchase Tuesday night by a 4-2 vote. Trustees Harry Bruhl and Parker Ekren cast the negative votes.

Mark Motors was the second low bidder on the two cars, being $34 higher per car than the George Poole Ford of $3,817. The police department had indicated their preference for Plymouth automobiles, the make of car on which the Mark Motors bid was made. (M

2 Villages Consult On Weller Creek

A joint meeting between Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect village officials last Wednesday has started the ball rolling on an engineering study of the Weller Creek drainage problem.

Meeting in the Arlington Heights village hall, the officials made an informal agreement to have the engineering departments from the two villages make the study with no deadline set for its completion.

Both parties agreed that the project is "something that is going to take time to work out," but "It is better to tackle the problem right now than wait until the entire unincorporated area in the drainage district is fully developed." (A(M

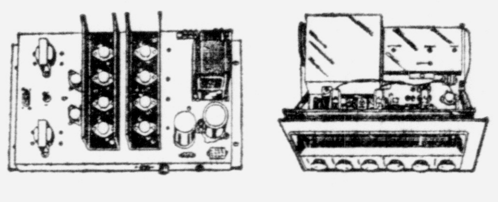
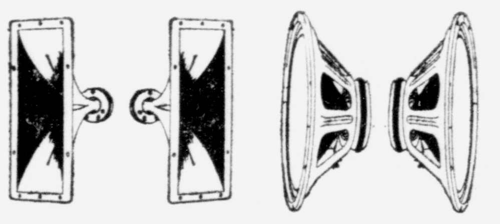
A REVOLUTIONARY ACHIEVEMENT
the magnificent Magnavox
new ASTRO-SONIC Stereo High Fidelity
this space-age technology surpasses all previous advances in high fidelity...produces ten times more music power than the average tube sets

The Astro-Sonic has such great tonal dimension it can fill a concert hall like a great symphony orchestra — and in your home can "whisper" the full beauty of music or shake the walls with the crescendo of a great symphony orchestra — yet all this without a single tube!

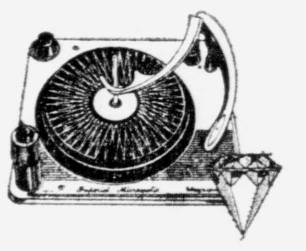
Now solid state circuitry — a by-product of the billion dollar space age — provides greater Stereo FM/AM performance with more audio power — has ten times the efficiency of comparable tube sets — yet uses but 1/10 the power — no more than a small electric light bulb.



Vacuum tubes and component. damaging heat — the source of most service troubles — are eliminated — in fact, the Astro-Sonic is so reliable that parts are guaranteed for five years — twenty times as long as the standard industry guarantee for tube sets.

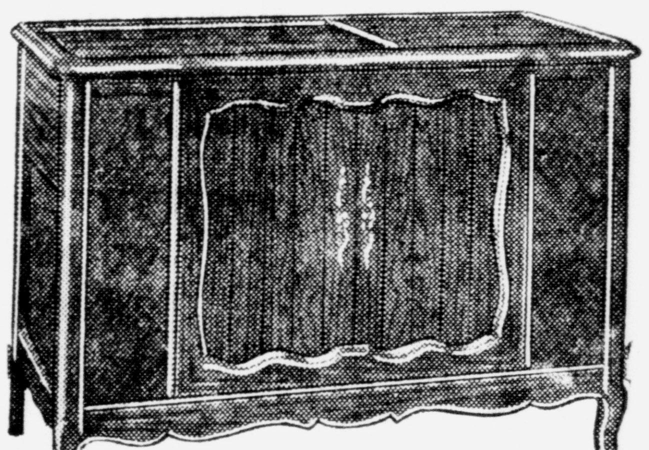


Now, large exponential treble horns — ten times as efficient as conventional cone speakers — reproduce treble tones without a blemish of distortion — high efficiency 15" bass woofers give you bass definition you have never heard before.



The new "Micromatic 60" record player completely eliminates pitch distortion — for turntable speed is as accurate as your electric clock! The new pickup plays at only 1/10 ounce touch, banishing record and stylus wear — therefore the diamond stylus is guaranteed for ten years, and your records can last a lifetime.

YOUR CHOICE...NOW ONLY $298.50



The French Provincial
in your choice of Fruitwood or decorative Antique Ivory finishes. Model 1-ST647, Annual Sale priced.

Magnavox solid-state components guaranteed 5-years—replaced by dealer if found to be defective through normal use. Service (labor) is guaranteed one year.

Magnavox 10-year Diamond Stylus guarantee—because the Micromatic Player banishes discernible record and stylus wear; the Diamond is guaranteed against excessive wear for 10-years, replaced by dealer upon return.

Other Magnavox solid-state stereo consoles are now priced from only $138.80

A MESSAGE TO CLASSIFIED USERS

Before you call an ad-visor to place your

consider this:

You are about to invest money for an ad and you are entitled to get results. To accomplish this it is necessary for you to TELL ALL about the details of your offer. Be sure you don't make any of the following errors that prevent results:

1. DON'T OMIT THE ADDRESS

Many out-of-town readers will write you, but will not spend money for a long distance call.

2. DON'T OMIT THE PHONE NUMBER

Many readers will call you but do not find it convenient to come to your home.

3. DON'T USE BLIND BOX NUMBERS

Avoid them if at all possible. They are difficult to answer and many people are suspicious of them.

4. DON'T CONCEAL THE PRICE DESIRED

Surveys show that a high percentage of readers will not answer an ad unless the price is given.

5. DON'T LEAVE HOME ON THE DAYS YOU ADVERTISE

Many good prospects will not call the second time if your phone is unanswered.

6. DON'T OMIT IMPORTANT WORDS TO SAVE MONEY

Readers can't guess on important details. Remember, a well written informative ad will get results faster and amount to much less in the long run.

Winston Party Line

Jim and Jean McDonald decided, on short notice, to take in the Army Regiment reunion. Jean made a quick trip to Oak Park and brought her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hanna, back to take over the household and keep the boys company in their absence. They spent 10 days in Miami Beach, at the Diplomat.

William and Margaret Maddock, 1357 Virginia Drive, had family dinners for Marilyn, 9 Nov. 9, and Marsha who became a teenager Nov. 17. Saturday, following Marilyn's birthday, they took her and five girlfriends to the movies.

Cathy, daughter of Chester and Mildred Dyszel, invited 10 classmates to her home at 1334 Michele Drive for cake, ice cream and games to celebrate her 10th birthday.

A family party was held for Cathy Caldwell on Saturday, after the Hillbilly Dance at Fremd High School. Cheryl Dunik was an overnight guest.

AL AND ELEANOR Oswald, 1165 Pratt, were hosts to the Fred Gusewelles, Frank Frons and the Bruce Smyths, on Nov. 6, after the group spent the early part of the evening bowling at Hoffman Lanes.

Lynn Comp, 262 N. Babcock Drive, had the girls from her neighborhood in for the usual partyfare to celebrate her 11th birthday Nov. 13.

The second birthday of Lois was observed in the Louis Bissa home, 930 Babcock Drive, on Nov. 7. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bissa came from Dolton and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Drucker and sons, Tom and Bill, came from Des Plaines, for the family dinner.

Previous to Stephen Loverdi's second birthday, Nov. 9, his grandparents, the George Loverdis of Chicago, were invited to Sunday dinner. Monday his parents, Stephen and Carol, again entertained by having his godparents, the Edward Zanders and friends, the Don Andersons of Winston Park, William Barriers from Carpentersville, and grandparents, the Henry Andersons from Chicago as guests in honor of Stephen's birthday.

GET WELL WISHES are going to Mrs. Harold Blum, 259 Richards Drive. She entered Northwest Community Hospital four weeks ago and is making satisfactory progress, according to her mother. Mrs. Marie Breseman of Chicago is with the family and says she will stay as long as she is needed. Her daughter may be home for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kunzweiler attended the Illinois Michigan football game in Champaign on Nov. 6, returning in time for the St. Thomas dinner-dance at Riverswood Country Club, where they joined the Michael Clearys, William Carrolls and the Bob Murrays for the evening.

Weekend guests in the Yount home, 1453 S. Norman Drive, were Dean's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Florian Walker from Franklin, Ind.

The previous weekend Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wolf came from Deerfield. After cocktails in the home, they went to the Alpine House in Lake Zurich for dinner.

This week Anita had a chance to visit with her cousin, Mrs. J. Miles White who is here on a furlough from Munich, Germany.

HAVING TWO birthdays within a month, the Robert Martins picked a date in between for Robert, 5 Oct. 27, and Rosemary, 4 Nov. 25. Saturday afternoon 20 neighborhood children were invited to a costume party and the usual birthday menu.

Guests in the Joseph Dougherty home, 315 N. Lytle, are the parents of Mary Lou, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Norris, who flew in from Morehead City, N. J., on Saturday, in time to help celebrate the birthday of their grandson, Richard, 15 Nov. 14. They will remain to spend Thanksgiving with the family.

Rudy Kandlbinder took his son, Kurt, and friends, Jim Haggenjos and John Nally, to the Rod and Custom Show at McCormick Place on Nov. 6. As well as being of keen interest to the boys, it was Kurt's 15th birthday occasion.

JOHN AND ANN Nally had just gotten settled when they moved from Norman Drive to a larger home on Virginia Drive, when the decision was made to move back to their former locale in California. They left Monday with their children, John, Tim, Larry, Dennis and Kathy, to a suburb of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Robert Nelson, 409 Rohlwing Road, returned by train Monday morning from an 11-day trip to Houston, where she visited her brother, Dr. Emery Miller, with NASA. He took her to every place of interest, including a tour of the battleship "Texas," a view of the city from the monument of Sam Houston and the new modern art center where they heard a concert presented by the Houston Symphony Orchestra. At Rice Institute, where her brother attended school, she met his former professors, saw the medical center and the various parks of Houston, now the sixth largest city in the United States.

A DAY ON the Gulf of Mexico gave her an opportunity to visit the oldest city in the southwest, Galveston. There she saw the new eight-story Flying Ship Hotel, which is built on stilts, met the captain of the Texas A and M boat who showed them through this former Cunard Luxury liner which has been converted into a government project used for deep sea exploration, and viewed the cotton barges which go all over the world.

Mrs. Nelson was pleased with the warm weather conditions and her view from her motel which overlooked the new Astrodome, also included in her many tours. (P

Set Speech Instruction At Viator

MRS. MOLINELLI

Lillian Molinelli of Mount Prospect, will open speech classes at St. Viator High School in Arlington Heights, during the week of Nov. 29.

Semi-private, private and class room instructions will be available for students of high school age and adults. Classes will be held weekday evenings and Saturdays.

MRS. MOLINELLI has had many years of experience in teaching and acting. She received her bachelor's degree in speech from Chicago School of Expression, where she was later a member of the faculty and had studios in Oak Park and Mundelein, Ill.

Her voice was familiar to many on the radio during the Soap Opera Era of the '30's and '40's. Known professionally as Lillian White, she played roles in "Ma Perkins," "Helen Trent," "Luxor Radio Theatre," "The Guiding Light," "Road of Life," "The Tribune Theatre of the Air," and others.

Rev. Williams to Leave His Pulpit in Long Grove

Members at last Thursday night's Consistory meeting heard Rev. Alfred Williams' "bombshell" announcement that he wishes to give up the pastorate at Long Grove Church. He will leave his nearly 10-year post here to become the director of Christian Education of the Illinois Conference of the United Church of Christ.

In accepting the position, he believes it will offer him an opportunity to work extensively in the area of the residential parish, always an area of deep interest and concern to him. In his resignation letter he said, "To be called to this directorship is a high honor and an overwhelming responsibility. Only time will tell if I am adequate to meet its demands."

The minister stated he believed this to be the opportune time to leave Long Grove.

"From every indication the Long Grove community is on the threshold of another new era," he said. "For the church this will mean new opportunities for ministry to the community. Better that a new pastor come just prior to the change than after it has begun.

"Leaving Long Grove is not a happy prospect for either Jean or me. No pastor could ask for a more vital church or for more endearing friends. Your concern for us has been constant and your acceptance of us into the life of the community has been complete. We take with us precious memories of persons who have ministered profoundly to us both. If the congregation continues to nurture the spirit of dedication, openness and creativity as it has in the past its future is bright with promise.

"We love Long Grove Church and we are confident about its future. The man whom you call to serve you as pastor will be most fortunate and many times blessed."

REV. WILLIAMS' new position will mean that he begins full time work in February. Beginning the first of January, he will devote two days per week to his new field.

Following the announcement, Consistory President Charles Johnson made plans to name a pulpit committee to provide the congregation with a selection of candidates. One of Johnson's first steps was to meet with James Smucker, minister of the Northeast Assoc. It was agreed that the pulpit committee would be made up of representatives from all the various departments and age groups of the church.

Thanksgiving Day services at Long Grove Church will be at 10 a.m. A sitter service will be provided for pre-school children. The offering of the morning will be designated for benevolent work. Immediately following the service all college students and service men and their families are invited to an open house at the parsonage.

REVISIONS AND additions to Long Grove's Subdivision Control Ordinance will be given an airing at a public hearing called by the village plan commission on Dec. 7. Present to answer questions will be spokesmen for General American Realty Co. concerning the proposed 363 acre so-called Wild development. The Dec. 7 meeting replaces President Coffin's initial act of appointing a special committee of four to study and discuss the issue.

Coffin canceled the earlier committee appointment when Trustee Burt Schell voiced dissatisfaction. Schell contends no one should be excluded from the meeting with the subdivision developers, that at any discussion that takes place all village trustees and plan commission members should have the right to be present.

Legal Counsel Murray Conzelman reported the codification of ordinances will be ready before the next meeting. Ordinances not included are those of transitory type and the building code.

A need for a better clarification of the requisites for securing a building permit was discussed. In regard to shops, the question came up, "Where does one draw the line in reguard to seal and display?'

THE QUESTION of whether it would be to Long Grove's advantage to institute a manager type government was discussed. The manager would serve as building inspector, grant building permits and perhaps grant operating licenses, the latter serving to bring in revenue as well as be a form of control. To convert to a city manager type system, a referendum would be necessary.

In answer to Mrs. William Sayle's question on how much longer do we wait before the sewage system is definitely decided, a recommendation was passed to wait a little longer, pending the decision on the Wild proposal. As directed by the village, Engineer Bleck is continuing with a survey.

It was announced that a letter, specifically to aid new residents, on the subject of "Know Your Village" will soon be ready for mailing, pending examination by trustees at the next meeting. This letter, subject to approval, is a revision of a similar type communication sent to residents about four years ago. The village will underwrite cost of mailing.

Trustees passed a motion to allocate $500 to repair several holes on village roads.

THE SUBJECT OF public meetings versus committee meetings was brought up by Burt Schell. Attorney Conzelman said that a state attorney general cannot give opinion to apply to municipal governments, therefore the opinion of the village counsel must be respected. Conzelman stated that according to law, meetings not open to the public may be held if they are special committee meetings. Schell was told his only recourse would be to file a law suit against the village board and go to court if he is dissatisfied with an action.

Will Stevenson High School be able to afford a foreign student? This depends on how much money can be raised at the Flap Jack Feast and Salad Bar to be held Nov. 20, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Mrs. Bea Whitney asks that those donating salads have them at the school by 10:45 a.m. the day of the event. Ardent workers for the cause in this area are the Jack Schaums, the AFS co-presidents; Bea Whitney, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Coffin and Mrs. Orville Held, the latter a long-time promoter of AFS interests.

On Sunday, Nov. 21, Stevenson's official dedication will take place. Serving as a representative from this area, Mrs. Robert Loudon met with members of the dedication committee last Thursday at the school to lay plans for the afternoon of activities.

CEREMONIES are to get underway at 2 o'clock. Open house will prevail, with parents invited to inspect the facilities, Among speakers will be Ray Page, Illinois supt. of Public Instruction.

Copies are still available of the new student directory which lists separately those attending Lake Zurich Community High and Stevenson High. Drop by the school or contact an AFS committee member.

The push will soon be on to determine what interest there is in an adult evening study program at Stevenson, the classes to begin in January. If interested, contact the office.

Congratulations go to Stevenson's dedication queen, Chris Collyer. We erred last week when mentioning her to be Chris's sister, Cathy. Last weekend's treat for the sisters was to travel to Monmouth to visit Bonnie Salzman.

Becoming especially library minded this season are the members of the Aptakisic Tripp School Community Club. President Mrs. Betty Horvath and treasurer, Mrs. Robert Pruitt, are among the committee members planning potluck supper activities for this Saturday to benefit the book shelves.

ACCORDING TO Kildeer's Book Fair chairmen, Mrs. John Cook and Mrs. Carl Buhl, the school's receipts will amount to about $240. Volunteers Mrs. Stewart Richmond, Mrs. Eugene McIntosh, Mrs. Robert Coffin, Mrs. William Salzman, Mrs. Mrs. John Hunter, Mrs. Charles Harding, Mrs. Doris Dombrow, Mrs. Byron Siler, Mrs. Burt Schell, Mrs. James Schlesser and Mrs. Joseph Young helped throughout the two days.

If the new book, "Is Paris Burning?" holds a special fascination for Mrs. Ed Wachs, it's no doubt because of her recent three-week stay in that colorful city. Making it a special delight for Connie was to live with her daughter, Marcia, in a 200-year-old dwelling, rich in its 18th century interior decor and 16-foot high pillars. Marcia is staying in the home of a count and countess while her husband, Ken, is on leave of absence from teaching and is studying via the Ford Foundation.

Connie was especially impressed by the architecture of the city, noting that much of its sandstone has been cleaned and renovated to give the streets their loveliness.

Whenever one travels it becomes a small world, according to the travelers. While in Paris they attended services in a church whose organist had been Harold Turner's teacher during Harold's one-year stay some years ago.

WHEN MRS. ANTON Berg brought forth decorated wedding anniversary cake the Nov. 10 Long Grove Church choir practice turned into a surprise party for the Jim Korbeliks. To say Jim and Esther were surprised would be to put it mildly, both of them having been living under the disillusionment that no one in Long Grove knew that Nov. 16 marked up 25 years of wedded life for them.
the activities in the Berg home, — 20 some vocalists sharing in the fun.

Director Betty Edmunds urges singers to be prompt for the 8 o'clock Christmas choir practices and for the 8:30 sessions which follow for the regular choir members. Tardiness at the first session puts a snarl into the next one. All rehearsals are to be held at the church on Wednesdays.

The Clem Umbdenstocks and the Sam LaBues are among those who attended the Lake County Farm Bureau dinner and dance Saturday night. The event was an anniversary celebration for the couples.

Cancer Education Chairman Mrs. Emil Geest and volunteer leader, Mrs. Arthur Reimers, drove to Waukegan on Nov. 8 to attend a gathering of 30 some county district volunteers. Those present received instructions and materials pertaining to next spring's crusade.

Evening's activity for the two women included dinner at Joe's Fireside Restaurant in Libertyville.

THOUGH THEY didn't pull in any muskies while near Hayward, Wis., David Edmunds and his brother-in-law, Jeff Dowell, had their fill of fish, the small vairety, that is. Meanwhile the rest of the Dowells, here from Mahomet, visited with Woody and the children.

Putting a bit of variety in Woody Edmunds' schedule is the course in art education she is taking at Barrington High in preparation for her master's degree.

If the atmosphere at the William Salzman home always seems to have a fresh lively touch, it's probably because out-of-state visitors keep it that way. Making it a recent threesome for lunch were Mrs. Anne Behnke of Scottsdale, Ariz., who arrived with Mrs. Everett Dovale and Mrs. James Wolfe of Wilmette. On another occasion the Salzmans' Mount Prospect next door neighbor for many years, Mrs. W. Blair, visiting from Winston Salem, N. C., was a luncheon guest, along with Mrs. Elmer Walters of Mount Prospect.

Fourth graders made it a Tuesday supper party at Craig McCann's home, celebrating his birthday.

Birthday wishes also go to Larry Jacobs and Joyce Didier, Nov. 18; Ruth Ann Eckel and Randa McCartney, 20th; Lynn French and Vincent Allen, 21st; Kurt Knauth, 24th.

AMENDMENT TO AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE CONTROL AND ABATEMENT OF DUTCH ELM AND OAK WILT, SO-CALLED TREE DISEASES, IN THE VILLAGE OF INVERNESS, COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES of the Village of Inverness that Ordinance No. 63-24, an ordinance to provide for the control and abatement of Dutch Elm and Oak Wilt, so-called tree diseases, in the Village of Inverness, Cook County, Illinois, passed and approved on August 20, 1963, is hereby amended to provide as follows:

SECTION 1. TREES INFECTED WITH THE DUTCH ELM DISEASE DECLARED TO BE PUBLIC NUISANCES. Any tree of the species of elm, zelkova and planera, infected with fungus Ceratostomella ulmi, fungus Gruphium ulmi, Phloem Necrosis, or other tree infection, commonly called Dutch Elm disease, as determined by laboratory analysis, located on property not owned by the municipality or dedicated for public use, is hereby declared to be a public nuisance, and shall be removed and burned within thirty (30) days following notice as herein provided. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation being the owner of property whereupon any such diseased tree is situated to possess or keep such a tree after the expiration of thirty (30) days following said notice.

SECTION 2. BREEDING PLACES OF ELM BARK BEETLES DECLARED TO BE PUBLIC NUISANCES. Trees, or parts thereof, in a dead or dying condition, including stumps and wood in wood-piles, that may serve as breeding place or places for the European Elm Bark Beetle, Scolytus Nultistriatus, are hereby declared to be public nuisances, and it shall be unlawful for the person, firm or corporation owning property whereon the same are situated to possess or keep the same.

SECTION 3. TREES AFFECTED WITH OAK WILT DISEASE DECLARED TO BE PUBLIC NUISANCES. Any tree of the species of oak, affected with the fungus Chalara Guercina Henry, commonly called Oak Wilt, as determined by Laboratory Analysis, located on property not owned by the municipality or dedicated for public use, is hereby declared to be a public nuisance, and shall be removed and burned within thirty (30) days following notice as hereinafter provided. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation being the owner of property whereupon any such diseased tree is situated, to possess or keep such a tree after the expiration of thirty (30) days following said notice.

SECTION 4. ENFORCEMENT OF ORDINANCE. The Village Forester is charged with enforcement of this ordinance, and after giving notice to the resident thereof, if any, of his intent and purpose, he or his duly authorized representative may enter upon property not owned by the municipality or dedicated for public use at all reasonable hours for purposes of inspecting such premises for the presence thereon of infected trees, or of breeding places of the European Elm Bark Beetle, as described in Sections 1, 2 and 3 of this ordinance, and may remove such samples, portions, or specimens therefrom as are required for purposes of laboratory analysis to determine whether any tree thereon is infected. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to prevent the Village Forester, or his duly authorized representative, from entering upon such property for purposes of carrying out his duties hereunder, or to interfere with the Village Forester, or his authorized representative, in the lawful performance of his duties under the provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 5. NOTICE TO REMOVE INFECTED TREES AND OF PUBLIC NUISANCES. The Village Forester or his representative shall give notice as herein provided to the person to whom was sent the tax bill for the general taxes for the last preceding year on the property. Said notice shall be personally served or sent by registered mail not less than thirty (30) days prior to removal by the Village of the tree or trees located on the property. The notice shall state that it is given pursuant to the Illinois Municipal Code and this ordinance, shall contain the substance of the applicable portions of this ordinance, shall identify the property by common description and identify the tree or trees affected or the breeding place or places affected, and shall state, in substance, that if the owner refuses or neglects to remove said tree or trees or breeding place or places within thirty (30) days from the service of the notice, the Village will remove the same and collect from the property owner the reasonable cost thereof and that this cost is a lien upon the real estate affected, superior to all other liens and encumbrances except tax liens, providing the Village files a notice of lien in the office of the Recorder of Deeds or Registrar of Titles of Cook County pursuant to the Illinois Municipal Code.

SECTION 6. DUTY OF OWNER. It shall thereupon become the duty of the owner of said premises to cause such diseased tree or trees, breeding place or places, to be removed and burned under the direction and supervision of the Village Forester or his authorized representative within said thirty (30) days.

SECTION. 7. EFFECT OF PARTIAL INVALIDITY. Should any Section, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance be declared unconstitutional or invalid for any reason, the remainder of this ordinance shall not be affected thereby.

SECTION 8. CONFLICT OF ORDINANCES. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

SECTION 9. EFFECTIVE DATE OF ORDINANCE. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication as provided by law.

An Ordinance

AMENDING THE MOUNT PROSPECT BUILDING CODE TO AUTHORIZE THE GRANTING OF VARIATIONS THEREFROM

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF MOUNT PROSPECT:

SECTION ONE: Section 9 of Chapter II of the Mount Prospect Building Code is hereby amended by deleting therefrom the words, "Duties and Power of Board of Appeals," and inserting in their place the words, "Appeals From the Building Committee," and by deleting from the said Section the words, "Board of Trustes, who shall act as the Board of Appeals, and," and inserting in their place the words, "Board of Appeals," so that the said Section 9 shall thereafter be and read as follows:

APPEALS FROM THE BUILDING COMMITTEE:

9. Whenever the Building Committee shall reject or refuse to approve the mode or manner of construction proposed to be followed or materials to be used in the erection or alteration of a building or structure, or when it is claimed that the provisions of this code or of any duly adopted rules do not apply, or that an equally good or more desirable form of construction can be employed in a specific case, the owner of such building or structure, or his duly authorized agent, may appeal from the decision of the Building Committee to the Board of Appeals, whose decision shall supersede that of the Building Committee and shall be final.

SECTION TWO: Chapter II of the Mount Prospect Building Code, as amended, is hereby further amended by adding a new Section 10 thereto, the said new section to be and read as follows:

10. VARIATIONS.

(A) In any case in which the strict or literal application or enforcement of the provisions of this Building Code impose an unwarranted or unnecessary hardship, the Board of Appeals of the Village may, upon application by the owner or occupant of the premises affected, grant a variation from the terms of this Building Code.

(B) An application for a variation shall be made to the Superintendent of Building who shall transmit the application to the Board of Appeals.

(C) The Board of Appeals shall hold a public hearing on all applications for variations from the Building Code. At such public hearings the Board of Appeals shall give the applicant and any other interested person an opportunity to be heard with respect to the application.

(D) A notice of such public hearing shall be sent by mail, not more than 30 nor less than 15 days before the date set for such hearing, to each person who paid the general taxes for the last preceding year in which taxes were paid on each lot, tract or parcel of land, all or any part of which lies within 100 feet in each direction of the property on which is located the building or structure as to which an application for a variation has been made. The number of feet occupied by public roads, streets, alleys and other public ways shall be excluded in computing the 100 foot distance. Such notices shall be mailed by the Village Clerk, but the applicant for a variation shall provide the names of the persons to whom such notices are to be sent.

(E) The Board of Appeals shall not grant a variation from the terms of this Building Code unless it shall find that the strict application of the provisions of the Building Code will create an unwarranted hardship, that the proposed variation will be in harmony with the intent of the provisions of this Building Code, and that the public safety and welfare will be protected. In determining the extent to which the aforesaid requirements have been established, the Board of Appeals shall consider:

(1) Whether the strict application of the provisions of the Building Code will actually impose a hardship as distinguished from a mere inconvenience for the applicant.

(2) Whether the conditions upon which the application for a variation are based are unique and would not be generally applicable to other buildings of the same type or character within the Village.

(3) Whether the alleged hardship has been created by any person who presently has an interest in the building or structure.

(4) Whether the granting of the variation would be detrimental to the public welfare or injurious to other buildings or structures in the neighborhood in which the subject building or structure is located.

(5) Whether the proposed variation will increase the danger of fire, endanger the public safety, or substantially diminish or impair the value of other buildings or structures in the vicinity.

(F) The Board of Appeals may impose such conditions, safeguards, and restrictions upon any building or structure benefited by a variation as may be necessary to comply with the standards set out in subsection (E) of this Section 10.

(G) The provisions of this Section 10 of Chapter II shall not be construed to supersede or nullify Sections 110.1 and 110.2 of the provisions of the 1960 Edition of the Basic Building Code, recommended by the Building Officials Conference of America and adopted by reference by Section 2.1 (a) of Chapter I of this Building Code.

SECTION THREE: This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication in the manner provided by law.

Notice of Taking Bids

Sealed proposals are invited for the severance and removal of the following property:

1. The house and garage located at 409 South Mitchell Avenue, Arlington Heights, Illinois.
2. The house and garage located at 415 South Mitchell Avenue, Arlington Heights, Illinois.
3. The metal building, approximately 12'x40' located between 409 and 415 South Mitchell Avenue, Arlington Heights, Illinois.
4. The metal building, approximately 12'x20' located on the Wilson School site, 15 East Palatine Road, Arlington Heights, Illinois.

Proposals will be opened by the Board of Education, School District No. 25, Cook County, Illinois, at the place, date, and time below stated:

PLACE:
Administration Building
301 West South Street
Arlington Heights, Illinois
DATE: November 29, 1965.
TIME: 2:00 P.M.

Separate proposals should be made for each piece of property. However, a bidder may submit more than one proposal. Any proposal received after the time and date above stated will be returned to the bidder unopened.

The form of contract and other information concerning the severance and removal of this property may be obtained at the Board of Education Office, 301 West South Street, Arlington Heights, Illinois.

The proposal, for the houses only, shall be accompanied by a certified check or bank draft good faith deposit in the amount of $200 payable to School District No. 25, Cook County, Illinois. Notice of Public Hearing

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS PLAN COMMISSION TO CONSIDER A REQUEST FOR REZONING 32 ACRES EXTENDING FROM CENTRAL ROAD ON THE SOUTH TO KIRCHHOFF ROAD ON THE NORTH, IMMEDIATELY WEST OF THE COMMUNITY HOSPITAL, TO R-3 SINGLE FAMILY FOR THE NORTH 650 FT. AND R-5 MULTIPLE FAMILY FOR THE REMAINDER UPON ANNEXATION.

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held Wednesday, December 1, 1965 at 8:00 P. M. in the Municipal Building, 33 South State Road, Arlington Heights, Illinois by the Arlington Heights Plan Commission to consider a request for rezoning, upon annexation, to a combination of R-3 single family classification and R-5 multiple family classification with a planned development for the following legally described property:

That part of the East 944.3 feet (as measured on the South line) of that part of the Southwest quarter of Section 31, Township 42 North, Range 11, East of the Third Principal Meridian, in Cook County, Illinois, lying South of the Public Highway which crosses the East line of said quarter Section 1634.0 feet North of the Southeast corner thereof and crosses the West line of said quarter Section in the Northwest corner thereof, except that part thereof described as follows:

Beginning at a point in Central Road being the Southeast corner of the Southwest quarter of said Section 31; thence North along the East line of said Southwest quarter of said Section 31, 1634.00 feet to the centerline of Kirchhoff Road; thence Northwesterly along said centerline, a distance of 200.00 feet; thence Southward on a course being parallel with the East line of the Southwest quarter aforesaid, a distance of 1707.37 feet to a point on the South line of said Section 31; thence Eastward along the said South line of Section 31, a distance of 186.14 feet to the place of beginning, in Cook County, Illinois.

Property is commonly described as a thirty-two (32) acre tract adjoining the corporate limits of the Village of Arlington Heights to the West of the Community Hospital, and extending from Kirchhoff Road on the North to Central Road on the South. Request is for R-3 single family zoning, upon annexation, of the North approximately 650 feet, and the remainder to be rezoned in the R-5 Multiple Family classification, upon annexation, with a Planned Development.

Interested persons desiring to be heard will be given an opportunity to be heard.

Ordinance No. 326

AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE ACQUISITION OF A WATERWORKS SYSTEM AND A SEWERAGE SYSTEM, COMBINING SUCH SYSTEMS INTO A COMBINED WATERWORKS AND SEWERAGE SYSTEM OF THE VILLAGE OF SCHAUMBURG, ILLINOIS, AUTHORIZING THE CONSTRUCTION OF IMPROVEMENTS AND EXTENSIONS THERETO, AND PROVIDING FOR THE ISSUANCE OF $225,000 WATERWORKS AND SEWERAGE REVENUE BONDS OF THE VILLAGE TO PAY THE COST OF SUCH ACQUISITION, EXTENSION AND IMPROVEMENT, SUCH BONDS TO BE PAYABLE SOLELY OUT OF THE REVENUES OF SUCH SYSTEM.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF SCHAUMBURG, COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS, AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. (a) The Village of Schaumburg, Cook County, Illinois (the "Village"), determines and declares it to be necessary for the public health and welfare of the Village to acquire by purchase and to combine a waterworks system and a sewerage system into a combined waterworks and sewerage system in the Village, in accordance with Division 139 of Article 11 of the Illinois Municipal Code, approved May 29, 1961, as amended (the "Act"), by acquiring all of the waterworks and sewerage facilities now existing in the Timbercrest Subdivision in the Village and those to be constructed outside of the Subdivision from American National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago, as Trustee under Trust No. 18672, pursuant to its agreement with the Village, such facilities consisting of a water plant including mains, well, pump, controls and appurtenances and a sewage treatment plant with mains, controls and appurtenances. From and after the date of acquisition by the Village such waterworks system and such sewerage system shall be owned and operated by the Village as a combined utility, known as the combined waterworks and sewerage system of the Village (the "System").

(b) It is further determined and declared that it is necessary for the public health and welfare of the Village to improve the System by the construction by the Village of approximately 9,000 lineal feet of sewer main to be connected to such treatment plant, with lift station and necessary appurtenances, such sewer main being herein designated as the "Improvement."

Section 2. The estimated cost of acquiring by purchase and improving and extending the System, including engineering, legal and other expenses, together with interest on Bonds issued to pay the cost of constructing improvements and extensions to a date six months subsequent to the estimated date of completion of such improvements and extensions, as prepared November 8, 1965, by Charles W. Greengard Associates, Inc., the engineers employed by the Village for the making of such estimate and as hereby estimated, is the sum of $225,000. It is advantageous and to the public interest that the Village borrow the sum of $225,000 and issue Bonds therefor in evidence thereof. The period of usefulness of the System is determined to be in excess of forty years from the date of this Ordinance.

Section 3. For the purpose of paying the cost of the acquisition, improvement and extension of the System as aforesaid, waterworks and sewerage revenue bonds in the principal amount of $225,000 (the "Bonds") shall be issued and sold by the Village under the authority of the Act. The Bonds, together with interest thereon, shall be payable solely from the revenue derived from the operation of the System and shall not in any event constitute an indebtedness of the Village within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory limitation. The Bonds shall be designated "Waterworks and Sewerage Revenue Bonds, Series 1966," shall bear interest prior to the maturity of the Bonds evidenced by interest coupons attached at the rate of five per cent per annum, and such interest shall be payable July 1, 1966, and semi-annually thereafter on January 1 and July 1 of each year. The Bonds shall bear the date of January 1, 1966, and mature January 1, 1990. The Bonds shall be of the denomination of $1,000 each and shall be numbered 1 to 225, inclusive. Both principal and interest of the Bonds shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the office of the Village Treasurer in the Village of Schaumburg, Illinois. The Bonds may be redeemed prior to maturity at any time at the option of the President and Board of Trustees at the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest at the coupon rate to the date fixed for redemption. Notice of the call of any Bonds for redemption shall be given by mailing notice by registered mail to the holders of registered Bonds, by filing notice at the place of payment and by publication once in The Bond Buyer in the City of New York, New York, or, in the event it ceases publication, then in a financial newspaper published in the City of Chicago, Illinois, not less than thirty days preceding such redemption date. Bonds called for redemption in such manner shall not bear interest after the date fixed for redemption if the paying agent has funds on hand to redeem such Bonds.

There shall be set aside and paid into the Bond and Interest Account each fiscal year, beginning January 1, 1970, the sum set forth below as a sinking fund installment to pay the principal of the Bonds at maturity:

$5,000 in each of the fiscal years ending December 31, 1970 to December 31, 1974, inclusive;

$10,000 in each of the fiscal years ending December 31, 1975 to December 31, 1979, inclusive;

$15,000 in each of the fiscal years ending December 31, 1980 to December 31, 1989, inclusive.

Section 4. The Bonds shall be signed by the President and attested by the Village Clerk, and sealed with the corporate seal, and shall have interest coupons attached bearing facsimile signatures of such President and Village Clerk. Such officials by the execution of the Bonds, shall adopt their respective facsimiles on such coupons as and for their own proper signatures.

The Bonds may be registered only as to principal in the manner and with the effect as stated on the face of the Bond, as appears in the form of Bond hereinafter provided.

The Bonds shall have all the qualities of negotiable instruments.

Section 5. Such Bonds and coupons shall be in substantially the following form:

(Form of Bond)
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
STATE OF ILLINOIS COUNTY OF COOK
VILLAGE OF SCHAUMBURG
WATERWORKS AND SEWERAGE REVENUE BOND,
SERIES OF 1966

Number.................. $1,000

The Village of Schaumburg, Cook County, Illinois, for value received, hereby promises to pay to bearer, or, if this bond be registered as hereinafter provided, then to the registered holder hereof, solely from the revenue derived from the combined waterworks and sewerage system of the Village, as hereinafter set forth and not otherwise, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) on January 1, 1990, together with interest thereon from the date hereof until paid at the rate of five per cent (5%) per annum. Interest shall be payable on July 1, 1966, and semi-annually thereafter on the first day of January and of July in each year, upon presentation and surrender of the interest coupons hereto attached as they severally become due. Both principal of and interest on this bond are payable in lawful money of the United States of America, at the office of the Village Treasurer in the Village of Schaumburg, Illinois.

This bond is issued for the purpose of paying the cost of acquiring and improving and extending the combined waterworks and sewerage system of the Village, and is payable solely from the revenue derived from the operation of such system and shall not in any event constitute an indebtedness of the Village within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory limitation.

This bond is one of an authorized issue of bonds in the aggregate principal amount of $225,000 of like tenor and effect, except as to number, issued under the authority of Division 139 of Article 11 of the Illinois Municipal Code, approved May 29, 1961, as amended. Under such Code and the ordinance authorizing the issuance of these bonds, all revenue received from the operation of the combined waterworks and sewerage system of the Village shall be deposited in a separate fund, designated as the "Village of Schaumburg Waterworks and Sewerage Fund," to be used only to pay the cost of operation and maintenance of the system, to provide an adequate depreciation fund, to pay the principal of and interest on the waterworks and sewerage revenue bonds of the Village issued under the authority of such Code, and to maintain the special accounts created by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of these bonds.

The Village reserves the right to call for redemption prior to maturity at any time, at the option of the President and Board of Trustees, any or all of the bonds at the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest at the coupon rate to the date fixed for redemption. Notice of the call of any of the bonds for redemption shall be given by mailing notice by registered mail to the holders of registered bonds, by filing notice at the place of payment and by publication once in The Bond Buyer in the City of New York, New York, or, in the event it ceases publication, then in a financial newspaper published in the City of Chicago, Illinois, not less than thirty days preceding the date fixed for such redemption. Bonds called for redemption in such manner shall not bear interest after the date fixed for redemption if the paying agent has funds on hand to redeem such bonds.

It is hereby certified and recited that all conditions, acts and things required by the Constitution and the statutes of the State of Illinois to exist, be performed or happen precedent to or in the issuance of this bond exist, have been performed and have happened, and provision has been made for depositing in such Waterworks and Sewerage Fund revenues received from the operation of such combined waterworks and sewerage system, to be applied in the manner hereinabove set forth. It is hereby covenanted and agreed that the rates charged for water and sewerage service shall be sufficient at all times to pay the cost of operation and maintenance of such combined waterworks and sewerage system, to provide an adequate depreciation fund therefor, to pay the principal of and interest on all waterworks and sewerage revenue bonds issued by the Village under the aforesaid Division 139 and to maintain the special accounts created by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of these bonds.

This bond may be registered as to principal only in the name of the holder in the Bond Register of the Village in the office of the Treasurer of the Village, and such registration shall be noted hereon by the Treasurer on the back hereof. If so registered, this bond may be transferred by the registered owner in person or by attorney upon presentation of this bond to the Treasurer with a written instrument of transfer on a form approved by the Treasurer and executed by such registered owner. If this bond be so registered, the principal shall thereafter be payable only to the person in whose name it is registered, unless this bond shall be discharged from registry by being registered as payable to bearer. Such registration shall not affect the negotiability of the coupons, but such coupons shall continue to pass by delivery.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Village of Schaumburg, Cook County, Illinois, has caused this bond to be signed by its President, its corporate seal to be hereto affixed and attested by the Village Clerk, and the coupons hereto attached to be signed by facsimile signatures of such President and Village Clerk, which officials, by the execution of this bond, do adopt as and for their own proper signatures their respective facsimile signatures appearing on such coupons, all as of the first day of January, 1966.

Section 6. For the purposes of this Ordinance the following words, terms and phrases shall have the following meanings:

(a) The words "Gross Revenues" shall mean and include all income, revenues and receipts received directly or indirectly from the initial and continued use and operation of the System, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, interest received on and profits realized from the sale of investments made with revenues of the System.

(b) The phrase "Expense of Maintenance and Operation" shall mean all costs reasonably incurred in connection with the operation, use and maintenance of the System, including repairs (other than capital improvements) necessary to keep the System in efficient and economical operating condition, including the payment of premiums for insurance hereinafter required to be carried on the System and generally all expenses (exclusive of depreciation), including without limiting the generality of the foregoing salaries, wages, cost of materials, supplies and power, which under good accounting practice are properly chargeable to and are reasonable and necessary for the efficient maintenance and operation of the System.

(c) The term "Net Revenues" shall mean the excess of the Gross Revenues over the Expense of Maintenance and Operation of the System.

(d) The term "Parity Bonds" shall mean bonds hereafter issued on a parity with the $225,000 principal amount of Bonds herein authorized under the provisions of Section 8 of this Ordinance.

(e) The term "Connection Charge" shall mean any fee paid for connecting users to the System.

(f) The term "Village Board" shall mean the President and Board of Trustees, the governing body of the Village.

(g) The term "Principal Requirements" shall include serial bond maturities and sinking fund installments, but shall exclude term bond maturities.

Section 7. The Village covenants and agrees with the holders of the Bonds and coupons that so long as any of the Bonds remain outstanding and unpaid either as to principal or interest:

(a) The System shall be operated on a fiscal year basis, beginning on the first day of January and ending on the last day of December of each year. After the issuance and delivery of any Bonds issued under this Ordinance, the Gross Revenues from the operation of the System shall be set aside upon receipt thereof and deposited in a national or state bank in Illinois in a fund to be designated as the "Village of Schaumburg Waterworks and Sewerage Fund." Such fund shall be used only to pay the cost of operation and maintenance of the System, to provide an adequate depreciation fund, to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds issued by the Village under the provisions of Division 139 as aforesaid and to create the special accounts hereinafter provided.

The entire Gross Revenues of the System shall be credited on the first business day of each month, except as hereinafter provided, to the following accounts in the Waterworks and Sewerage Fund, in the order named:

(1) Operation and Maintenance Account. There shall be credited to this account an amount sufficient to pay the reasonable Expense of Maintenance and Operation of the System for the next succeeding month, and including one-twelfth of all such expenses as might properly be paid on an annual basis.

(2) Bond and Interest Account. Beginning not later than January 1, 1967, there shall be credited to this account an amount not less than one-fifth of the interest becoming due on all Bonds and Parity Bonds on the next succeeding interest payment date, until the amount so due is on hand, and there shall also be credited a sum equal to one-tenth of the Principal Requirements payable in each fiscal year for the payment of the principal of the Bonds and Parity Bonds, until such Principal Requirements shall have been accumulated in said account. Principal Requirements in each fiscal year, as used in the preceding sentence, shall be comprised of the sinking fund installment for such year and the principal of any serial bonds due on the next succeeding January 1.

From and after the issuance of any of the Bonds hereby authorized, and upon receipt of the purchase price therefor, there shall be credited to this account all accrued interest derived from the sale of the Bonds plus an amount sufficient to pay all interest due July 1, 1966, and January 1, 1967, on the Bonds.

All moneys in such account shall be used only for the purpose of paying interest on and principal of the Bonds and Parity Bonds.

(3) Bond Reserve Account. Beginning not later than July 1, 1966, there shall be credited to this account the sum of $100 each month; and beginning January 1, 1970, the sum of $300 each month or such higher amount in each fiscal year thereafter as the Village Board may determine.

The moneys in such account shall be used only to pay Principal Requirements of and interest on the Bonds and Parity Bonds when there are insufficient funds available at any time to pay such Principal Requirements or interest from any other source; provided, however, whenever the balance in such account equals the maximum Principal Requirements and interest requirements on the Bonds and Parity Bonds for any fiscal year, any surplus over and above such maximum amount shall be used for the retirement of Bonds and Parity Bonds.

(4) Depreciation, Improvement and Extension Account. Beginning not later than July 1, 1966, there shall be credited to this account the sum of $150 each month; and beginning January 1, 1968, the sum of $400 each month or such higher amount in each fiscal year thereafter as the Village Board may determine. The moneys in such account shall be used first to provide an adequate allowance for depreciation, as the Village Board may determine, or, if not so needed, may be used from time to time to pay for any repairs and maintenance or improvements and extensions of the System. Such moneys shall be used at any time to pay Principal Requirements of and interest upon the Bonds and Parity Bonds when other funds are not available.

(5) Surplus Revenue Account. There shall be credited to this account any revenues remaining after providing for all of the credits listed above.

At the end of each fiscal year funds in this account shall be used to make up deficiencies in prior accounts numbered (1) through (4). Thereafter, any balance of funds remaining in the account shall be credited to the Bond Reserve Account until an amount equal to the maximum annual Principal Requirements and interest requirements on all outstanding Bonds and Parity Bonds is accumulated therein. From any remaining balance in this account an amount equal to the sums received as Connection Charges during such fiscal year shall be credited to the Depreciation, Improvement and Extension Account or to the Bond Reserve Account. Thereafter, any balance may be transferred to the Depreciation, Improvement and Extension Account or used for any lawful corporate purpose, as determined by the Village Board.

(b) Cash in the Waterworks and Sewerage Fund shall be deposited in banks or trust companies in Illinois designated by the Village Board and secured by direct or fully guaranteed obligations of the United States of America to the extent that the deposit exceeds the limits of the deposit guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Such bank accounts shall be separate from all other Village bank accounts, provided that all moneys in the Waterworks and Sewerage Fund may be deposited in a single bank account, except moneys in the Bond and Interest Account and in the Bond Reserve Account, which shall be deposited in one or more separate bank accounts.

Moneys in any of the accounts, not required for expenditure within ninety days of the date of investment, may be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America maturing not less than fifteen days prior to the date on which moneys in such account will be needed, but in no event more than five years from the date of investment. Income from such investments shall be credited to the Waterworks and Sewerage Revenue Fund.

Section 8. While any of the Bonds issued hereunder are outstanding, the Village will not issue any other bonds or obligations of any kind or nature having a lien on the revenues of the System, except as provided in this section.

(a) The Village may issue additional bonds if additional funds are necessary to pay the cost of acquiring, improving and extending the System, as provided in Section 1 of this Ordinance; the need for additional funds to be evidenced by a certificate of a consulting engineer, setting forth:

(1) The amount of the purchase price of the System;

(2) The amount of funds necessary to complete the construction of the improvements and extensions of the System described in Section 1 of this Ordinance; and

(3) The amount of funds available for the foregoing purposes,

which certificate shall be approved by the Village Board and shall be made of record in the proceedings of the Village before such additional bonds are authorized and issued; or

(b) Such additional bonds may be issued to provide additional funds to construct improvements, replacements and extensions of the System or for the acquisition of an additional waterworks or sewerage system or any combination thereof, or for the purpose of refunding any of the Bonds or bonds hereafter authorized under this section, or for any combination of such purposes, but only if the Village shall have complied with the following requirements:

(1) The amounts required to have been credited to the respective accounts (1) through (4) of Section 7(a) of this Ordinance, up to the date of authorization of such additional bonds, shall have been credited to such respective accounts.

(2) The Net Revenues of the System for the fiscal year then next preceding, or the average adjusted Net Revenues of the System for the two then next preceding fiscal years if adjustment has been made as herein provided, have been equal to not less than 135% of the maximum annual combined Principal Requirements and interest requirements for any succeeding fiscal year during the life of such then outstanding bonds on:

(i) all bonds then outstanding payable from the revenues to be derived from the operation of the System; and

(ii) the additional revenue bonds then proposed to be issued.

Net Revenues for the purpose of this subparagraph (b)(2) shall be evidenced by an audit of the independent certified public accountant who made the last audit of the System, or if such accountant is not available then by another such accountant who shall follow accounting principles consistent with such last audit. Principal Requirements and interest requirements for any fiscal year shall be those required to be credited to the Bond and Interest Account in such year pursuant to Section 7(a)(2) hereof.

In the event there shall have been a change in the rates of the System from the rates in effect during either of the two immediately preceding fiscal years, which change is in effect at the time of the issuance of any such additional bonds, then the Net Revenues as provided in this subparagraph (b)(2) shall be adjusted to reflect the Net Revenues of the System for each of the two immediately preceding fiscal years as they would have been had such then existing rates been in effect during all of each of such years. Any such adjusted Net Revenues shall be evidenced by the certificate of an independent consulting engineer employed for that purpose, which certificate shall be approved by the Village Board prior to issuance of the additional bonds and filed with the Village Clerk.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the Village may issue bonds to refund any of the Bonds or Parity Bonds authorized hereunder, provided they are issued to refund Bonds or Parity Bonds due or redeemable within three months of the date of refunding and for the payment of which no other funds are or will be available at the maturity or redemption date thereof.

(d) Any additional bonds issued as Parity Bonds shall be on an equal basis in all respects with the Bonds, shall share ratably and equally in the revenues of the System and shall mature as to principal on January 1 and as to interest on January 1 and July 1.

Section 9. The Village hereby covenants and agrees with the holder or holders of the Bonds herein proposed to be issued, or any of them, that it will punctually perform all duties with reference to the System required by the Constitution and laws of the State of Illinois, including the making and collecting of sufficient rates for water and sewerage service, and segregating the revenues of the System and the application of the respective accounts established by this Ordinance; that it will not sell, lease, loan, mortgage or in any manner dispose of the System, including any and all extensions and improvements that may be made thereto, until all of the Bonds shall have been paid in full, both principal and interest, or until provision shall have been made for the payment of all the Bonds and interest thereon in full, provided, that the foregoing shall not prevent the Village from disposing of any property which in the judgment of the Village Board is no longer useful or profitable in the operation of the System, nor essential to the continued operation of the System (the receipts from the disposition of any such property to be credited to the Depreciation, Improvement and Extension Account hereinabove established in Section 7); that it will maintain in good condition and continuously operate the System and maintain insurance on said properties of the same kind or kinds which would normally be maintained by a private company engaged in a similar type of business or as recommended by a consulting engineer employed for such purpose (the payment of premiums on any such insurance to be deemed an operation expense and paid from the revenues of the System); that it will require that proper connections to the System be made wherever water or sewerage service is available; and that all waterworks and sewerage properties hereafter constructed or acquired by the Village shall be included in and operated as a part of the System.

Section 10. Provisions of this Ordinance shall constitute a contract between the Village and the holders of the Bonds, and after the issuance of the Bonds no changes, additions or alterations of any kind shall be made hereto in any manner except in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, or until such time as all of the Bonds and the interest thereon shall be paid in full, or unless and until provision shall have been made for the payment of all the Bonds in full. This Ordinance may be modified or amended by supplemental ordinances with the written consent of the holders of at least two-thirds in principal amount of the Bonds and Parity Bonds which are outstanding at the time such consent is given, except that if any such modification or amendment will by its terms not take effect so long as any of the Bonds remain outstanding the consent of the holders of such Bonds shall not be required. No such modification shall permit a change in the terms of redemption or maturity or the principal of the Bonds or of any installment of interest thereon or a reduction in the principal amount or the redemption price thereof or any rate of interest thereon or make any modification or amendment of this section, without the consent of the holders of all the Bonds.

Section 11. Bonds shall be delivered in payment of the cost of acquiring the facilities herein described and immediately upon the receipt of the proceeds derived from the sale of the remainder of the Bonds all accrued interest received from the purchaser and a sum equal to an amount of interest for one year shall be by the Treasurer transferred and credited to the Bond and Interest Account. The balance of the proceeds shall be placed by the Treasurer in the "1966 Construction Fund Account" of the Village, which is hereby created. Such funds shall be kept separate and apart from all other funds of the Village and deposited in a bank or banks, from time to time designated as the Depositary or Depositaries for the funds of said Construction Fund Account. Such funds shall be held and used solely to construct the Improvement and shall be held for the benefit of the Village for the purposes herein provided and for the benefit of the holder or holders of the Bonds hereby authorized as their interests may appear. Such funds shall be withdrawn from said Depositary or Depositaries from time to time by the Treasurer of the Village only upon submission to him of:

(a) A duplicate copy of the order signed by the President and the Clerk, or such other officers as may from time to time by law be authorized to sign and countersign orders on the Treasurer of the Village, stating specifically the purpose for which the order is issued and indicating that the payment for which the order is issued has been approved by the Village Board; and

(b) Each order on the Treasurer for payment to a contractor or contractors for work done in connection with the construction of the Improvement shall also be accompanied by a certificate executed by the engineer in charge of the construction of the Improvement stating the nature of the work completed and that the amount thereof is due and payable.

Within sixty days after completion of the work in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor, and after all costs have been paid in connection with the construction thereof, the engineer shall certify to the Village Board the fact that the Improvement has been completed according to plans and specifications. Upon approval of the completion of the work based upon the engineer's certificate by the Village Board, and after all costs have been paid, the President, the Village Clerk and engineer shall execute a certificate and file it with the Depositary certifying that the work has been completed in accordance with plans and specifications and that all costs have been paid. If at any time thereafter any funds remain in the Construction Fund Account, such funds shall be credited to the Bond and Interest Account if needed to meet Principal Requirements and interest requirements for the current fiscal year and if not so needed such funds shall be credited to the Depreciation, Improvement and Extension Account.

The cost of engineering, legal and financial services, the cost of surveys, designs, soundings, borings, rights of way and all other necessary and incidental expenses shall be deemed items of cost of construction of the Improvement.

If the Village Board shall determine at any time that the amount of proceeds in the Construction Fund Account is in excess of the amount necessary to meet authorized expenditures therefrom during the next ensuing thirty days, it may by resolution direct the investment of such excess in interest bearing bonds or other general obligations of the United States Government having a maturity not later than the dates the funds will be needed, and all such investments as well as income therefrom shall be carried to the credit of the Construction Fund Account. As and when such funds are thus needed, a sufficient amount of such investments shall be sold and converted into cash to the credit of the Construction Fund Account.

The proceeds of the sale of the Bonds (including all obligations held or investments thereof and the proceeds of such investments) shall be applied as provided in this section, and pending such application shall be held for the further security of the holders of the Bonds until paid out or transferred as herein provided.

Section 12. The System accounts shall be audited at least once in each year by a recognized certified public accountant, and such audit shall be open for inspection at all proper times to any taxpayer, user of the System, or holder of Bonds issued under the provisions of this Ordinance. Reports of the operation of the System shall be furnished the Village Board quarter-annually, and copies of the reports, as well as the annual audits, shall be promptly mailed to the principal underwriter of the Bonds and summaries thereof shall be furnished to any holder of Bonds upon request.

Section 13. If any section, paragraph, clause or provision of this Ordinance shall be held invalid, the invalidity of such section, paragraph, clause or provision shall not affect any of the other provisions of this Ordinance.

Section 14. This Ordinance, after its passage and approval, shall be published once in the Hoffman Herald, a newspaper of general circulation in the Village, and if no petition is filed with the Village Clerk within twenty-one days after such publication, then after the expiration of such twenty-one days this Ordinance shall be in effect. But if, within such period of twenty-one days, a petition is filed with the Village Clerk signed by electors numbering 15% of the number of electors voting for President of the Village at the last preceding general municipal election asking that the question of acquiring, improving and extending the System and the issuance of revenue bonds therefor, as provided in this Ordinance, be submitted to the electors of the Village, the Village Board shall call a special election in the manner provided by law to vote upon such question. If a majority of the voters voting upon such question at such election vote in favor of acquiring, improving and extending the System and the issuance of revenue bonds therefor, as provided in this Ordinance, then this Ordinance shall be in full force and effect, but if a majority of the votes cast are against acquiring, improving and extending the System and the issuance of revenue bonds therefor, as provided in this Ordinance, then the Village shall proceed no further under this Ordinance.

Passed by the President and Board of Trustees this 9th day of November, 1965.

Robert McIntyre, son of the Harry McIntyres, Pine Street, celebrated his fourth birthday Saturday afternoon with Kitty and Kevin Hamza, John Gegenhuber, Connie Hansen, Ricky Hemauer, Tommy Koch and Lauri Jensen. Grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Gus Haarman, Chicago, came on Saturday to help with the party and to spend the weekend.

Robert Werneske, son of the Anthony Werneskes, Pine Street, celebrated his 15th birthday Nov. 11 with a day off from school and a family party.

Saturday evening Fred and Marie Weidner, Elm Street, and Ferd's brother and sister-in-law, Vince and Elsie Weidner, Arlington Heights, had a smorgasbord supper and attended the harness races at Maywood Park.

The Carl "Whitey" Eglunds, Elm Street, were guests of Martin and Ferne Eskeli of Chicago on Saturday evening.

Joanie Borst, Elm Street, spent the weekend at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Stanley, Chicago, as part of her birthday celebration. Joanie will be 6 Nov. 19.

THE ED Uptons' son, Robert, Elm Street, celebrated his 14th birthday Nov. 13 with a family party. Guests for the evening were aunts and uncles, the Bill Hughes of Palatine and the Ken Spilletts of Hoffman Estates.

Jack Bouchonville, Ash Street, drove to Milwaukee on Sunday to attend the Green Bay Packer-Los Angeles Rams football game at the County Stadium.

Last Wednesday Mrs. Helen Stephen, Ash Street, and Mrs. Hulda Hesketh of Evanston drove to Round Lake Park for luncheon at the home of Helen's niece, Mrs. Diane Phillips.

Thursday evening the Bill Stobie family dined at George Diamond's Steak House in Antioch. Saturday evening they visited Eleanore's sister and family, the Al Altmans in Chicago.

On Sunday, Jack and Chickie Paupa, Walnut Street, attended the wedding of Miss Barbara Zweifel of Chicago and Lee Thornton of Lincolnwood in Lincolnwood and the reception following in Chicago.

BEST WISHES for a speedy recovery go to Nancy Tenglin, daughter of the Herb Tenglins, Walnut Street, who underwent an emergency appendectomy Saturday night in Swedish Covenant Hospital, Chicago.

Also to Janice Weber, daughter of the Art Webers, Walnut Street, who had a tonsillectomy Thursday in Northwest Community Hospital. She is convalescing at home.

Nancy Killeen, daughter of the Michael Killeens, Elm Street, celebrated her 17th birthday Nov. 13 with a dinner party for her family and friends.

Last Tuesday Loraine Bushell, Glencoe Road, had lunch with Juanita Radcliff of Arlington Heights at Uncle Andy's Cow Palace. On Wednesday Loraine spent the day in Chicago. Jerry joined her and they were supper guests of Loraine's aunt, Miss Frances Johnson.

Thursday evening Loraine and Jerry Bushell had dinner at Old Orchard Country Club.

SUNDAY THE infant daughter of the Allen Schmidts, Glencoe Road, was baptized Laura Joan at Immanuel Lutheran Church by Pastor Stieter. Godparents were George and Edith Richard of Kewaunee, Wis. A buffet dinner was served later at the Schmidt home to Joan's parents, the George Fagers, Niles, Allen's parents, the Henry Schmidts, Des Plaines, Joan's grandparents, the senior George Richards of Evanston, and her sister and family, the Ottmar Kuehels of Kewaunee. Joan's nephew, Ottmar Kuehel Jr., also celebrated his 14th birthday.

The Lonnie Pryor family, Chicago Avenue, celebrated Sandy's 17th birthday Saturday evening by having dinner at Jack Gunnell's Steak House.

On Sunday, the Pryor family visited S. Sgt. Dick Troutman and family at Glenview Naval Air Base.

Visiting at the Stewart Tesnow home, Chicago Avenue, on Saturday evening were Stewart's parents, the Edwin Tesnows from Northbrook. On Sunday, Stewart, Pat and the Edwin Tesnows drove to Milwaukee and had dinner at the Karl Ratzsch Restaurant.

Birthday wishes this week go to Michael Virginelli, Nov. 14; Ginny Miller and Leslie Burbey, Nov. 17, Billy Tesnow and Steven Hemauer Nov. 18. (P

News of Palanois Park

Best wishes for a quick recovery go to Mrs. Carl R. Nordstrom, 534 E. Chicago Ave., who was released from Northwest Community Hospital on Saturday. She is reportedly doing fine after undergoing major surgery.

These wishes are also due Mrs. Ernest Dettinger, 10 N. Ashland, who returned home Monday after another five-day stay in Ravenswood Hospital, Chicago, for surgery.

Because of Mrs. Dettinger's recent hospitalization, she and Ernie are postponing for a few days their plans for dinner out, in celebration of their 21st wedding anniversary, Nov. 16.

Luck was with the Dettingers during the wee hours Tuesday morning. Apparently cigarette ashes were still hot enough when they dropped, unnoticed, on the bed. Smoldering for some time, they finally created a good deal of smoke, arousing Mrs. Dettinger in time for them to get the situation under control without having to make a fire call. Although the bedding and her gown were scorched, fortunately there were no body burns.

WHEN THE ED Rogans traveled to Madison for the University of Wisconsin football game on Saturday, they also spent some time on campus with Bonnie. Also there for the game was their son, Edward. Even though he is doing graduate work at the University of Illinois, he has a season ticket for the Wisconsin games.

Although getting settled after moving is enough to keep one busy for days, Mrs. Kenneth Schwarz took on additional duties.

About a month ago Julie, Ken and their 4-month-old Steven moved to 41 N. Greenwood from an apartment in Elk Grove Village.

Since then Julie and Steven have spent two weeks in Dallas, returning here Nov. 3. Mrs. Schwarz took over the care of her brother, Bill Faber and his eight children, ranging in age from 6 months to 12 years, while Mrs. Faber was hospitalized and staying until she was able to be up and around.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Felkel and their youngsters, Denise, 8½, and David, 5, are no longer newcomers to Palanois Park, having moved to 208 S. Greenwood from Cincinnati more than a year ago, but this is their first introduction through the column.

ARRIVING HERE from Charleston, S. C., a couple of weeks ago was Mr. Felkel's mother, Mrs. J. E. Felkel. She will stay until after Thanksgiving, when she will go to Miami, Fla.

Saturday evening the Ken Phillips family, 20 N. Linden, went to the Amphitheatre to see the Royal Marines. According to Mrs. Phillips, it was fabulous.

In celebration of the Francis P. Mulroys' youngest, Maureen, becoming a teenager Nov. 12, the whole family went to Mill-Run Playhouse at Golf-Mill to see "Carousel." Even her sisters, Peggy and Eileen, were here from Milwaukee for the occasion.

Ill with the flu since the weekend is Maureen's brother, Pat. Having missed only two days of school in the last six years, he hopes to be back in school before the column goes to press.

Also ill and at home with the flu was Mrs. Roy MacIntosh, 120 S. Linden. And last week the Winston Park column had to take a back seat, while Mrs. Frank Fron took her turn with the flu.

A DINNER party in the W. Carroll Shelton home, 25 S. Elmwood, Wednesday evening celebrated the 21st birthday of their son, Jim. Present, in addition to the family, was Miss Marcia Munk of Arlington Heights. Grandma, Mrs. Laura Shelton was unable to come over from Magnus Farm on Central Road. She fell the other day and is now nursing a few bruises.

Jim is commuting to Elmhurst daily to attend classes at Elmhurst College.

Many happy returns of the day are due to at least six this week: Elizabeth Scheffer, 6 Nov. 10; Bruce Callahan, 9, and John Phillips, 18, Nov. 11; Jim Madden, 16 Nov. 12; Bonnie Ramberg, Nov. 14; Jack Donahoe, 20 Nov. 15. And belated greetings go to two who had birthdays in October. They are Julia Clifton who was 7 and Douglas Hayes, 5. (P

Camp Fire Girls Set for Candy Sale

Candy, candy, candy. . .in pretty blue and red boxes!

The Far Northwest District of Camp Fire Girls, one thousand strong, are busy at their annual candy sale sweetening the homes in Arlington Heights, Buffalo Grove, Rolling Meadows, and Schaumburg. The candy sale lasts from Nov. 20 through Dec. 13 and all the girls are working hard to meet the deficit in their budget by selling as much as they can.

Approximately 25 new Camp Fire groups were formed in this Far Northwest District this year, most of which were new second grade Bluebird groups.

THIS ACHIEVEMENT is credited to district chairman, Mrs. Robert Rodig and leadership chairman, Mrs. Myron R. Austin, both of Arlington Heights and district representative Mrs. J. Russow, of Rolling Meadows. The Far Northwest District is a part of the Chicago Area Council of Camp Fire Girls Inc.

Besides fun and friendship and service, the Camp Fire program is teaching girls to become happy, well-adjusted useful citizens. These girls are tomorrow's wives, mothers, business women and community leaders and well deserve community support.

Candy sale chairman this year is Mrs. Dennis Bergren, 1204 N. Belmont, Arlington Heights. Her assistants are Mrs. M. B. Schoeneck and Mrs. Melbert Anderson and the 52 Camp Fire leaders in the area.

Air Force Openings Told for Enlistees

Recent announcements by the U. S. Air Force report an increased listing of openings for prior servicemen of all branches and the opening of a two year tour of duty for qualified nurses.

In a new program aimed directly at technicians and specialists, the Air Force will enlist veterans of all armed forces.

Air Force enlistment in rank held at time of discharge is being offered to many former members of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard and Air Force under the recruiting program.

To be eligible, a veteran must possess one of 289 Air Force specialty code (AFSC) skills. Skills can be converted from other service specialty numbers.

Qualified veterans can be assured of rank, pay, job and assignment before enlisting in the Air Force and arrangements for filling a vacancy at a sopecific base can be made on the spot by the recruiter.

THE TWO YEAR tour of duty for nurses contrasts with the usual four year airman and officer elistments.

USAF nurse entrance requirements include qualification as a registered nurse which enables them to go directly to duty assignment after a short Air Force orientation.

A nurse in the Air Force has all of the advantages of a civilian hospital with the additional features of prestige, pay, responsibilities and life as a commissioned Air Force officer.

The nurse has every opportunity to train into many specializations both as part of regular duty and in self study.

Training is available as staff nurse, operating room nurse, neuropsychiatric nurse, nurse anesthetist and even as administrative nurse.

For current listing of Air Force jobs open to veterans and information on a nursing commission contact SSgt James L. Edick at 8 W. Miner St., Arlington Heights or phone 392-1424. (B-10

Two Local Doctors On Hospital Staff

Two Mount Prospect doctors have been elected as officers of the Holy Family Hospital medical staff for 1966.

They are Dr. John A. McMahon, vice president, and Dr. John J. Lynch, secretary-treasurer.

Elected as president of the staff was Dr. Eugene H. Narsete ofPark Ridge. Dr. Narsete is former chief of surgery at the hospital.

DR. McMAHON, former chairman of the hospital general practice section, is a native Chicagoan. He was graduated from Loyola University Medical School and interned at St. Francis Hospital, Evanston. Following two years' duty with the armed services, he returned to the Evanston hospital for an additional year's training in surgery.

Dr. McMahon opened his office in Des Plaines as a general practitioner in 1950.

He and his wife have eight children. They live in Mount Prospect.

A member of the internal medicine section, Dr. Lynch maintains his office in Mount Prospect. With his election as secretary-treasurer, he becomes a member of the executive staff of the hospital for the first time.

Dr. and Mrs. Lynch live in Mount Prospect. (B10

Spilled Nails

One night a truck driven by Donald Akers of Winston, Oregon, accidentally spilled nails all over Interstate Route 5. Before morning 60 cars reported flat tires including a tractor-trailer rig that had 18 flats.

Mothers Distribute Diabetes Test Kits

Some 1,289 free diabetes test kits were distributed at Randhurst Monday by the Mothers of Diabetic Children.

Through the cooperation of Sun Drugs at Randhurst a special booth has been set up on the mall during Diabetes Detection Week, Nov. 15 to 20. The booth, manned by mothers who are members of the Service Unit of the Diabetes Association of Greater Chicago will be open every day this week from 10:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.

THE DETECTION program is important because of the yearly increase in the number of unknown diabetics. One person in every 50 is a diabetic, and it is estimated that there are about 1,600,000 Americans who have diabetes but do not know it.

Goal of the detection program is to find as many as possible of the undetected diabetics and to educate the public on the signs and importance of early detection and control of the condition. (B-10

Inside Randhurst

Unknown Wonders in Randhurst Catacombs

By BEVERLY AIRTH

Behind, or rather below, the scenes at Randhurst is an underground truck tunnel. The tunnel is circular in design, one-half mile long, and wide enough to accommodate three huge trucks side by side. Each store has its own loading dock and some stores have underground storage rooms. All deliveries and shipments are handled 'round the clock in this service tunnel.

This truck tunnel could be thought of as an added service for our customers, in that our customers do not have to fight truck traffic in the parking lot, sidewalk deliveries, boxes and packages in front of store entrances, and the exhaust and noise from trucks. I know this added service can go unnoticed by the everyday shoppers; that's why I write a weekly column so that I can let you know about the wonders of "Inside Randhurst."

ALSO DOWN in the catacombs of Randhurst is a large room that holds all the secrets of "what is about to happen." The room is barred by two large steel doors, secured by heavy pad-locks, framed with one-way glass, and equipped with a secret combination lock that can only be opened by Dick McCarthy, the Promotion Director of Randhurst. On one of the chamber doors is a sign that reads "Promotion Plan Room" and on the other is a very direct message that reads "Keep Out."

Well, the nerve of some people keeping secrets from us like that! But I would imagine they have to do that or else everyone, including me, would be taking peaks to see what is going on behind those doors. Besides, if they didn't keep that door locked, those over anxious reindeer might get loose on the mall or Santa Claus might get the notion to go up on the mall to get a few pre-Christmas orders from boys and girls.

But don't worry, no one can keep this gal from knowing the "Behind-the Scene secrets." Recently I was able to hide behind some boxes next to these doors and when a little man opened the door to feed the reindeer and bring Mr. and Mrs. Claus their lunch, I sneaked in with the goodies and had myself a wonderful afternoon browsing about the Promotion Plan Room.

SANTA CLAUS, himself, was more than happy to show me through his beautiful chalet. This is one old-fashioned Santa house you will not want your children or grandchildren to miss. It reminds me of a little Swiss chalet that was brought out of the mountains for this very special occasion. The stained glass windows are gayly trimmed with little shutters, the roof tops are all covered with sparkling snow flakes, the reindeer barn is somewhat overcrowded with awaiting reindeer, Santa's sleigh is packed with decoratively wrapped Christmas presents for all the boys and girls, and all the little elves are overlooking a wonderful work of art.

I just can't stand to see an organized Santa Claus, as he tells me he will be able to interview all the children by Friarrival you will not want to miss. Just nine more days and the 1965 Christmas Parade will be "ready to roll."

The Randhurst Merchants cordially invites all the boys and girls, and fathers and mothers too, to come out to see the real Santa Claus drawn by his own reindeer Nov. 26, at 9 a.m.

The parade will start from the Randhurst Truck Tunnel and proceed around the outer roadways of the parking lot and then arrive at his old fashioned throne at approximately 10 a.m.

SEVEN Protestant churches of Mount Prospect area are sponsoring and coordinating a Union Thanksgiving Eve Worship Service in Randhurst's Town Hall on Wednesday, Nov. 24, at 8 p.m.

Randhurst is being increasingly recognized as a community meeting center for the northwest area. With the Town Hall as a focal point, the worship service becomes a community activity for the seven cooperating churches and the general public at Randhurst. This will be the first religious activity held in Randhurst's Town Hall.

The seven churches coordinating this worship service welcome everyone to join in on this Union Thanksgiving Worship Service. Sharing in the Thanksgiving Eve Service are the following local churches: Church of the Master, United Church of Christ, Community Presbyterian Church, Prospect Heights Community Church, South Church-Community Baptist, and Trinity Methodist Church.

On Saturday, Nov. 20, the Northern Chapter of the Illinois Gladiolus Society is sponsoring "Gladiola Workshop." The workshop is open to the general public and is free to everyone. This program will take place in Randhurst's Town Hall from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The Society is sponsoring the following programs throughout the day:

10:00-1:00 p.m. Gladiolus bulb showing and competition

10:30 a.m.—How to recognize the fertilizer needs of plants.

11:30 a.m.—Growing miniagladiolus.

1:15 p.m.—Growing and showing glads for the beginners (Slides)

2:00 p.m.—Fine points on refrigeration — Preparation and transportation of Show Specimens.

3:00 p.m.—Gladiolus diseases and their symptoms and how to control them. (Rh

Chairmen Report On Doughnut Day

Sums raised by Salvation Army "Doughnut Day" taggers in local communities on the centennial year tag day held last June 11 were reported by community chairmen as follows:

Wood Dale — $272.16, Mrs. Ernest Olsen, 150 E. Potter, Wood Dale, chairman;

Ontarioville — $428.98, Carlyle Wulff, 2016 Lake St., Hanover Park, chairman;

Long Grove — $20.84, Mrs. Orville Keiler, Route 2, Box 154, Long Grove chairman;

Medinah — $117.32, Mrs. Robert Kretchmer, 22W345 Crest, Medinah, chairman;

Roselle — $236.53, Mrs. Robert S. Keen, Williams St., Box 69, Roselle, chairman.

THE DRIVE WAS held throughout Chicago and 138 suburbs in Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry, Will and Lake (Indiana) counties.

Contributions from the public on "Doughnut Day" help support The Salvation Army's program of emergency assistance and social-welfare services for the troubled men, women and children of the greater Chicago area.

In all communities where Salvation Army service units are organized, 20 per cent of the funds raised in the local "Doughnut Day" drives will remain with the community reidents serving as local treasurers for The Salvation Army. These funds will be available for emergencies or disasters in the communities, and to finance unduplicated programs of health care or other service. The other 80 per cent of the tag day contributions will help support the area-wide social services maintained by the Army. (A-15

Rumsfeld Spotlight Shines on 3 Issues

Cong. Donald Rumsfeld (R-13th) has cited rising prices, lack of information on government, and disregard for the law as three important issues to which Congress must give serious attention when the Second Session of the 89th Congress opens in January.

In his annual Legislative Report, to be mailed to 13th District residents this week, Rumsfeld says:

"The cost of living continues to rise. Inflation hits hardest those who can do least about it—elderly citizens living on fixed incomes. Government spending ($119.3 billion authorized for fiscal year 1966 alone) is an important factor in the wage-price spiral. At some point, Government must establish priorities in Federal spending."

IN THE AREA of the public's right-to-know, Rumsfeld comments:

"All interested citizens are increasingly aware of the fact that the public is not being kept fully informed on the conduct of government. Up to this point, the White House has vigorously opposed right-to-know legislation, and, and a result, it remains bottled up in committee. Hopefully, next year will see sufficient public interest in a Freedom of Information bill that we will achieve favorable consideration."

In looking ahead to 1966, Rumsfeld says it is likely that the Administration will concentrate on repeal of Section 14(b) of the Taft-Hartley Act, increasing to $1.75 the minimum wage, and funding the already authorized rent subsidy program.

"Regrettably, there is justification to charges that the 89th Congress did not function as a deliberative body this year," Rumsfeld notes.

"UNDER OUR system of separation of powers, it is not healthy when the Executive Branch totally dominates the Congress. We, as a nation, face complex problems and can settle for no less than the very best solutions to these problems. The best solutions come from debate and discussion, not from dictation by all-powerful Executive."

The Illinois Congressman concludes:

"As 1965 draws to a close and one reflects on the progress made, it is difficult not to feel that we have fallen short of our goals.

"The power of the American system is great. Our system depends on both private and public effort, and the success of both depends directly on the interest and participation of each person privileged to live in this free society.

"I believe we can do better." (B-10

Roosevelt Grads Plan Reunion

Preparations are being made for a 30-year reunion of the 1936 June graduates of Roosevelt High School in Chicago.

It is known that several of the graduates live in the Arlington Heights, Palatine, and Mount Prospect area.

The 1936 class had 460 students. Many held a reunion last year.

GRADUATES interested in the 30-year reunion should contact Mrs. Delores Pittman, 1727 S. Vine, Park Ridge, at TA 5-5885.

Tentative date of the affair is June 25, 1966. More definite plans will be made when it is learned how many will attend. (A-15

LYON HEALY

"NOVEMBER IS STEINWAY MONTH AT LYON-HEALY"

Your child will play better on a STEINWAY—the choice of great pianists!

—and it's easier to afford than you may think!

Yes, it's a fact: your child (and any artist) will play better on any Steinway (grand or vertical) than on any other piano. There are two basic reasons:

WHAT'S IN THE STEINWAY

First, Steinway pianos possess physical and mechanical superiorities that permit superior playing. Patented Accelerated Action, for instance, means that a Steinway responds to the touch of a key faster than any other piano. Steinway's tapered soundboard of sitka spruce results in a more resonant tone quality than other pianos can produce.

These and other Steinway qualities have been acknowledged by virtually all outstanding concert pianists for generations, from Rachmaninoff to Rubinstein, Horowitz, Serkin and Van Cliburn. While these superiorities may seem small to a non-musician or beginning student, a beginner cannot be too young to start training the ear to the recognition of superior piano tone and to start benefiting from the readier response of the Steinway action.

WHAT A STEINWAY DOES—

The second reason your child will play better on a Steinway might be called inspiration or motivation—whatever makes someone try harder to excel! That certain spark may be fanned by a stimulating home environment, by the guidance of a superb teacher, and most certainly it will be fired by the pride and pleasure there is in learning at the keyboard of the finest instrument made.

THE COST IS WITHIN REACH

You may be surprised to learn how comfortably you can afford a Steinway—for as little as 50¢ a day more than a medium-priced piano, on our liberal 36-month payment plan. If you have a piano or organ to trade in, the terms will be even more attractive.

WHY NOT CHECK THE FIGURES

For trade-in estimate, prices and payment plans—with full-color brochure on Steinway styles and the full details on Steinway construction—phone or visit your nearby Lyon-Healy store tomorrow!

Steinway pianos, only at Lyon-Healy in the Chicago area. Verticals (consoles) from $1550, grands from $3250. Liberal terms.

Police, Store Clerks Learn

What to Do If Faced with Armed Robber

FBI Agent Speaks To Elk Grove Meet

By JOAN LORENSON
Staff Writer

It was like Saturday afternoon at the movies except the bantering crowd was adult.

And the movies at the Elk Grove Village Hall, 666 Landmeier Rd., last week were not designed to entertain but to inform. Village and area bank and store personnel as well as police were finding out what to do if they faced an armed robber. They were also learning how to accurately identify people.

"You look for recognition, not identification of people when you see them," an FBI film explained.

THE SRO audience listened to FBI and Wauwatosa, Wis., policemen's suggestions for remembering identities. Special agent Harvey Johnson of the Chicago FBI office, warned that bank robberies were increasing and Mount Prospect and Des Plaines already had had a bank robbery.

The FBI advice to bank tellers was simple:

—Set off the alarm right away when the robber probably will not notice a teller's action. Johnson cautioned this should be done only in safety.

—Obey the robber by giving him all the money in sight but no more. "Hurry slowly."

—Try to judge physical build and remember characteristics of speech, mannerisms, and jewelry. Know gun types so you can provide this information.

—Telephone police and have someone outside to meet them after the event since police policy is not to enter a bank while a robbery is in progress.

—Keep clues protected with paper.

—Each witness to the robbery should write down his impressions of the man or men involved. Police do not want a "composition" picture arrived at by a number of employes. "Different people get different impressions of a person," Johnson explained.

JOHNSON ADVISED one woman her idea of faking a faint would not work if there were more than one robber.

John Howard, Wauwatosa police chief; and Lt. J. A. Cormack believe their police department has developed an effective training program for identifying a person involved in a crime.

The blue-uniformed police with their "courageous, competent, courteous" badges used cartoons to show their system. Howard estimated the mastery of the identification technique proved 80 per cent effective. "You can learn to do this even in fear," Howard contends.

Careful identification is based primarily on the differences in anyone's head shape, eye brows, eye lids, and lips.

The audience learned of basic head shapes — square, round, oblong, pear, and triangular; of eyebrows that had raised ends, lowered ends, angled ends, were arched or horizontal. When they learned eye lids were double end fold, normal, inner fold, outer fold, and no fold, they could be caught sneaking looks at their neighbors to check the veracity of such identification.

Bette Davis was given as a classic example of a person with no fold eyelids.

Lips were easiest with small upper lip; small lower lip; thin lips, normal lips, or full lips. Women would be most aware of this characteristic, the police commented. They also guaranteed women would be able to tell if someone had ear lobes or did not.

EVEN NOSES CAN be distinguished, the group found. There are noses with straight lines, downtilt noses and uptilt ones; roman, hooked, bulb tip or broken.

The real professional can note refinements such as posture attributed to someone with a paralyzed arm, hunchback, or back deformity.

"Don't look into the eyes of the robber," Howard said. "They can hypnotize you. Look around them so you're able to observe."

No classroom-seminar session would be complete without a test to see if the lessons were learned.

The Elk Grove Village police department maintained its reputation befitting a host for the session. Raised hands after the test of identification showed its men formed the biggest segment of those with perfect or almost perfect scores.

The Wauwatosa Police Department promised certificates to those making an 80 per cent or better score. (B10

CONCENTRATING ON identification of characteristics of a "robber" they've just seen on a screen, people in the audience at Elk Grove Village Police Department's "armed robbery seminar" last week take a test to see the kind of witnesses they would make. Rolling Meadows Patrolman Verne Wandersee, right, one of the invited policemen, made a perfect score. Lt. J. A. Cormack, of Wauwatosa, Wis., presented a "system" for identifying people that his department claims is 80 per cent effective.

Sheriff's Police Hit 2 Wirerooms

Investigative and enforcement efforts of the Cook County Sheriff's Police Department struck a blow at crime syndicate operations during the month of October, as revealed by the monthly activities report.

Arthur Bilek, chief of the Sheriff's police, said that both division officers and members of the department's vice control unit made 10 raids on gambling and vice activities during the month and closed down two syndicate wirerooms. Seventeen persons were arrested and formally charged as a result of the raids.

Bilek estimated that revenue from the operation of the two wirerooms alone brought in more than $780,000 a year to fill syndicate coffers.

OTHER RAIDS made by the sheriff's men covered tavern betting and violation of liquor laws. A total of $3,458.75 in cash and property was seized in these raids.

In addition to the vice statistics the monthly report showed a total of 386 persons arrested. Of the total, 214 persons were arrested for felonies and misdemeanors and 172 persons under the age of 18 were arrested for juvenile offenses.

A breakdown of the figures showed arrests made by district police to include eight persons arrested for criminal homicide, two for burglary, 10 for larceny and theft, one for armed robbery and 32 for aggravated and other assaults.

Five adults and two juveniles were arrested in October for auto theft and nearly $48,000 worth of stolen cars were recovered in Cook County by Sheriff's Police.

DURING THE second month of operation under a new law which makes the Cook County Sheriff's Police responsible for all vehicles used in a felony, Sheriff's officers seized a total of six cars. Three of the autos were turned over by the Chicago Police Department, one from Maywood Police, one from the Forest Park Police and one was seized by Sheriff's police.

The traffic accident rate in Cook County rose slightly for the first time since the month of June. Sheriff's police investigated 279 accidents and issued a total of 1,845 traffic citations.

The October accident figures included 64 personal injury accidents; 209 property damage accidents and 28 hit-and-run. Four persons died as a result of traffic mishaps on Cook County highways. Three of the four were pedestrians.

JUVENILE OFFICERS working in the unincorporated suburban areas of Cook County—the primary jurisdiction of the sheriff's office—handled 172 cases involving 109 boys and 38 girls under the age of eighteen.

The Civil Division of the Sheriff's Office served a total of 9,553 writs during the month and the County Jail processed a total of 1,730 prisoners in October. (B-10

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

The Little Dears Blue Bird group held an unusual fashion show for the patients at the Lutheran Old Peoples Home yesterday (Wednesday). The girls wore their mother's clothes.

The Little Dears Blue Birds are Melissa Curtis, Carol Erd, Beth Kunberger, Sandra Morris, Vicki Olson, Robin Raitt, Moreen Ronayne, Laura Sylvester and Peggy Zoellick.

Mrs. Howard Morris is leader for the group and is assisted by Mrs. Barron Zoellick.

PALATINE

Tami group of Camp Fire Girls took a trip to the Morton Arboretum Nov. 6 where they walked the evergreen trail and learned to identify many of the trees. Mrs. Harvey Kolstad and Mrs. Howard Anderson accompanied the girls.

The Friday after Thanksgiving the group will go to Deer Grove for a late fall hike and picnic. Both of these trips fulfill Trailseeker requirements.

The girls in the group are Beth Anderson, Kathleen Buckley, Nancy Counihan, Peggy Doss, Janet Henin, Nancy Kolstad, Peggy Knotek, Kathy Koutnik, Nanette Manz, Sue Mayes, Sue Mezger, Carol Parmele, Karen Polan, and Linda Slater.

MOUNT PROSPECT

E-HA-WEE-WA-KI-YA group had a Halloween party Oct. 27. A "witches brew" supper and a "Goblins" dessert was served followed by candy treats and a scavenger hunt.

Nov. 3 the girls visited radio station WNWC-FM station in Arlington Heights. They toured the station and saw the actual broadcasting.

The group includes Linda Bantz, Susan Bejcek, Carole Engibous, Elizabeth Gottschelk, Janice Ibbotson, Mary Ellen Kirchoff, Renee Linhart, Marlene Lortie, Jane Lucarz, Susan Macchia and Ellen Marie Scheenberg. They are under the leadership of Agnes Linhart and assistant Lona Kirchoff.

GIRLS IN the O-Tan-Kiya Camp Fire group recently had a cook-out at Deer Grove. This group also made autumn arrangements for their mothers and Halloween tray favors for Northwest Community Hospital.

Girls in the group under the leadership of Mrs. Henry Nieman are Nancy Clauter, Candy Dornquast, Susan Heckelmann, Jennifer Krampert, Lyn Beth Neylon, Laurie Nieman, Patricia Rutkowski, Laurie Warren, Sally Welch, Judith Wrigt and Michelle Yoe.

MA-NU-PSA-YA Junior High group had a Halloween party for the Giggling Blue Birds. The older girls made a spook house and led the Blue Birds through two at a time. They planned games and refreshments for the younger girls and finished the party in Barbara Burnier's back yard by teaching the Blue Birds a square dance.

The Junior High girls under the leadership of Nancy Stearns are Julie Eccker, Alida Garber, Connie Lessner, Marilyn Lewis, Pam Mueller, Bonnie Oehlerking, Phyllis Potter, Judy Scherpelz, Kathy Sime, Mary Stearns and Cathy Wooten. Giggling Blue Birds are under the leadership of Barbara Burnier.

It's Tough Changing School District Lines

Other Ways Eyed To Ease Inequities

by Tom Edwards
Staff Writer
(Second of two articles)

Consolidation of small school districts into more workable units is generally acceptable, and this has been almost entirely accomplished in the northwest suburbs.

But transferring a portion of one school district to another is rarely done, even if such a boundary realignment would equalize a vast gulf in the relative financial abilities of the two districts.

Main reason, according to County School Supt. Nobel Puffer, is that a "rich district" isn't inclined to "pick up a poor district."

EXPECTING such boundary rearrangements would be like expecting villages to be willing to consider giving up chunks of territory under certain conditions. It runs into "patriotic" difficulties, and just isn't done.

A vivid example of this is the failure of Elementary District 110 in Stickney Township to consolidate with Elementary District 109. The former district has a property assessed valuation of $238,604 per pupil compared with $10,970 for District 109.

No such disparities in wealth exist in the northwest suburbs, although some school districts do have distinct financial disabilities compared to others.

PIE IN SKY

Change of the Wheeling-Buffalo Grove Elementary District 21 boundary has been suggested by a Wheeling trustee to alleviate financial problems in that district. But there has been a negative response to this as a solution.

And unless a majority of half to two-thirds of the people of both districts involved are for such a change, there is practically no local possibility of boundary shifts under present state law.

Puffer feels, though, that reorganization of school boundaries is perhaps one of the "best ways" of equalizing the per pupil tax base between districts.

"I think this would be very nice if it could be done," Prospect Elementary District 23 Supt. Louis Pansino also said. "But it is kind of a 'pie in the sky' idea."

FISCAL REFORM

Most favored by Puffer and a majority of area school administrators as the way for financial equalization of educational opportunities, is through state fiscal reform.

With more state aid and less dependence on real estate and personal property tax income, individual local tax bases would make much less difference. Poorer districts could be given more state aid to bring them up to a financial par with wealthier districts.

For instance, why should the taxes from Randhurst Shopping Center, a regional shopping center, accrue mainly to the benefit of only the elementary school district in which it happens to be located (Feehanville District 26)? Situations such as this could be largely rectified through extensive revision and enlargement of state school aid, it is hoped.

But it seems that present basic forms of collecting and distributing taxes are going to be with us for a long time, and boundary adjustments therefore could be one form of eliminating school financial inequities.

CONSOLIDATION DONE

Yet now that the consolidation of small school districts has been largely completed (indicated by the missing numbers among the county's school districts), there seems little likelihood that there will be more boundary changes in the near future, even though many present boundaries are over 100 years old.

Unless there is state enabling legislation to encourage it, perhaps the absorption of former Elementary District 24 to Arlington Heights District 25 in 1961 will be the last boundary change in the foreseeable future.

"Once a district is formed it is a district," commented Arlington Heights Supt. Ralph Clabaugh, who faces the prospect of someday losing a present financial advantage because of a lack of prospects for industrial development within his district.

As referred to earlier, a psychological barrier to making school boundaries more fluid is that people rarely are amenable to giving up territorial jurisdiction. (Which is perhaps a reason why consolidation of old rural school autonomies succeeded — it involved territorial expansion.)

UNIT DISTRICTS

One type of boundary change is highly feasible, though, and probably would have a majority support among school administrators, although they are little talked about.

That is, going to "unit" school districts, or combining high school and grade school districts into one.

This evidently has the good connotations of consolidation.

Although Cook County has "dual" districts (separate high and grade school administrations), the great majority of the state's school systems are unit districts.

Puffer favors unit districts. "Experience all over the state" is that they have "some advantages" over dual districts," he said.

So are they strongly favored by Kenneth Gill, superintendent of financially oppressed Wheeling-Buffalo Grove School District. He warns, though, that they shouldn't be overly large.

But, outside of tending to equalize per pupil assessed valuations, there would be little financial advantage to unit school districts, Puffer indicated.

Also, under present state law there is a block to the formation of such districts — but one that could be easily removed. Unit districts have been given about half as much bonding power as dual districts, five per cent as opposed to 10 per cent. And rapidly growing suburban districts need this extra bonding power to build new buildings.

Despite opposition to other school boundary changes, there is a new factor which could eventually force some. That is, the construction of expressways, junior expressways and divided highways, because of the cross transportation problems they can present.

PROMOTES DIVERSITY

An argument in favor of fixed school boundaries and maintaining some semblance of the present tax structure, is that districts may be forced into more diversified development than would otherwise result.

Unless a district expects to be able to limit itself to high-income single-family residential development, they must attempt to achieve a blend of industrial, business and residential development to guarantee necessary tax income.

On the other hand, forcing such heterogeneous development on a more narrow local basis could mitigate against some healthier regional clustering of industry and business.

For it is usually considered more desirable from the standpoint of providing a healthy living environment to set such factories as steel mills well apart from residences.

There is now also a trend for the nation's elderly to cluster into regional multi-family developments, with one of the reasons being to avoid the higher property tax couples in single family homes normally have to bear

EXCLUSION

Still another problem that can be coupled with zoning for diversified development is "zoning people out," or regulating development to maintain a relatively low population density.

Efforts to this end have brought frequent accusations that schools are making zoning the "whipping boy" for their financial problems.

As former state legislator Robert Marks of Evanston was recently quoted, "If no one can or wants to educate these children (resulting from the expanding urban population), who will? Someone must take the initiative, in the local communities and in Springfield."

Since school boundaries do affect school financial problems, a restudy of them in the light of providing the best educational opportunities in fast growing suburbia may be only around the corner. (B10

The Way We See It

Zoning Loopholes Endanger Suburbs

Suburban members of the Cook County Board of Commissioners are right in asking delay in adoption of a sweeping planned development amendment to the county zoning ordinance.

The proposed amendment contains loopholes which could be most damaging to suburban interests.

One of the most important safeguards suburban villages have possessed against substandard housing on their borders is the right to approve or disapprove plans for subdivisions within 1½ miles of village boundaries.

By a technicality in the wording of the proposed county zoning amendment, municipalities could lose this right in the case of planned developments. It is easy to see how unscrupulous developers would attempt to qualify substandard projects as "planned developments" and evade the jurisdiction of municipalities. This loophole must be plugged. Municipalities must retain their 1½-mile authority.

Furthermore, since the proposed amendment designates planned developments as "variations" from established zoning, rather than as rezonings, another loophole is opened up.

At present, if a municipality objects to a proposed rezoning, the change must be approved by a three-fourths vote of the county board. This gives the five suburban commissioners veto power over any rezoning.

Such a three-fourths vote is not required for variations. Thus the proposed amendment threatens to deprive suburban towns of a second important safeguard.

The five suburban commissioners have obtained professional help for their study of county zoning. They have involved the Urban Land Institute, the American Society of Planning Officials, and the National Home Association. Surely it will be worth waiting a few weeks to get the advice of such qualified experts.

The suburban commissioners say the proposed amendment falls short of providing for planned developments in the proper terms of the concept.

They say planned development should satisfy these requirements:

—Be appropriate to the existing suburban communities surrounding it (these communities will eventually take in all unincorporated land).

—Compete successfully in the market for all varieties of housing demand, such as one-family, townhouses, and apartments.

—Be able to function separately and carry its own load in taxes.

—Be completed within a reasonable length of time.

If standards like these are followed, the planned development concept will improve county zoning, because it will permit the use of imagination in the design and building of future housing. Planned development has been a useful tool for many municipalities in guiding their own growth.

But there is no need for haste which will open up zoning loopholes harmful to the suburbs, which are most concerned with the county zoning law. Let's make sure everything is airtight before an amendment is adopted.

Equality of Education

Suburban school districts have undergone great transformations in the last decade or so.

Some began in the last century as rural districts, perhaps supporting a one-room elementary school.

Others were small-town districts, with a typical small-town enrollment and schools.

All of them had a comparable tax basis in those "good old days."

Tremendous suburban expansion has changed the picture.

A school district may now be part of two or more towns, and school and municipal boundaries never coincide.

Expressways carve off corners of districts, separating pupils from their schools.

Big new industrial or commercial developments may make one district comparatively rich, while a vast housing development in a neighboring district may bring swarms of children without corresponding tax dollars.

These factors irk some officials and parents, who would like to see school boundaries changed to make more sense geographically and financially.

However, this is not a practical possibility. One school official dubs the idea "Pie in the Sky." In most cases, the obstacles to redrawing school district boundaries are insuperable. Assets and liabilities would have to be divided. Voters would have to be persuaded to give up tax advantages. Traditional ties would have to be cut. The difficulties are so great that the effort is rarely made.

The chief concern in this situation must be for the child who may not be getting an adequate education purely as the result of living in the "wrong" district.

Consolidation can sometimes be used to eliminate school poverty pockets. As state aid comes to represent a larger share of the cost of educating a pupil, inequities will become less.

However, special measures should be taken promptly where needed. Officials of districts hit too hard by the tides of shifting population should make their voices heard in Springfield. Every child in the state should have equal educational opportunity.

Reaping the Reward

Chances are considered better than even that a site in northwest Cook County or DuPage County will be picked for a $300 million federal atom research facility.

This is the opinion of State Rep. John A. Kennedy, Winnetka Democrat, who has been keenly interested for years in attracting scientific industries to the area.

Such a facility would employ between 1,500 and 1,800 engineers and about 1,500 supporting personnel.

"It would make the area the center of scientific study in the United States," Rep. Kennedy observed.

Among the reasons for considering our suburban sites are the educational, recreational and civic advantages to be found here. Without these, scientists and engineers would not consider the area as their future home.

If one of our sites is chosen, then, it will be partly because of past citizen support for schools, parks, and other facilities. This is something to remember the next time we take a referendum ballot into the polling place.

Few Views on Sex Teaching

by JOHN NEUKOM
Staff Writer

Contrary to popular belief, the entire world is not constantly thinking about sex.

And although many school districts are doing an average or above average job of teaching the subject in classrooms, too many parents have no knowledge of how much or how little "young Charles" is learning about sex—either in the classroom or on the playground.

At least that was the finding when people were queried on this week's Speak Up question: Do you think there is too much sex education in schools today, or not enough?

Right from the start it was evident that area citizens either had to have more time to think about the question, or were not interested in expressing their views to a "voice" on the other end of the telephone — if they had a view at all.

NEUKOM

"Morals have been lost by the younger generation," was the way one Mount Prospect man expressed himself. "Sex subjects now are freely mentioned at home, at social functions, and at work and play. It could be that schools should be much more aggressive in their teachings on the subject, in order to counteract all the false sex facts that younger children and teenagers pick up on the playground," he said.

"I REALLY don't think there is enough taught on the subject," a Hoffman Estates mother commented, after some thought. "It's usually left up to the parents, and I think it's hard for parents to teach their children the facts of life. We plan on getting material from the church to help us teach it to our sixth grader."

Mrs. Ronald C. Zinke of 2804 Campbell St., Rolling Meadows, said, "I think there should be sex education in schools as well as in the home. I think there is enough in schools right now, especially in the lower grades."

"I wasn't taught very much on the subject when I was in high school six years ago, and I doubt very much if today's schools are delving into the subject in any greater detail," were the words of a young Schaumburg mother. "I think it should be taught according to the child's ability to learn and comprehend, much the same as other school subjects are. After my children are older, I'll have more interest in what the school is teaching them.

A MOTHER living in Wheeling also said she would be more interested in how much or how little the schools were teaching on sex after her children were older. "There might be enough taught on the subject right now," she said, "although children never say too much about what they are or are not learning in school."

"It seems adequate," Mrs. Wade K. Abbott of Mount Prospect said. "Actually, sex education in schools has to be a cooperative effort between the home, the church, and the school. The school doesn't have to do it all. I believe teachers are giving students the scientific background and the very basics on sex education."

More than 40 homes were called in the survey, a very small sampling when considering the population of the entire area. But, from the answers received, it is evident that many parents are waiting until a question arises at home before they ask what their children are being taught in school about sex.

AN ARLINGTON Heights mother brought this point home when she said, "My children are really too little for me to answer this. They are all in the lower grades and I haven't come up with any questions or teachings on sex."

Maybe this same question should have been directed towards today's educators, not the parents. What do you think?

Frankly Tourists

By HESTER KLINE
Staff Writer

There's nothing more boring than listening to a returned vacationer talk, when you could recount much more interesting experiences enjoyed on your own holiday.

It's going to take all the will power I can muster to keep my fingers from pounding out the highlights of our European tour.

But then I realize that the "grand tour" is "out." "Camp" folks go on cruises.

There we were, frankly tourists, traveling by motor coach with a tour director, albeit one who spoke the language of every country we visited and who was wellbred as well as well versed in history, art and world affairs.

AFTER BRIEF experiences on our own, we aren't a bit hesitant about recommending the guided tour trip to others.

In England we rented a car and visited relatives some 100 miles from London. Not only is it a traumatic experience to drive on the "wrong" side of the road, but there is an infernal intersection design called the turn-about. Talk about going in circles! We went round and round in London's exclusive Belgravia sector until we felt right at home.

And there was our side trip from Brussels to Bruges. The only good thing that can be said about milord hustling those two suitcases is that they kept his shoulders even, even if tilted sharply downward.

I'LL GET ON with a more erudite subject for this column in a moment, but first let me try to paint an impressionist word picture of the cities at night.

Kline's travel law number one is that every city should be seen first at night to capture the essence that is lost in the hustle and bustle of daytime. That illusion will set the mood for daylight sight-seeing on the morrow.

In Bruges we walked along the cobble-stoned quais in an amber glow (Who is the planner clever enough to abstain from floodlighting medieval houses and ancient bridges over the canals? He deserves a medal.) and for a fleeting hour we were transported 5 hundred years back in time.

GHOSTS OF THE early Christians hover in the dim shadows of the Colosseum at night.

It was pure magic to stand in the Place de Trocadero as the lights gradually brightened over the "city of light."

The Impressionist painters tried to capture a brief moment on canvas.

Our brief tour abroad was but a series of impressions. We were awed by the cathedrals, vaulting toward heaven; held our breath at the grandeur of royal palaces; marveled at the culture of Pompeii; savored strange foods; watched the passing parade from the vantage point of a sidewalk cafe.

PEASANT WOMEN working in the hay fields we passed off as part of the typical European scene. We felt a bit different about the women working on the roads.

We learned you have to really like bells to enjoy Europe. You will be certain to find a bell tower right outside your bedroom window. So don't try to sleep. Go out and walk about the town.

Each day was crammed with new and exciting experiences — new countries, new cities, new people. We came home realizing how little we really understand what makes Europe tick.

And that's what I'd like to write a thought-provoking column about — the need for better international communications on a people to people level.

MY EDITOR SAYS I've run out of space! It's impossible to stop me once I get started talking about our trip.

And I really did want to develop the theme that European ways aren't "foreign." No more so than our ways are "foreign" to the people of Europe. And visiting other lands makes one so appreciative of the good things here at home.

A Banner Year for Toys

by BOB CUMMINS
Staff Writer

As a five-time father, I was honored last weekend by an invitation to serve on a panel of parents which judged new developments in the field of Christmas toys and awarded prizes.

The idea of the competition, which was sponsored by toy manufacturers, was to share new ideas on flimsy construction and reward outstanding progress made toward the goal: "The sun of Christmas day shall not set on an unbroken toy!"

CUMMINS

As a comparative ancient, who can remember when toys were put together with welds and stove bolts and would sometimes last a year, I was amazed at the progress made since then.

BELIEVE ME, it was not easy for our panel to choose among the many cheap toys shown us.

As we have arrived in the grand ballroom of the Loop hotel where the competition was held, the preliminaries were ending. A boy was bounding on a pogo stick but it refused to break and he and his sponsors were banished in disgrace.

A girl was opening and closing the oven door of a toy stove but the door refused to fly off its hinges, and she, too, was eliminated.

Before the finals began, a top toy official thanked us for consenting to judge the competition.

"Ladies and gentlemen," he told us, "tonight you are going to see the results of another year of intense effort by the toy industry. We believe that nothing has been spared to develop glue that is less sticky, nuts that are looser, plywood more prone to develop cracks, and plastics that are more brittle. In short, 1965 has been a banner year in the development of flimsy toys. Parents who were sickened by the cheap construction of a year ago will be absolutely nauseated this year. Now . . . on with the show!"

THE FIRST contestant was a boy with a football. He kicked it from one end of the ballroom to the other, then back and forth again. On the fifth kick there was a popping sound and all the air went out of the ball. He left amid vigorous applause.

"We're off to a good start," I heard a toy maker whisper to a colleague.

The next contestant was a girl with a doll buggy. She tried to adjust the hood so the bright ballroom chandelier lights would not shine in her doll's eyes but the hood was immovable. Then she wheeled the buggy around the ballroom. On the second circuit, a wheel started wobbling and soon fell off.

The applause was deafening. "Beautiful . . . just beautiful!" the toy manufacturer said.

THE NEXT entry was a boy with a drum. He took his stance in the center of the ballroom, drum sticks poised, then played a flourish. It sounded good but nothing else happened. A look of surprise crossed his face. He began hitting the drum harder and harder and harder, but still it didn't break. By this time he was in tears and fled the stage.

"Poor kid," my neighbor, the toy manufacturer said, "he must have got a lemon. Well, some inspector's head will roll Monday morning."

The final entry was a girl with a lovely doll. She pirouetted in the center of the room, singing, "Wing awound the wosy, a pocka foo of posies . . . " holding her doll by the hand as they whirled. Suddenly the doll's arm ripped loose from its body and sawdust spilled on the floor.

THE APPLAUSE was torrential. A winner had been crowned!

I left full of admiration for the achievements I had seen demonstrated. I do not hesitate to predict that by 1967 the toy manufacturer's dream will come true: The sun of Christmas day shall not set on an unbroken toy."

Letters to the Editor

Says Points Overlooked in Editorial on Slot Machines

Seeing I have been taken to task by the Editorial Page on my letter of last week, I believe you overlooked a few important facts and questions.

First of all, children do not freely walk into the Tioga Home. Being a private club, they would have to be accompanied by an adult, card-carrying member, which no doubt would be their parent, as you must be 21 in order to have a card.

I doubt very much if any decent parent is stupid enough to encourage their children to show contempt of the law. In the many times I have been a guest at this particular club, I have seen children on rare occassion. Also, which to me is significant, I have not seen any machines in evidence.

Second, you missed the point entirely. I asked this particular reporter what he intended on doing to help replace this money that is lost.

Third, when will he start exposing syndicate operations?

What kind of a law is it that tells you you must have a gambling stamp and have it registered in order to have gambling equipment? And at the same time if you have gambling equipment your are violating the law? Somebody's thinking has gone off the track somewhere. It seems a lot of our laws are double talk. You're damned if you do and you're damned if you don't.

Also, if you read my letter closely, I said nothing of the indicated story. I referred to the story several wetks ago which stated on the front page that the VFW had purchased a stamp, etc. It's odd that other newspapers in the area did not report this story on the purchase of the stamp or even the indictment. If they did, it was insignificantly placed in their papers. Why is it this newspaper goes in for sensationalism where Bensenville is concerned? Why wasn't the fact that the Tioga VFW post gave oxygen units to all the churches in town reported on the front page? This would be good reading for the children you are so concerned about instead of the sensationalism.

Also, what kind of a man is our state's attorney that he gives his word there will be no more publicity, then turns around and has his picture taken with slot machines and gives out a big story. To me a man who gives his word and then breaks it so easily is far from being an honorable and honest man.

Mrs. Frank Kas

Thinks Paper Applies Labels Too Frequently

I feel that your newspaper makes much too frequent use of labels such as "right-wing," "conservative" and "liberal."

If you persist in using them, I certainly wish you would at least explain exactly what you think they stand for.

I always thought a conservative stood for a minimum amount of centralized federal government and sound fiscal policies.

I'm now confused — they seem to be derogatory remarks now.

Mrs. Klingaman.

Hopf Praises Editorial on Slot Machines

You have earned my gratitude and commendation for your editorial "Contempt for the Law" which appeared in the Oct. 28 edition of your newspapers.

You have answered the question that we in law enforcement so often confront. Your editorial is of great public service, and I expect that I will be referring to it in future talks I'm asked to give.

In addition your reporting of this incident has been excellent. This too is appreciated because positive action on the part of law-enforcement agencies is pretty meaningless unless accompanied by an informed citizenry.

Indignant at Publicity on Slot Machines

Because of all the undue publicity against the Veterans of Foreign Wars Tioga 2149 regarding slot machines, I for one will not renew or buy your Register from now on. It was all so unnecessary on your reporter's part.

With regard to the article in the Fence Post, that writer was very wrong in stating that funds from that source are used to buy uniforms, flags, etc., as all these things are purchased from funds raised by different committees within the post and auxiliary and none are provided from slot machines.

I am also advising my neighbors and friends to consider carefully before subscribing to your smear sheet.

Collects Gifts for Patients

Christmas gifts to be donated to the Lincoln-Dixon Schools for the Mentally Retarded in conjunction with the drive sponsored by the Chicago American's Jack Mabley may be left at the home of Mrs. Robert Maruska, 1128 Patten Drive, Palatine.

Mrs. Maruska reports that items most often requested by the schools are soap, hand lotion, comb and brush sets, handkerchiefs, crayons, coloring and scrap books, pens, puzzles, playing cards, scarves, gloves, wallets, thread, balls, pull toys, dolls, stuffed animals, crib toys, clay, jewelry, sports equipment, totebags, harmonicas and stationery.

Gifts may be wrapped with a description of the item pinned on the outside. Otherwise, a Girl Scout troop has volunteered to gift wrap them if necessary.

Pastors Offered Hospital Programs

An increasing number of educational opportunities for area pastors are being offered by the department of pastoral care at Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge.

Among the programs offered are:

A one-year residency program beginning in June each year. Residents in the program participate in educational programs and work as hospital chaplains. A three-month quarter of clinical pastoral education is offered on request.

FOR CLERGYMEN in the parish, an eight-week seminar meeting at various times throughout the year to discuss the pastor's role in the hospital. Lectures, discussions and demonstrations are included at the meetings.

A chaplain, a psychiatrist and a social worker participating in three sessions offered each year on the "Pastor as a Counselor."

Special seminars are conducted in the spring and in the fall, running for eight to ten weeks. Past seminars have covered "The Pastor as Marriage Counselor," "Alcoholism" and "Pastoral Acts."

Each spring, a two-day institute of pastoral care is sponsored by the department.

Folders describing the various programs may be obtained by contacting the pastoral care department at Lutheran General. (A15

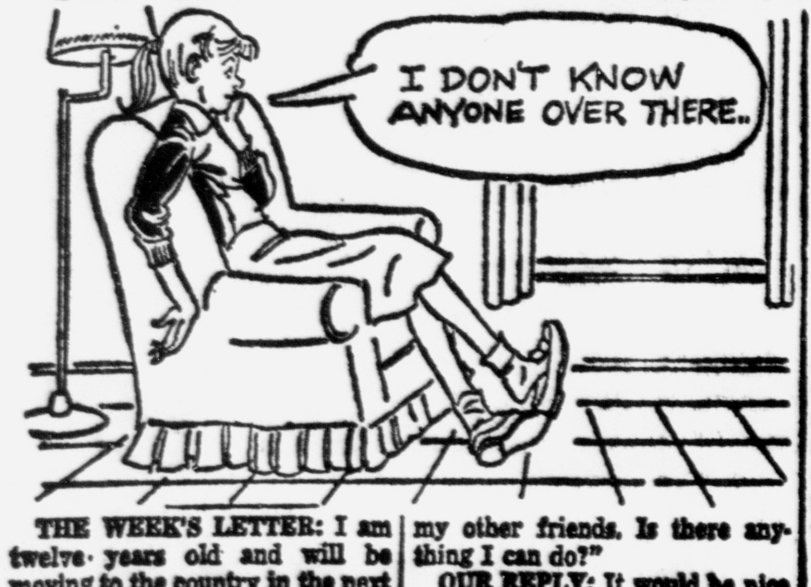
FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS

By C. D. Smith

She Doesn't Want To Move And Lose Friends



I DON'T KNOW ANYONE OVER THERE..

THE WEEK'S LETTER: I am twelve years old and will be moving to the country in the next state. I don't know anyone over there and the school is in the country. I have a boyfriend here in the eighth grade and I don't want to move because of him and my other friends. Is there anything I can do?"

OUR REPLY: It would be nice if you could take your friends with you, but this is impossible. Rest assured, however, that you will find new friends, wherever you happen to go.

Accepting changes, meeting new people and new situations, all of this is a part of growing up, and as well, a part of life. It is very likely that your parents are also hesitant to leave a community that has been "home" and move away from neighbors and friends of long standing. Yet, we cannot always do what we want to do. We never grow so old that time and circumstances are not likely to force some kind of "change" in our lives. It is easier to accept change if we consider that we are not giving up our old friends. We'll still have them, as well as the opportunity to make new friends.

If you have a teenage problem you want to discuss, or an observation to make, address your letter to FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS, COMMUNITY AND SUBURBAN PRESS SERVICE, FRANKFORT, KY.

Signature will be withheld from publication if desired, but will be made available upon request to responsible authority of whatever taxing body or public agency is discussed in the letter. Deadline for letters to appear week of publication is Monday noon. All letters should be addressed to The Fence Post, Paddock Publications, Inc., Arlington Heights, Illinois 60006.

Grateful for Promptness on Inhalator Call

We should like to express our sincere appreciation to Officer Ruggio of the Rolling Meadows Police Department, the Rolling Meadows Volunteer Fire Department and to Dr. F. Patience Noecker, on behalf of our son John.

It was necessary for John to have the inhalator last Wednesday morning, and without a moment's hesitation, this team was at work.

It gives us great pride to know we live in a community of people who really do care — especially in this world that oftentime takes the "Care Less" attitude.

Sincere thanks to all of you.

Happy at Way Firemen Dealt With Opossum

We are all too quick to find fault with our fellow man and spend very little time in considering the good in people. This is an open letter expressing our personal thanks to the Mount Prospect Fire Department and the two firemen from the new fire house on Route 58 and Busse Road.

Last Friday night, Oct. 29, an opossum got into our garage and settled himself at the back door leading into the family room.

We honestly didn't know what to do, as a cornered animal is always dangerous. We called the Fire Department and explained our interesting problem. Not only was their answer reassuring, but it was backed up by action within 10 minutes.

It wasn't easy for them to get rid of this animal, and when they finally did get him out it was discovered that he had been injured and could therefore be considered doubly dangerous. It is certainly reassuring for my family to know that we have men of this caliber and thoughtfulness in positions that are so vital to the total welfare of the citizens of Mount Prospect.

Just another reason why we consider Mount Prospect the finest place to live.

'Enrichment Of Education Is a Luxury'

No doubt as this letter is being read many people will, or I hope so, stop and realize the power they have as a voter to help control our taxes. Before us we have three important educational issues to decide by vote.

Our largest tax output of the three is the referendum for District 12, Roselle. This money being sought is a large amount compounding it to our present over-all tax burden. The word burden seems strong when education enters the picture. We, as taxpayers, can hardly meet the present rate without an increase.

Our district is made up primarily of two groups of people. We have many retired citizens, who with the inflated dollar, cannot bear more strain than they now have.

We also are a community of young families, with children to raise. These children are deserving of a good family life — two parents to rear them. In a good many of these homes either both parents work or the Dad holds two jobs. This is not for luxury in most cases but of necessity. Any more financial strain only means more work hours away from the home.

We as families have to learn to live within our means. We as a school district must also learn this lesson in life. We have only so much money to spend and we must find the best possible outlet for this money. Our basic education should be uppermost on this list. Emrichment in education is a luxury, not afforded in this community. We have building bonds that are an important debt at present — when these debts are paid in full, we can then go into our finery in education.

I fully realize that the educational fund has not had an increase in several years. But, in these several years we have had building fund increases, enough so that we are tax poor.

We now must face the fact that every ballot counts, yes no. The elected school board or officials must know and realize what we can afford and judge our money accordingly.

NEWS OF GREATER PALATINE

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sturm, North Quentin Road, on Monday the son and family, the Kenneth Sturms, prepared to return to their home in Fence, Wis., having been houseguests since the previous Wednesday. Activities during the visit included sightseeing trips to Hawthorn-Mellody Farm and O'Hare Airport.

An 18th wedding anniversary, Nov. 7, of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Ritchie Jr., Arrowhead Drive, Reseda, was celebrated on two consecutive Saturdays. Nov. 6 companions were Dr. and Mrs. Paul Frederickson of Hinsdale for dinner at Drury Lane and the play "Charley's Aunt." Saturday they exchanged congratulations with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swingley of Palatine who recently marked a 27th wedding anniversary by going to Pheasant Run Playhouse in St. Charles for dinner and play, "The Festival."

Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Kleiner, West Ellis, welcomed their daughter and son-in-law, Ruth and Bill Wordel, on Nov. 3. The Wordels closed their summer resort in Hackensack, Minn., and are here for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Mattson, West Dundee Road, hosted a family dinner party on Sunday, in honor of the mother, Mrs. Harold Mattson of Evanston, to celebrate her 72nd birthday. Guests were 25 relatives from surrounding suburbs.

There was leave taking at the home of Mrs. David Cairns, North Martin Drive, Lake Park Estates, on Sunday, when Mrs. R. M. Ramsay, a houseguest for three weeks, left for her home in Birmingham, Mich., bringing her visit to a close with an outing Saturday to Rockton to have dinner at The Wagon Wheel.

THE FAMILY get together at the South Clyde home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Petkunas on Nov. 9 was to celebrate the birthday of Mr. Petkunas. Joining them for the evening, in addition to the daughter and her family, the Robert Hamiltons, were the son and family, the Ray Petkunas of Chicago.

Monday morning contained a special fun time for several neighborhood ladies, including Bobbete Gullet, Dorothy Dougherty, June Dinburg, Marcie Wolferd, Dolores Zadny and Ruth Renack. Bringing refreshments, they surprised a new mother, Mrs. George Bridwell, West Wilson, with gifts for Timothy Alan, born Nov. 2.

Wishes for continued happiness go to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stefonek, Palos Road, who marked their 10th wedding anniversary Nov. 12.

A fifth birthday, Nov. 5, coupled with double celebrating has been the main activity for the William Garrel family, North Martin Drive, Lake Park Estates. Helping Billy celebrate Nov. 6 at afternoon partying were 10 neighborhood friends. That Sunday he was honored at a family dinner party. Included were his grandparents, Mrs. Edward Garrel of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Galligan of Oak Park, Mrs. Theodore Grider, the great-grandmother, and his godfather, who is also his great-uncle, and the aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kraft of Glen Ellyn.

The Robert Hamill home, East Herron Drive, Northview, will be the setting for a reunion when East Coast visitors come for Thanksgiving. Expected to arrive Tuesday are the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jamill of Lynn, Mass., who will be houseguests until Nov. 29.

IT WAS JUST learned that Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dougherty, Bobby, Colleen, Brenda and Jimmy who made their home on West Wood for a number of years made a change of address last month. Wishes for good luck go to the family, first time home owners now at 157 S. Quentin Road.

Cause for triple greetings in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Nordin, North Clyde, are the respective birthdays of Mr. Nordin and 2-year-old Pete, Nov. 10 and 13, and Ricky, 12 Wednesday. A combination celebration took place Sunday at a dinner party with relatives as guests. Next week they will welcome Mrs. Nordin's mother, Mrs. Marvel Kolberg back home. Expected to arrive in time for Thanksgiving, Mrs. Kolberg spent the past six months visiting her children in Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Litchfield, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Reuter, North Quentin, celebrated their 15th wedding anniversary of Nov. 3 on Nov. 6 with Mrs. Reuter's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Andrews of Marengo. The foursome drove to Burlington, Wis., for dinner and entertainment at Johnny Reynolds.

TRAVELS TO Iowa the first weekend of the month were made by the Ralph W. Morris family, Arrowhead Drive, Reseda. In Burlington, they deposited the children with Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Lynn, while they went on to the State University of Iowa in Iowa City, alma mater of Mrs. Morris and where Ralph earned his doctorate. Activities on campus included a pharmacy seminar, with Mr. Morris sharing the platform as one of the principal speakers, dinner at The Carousel and the football game on Saturday before returning to Burlington to retrieve the children and have a brief visit with the parents before returning home Sunday evening.

Striving to keep abreast of newcomers is difficult, consequently a belated welcome is extended to two new families in the Lake Park Estates area. They are Jack L. and Mary Jo Bishop and Vicki, 12, who moved to North Martin Drive on Aug. 27 from Skokie. However, North Springfield, Va. is really home to them.

Mr. Bishop is an employee of the U. S. Government and working with the Dept. of Defense at O'Hare Field.

Having undergoing surgery in Having undergone surgery in Great Lakes Naval Hospital Oct. 25, Mary Jo is still convalescing.

Companionship for the children was the decisive factor causing Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Knaack to choose a home in the Lake Park Estates area. Formerly from McHenry, they moved to North Martin Drive Sept. 1. Two occasions celebrated by the family since here were the birthdays of Kathy and Jeffrey, 4 and 7 Oct. 18 and 20, respectively. (P

Hospital Is Monument to Power of 35 Women

Founders Battled Apathy, Prejudice

by Helene Bristol
Staff Writer

Never underestimate the power of a woman!

Put together 35 women, even in the Victorian Era without female suffrage, and great things may happen.

Sherman Hospital, Elgin, is a continuing monument to the collective power of 35 women and the continuing interest of members of the Elgin Woman's Club.

The woman's club, founded in 1888, started a six-bed hospital in a home donated by an Elgin businessman. The only "price" was the stipulation that the hospital bear his name.

Today the hospital has 350 beds and 51 bassinets. It is completing a $4 million expansion program and launched a new $1 million enlargement project this month.

Not only did the women of the club have to start the hospital from "scratch," they had to overcome serious Victorian prejudice against women spending time on activities which did not center on their families or their church. There even was a strong prejudice against hospitals.

UNTIL ABOUT 1850 (or even later in many areas) many hospitals really were dangerous to their patients and only the strong or very lucky survived. Cleanliness and sterility had not been heard of. By 1888 this was changed but the charge that hospitals only brought together sick people to start epidemics lingered on.

In spite of apathy of the public, opposition by businessmen (who saw money going into the project someday) and real fear of epidemics by many residents, the club opened their hospital and made it a success. It was so successful that in five years ground was broken for a four-story "real" hospital building.

The original hospital building was opeend in 1895 and enlarged in 1904. The clubwomen actively operated the hospital alone until 1929. This included the construction of two more sections in 1917 and 1927. In 1929 a hospital administrator was hired and a men's advisory board was initiated.

OWNERSHIP OF the hospital was continued by the club until 1945 when it was turned over to the Sherman Hospital Association, a not-for-profit corporation organized to operate the institution. A 16-member board of managers now directs the hospital through Harold W. Salmon, hospital administrator. Salmon is only the second administrator to direct the hospital, with the first administrator appointed by the woman's club in 1929 staying for 30 years.

The club asked for no financial compensation for their gift to the City of Elgin. Since the founding of the hospital, the clubwomen have operated the institution as a service for their community and neighboring areas.

For many years Paddock area residents had the choice of only Elgin, Evanston or Elmhurst for hospital service. It was not until the early 1950's that Resurrection Hospital, Chicago, was built—and that still was as far and traveling time as long as Sherman Hospital.

IT WAS ONLY little more than five years ago that Northwest Community Hospital, Arlington Heights; Holy Family Hospital, Des Plaines, and Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge, were erected to provide closer hospital help to part of the Paddock area.

Today Paddock readers in Bartlett, Roselle, Hanover Park, Streamwood and the rest of Hanover Township, Palatine, Arlington Heights, Hoffman Estates, Schaumburg, Medinah and Itasca still use the Sherman facilities.

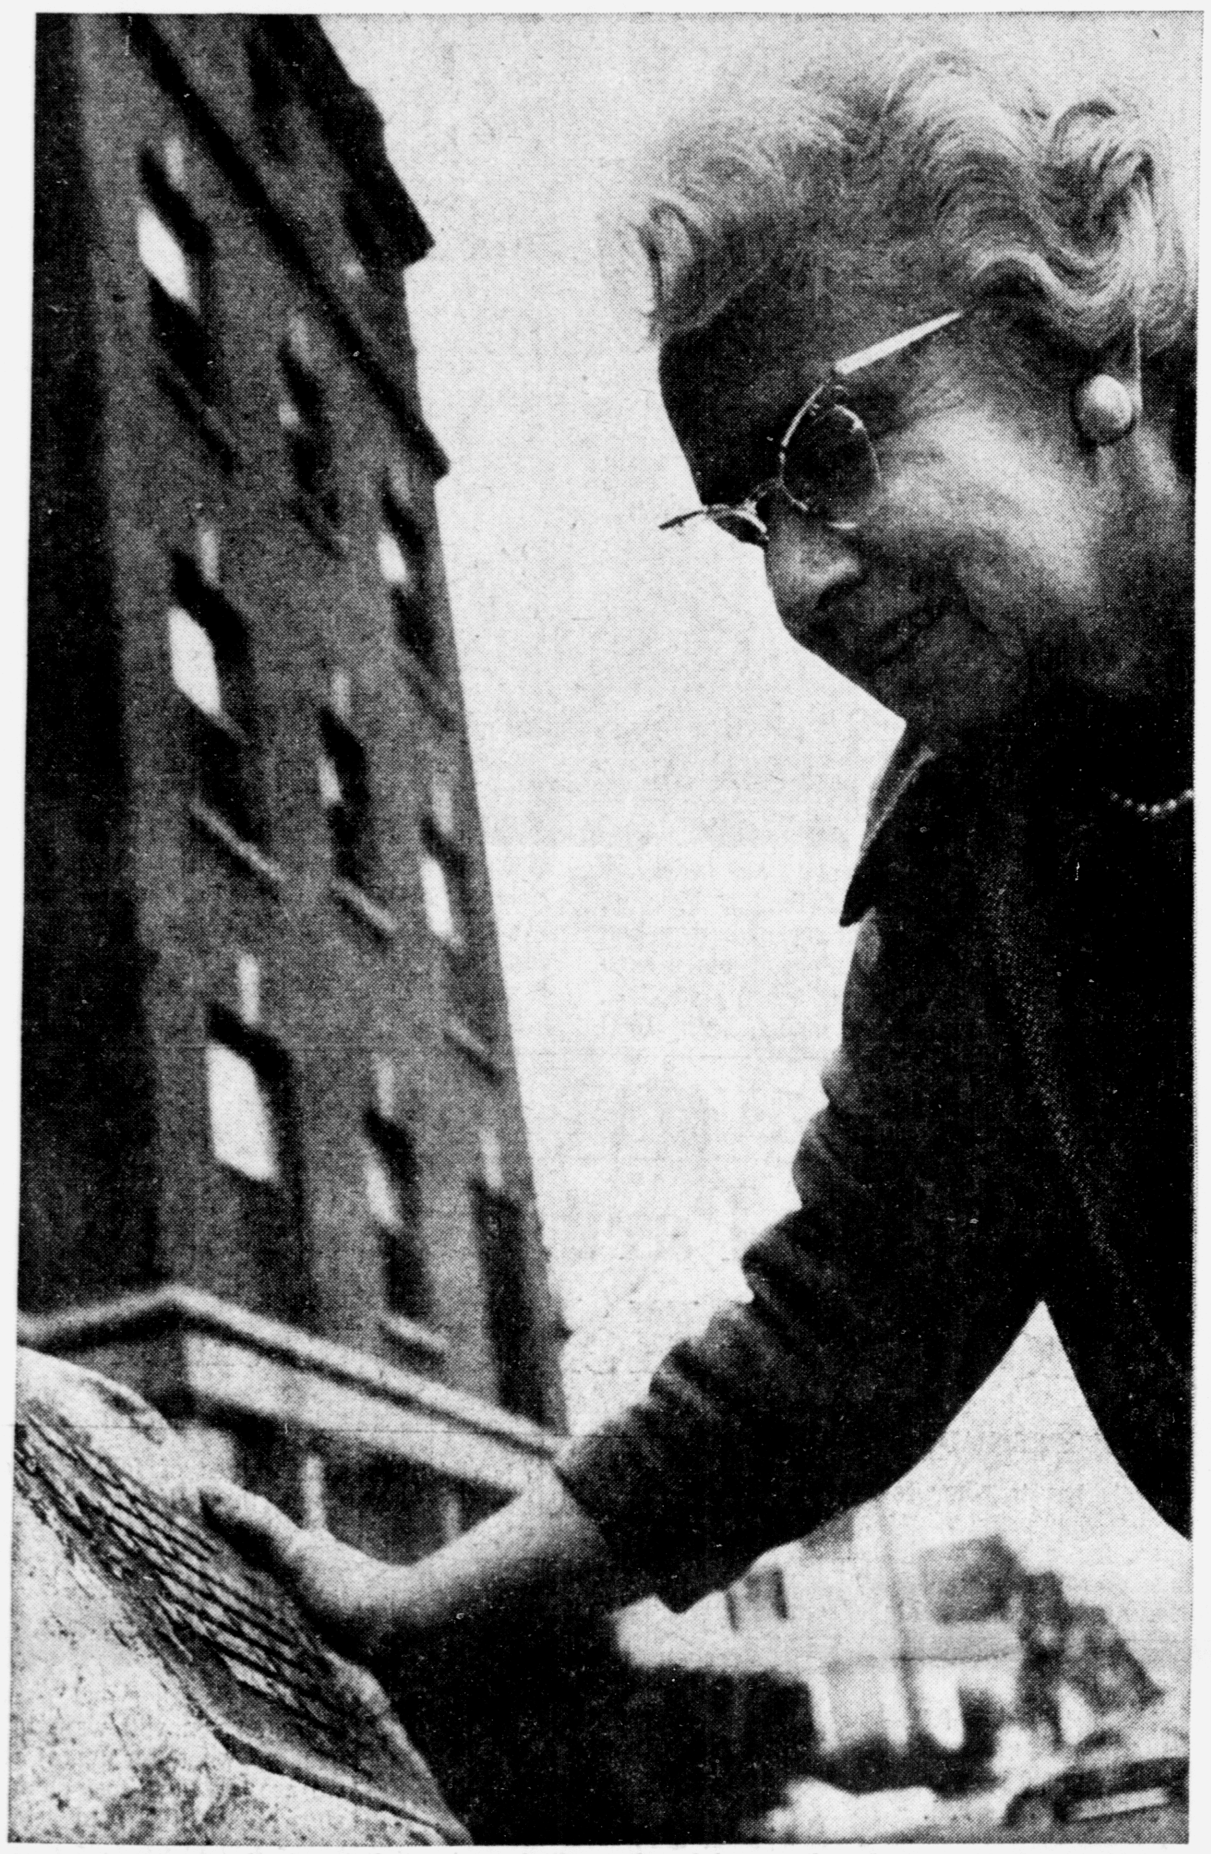
As part of the terms of the transfer of the hospital to the non-profit hospital association, the club retained the right to name four of the 16 members of the board of managers—an arrangement which continues today.

IN ADDITION to founding the hospital, the Elgin Woman's Club founded the hospital school of nursing before the turn of the century. A graduate of the class of 1901 still writes to succeeding graduates on the occasion of their annual alumnae banquet.

The nursing school was closed in 1952 primarily because of expense.

During World War I, approximately 250 nurses from all over the United States went overseas. Of this group, 17 were graduates of Sherman Hospital Nursing School, operated by the Elgin Woman's Club.

The woman's club is the only federated woman's club ever to found or operate a hospital singlehandedly. It probably is the only woman's club in the world to successfully carry on such a project. The women actually owned and operated the hospital for 57 years.



WITH PART OF the hospital structure built by the Elgin Woman's Club as background, Mrs. C. A. Reber checks a plaque in front of Sherman Hospital. The plaque marks a yard-wide stump, all that is left of a memorial tree planted by the woman's club during 57 years the club owned and operated the institution. Mrs. Reber, a member of the club since 1927, was president during the 75th anniversary year in 1963 and has served as a woman's club representative on the hospital board.

TIMES HAVE drastically changed. During the first year of operation in 1888, Sherman Hospital and the Elgin Woman's Club served 35 patients. The first "birth" at the hospital was multiple—the pet cat had kittens. In 1888 women stayed home to have their babies.

The last fiscal year at Sherman Hospital, which ended April 30, there were almost 13,000 patients cared for in the hospital, with about 10,000 patients handled by the hospital emergency room. There were 2,476 babies born at the hospital.

Throughout the years the woman's club donated money and equipment to the hospital. Typical of these donations was a $500 contribution in 1957 to completely furnish a hospital room in honor of the hospital's first administrator.

THE ORIGINAL hospital buildings, dating back to 1895 and 1904, were torn down and replaced in the $4 million expansion program. The 1917 section, which was stripped to the outer masonry wall, is being totally rebuilt and should be opened later this year. The 1927 addition is now the "old" section of the hospital. Before the $4 million expansion program was launched in 1963, new facilities had been added in 1951, 1958 and 1960.

With completion of the new $1 million expansion program, total value of the hospital will be about $10 million, according to estimates by Salmon.

Some of the traditions in the hospital started by the woman's club continue. An annual ice cream social, which raised $2,100 last year, is now sponsored by the Sherman Hospital Auxiliary. Both the ice cream social and the women's volunteer auxiliary were founded by the woman's club.

AT THE SAME club meeting which approved turning the hospital over to the non-profit corporation, the woman's club started the Women's Auxiliary of Sherman Hospital.

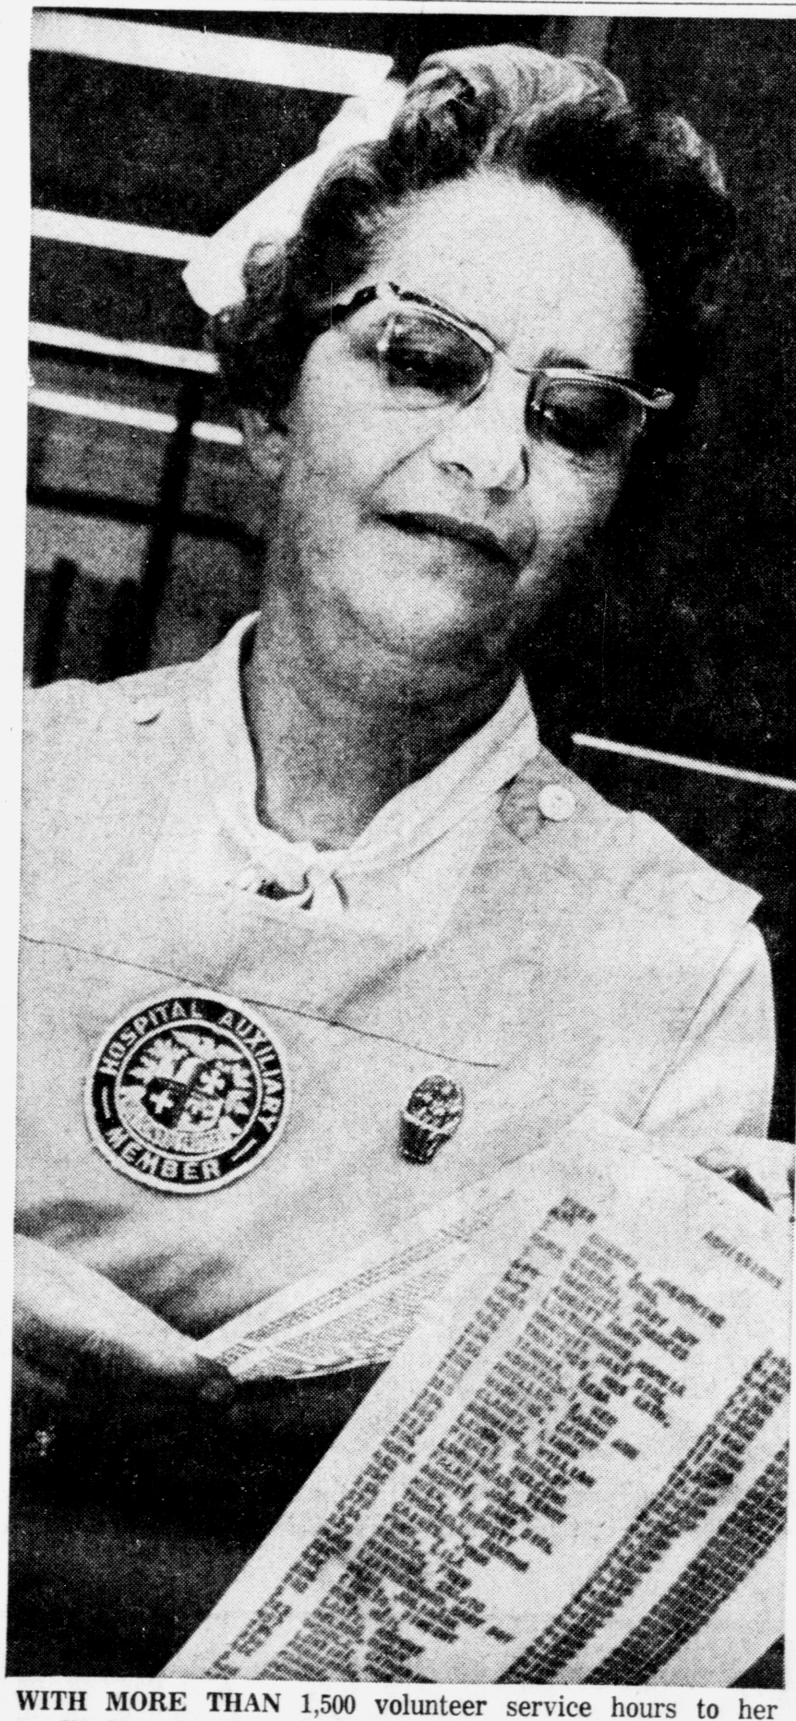
Today the two hospital volunteers with the highest number of service hours are long-time members of the Elgin Woman's Club. Working toward their 4,000-hour mark are Mrs. Raymong Leitner, Elgin, a woman's club member since 1925, and Mrs. J. G. Massey, Dundee countryside, a club member since 1934.

Mrs. Massey, who worked fulltime at the hospital during World War II, heads the volunteer program. Mrs. Leitner is a past member of the board of managers and Mrs. Massey is a present board member.

ANOTHER long-time woman's club member and a past member of the hospital board is Mrs. Hugh H. Stout, Elgin, who is approaching her 2,000-hour mark in volunteer hospital service.

The 75 members of the Elgin Woman's Club who are members of the Sherman Hospital Auxiliary today are continuing to prove that Elgin and the surrounding communities should not underestimate the power of a woman—it can accomplish miracles.

THE MOST POPULAR volunteer service at Sherman Hospital, Elgin, is the traveling coffee cart which makes rounds through patient areas during the morning "coffee break" period. Two "life" members of the Elgin Woman's Club who have contributed between 3,000 and 4,000 volunteer hours for top standing are Mrs. J. G. Massey (left) and Mrs. Raymond Leitner. Both actively supported the hospital when it was operated by the woman's club and were among the first volunteers to sign up when the club originally founded the hospital women's auxiliary.
(Staff photo



WITH MORE THAN 1,500 volunteer service hours to her credit, Mrs. Hugh H. Stout of the Elgin Woman's Club is a familiar face at the reception desk of Sherman Hospital, Elgin. Her work and familiar face are reminders that the woman's club and the hospital share a joint history since 1888 when the hospital was founded by the first club members.

Physical Fitness Theme For Homemakers Program

A district meeting of the Bloomingdale, Glenrise and Keeneyville units of the Homemakers Extension Association will be held tomorrow (Friday) at St. Paul's United Church of Christ in Bloomingdale.

The day's program will start at noon with a dessert luncheon served by Mrs. W. A. Kroeger and Mrs. E. W. Steinbeck, Bloomingdale; Mrs. C. Frank and Mrs. R. Seib, Glenrise, and Mrs. Sheridan H. Pipkin, Keeneyville.

A SHORT BUSINESS meeting will precede the lesson on "Health and Physical Fitness," to be given by Miss Linda Whitney, a nurse from the DuPage County Health Department.

The lesson will consider the preventive aspects of heart disease, cancer, diabetes, arthritis, nutritional problems, tuberculosis, medical and dental care and health services.

Mrs. Charles Franzen, president of the Bloomingdale unit, invites any homemaker who would like to attend the lesson to call LA 9-2803.

CHRISTMAS ITEMS made at craft day in Lombard will be displayed by Mrs. Fred Sigwalt, special feature chairman of the Bloomingdale unit.

The Cloverdale Maidens 4-H Club, sponsored by the Bloomingdale unit, will hold a bake sale following the luncheon tomorrow.

The Homemakers Extension Association cooperates with the University of Illinois Extension Services in disseminating the latest information on all phases of home economics. Lessons are taught at monthly meetings of the 29 units in DuPage, half by local leaders and the other by members of the university staff, Mrs. Rachel L. Crabb, home advisor, and her assistant, Miss Janice Johnson. (SF

Early Deadline

Since there will be no mail deliveries on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 25, Paddock Publications newspapers will be delivered in the Nov. 24 mails. Early deadlines have been set up for all sections of the newspaper.

Deadline for the women's section will be noon on Saturday, Nov. 20. News chairmen able to bring in releases prior to the deadline are asked to please do so. Cooperation of all chairmen and individuals submitting news for the women's section will be greatly appreciated.(SF

Nursing Director Is Auxiliary Guest

Elizabeth Wessling, director of nurses at Northwest Community Hospital, will be guest speaker at the fourth general meeting of the hospital women's auxiliary Tuesday, Nov. 30.

The meeting will be held at the Arlington Carousel Restaurant, Euclid and Rohlwing Road, Arlington Heights. A social hour will start at 11:30 a.m. with luncheon following at 12:30 o'clock.

Following a short business meeting, Miss Wessling, who was born in the Netherlands, will describe highlights of her life in Holland and the United States.

MISS WESSLING completed her basic nurse's training in her native land, according to Mrs. Robert Lockwood of Palatine, auxiliary program chairman. Since coming to the United States, she has earned her bachelor's degree and a master's in education from Loyola University.

Also on the program will be a display of handicrafts made in colorful glass, plastic and tin from the Handi Craft Workshop of Mrs. Gladys V. Franek of Algonquin. Mrs. Ronald Cook of Rolling Meadows will comment on the exhibit, giving details of construction.

Reservations should be made with Mrs. Robert Alfini, hospitality chairman, at 259-1871. She will be assisted by Mrs. J. K. Hart, Arlington Heights; Mrs. Warren Frost, Palatine, and Mrs. Robert Jacobs, Prospect Heights. (SF

New Officers Head Grandmothers Club

When Mount Prospect Grandmothers Club holds its meeting tomorrow (Friday) at 1 p.m. in Mount Prospect Country Club, new officers will be presiding. All were installed at the club's October meeting by Mrs. Frances Bouma, national vice president, and Mrs. Violet Clark, national organizer.

Mrs. Fay Carlson is now president; Mrs. Marguerite Hinckley, vice president; Mrs. Jean Derr, secretary; Mrs. Lillian Lenz, treasurer; Mrs. Helen Lavigne, chaplain.

CHAIRMEN INCLUDE Mrs. Emily Deck, membership; Mrs. Mrs. Conway, ways and means; Mrs. Irene Corris, social; Mrs. Opal Mills, sunshine; Mrs. Joan Komkol, historian; Mrs. Catherine Salika, hostess.

All grandmothers living in the local area are welcome to any of the club activities. (S

Montessori Method Is Guild Topic

Believing that any conversation about education of preschool children is incomplete without discussion of the Montessori method, St. James Catholic Woman's guild has asked Mrs. Ralph Casciaro to speak on "Principles and History of the Montessori Method" at their 8:15 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 18 meeting.

The speaker is a Mount Prospect resident and has a child attending the Northwest Suburban Montessori School at 259 E. Central Road, Des Plaines. "Even though your children do not attend the school. many of the methods can be used daily in the home to stimulate the pre-schooler," Mrs. Casciaro will tell her audience.

FIRST introduced in the United States in San Francisco 50 years ago, the Montessori opened a Northwest Suburban School in September, 1964. Enrollment is made up of 100 children whose ages range from 2.9 to 6 years.

In keeping with the liturgy of the church, Mrs. Jack Crump will demonstrate the construction of an advent wreath and other advent customs.

A mass will be celebrated at 9 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 20, for both living and deceased members of the Guild. (SF

Fond Memories

There's No Place Like That First Apartment

By BETTY AINSLIE

You can move into many new houses, each one better than the previous one, but never find one that is so full of cherished memories as that very first apartment.

Daughter and Son-in-Law moved into a brand new apartment shiny with chrome and tile and furnished in early Ainslie. All the time she busily made slipcovers and shopped for drapes, I kept remembering the first apartment Pop and I had.

A month before we were to be married, I journeyed to Battle Creek, Mich., where Pop worked, to hunt for an apartment. The budget was cramped as I was marrying a strictly cash and carry man so our furniture was bought and paid for by puncturing the bank account. We were shopping for a place not over 35 dollars a month (Oh yes you could find plenty of apartments for rent at that figure back 25 years ago.)

NOTHING SEEMED right until we discovered a brand new duplex with the upstairs vacant. Here was a living room with a real woodburning fireplace, a dining room, two bedrooms with walk-in closets, a modern kitchen and a tiled bath.

The rent was beyond our pocketbook — a whopping 45 dollars a month. We sat in the car, after viewing it, manipulating the budget figures around. We could take a bit from food and clothing, and Pop could carry his lunch, but we knew we had to have that apartment. It was just right!

The duplex stood along a tree-shaded street where old homes peeked out from among trees, and we stretched the budget still further as we added a dining room set.

THE PLACE glistened with our new, maple furniture and bright patterned rugs. The 16 windows in the sunroom opening off the living room took readily to the gay chintz drapes I made, and two people couldn't have been happier.

Pop worked with about a dozen other young engineers on an expansion dream of one of the vice presidents of Kellogg's Corn Flakes. This group of fellows all were newly married or about to be, and the gang would get together every Saturday night for a record or bridge session. Mostly we gathered in our apartment which seemed to hold so many people easily. Plus we were all young, and our fireplace cast a romantic glow as we toasted marshmallows or roasted wieners.

We had our first big party there — a Halloween dress-up affair that has never been duplicated for fun.

THE YOUNG WIVES made periodic trips to the Kellogg plant where visitors always received sample cereal packages. Incidentally, ice cream is delicious sprinkled with Rice Krispies, and it topped off many of our get-togethers even though the fellows groaned at being reminded of their rather shaky jobs when there was a shift in administration at the plant.

Paid every week, Pop would report as he wiped the Saturday night dishes that this or that fellow from our gang had been laid off, and in 1939 this was a catastrophe as jobs were very scarce.

Couple by couple our group dwindled until Pop announced casually, "This Saturday Melbourne, Todd and Ainslie got it." So we faced our first big problem, and after only a few months in a dream apartment, we moved.

IN IOWA, WITH our furniture in storage, we took a one-room efficiency with a studio couch that doubled as davenport and bed. All my cakes baked on a slant as the stove rested unevenly on a slope in the small kitchen.

Apartments in Fort Dodge were even then practically nonexistent, and our third apartment in less than six months was a reconverted attic.

Our entrance was a winding fire escape and the only place Pop could stand up straight was in the middle of the apartment as there were low dormers on four sides and he bumped his head before he greeted me every night.

There were other apartments during the war years, but when I smell fall leaves burning or Halloween rolls around, I think of Battle Creek and that very first beautiful apartment. (S

Inverness Club Makes Change

Members of the Garden Club of Inverness are reminded of a change of location for their Nov. 18 meeting. The club will convene in the home of Mrs. F. E. Wood instead of the Inverness Fieldhouse as planned.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Frank Raufeisen and Mrs. Edwin Friesendorf. (S

Here's HAUGH to Plan a Party

Here is a Party for Those Who Enjoy Helping Others

by DOLORES HAUGH

Let's get together for a cup of tea and bring along a good idea for a senior citizen. Jet age-zip-zing-time goes by and we fly around thinking of our own families which is right but isn't there a little time to think of someone else? Oh, you say, you give to charity, you go to church, but does it end there? No, time is the one thing that elderly people need and crave, not gifts of material worth but the intangible time. At one time of the year namely Thanksgiving and Christmas it seems the thing to do, think of some one other than ourselves who is less fortunate. Well, now is that time. But here is the twist, this party is for January, March and July, not for Thanksgiving and Christmas.

INVITATIONS

You know your friends, the ones who think of others all year round, the ones that tend a neighbor's child when the mother is sick, or visits hospitals and donates endless hours, these are the ones you want for this party. They are the backbone of the American way of life and thank God for them.

Invitations should be simple, You may just wish to call but receiving a surprise invitation in the mail is so much fun and a treat to the heart.

Cut a heart from bright shiny paper and place it on a doily. They might even think that you flipped and thought it was like Valentine's Day. Mount doily and heart on double fold green paper and write the following inside:

Have a HEART and come to tea,
Share an idea or two with me,
Something that you cannot see
Love in a basket, our theme will be.

State time, place and ask them to respond, for the recipients interest will be intrigued by such an invitation. Keep the number below eight. Ask each guest to bring a tiny basket or enclose one in the invitation, made from red construction paper.

PREPARATIONS

The fun part is the surprise. As each guest calls explain that she should think of something unusual that a shut-in would enjoy and if possible bring a sample of same. You may wish to contact some small, state or private homes, especially those where the patients are bedridden, or find out if they may be taken out of the home, or just what the restrictions would be.

Better still, have each guest choose a Home for the Aged and find out all this information and bring it to the party. It may even be a group of Senior Citizens who would enjoy a pitch in supper.

As hostess, have small index file cards or bright little note books with matching pencils for each guest. If you use index cards make felt holders of bright green and shirr lace around a red felt heart, glue or paste edges of folder or even staple them if you have less time, but have them attractive so that every guest may carry them proudly, favors for favors.

MENU

Tea of course, and make it fancy as you will want to emphasize what fortunate beings we are, and use that china you store away for company, the silver and linen. This idea also helps you get a head start on the holidays as all of your cleaning of said items will be done. Use bright holly and red hearts. Bright heart-shaped cookies can be a head start on Christmas cookies too if you double the batch and fretze half or tiny cakes if you haven't time and want to "show off" your blessings even more. Serve old fashioned Christmas candy and nuts for the idea is the thing at this affair.

PROCEDURE

As each guest arrives hove her take her notebook or file favor. Then on a large cardboard, write the names of the homes, what restrictions they have, how many patients, men or women, if they are bedridden and list this on one side of the cardboard.

Then leave plenty of space to the right and make a column for each guest—use two cardboards if you have to. Have each guest as she arrives sign her name at the head of each column. After tea, let each girl state what she has found out about the home, giving the address and name so each guest may copy the information on her card. This now becomes the guest's home: Sally's Home, visiting hours, address. Sally then states in writing on the cardboard all the information asked for by you as hostess on the phone.

She also, we hope, has decided what Love item to put in the basket for the folks at her home. It may be cookies, checking for diabetics and how many, or it may be a car, for they can be taken to the store or to visit a friend. It may be something they need such as sox or bedjacket for which she has made a sample.

THEN EACH guest is asked to choose a month for her home. She is responsible for notifying the rest of the group and having a Have a Heart Tea at her home and making her Love gift ahead of that date and arranging for transportation and clearance with each home or group. But nothing is to be done at the "ease your conscience months" of December, February, April, October or November. The churches and other philanthropic groups take care of them.

Not one guest is obligated to come to this party, for this is indeed a party where each guest must give a little of her time, a lot of energy and a part of herself—and you will be surprised at the happiness each of your guests will receive as a prize, for giving is winning.

So Have a Heart. Love can stop wars. Peace starts in the individual heart, not a country, state or city.

It also starts the season of Christmas on the intended note, love. (SSD

Hairdressers Seek Aid for Salon Week

Area hairdressers, members of Affiliate 47 of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association, are seeking all area beauty operators and enlisting their help for National Beauty Salon Week. Each year, on the first day of Salon Week, local beauticians travel to three area homes to donate their services.

These homes are the Maryville Home in Des Plaines, where several hundred girls are given haircuts, permanents and sets, the Lutheran Home and Service for the Aged in Arlington Heights and Mount St. Joseph Home in Lake Zurich. The beauty service is completely free to the residents.

At their recent dinner meeting, the group installed officers. Serving a second term as president is Mrs. Adeline Pedersen of McHenry. First vice president is Jack Fahn of Rolling Meadows, and second vice president is Lawrence Pupillo of Park Ridge. Ruth Montgomery of Mount Prospect is secretary and Doris Silver of Arlington Heights is treasurer. Historian is Marge Kencie of Palatine and financial secretary is Helen Pfursich of Wauconda. (SSD

'Elephant Parade' For Hospital Fete

The third "Elegant Elephants Parade," sponsored by the Service League of Lutheran General Hospital, will be held Wednesday, Dec. 1, in the new ballroom of O'Hare Inn, Rosemont.

Luncheon, a fashion show and an "Elegant Elephant" sale will highlight the social event. The latest in holiday and resort wear fashions will be presented by the Park Shop of Park Ridge.

TICKETS MAY be obtained from the Service League office at Lutheran General Hospital, 692-2210.

"In addition to the tickets, we are asking each person attending to donate an 'Elegant Elephant'—that's a white elephant of the elegant variety—which will be on sale at the luncheon," says Mrs. Erwin Hurt, chairman.

The sale begins at 11 a.m., followed by the luncheon and the fashion show. (S

Palatine WSCS Honors Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Browne were honored on their 50th wedding anniversary at the November meeting of the Woman's Sociey of First Methodist Church, Palatine. Mrs. Browne was presented with a special membership pin from the society.

Friends of the Brownes from Irving Park Methodist Church were also invited to the party.

A play was given by the WSCS members, entitled "Blueprints" and featuring Mesdames J. Ellis, R. Strickland, K. Grant, M. Miller, W. King, G. Williams, R. Welty and W. Childress.

Crafts Day For Palatine Homemakers

A crafts day will be conducted by the Palatine Homemakers Extension unit Monday, Nov. 29, at the home of Mrs. R. H. Golterman, 143 S. Hale St., at 9:30 a.m.

"Language and Behavior Patterns That Help Us Understand People" was the lesson presented to the members at the Nov. 9 meeting, held at the home of Mrs. C. E. Comfort, 308 N. Fremont.

Lesson leaders were Mrs. V. C. Veschuroff and Mrs. D. Lowther. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. G. R. Neal and Mrs. G. Voss.

NEW MEMBER joining at that meeting was Mrs. L. Johnson, 2160 S. Ela Road.

The homemakers group will hold its Christmas party and luncheon at noon Dec. 14 at the Arlington Carousel, Euclid Avenue and Wilke Road, Arlington Heights. (S

Yellow, White Color Scheme For Heine-Pearson Wedding

A yellow and white color scheme surrounded the Oct. 9 wedding of Elaine Ruth Heine, daughter of the Arthur Heines of Hanover Township, and Gerald Phillip Pearson, son of the Walter Pearsons of Crystal Lake. The couple repeated their vows at 7 p.m. in Immanuel United Church of Christ, Hanover, and then were feted by 450 guests at a reception in Crystal Lake's Moose Lodge.

The yellow in the wedding decorations was seen in the bridal attendants' gowns, their floor-length empire sheaths in a soft daffodil shantastic with a floating back panel. Karen Heine, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and another sister, Mrs. Marian Nesler of Hanover Township, was bridesmaid, along with Virginia Taylor of Elgin and Sharon Clausing of Garden Prairie.

The maid of honor carried yellow roses with white mums, and the bridesmaids carried yellow roses and yellow mums.

A NIECE AND nephew of the bride, Susan Heine, 3, and Robert Heine, 5, both of Palatine, preceded the bride down the aisle as flower girl and ring bearer, respectively. Susan was dressed in yellow peau, floor-length, and carried a basket of yellow roses.

The bride, attired in white silk parchment taffeta with appliques of Venetian lace, carried a handkerchief which her mother had carried on her wedding day. The bridal gown was simply styled with scooped neckline, long sleeves and bell skirt, but also featured a floating train which extended from the shoulder line. the lace applique at the neckline was studded with seed pearls.

Her headpiece, trimmed with seed pearls, held her elbow-length veil in place, and white orchids, stephanotis and ivy composed her bouquet.

ESCORTING THE bride's attendants were Daniel Doty of Cary, who was also best man, and ushers Warren Nesler of Hanover, Wolfgang Langhenrich of Crystal Lake and the groom's three brothers, Thomas, Richard and John Pearson.

Both mothers of the couple were attired in lace dresses for the day's festivities, Mrs. Heine in a medium blue with matching accessories and Mrs. Pearson in olive green with brown accessories. Each had two white orchids pinned to her shoulder.

THE BRIDE IS a graduate of Copley Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, Aurora, and also attended Elgin Community College. She is now a nurse at Sherman Hospital, while her husband is a registered inhalation therapist at St. Joseph Hospital, Elgin. He took his training at Holy Family Hospital.

The newlyweds are living at 568 Lincoln Ave., Dundee. (S

Sorority Activities

PANHELLENIC

The monthly meeting of Northwest Suburban Panhellenic Council will be held today, Nov. 18, at 10 a.m. in Old Orchard Country Club.

Plans for the Dec. 29 brunch for collegiate sorority members and their mothers will be discussed.

KAPPA DELTA

"A loaf of bread, a jug of wine" ... and spaghetti will complete the menu when the Northwest Suburban Kappa Delta Alumnae Association treat the men to an Italian dinner at 8 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 20, in the Rolling Meadows home of Mrs. L. Arentsen, 4298 Wilson Ave. The Italian chefs will be Mrs. J. Murphy and Mrs. J. Glueckert.

Mrs. T. N. Hackney is in charge of table decorations and name tags are being made by Mrs. J. Schildgen. Tossed salad will be prepared by Mrs. P. Pearson and Mrs. T. Pitchford.

SIGMA KAPPA

Northwest Suburban Sigma Kappas will celebrate the 91st anniversary of the founding of their sorority at a Founders' Day Dinner Monday, Nov. 22, at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William O'Donnell, 119 Emerson Lane, Mount Prospect. Mrs. Ronald Scheck of Arlington Heights will be co-hostess for the event, which has become an annual affair.

This year the newly-formed evening group will join the afternoon group for their first joint meeting. For reservations and further information Sigma Kappas may call Mrs. Scheck at CL 3-1894.

DELTA DELTA DELTA

The 77th anniversary of the founding of Delta Delta Delta at Boston College on Thanksgiving Eve 1888 was observed by Northwest Suburban Alumnae Chapter at a Founder's Day luncheon Nov. 17 at the Americana Inn, River Road, Des Plaines.

Special guest, Mrs. Elton Jones of Mount Prospect, spoke on "The Function of the Executive Office." Mrs. Jones is currently national executive secretary of Delta Delta Delta as well as a founding member of Northwest Suburban Alumnae Chapter and its first president.

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

Busy baking early this week for Wednesday evening's Alpha Sigma Alpha cookie exchange were Miss Marilyn Kanwischer, Mrs. Leo Bondurant and Miss Ginny McGillivray, all of Mount Prospect. Members of the West Suburban Alumnae chapter, the women traveled to the Oak Lawn home of Miss Judy Matusek for the exchange.

BETA SIGMA PHI

Mrs. Bernard Bird of Arlington Heights presented the program, "Good Lives" Nov. 17 to members of Xi Zeta Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi when the group met in the Hoffman Estates home of Mrs. Robert Howe. Mrs. Bird, service chairman of the chapter, is making up a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family in the area, an annual service project of the group.

On the agenda was the discussion of a Christmas dinner dance on Dec. 18 and a rummage sale slated for next spring.

Tuesday of this week the group held a coffee for new members in the Mount Prospect home of Mrs. Ray Copeland, and during the week members are staffing the Diabetic Detection Week booth at Randhurst Shopping Center.

Guests at the Nov. 10 meeting, hosted by Mrs. F. V. Schlexer of Arlington Heights, were Mrs. Sig Haaland of Mount Prospect, Mrs. Robert Lewis of Palatine and Mrs. Tina Weepie of Arlington Heights, all recent transferees to this area. (S

St. Edna's Festival Is Nov. 20

First on the list of coming events for the new St. Edna's parish in Arlington Heights is the annual Fall Festival, set for Saturday, Nov. 20, at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 15 S. Hickory St. An evening of dancing and social activities, beginning at 9 p.m., will be followed by a refreshment period.

Tickets may be purchased at the door.

WITH A VIEW to the holidays, the Woman's Club of St. Edna's presented a demonstration of flower arranging at the Nov. 17 meeting. "Decorate with Flowers" was the theme chosen by Sauerland Flower Shop of Arlington Heights for the showing of centerpieces and table arrangements. (S

Juniors Aid Over 50 Club

Members of the Senior Citizen Committee of the Arlington Heights Junior Woman's Club have been participating in the activities of the Over 50 Club this fall. Once a month, Juniors have taken dessert and coffee to the Over 50 club meetings. This Thursday, Nov. 18, they are providing refreshments for the combined meeting of the Wheeling and the Arlington Heights Over 50 Clubs.

The months ahead find the Arlington Juniors planning to entertain the Over 50 Club with a chorus concert and a drama presentation, and the Senior Citizen committee has made arrangements for the Over 50 Club to be taken by bus to the Don McNeill Breakfast Club Show this winter. They are also providing transportation to Over 50 Club meetings for those members who are without a car. Mrs. Ray Crouch is chairman of the Senior Citizens committee. (S

Miss Klima Is Autumn Bride of New Yorker

Autumn flowers and foliage accented the royal blue velvet and satin gowns worn by attendants of Mary Ann Klima for her Oct. 9 marriage to George J. Marx of Mount Vernon, N.Y. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Klima, 1001 Mayfair, Arlington Heights, but she has been living and working in Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., so the wedding was planned for that area.

The 11 o'clock Mass was performed by Rev. John McNamara in Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, Ardsley, N. Y., the altar also decked with fall foliage.

CARRYING cascade bouquets of gold autumn flowers, the bride's attendants entered the sanctuary in royal blue floor-length dresses and crown headpieces trimmed with seed pearls. Their gowns were fashioned with blue velvet bodice and satin A-line skirt.

Mrs. George Schneider of Chicago, a childhood friend of the bride, was her matron of honor. Bridesmaid was Bonnie Klima of Park Ridge, a cousin of the bride, and junior bridesmaid was Elizabeth Karl of White Plains, N. Y.

ALSO ATTIRED in royal blue velvet and satin was the groom's niece, 5-year-old Marie Murphy of Rye, N. Y., who was the flower girl.

The bride entered the sanctuary on the arm of her father and wore a white-ivory organza over slik gown, the bodice trimmed with an alencon lace and seed pearl motif which also appeared on a front panel of the skirt. The gown ended in a chapel train.

A coronet of seed pearls and flowers held her fingertip veil in place, and she carried a white prayer book with white roses, orchids and stephanotis.

THE GROOM is the son of Mrs. George Marx of Mount Vernon, N. Y., and the late Commander George Marx, USNR. Attending him were Joseph Murphy of Rye as best man and Walter Hollinger of Arlington, Mass., and John Harkins of Tacoma Park, Md., as ushers.

For the double ring ceremony and the reception immediately following at the Hilton Inn in Tarrytown, N. Y., the groom's mother was dressed in a blue brocade ensemble. Both she and Mrs. Klima, who wore a yellow silk shantung dress with a beaded lace bodice, had white orchid corsages.

WESTCHESTER, N. Y., is the new home of the bridal pair after their 2-week Caribbean cruise. The bride is merchandise manager for Scheri Shoppe in Dobbs Ferry, and her husband works for the Port of New York Authority.

The bride is a graduate of St. Patrick Academy, Des Plaines, and attended Bradley University in Peoria. The groom attended New York University before going on to graduate from Bradley. (S

Here Are Gourmet Dishes for Holiday Fare

Men Especially Go For Spinach Bake

By LOIS SEILER

A special holiday deserves a few special dishes, and it's always fun to try something new along with serving the traditional favorites.

For your Thanksgiving dinner we suggest a few of Mrs. Robert K. Howe's specialties; you may wish to try one or all for that festive occasion.

If turkey and sweet potatoes are on your menu, we recommend dressing up the potatoes according to Mrs. Howe's method.

Either canned or cooked sweet potatoes, mashed, can be used in this recipe. They are combined with butter, seasonings and tiny marshmallows and formed into balls. The balls are then dipped into a honey glaze and rolled into chopped nuts.

Baked for a mere 15 minutes, they are attractive in appearance and delightful to taste.

If you like a vegetable that is a little different and quite delicious to accompany your holiday dinner, a Gourmet Spinach Bake will fill the bill.

MRS. HOWE makes this by combining chopped spinach with minced onion and hard-cooked eggs in a well-seasoned cream sauce. It is baked in a casserole with a flavorful topping of cornflake crumbs, grated cheese and melted butter.

"Men especially seem to like this dish," commented Elaine Howe, "and it can easily be doubled for a large crowd."

"It can also be made in advance, and chopped broccoli may be substituted for the spinach, if desired," she added.

The onion and cheese give this spinach a zesty flavor, and it is good with beef and ham as well as turkey.

A DELECTABLE dessert for your Thanksgiving or Christmas dinner is this good cook's unique Pumpkin Ice Cream Pie.

Made in a graham cracker crust, the filling for this pie consists of mashed pumpkin, spices and vanilla ice cream blended together. Frozen until firm, it is served garnished with pecan halves.

This pie has the advantageous feature that it can be made well in advance, and it combines the refreshing taste of ice cream with the spicy pumpkin flavor that is a tradition with most holiday dinners.

The mother of one young son, Steven, 4 months old, Mrs. Howe is a member of the Schaumburg Township Republican Women's Club and is publicity chairman for Xi Zeta Epsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

The Howe family lives at 102 Chandler Lane in Hoffman Estates.

MRS. ROBERT K. HOWE of Hoffman Estates sprinkles a nippy cheese-flavored topping over one of her favorite vegetable dishes, a different and delicious Gourmet Spinach Bake. This is an excellent dish to serve as an accompaniment for a festive holiday dinner.

SWEET POTATO BALLS

- 2½ cups mashed canned or cooked sweet potatoes (1-pound, 2-ounce can)
- ¾ teaspoon salt
- Dash of pepper
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
- ¼ cup tiny marshmallows
- 1 tablespoon butter or margarine
- 1/3 cup honey
- 1 cup chopped walnuts
- Additional melted butter or margarine

Combine mashed sweet potatoes with salt, pepper and 2 tablespoons melted butter. Stir in tiny marshmallows. Chill for about one-half hour so that the potatoes are easier to work with.

Shape into balls, using about ¼ cup potato mixture for each.

Heat 1 tablespoon butter and the honey in a small skillet. When hot, add potato balls one at a time. With two forks, quickly but carefully roll in glaze, coating completely. Then at once roll into chopped nuts.

Place balls so that they do not touch each other in a greased, shallow baking dish. Drizzle with a little melted butter. Bake at 350 degrees for 15 to 20 minutes. Serves 10.

GOURMET SPINACH BAKE

- 2 10-ounce packages frozen chopped spinach
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2 cups milk
- 2 teaspoons instant minced onion
- 3 hard-cooked eggs, finely chopped
- 2 teaspoons salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- 1/8 teaspoon nutmeg
- ½ cup cornflake crumbs
- ½ cup grated cheddar cheese
- 2 tablespoons melted butter

Cook spinach according to package directions and drain.

Melt butter, blend in flour. Gradually add milk, stirring constantly, and cook until thickened. Remove from heat and fold in spinach, instant onion, eggs, salt, pepper and nutmeg.

Turn into a greased baking dish. Toss cornflake crumbs with cheese and melted butter. Spoon over spinach and sprinkle with paprika. Bake at 375 degrees for 20 minutes or until lightly browned. Serves 4.

PUMPKIN ICE CREAM PIE

- 1 cup canned or mashed cooked pumpkin
- ½ cup brown sugar
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon cinnamon
- ½ teaspoon ginger
- ¼ teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 quart vanilla ice cream
- 1 recipe graham cracker crust

Combine pumpkin, brown sugar, salt and spices.

Stir ice cream to soften; then fold into pumpkin mixture until completely blended. Spoon into a 9-inch graham cracker crust. Freeze firm.

Remove from freezer 15 minutes before serving. Garnish with pecan halves. Serves 8.

Wine Substitute

Looking for a subsitute for wine in your cooking? Try cranberry juice. It lends that same piquant flavor and lift to a regular dish that puts it in the gourmet class of cookery.

Crisp Vegetables

Vegetables will stay fresh longer if you line the crisper with paper toweling to abosrb moisture.

Timesaver

Save time at the supermarket by writing your grocery list in the order in which the items are found on the shelves.

Champagne

Wonder how much champagne you'll need to toast a new baby, warm a new house, say good-by to a traveling friend? The Mogen David Wine Corp. recommends one bottle for every four guests. If you're buying new glasses, consider the tulip shapes with long stems. Champagne bubbles last longer in them than in the traditional wide "saucer." (SH

Week's Best Food Buys

Thanksgiving promotions break this week. The better buys in turkeys are for larger sized birds. Fewer B grades quoted low at 29 cents a pound for sizes 22 to 29 pounds in toms and 35 cents a pound for the same grade of hens, frozen. (Grade A. frozen toms range from 33 to 35 cents a pound, top grade hens mostly 39 cents a pound and small sized Beltsvilles from the new crop, 45 to 49 cents a pound.

Hams are a hot item at all market levels. Wholesale costs soar. Retail emphasis is on premium kinds, actually a better consumer buy, with top brand boneless tagged at 89 cents to $1.19 a pound. Large canned kinds quoted at 79 to 89 cents a pound.

BEEF IS A persistent bargain on the Chicago area food market.

Chicago-area food values: Poultry: turkeys.

Meats: beef rib and rump roasts, round and sirloin steaks, blade cut chuck roasts, ground beef; premium hams, spareribs, loin roasts, center cut chops.

Produce: tangerines, oranges, grapes, grapefruit; lettuce, celery, radishes, carrots, cabbage, onions, rutabagas, squash, yams, potatoes. (SH

Chill Candles

Festive occasions call for candle light. Chill the candles for several hours before use. They won't drip and they'll burn more slowly. And did you know that lighted candles help keep the air free of tobacco smoke?

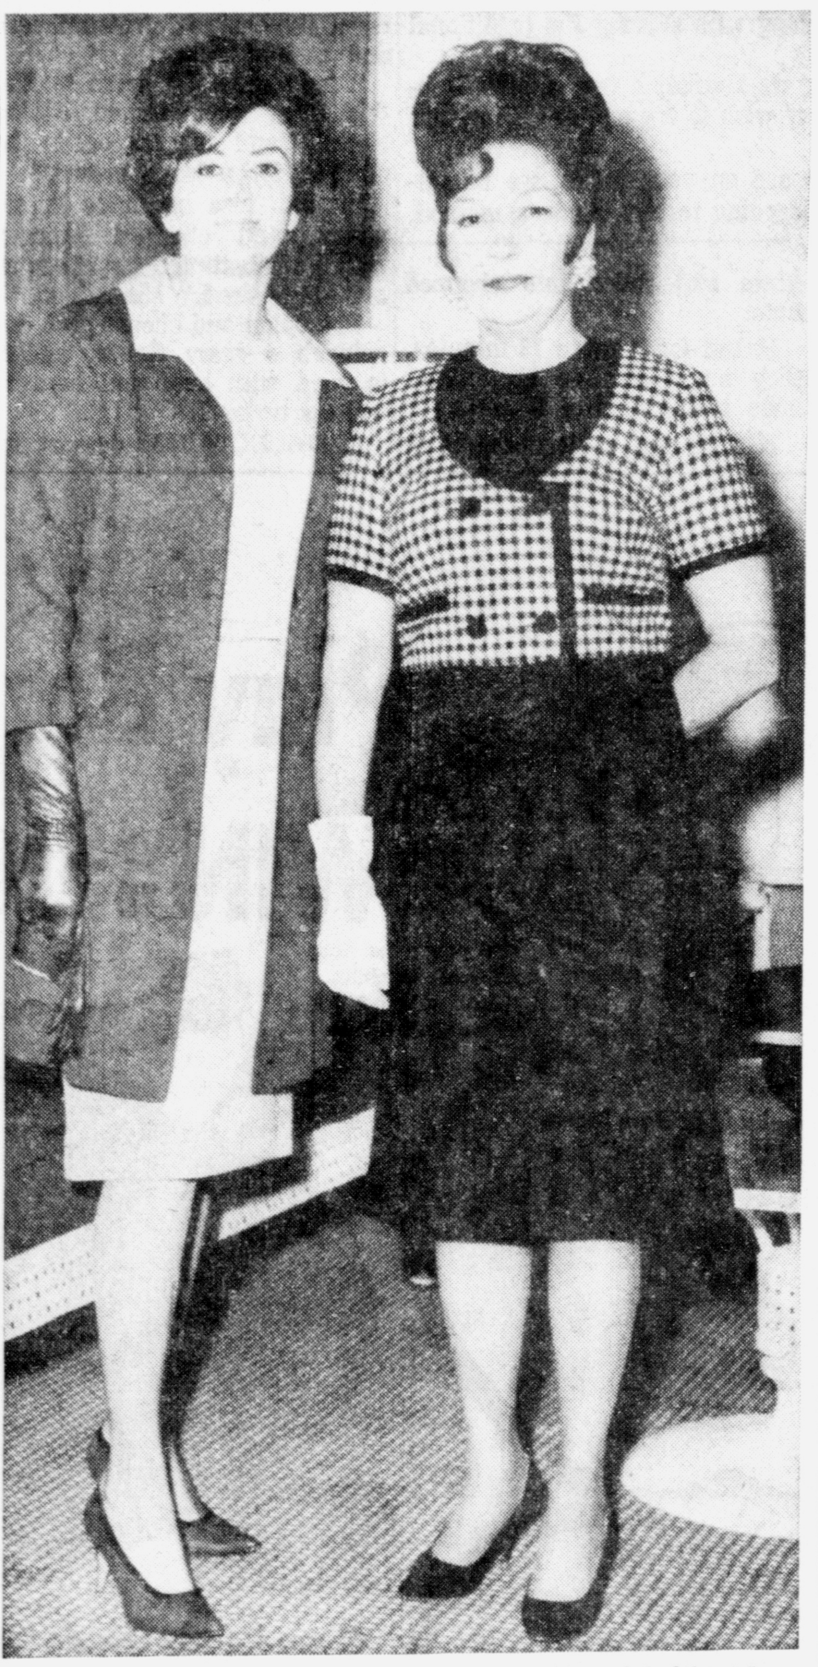
'Captivating Enchantment' Charms Luncheon Guests

PADDOCK PUBLICATIONS THURS., NOV. 18, 1965

Suburban Living

Especially for Women

ANTICIPATING the fashion show and luncheon presented last week by Prospect Heights Woman's Club were Mrs. James Hall and Mrs. William Boscamp, both of Prospect Heights. Proceeds of the affair, the ninth annual luncheon show given by the club, will go toward the Prospect Heights Library and other philanthropies of the club. Contrary to most fashion luncheons in which the show follows the luncheon, the show at this affair preceded the luncheon.



KNITTED ENSEMBLE in taupe and brown, modeled by Mrs. Donald R. Schmidt, and a black and white checked weskit over a black dress, modeled by Mrs. Lewis T. Smith, were two of the ensembles from the Cynthia Shoppe paraded in last week's "Captivating Enchantment." The luncheon show was sponsored by Prospect Heights Woman's Club and was held in Rolling Green Country Club.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS who worked on the Prospect Heights Woman's Club luncheon and fashion show, "Captivating Enchantment," included Mrs. Wayne Vanderhoof and Mrs. Donald McGowan. The affair was held Nov. 10 in Rolling Green Country Club where tables, in keeping with the theme, were decorated with bird cages holding greens and ornamental birds. (S

Engagements

Sharon Dutner

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Dutner of Hoffman Estates are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Lee, to John Crispino, son of the senior John Crispinos of Naperville, former Hoffman Estates residents.

Both young people are graduates of Palatine High School. Miss Dutner is now assistant bookkeeper at Allen Aircraft Radio Corp. in Elk Grove and Mr. Crispino is attending Bradley University.

The wedding is set for Jan. 29 in Prince of Peace Church in Hoffman Estates.

June Berube

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Berube of Highland Park announce the engagement of their daughter, June, to Robert Ptack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ptack of Hoffman Estates.

Miss Berube, a graduate of the University of Dayton, is now employed with United Air Lines at O'Hare Field in Passenger Service. Her fiance, also employed with United, will be finishing his education at the University of Illinois.

A September wedding is planned. (S

Bonita Hahn

Announcing the engagement of their daughter, Bonita Marie, to John M. Wulfram, son of Fred Wulfram of Chicago, are the Lawrence Hahns of Rolling Meadows.

Miss Hahn is a graduate of Arlington High School and Niles School of Nursing. She is presently employed by Northwest Community Hospital. Her fiance attended Lane Tech High School and the Illinois Institute of Technology. He is now stationed at Fort McPherson, Ga., and in January he will be discharged from the Army.

Diane Matis

A June wedding is planned by Miss Diane Matis and Ronald Seegers, whose engagement is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Matis of Hammond, Ind. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Seegers of Mount Prospect.

Miss Matis, a Spanish teacher at Morton High School, Hammond, was graduated from Valparaiso University where she was affiliated with Chi Sigma Xi Sorority.

Her fiance, a graduate student in geography at Western Illinois University, also has his degree from Valparaiso. He was a member of Sigma Pi Fraternity while there.

Mary Ann Jennings

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Jennings of 1708 Jonquil, Arlington Heights, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ann, to Daniel James Johnson of Peoria. His parents, the George Johnsons, are residents of Seattle.

Miss Jennings was graduated in August from St. Francis School of Nursing in Peoria, and the couple plan to be married next Jan. 15.

Antique Collectors Hear Talk

Members of Salt Creek Chapter of The Questers, organization of antique lovers and students, traveled to Park Ridge Tuesday to hear a lecture by Mrs. Russell Griess, lecturer, collector and teacher of antiques and floral art.

Mrs. Griess made several floral arrangements in antique containers and told of her collection of Staffordshire pot lids.

THE QUESTERS will hold their annual pot luck luncheon Dec. 14 at the home of Mrs. Robert Edwards, 150 Firth Road, Inverness. Each member will bring an antique or decorator item for the Christmas auction held among chapter members.

Salt Creek chapter includes women from Palatine, Arlington Heights, Barrington, Des Plaines, Park Ridge and other northwest suburban communities. It has 25 members. (S

GREETING GUESTS from his satin-padded "cage" was this white poodle puppy who had a role in "Captivating Enchantment," the luncheon and fashion show presented last week in Rolling Green Country Club by Prospect Heights Woman's Club. Admiring the puppy and his first hair cut were Mrs. Norman Earl and Mrs. William Caputo, both of Prospect Heights.

Sharon Smith, Now Mrs. James J. Peck

White flowers deocrated the altar of Palatine's First Methodist Church Oct. 30 for a double ring service in which Miss Sharon Smith, daughter of the Harlow H. Smiths, 114 N. Cedar, Palatine, became the bride of James J. Peck, son of the Clarence F. Pecks of Barrington. Rev. Wilbur M. Childress officiated at the 7 o'clock ceremony.

For her marriage the bride chose a white knit suit with corsage of white roses and carnations. She was given in marriage by her father.

Only attendant to the bride was the groom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Peck of Des Moines, who wore a turquoise mohair suit with corsage of white and turquoise carnations.

Frank Peck served his brother as best man and ushers were the bride's brother, Bill Smith, and her cousin, George Smith.

THE RECEPTION for 70 guests was held in the home of the bride's parents where Mrs. Smith received in an aqua blue suit and Mrs. Peck in a turquoise floral print dress. Both mothers chose white gardenia corsages.

The couple honeymooned for eight days in the north central states. The groom, an ET 3.C, has been in the Navy for two years and is presently stationed in Norfolk, Va. where his bride will soon join him.

The new Mrs. Peck was graduated from Palatine High School and is employed at Palatine Pastry Shop. The groom was graduated from Barrington High School. (S

Benefit Scheduled For Indian Center

A Thanksgiving benefit for the American Indian Center in Chicago will be held this evening at Pioneer Park, 500 S. Fernandez, Arlington Heights.

The program will begin at 8 p.m. There is no admission charge, but guests are asked to bring canned goods to be donated to the Indian Center.

FEATURED ON the evening's program will be a group of about 12 American Indian dancers and a singer.

Greg and Lizbee Oster, members of Children of the American Revolution, the oldest children's patriotic organization in the United States, will perform "How Betsy Made the Flag," a minuet and a mazurka.

The Nancy Gardner Dancers of McHenry, Ill., will dance three numbers, an authentic Hawaiian dance, a modern jazz number and one entitled "Hello Dolly!"

ALL PERFORMERS will be costumed.

Richard D. Poweshiek, program director of the American Indian Center, which is owned and operated by the Indians themselves, will be present. Jewelry, handicraft and Christmas cards made by the Indians will be for sale.

This evening's benefit was arranged by Mrs. James Brown of Arlington Heights and her fellow worker at the Jewel Tea Co. in Barrington, Mrs. Ardeth Ellis.

Theme of the event is "Let's Share Another Thanksgiving with the Indians." (S

Treat Grease Spills On Carpet Quickly

On the practical side of your holiday or special celebration feasts, be sure to keep in mind the greasy types of foods which might be spilled on your rugs and carpets.

A few drops of gravy, turkey drippings or mincemeat pie can cause unsightly stains on your carpeting unless fast action is taken.

Although such stains will be the basis of the problem, they will also cause more rapid soiling in the affected areas as dirt will cling to the greasy parts.

HERE ARE some tips on handling such special mealtime accidents:

First, wipe up the excess with white absorbent material. For extra greasy spills use small amounts of a dry cleaning fluid, blotting after each application with white absorbent material.

Mix a solution of one teaspoon neutral detergent to one-half pint of lukewarm water. Apply in small amounts, blotting after each application.

After you have removed the stain, place a one-quarter inch layer of white absorbent material over the area and weight down with books for six to eight hours.

DONE CORRECTLY, your own immediate treatment will probably remove the stain. But, if your rug is prone to receiving regular spills, you should not overlook professional cleaning. This will give the rug an even cleaning without emphasizing areas that have been spot cleaned. (S

Newcomers' Dinner Dance Is Dec. 4

Arlington Heights Newcomers Club will open the holiday season with a Christmas dinner dance, "The Balle-de-Noel," on Saturday, Dec. 4, at the Elks Club, Wilke Road, Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Lou Runge, chairman, promises a gay evening, with cocktails beginning at 6:30 p.m., followed by a sit-down dinner at 7:30 and dancing later to the music of Jerry Dittman.

Decorations, being made by Mrs. Bill Flynn and her committee, will be traditional Christmas with a touch of Paris. Dress is semi-formal. Ticket information is available from Mrs. Warren Clements, 392-2845.

Newcomers with less than 18 months residency in the Arlington Heights area are invited to attend a luncheon or an evening meeting. Membership chairman Mrs. Walter Donahue may be called at 392-9198 for details. (S

Old Orchard Becomes a Winter Wonderland of Fashion

TWO VERSIONS of the multicolor crocheted sweater were modeled by Mrs. Wayne L. Wilkins of Palatine and Mrs. Lawrence Fontana of Arlington Heights at "Winter Wonderland" fashion show Nov. 9. Sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of Arlington Heights Elks, the affair also included a luncheon in Old Orchard Country Club. Fashions were from the Lorraine-Anne Shop in Arlington Heights.

MATCHING CAMEL orlon and mohair cardigan and wool slim line skirt was the first ensemble modeled by Mrs. William Flinn of Arlington Heights, while Mrs. Claude Daley Jr., also of Arlington Heights was in a cranberry wool 2-piece knit suit in last week's "Winter Wonderland" fashion show. Fashions for the show were from Lorraine-Anne Shop of Arlington Heights.

GUESTS AT LAST week's "Winter Wonderland" luncheon and fashion show at Old Orchard Country Club included Mrs. James B. Murphy of Arlington Heights and her sister, Mrs. William Butterbaugh, also of Arlington Heights. Presenting the luncheon and show were members of the Ladies Auxiliary of Arlington Heights Elks Lodge 2048.

Office Opened By Electrologist

Useful items to be distributed to needy children in Chicago at Christmastime will be made at a workshop of the Women's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd at its regular meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Kenneth Van Cura, chairman of the Christian Service Committee, which is planning the project, said it will not take "too much talent."

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Dennis McGarrity, Mrs. Allan Lindsay, Mrs. Tom Brannan and Mrs. John Loprieno.

CHURCH MEMBERS are reminded to bring clean used clothing and used toys to church this coming Sunday and again Sunday, Nov. 28. Articles also may be brought to the church during the week. These will be picked up by the West Side Christian Parish in Chicago and used for needy youngsters in the area served by that parish.

Another project of the Women's Guild this fall has been the making of cancer dressings. Women are asked to save old sheets, shirts and other white materials to be used in making the dressings. A group meets at the church every other Thursday at 1 p.m. to work on them. More information may be had by calling Jane Harris, 437-0162. (S

Dolores Thon Selects Wedding Bouquets from Family Garden

A recent Arlington Heights bride, Dolores Marie Thon, personally selected all of the flowers for her wedding, taking them from the Arthur L. Thons' chrysanthemum display gardens on Golf Road. The family resides at 25 W. Golf. Her bridegroom is Carl Eugene Martin, son of the Alvin Martins of Terre Hill, Pa.

Their marriage took place Oct. 9 at 5:30 in the afternoon in St. Peter Lutheran Church, Arlington Heights, and was followed by a dinner reception for 60 guests in the church hall. Later the wedding cake was cut and gifts were opened in the Thon home.

THE YELLOW mums which graced the church altar for the double ring rites were combined with white glads, and all of the girls in the wedding party carried mums which ranged from yellow to bronze in shades.

Picking her own bouquet, the bride chose a cascade of white Raggedy Ann mums with ivy. For "something borrowed" she carried the same handkerchief as her mother did on her wedding day.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of silk organza and imported French chantilly lace, the basque bodice with sabrina neckline trimmed with seed pearls and sequins. The bouffant skirt, ending in a chapel train, had a cut-away front with a lace edge. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a Juliet crown of seed pearls and crystal beads set on chantilly lace.

REV. ROBERT O. BARTZ officiated at the ceremony, and the St. Peter adult choir sang "Wither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer."

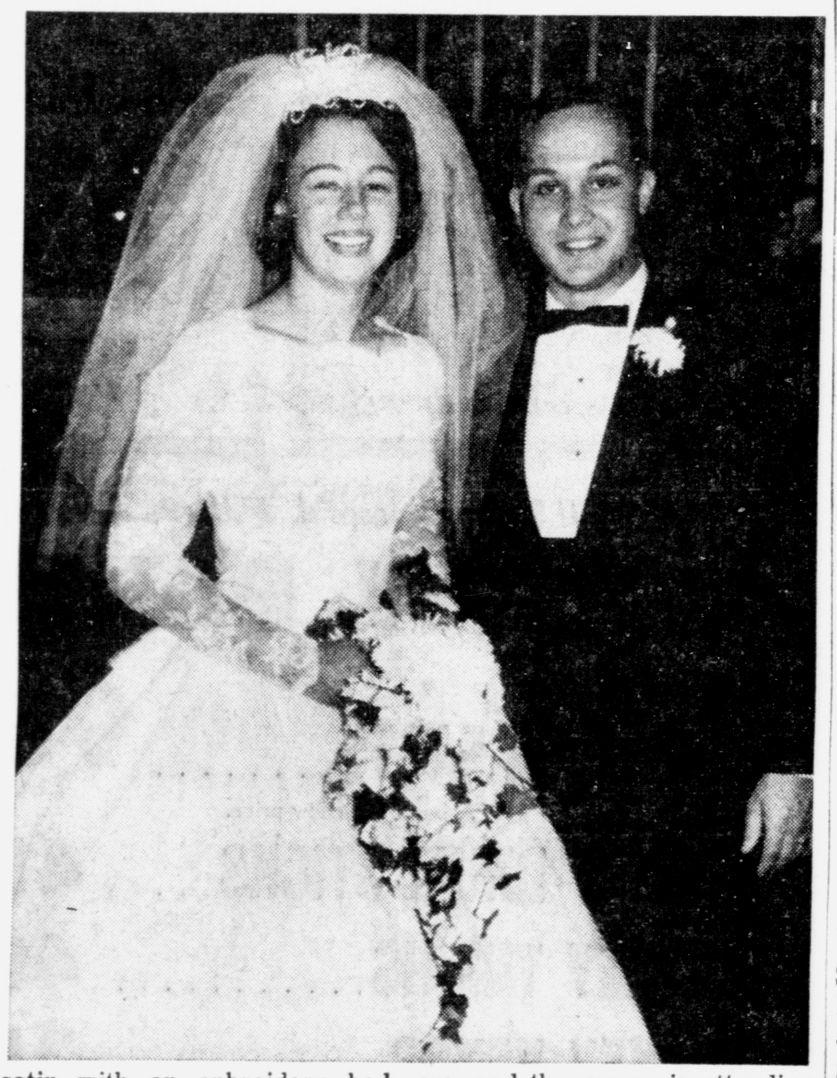
The bridal attendants carried yellow and bronze mums to accent their gold dresses. Maid of honor Kathy Clark of Denver wore a floor-length deep gold shantastic with a bell skirt and fitted bodice, complemented by an empire jacket of white Venice lace, a matching headpiece and white opera gloves. Her bouquet was composed of light and dark bronze mums with ivy.

THE TWO bridesmaids, Lois Hetke and Sharon Clark of Arlington Heights, carried bronze and yellow mums with ivy, complementing their light gold shantastic dresses.

Also wearing light gold was the flower girl, Carol Thon of Arlington Heights, 6, who is a niece of the bride. She carried a natural colored wicker basket of bronze and yellow mums.

All of the attendants' gowns were designed by the bride.

Paul Stauffer of Lititz, Pa., was his friend's best man, and seating the guests were Kenneth and Clifford Martin, brothers of the groom, and Dick Kaufmann of Hutchinson, Kan.



WITNESSING her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Thon wore an ocean blue dress of crystal satin with an enbroidery bodice, gold accessories and a corsage of yellow mums. Mrs. Martin chose a royal blue shantung dress with black accessories and a bronze mum corsage.

The bride is an Arlington High School graduate and a former United Air Lines stewardess, and the groom is attending the University of Colorado while working for Walt Flanagan & Co. in Denver. They are residing at 2855 Quebec St.

Their 2-week honeymoon was spent in Hawaii, with a week at Waikiki and the remainder of the time touring the outer islands.

Linda Bartz, Michael Hasley Are Showered with Carnations

Not only the traditional rice, but also carnations, were showered on Linda Bartz and her bridegroom, Michael Hasley, as they left Palatine's Immanuel Lutheran Church following their Oct. 23 wedding. Pastor Splitgerber officiated at the 4:30 p.m., double ring service, in a setting of white fuji mums and pompons.

The bride is the daughter of the Edwin C. Bartzes of Dundee Road, Palatine, and the grom is the son of the M.L. Hasleys, former Palatine residents now residing in Monroe, Wis.

The bride's choice in wedding gown was a long-sleeved sheath of re-embroidered Alencon lace with full cathedral train of bouquet taffeta attached to a wide cummerbund. Her matching bouffant fingertip veil was of French illusion, and she carried a cascade of phalaenopsis, stephanotis and ivy. She was given in marriage by her father.

A COUSIN OF the bride, Sandra Nowobilski of Glenview, served as the bride's maid of honor and bridesmaids were the bride's aunt, Nikki Bartz of Niles, another cousin, Nancy Elsner of Des Plaines, and Pamela Graham of Mount Prospect and Charlene Kaiser of Palatine.

Their floor-length gowns were fashioned along empire princess lines with avocado velveteen bodices and back streamers and crepe skirts in vanilla with Venice lace trim marking the high waistlines. Their cascade bouquets were of fuji mums, bronze poms and croton leaves. Buff daisy poms were added to the maid of honor's bouquet.

Also in the wedding party were two flower girls, 6-year-old twins, Teri and Charm Vartanian of Palatine, who were gowned like the bridesmaids.

Roland Chidley of Palatine was the groom's best man and ushers were the bride's uncle, Dick Bartz of Niles, Bob McWilliams and Ray McCaskey of Palatine and Pat Hasley, brother of the groom from Monroe. Lighting the candles was Frank Kaiser Jr.

Following the service, a buffet dinner was served to 375 guests in Carpenter's Hall, Des Plaines. The bride's cousin, Jim Bestmann, and his orchestra provided the dance music.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bartz chose a 2-piece aqua lace dress with white orchid corsage. Mrs. Hasley's choice was a 2-piece beige brocade with white orchid corsage.

The newlyweds honeymooned for a week in Miami and are now residing at 169 E. Chicago Ave., Palatine. Both were graduated from Palatine Township High School. The new Mrs. Hasley was also graduated from the American School of Beauty Culture in Chicago and is now with Boutique Coiffures in Mount Prospect. The groom attended Northern Illinois and LaCrosse State Universities and is now with Illinois Bell Telephone.

WHEELING VILLAGE President Ted Scanlon and Chief of Police M. Horcher enjoyed a chat with Mrs. John Koeppen, president of Wheeling Junior Woman's Club, Mrs. Raymond Olson, the club's ways and means chairman, and Mrs. Walter Diens, village clerk at the recent 10th Anniversary Ball sponsored by the Juniors. A dinner affair, the ball was held in the Glenview CPO Club. (S

Denver Romance, Prelude To Wedding in Arlington

A romance that began in Denver when the bride was based there as a United Air Lines stewardess, and the groom, an Air Force lieutenant, was attending Intelligence School, culminated in marriage Oct. 16 for Carol Ann Weiser and Lester Ware Rooker.

The bride, an Arlington Heights girl, is the daughter of the F. Walter Weisers, 1021 N. Illinois Ave., and the groom is the son of Mrs. Grace Rooker of Meridian, Miss.

Scene of the wedding was St. Simon's Episcopal Church in Arlington Heights where Rev. Samuel N. Keys performed the nuptials in a setting of yellow mums accented with rust mums. A double ring service, the ceremony took place at 11 a.m.

The bride was escorted by her father and wore a floor-length gown with train of off-white satin trimmed with matching lace and seed pearls. Her veil, also off-white, was held in place with a crown trimmed [illegible] carried a bouquet of white roses and [illegible]

THE BRIDE'S sister, Mrs. Andrew M. Toth of Arlington Heights served as Carol's only attendant. Her gown was in avocado velvet fashioned with long skirt and empire waist, and she carried yellow mums with accents of bittersweet.

The bride's mother chose a 3-piece dress of pale rust with matching lace blouse and cymbidium corsage of blending color. The groom's mother was in a raspberry dress with cream colored bymbidiums.

Best man to the groom was his uncle, Richard Allen Hill of Jackson, Miss., and ushers were the bride's brother-in-law, Andrew M. Toth of Arlington Heights, and P. Porcher Gregg, brother-in-law of the groom from Virginia Beach.

A wedding breakfast was served to the family and a few close friends in Old Orchard Country Club before the newlyweds left on a 2-week wedding trip to Mississippi, South Carolina and Florida. The couple is now residing in Tampa where the groom is stationed at McDill Air Force Base.

The new Mrs. Rooker was graduated from Arlington High School and also studied at the University of Illinois and Moser Secretarial College. The groom is a graduate of Mississippi State University.

Sue Heilig Elected As Honored Queen

Miss Sue Heilig, 730 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights, was elected honored queen of Bethel 103, Job's Daughters, Arlington Heights, when the group met Nov. 10. Elected as senior princess was Miss Debbie Deehring, 502 S Patton, Arlington Heights. Miss Vicki Slater, 406 W. Fremont, was elected junior princess, and Miss Janet Montgomery, 561 E. Elk Grove Blvd., Elk Grove Village was elected as guide. Marshal is Miss Terri Sanderson, 1807 N Kaspar, Arlington Heights.

Officers and other appointed officers will be installed Saturday, Deu. 4, in a 7:30 p.m. ceremony in Arlington Heights Masonic Temple.

MEMBERS OF THE Bethel have been invited to form an escort Saturday, Nov. 20, at the Temple for the installation of Joseph Meisl of Rolling Meadows as worship master of Arlington Heights Masonic Lodge 1162 AF and AM. Mr. Meisl also serves as associate guardian of the bethel.

Next meeting of the group will be Tuesday, Nov. 23, instead of the regularly scheduled Wednesday meeting. (S

Hair Care, Wigs Are Topic of 'Y' Women

A hairdressing and wig show, highlighted by live models, will entertain the YMCA Women's Auxiliary at 12:30 p.m. Nov. 30 for a luncheon meeting.

Ray Raines, owner of the Beauty Bar in Arlington Heights, who has devoted his life to making milady more beautiful, says hair care and styling at the "Bar" and in the home is of great importance. "Women have discovered the delight and convenience of owning wigs," says Mr. Raines, "So great care should be taken in the selection of wigs and hairpieces." New fall and winter hair styles will also be modeled.

MR. RAINES is a past president of the Hairdressers Asoication of Chicago.

The 'Y' Auxiliary meeting will conclude in time for mothers to meet school schedules. Luncheon tickets include baby-sitting service.

Mrs. John Gobeille, CL 5-8410, or Mrs. E. Ogier, 358-6430, should be called for reservations. (S

AN ARLINGTON HEIGHTS couple, Marilyn B. Colburn and Philip M. Smith, were recently married in Our Lady of the Wayside Church and are now living in Mount Prospect. The bride's parents are the Harry W. Colburns of 535 Burton Place, and the groom is the son of the Philip A. Smiths of 833 S. Beverly. A reception at Biltmore Country Club followed the rites, and the newlyweds honeymooned in California.

BRIGHT COLORED BROOMS will be among the hundreds of handmade gifts on sale today, Nov. 18, when the Service League of Lake Bluff Children's Home holds its annual pre-Christmas "Little Sale" and lunch. Proceeds will go to the Home's clothing fund. Mrs. Richard Bronwell and Mrs. Herbert Cornelius, both of Arlington Heights, admire some of the colorful brooms. The sale is being held in the Park Ridge home of Mrs. Russell J. Gustafson. (S

Dolores Mantey and Groom Honeymoon on West Coast

After a 2-week honeymoon flight to San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. John Luberda are residing in Mount Prospect. The bride is the former Dolores Mantey, daughter of the Henry Manteys of Prairie View, and the groom is the son of the William Ghionzolis of Des Plaines.

Their wedding took place at 3 p.m. Oct. 16 in Our Lady of Hope Church in Des Plaines with Rev. John Dewes officiating.

For her marriage the bride chose a white satin, floor-length gown with appliques of Alencon lace on the bodice. The appliques also trimmed the center front of the gown and extended to the floor and around the chapel train. Her silk illusion veil was held in place with an aurora borealis crown. Her cascascade was of phalaenopsis, stephanotis and white glitter wheat.

MRS. LILLIAN Koch served the bride as matron of honor and bridesmatrons were Mrs. Jacqueline Knox and Mrs. Diane Lippeth. All wore sleeveless gold brocade gowns fashioned with controlled floor-length skirts. Their headpieces were fashioned into cabbage roses and they carried rust pompons and yellow fuji mums in a cascade design.

Keith Burmeister was the groom's best man and ushers were William Koser and Spencer Koch.

The reception was held in the Lake Zurich Legion Hall where Mrs. Mantey received the 250 guests in a gold and moss green brocade jacket dress with moss green accessories. Her flowers were green cymbidiums. Mrs. Ghionzoli chose a delphinium blue sleeveless sheath with beaded bodice, white and navy accessories and a corsage of white cymbidiums.

Both young people are employed by Commonwealth Edison Co. (S

'Holiday Belles Benefit' Set by Long Grove Women

Long Grove Country Club will be a busy place Dec. 6 when Long Grove Committee for Family Guidance takes it over for an annual "Holiday Belles Benefit," one of several fund-raising events to make facilities of Family Service of South Lake County available to residents of Long Grove.

General chairman Mrs. Robert Riley and her committee are offering a varied program for the day.

A BAZAAR, featuring an assortment of Christmas decorations and gifts, will open to the public from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. On sale will be artificial Christmas trees, wreaths, door swags, table centerpieces, tree ornaments, candles and other gifts —all handmade or hand-decorated by the workshop committee headel by Mrs. Charles Parson, Mrs. Henry Henricks, and Mrs. Guy Reed.

Mrs. Andrew Sim's committee will bring the holiday spirit of the bazaar into the club dining rooms by using gift items to decorate tables at the brunch and fashion show in early afternoon.

Admission to the brunch and show is by advance ticket only, and reservations close Dec. 1. Mrs. Whitford J. Kuhn, 438-7206, has tickets; Mrs. E. Klemeyer, 438-6557, is in charge of table reservations.

MRS. ROSEMARIE Choms will present fashions from the Point of View shops of Long Grove and Glenview after brunch. Show chairman is Mrs. Glenn Miller; programs are in charge of Mrs. Robert Hill and Mrs. Heinz Loeffler.

Bridge will close the afternoon activities for those who wish to stay. Mrs. Henry Herrick is card chairman. (S

Marcella Sauerland, Bride Of Francis William Weber

Large blue and white mums from her own flower shop filled baskets on the altar of Our Lady of the Wayside Church in Arlington Heights Oct. 30, when Mrs. Marcella Schafter Sauerland, 432 S. State Road, Arlington Heights, became the bride of Francis William Weber, 7 N. Vail, Arlington Heights. Mums and poms for the reception also came from the Sauerland Shop in Arlington Heights as did the bride's bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis and her daughter's bouquet of white carnations and pink roses. Her daughter, Karen, served as her mother's only attendant.

Artificial flowers, also from the shop, decorated the bridal car.

For her marriage Mrs. Sauerland chose a French blue peau de soie street-length sheath gown with blue lace bodice, and a headpiece of blue netting with blue bows. Karen was in a hot pink crepe sheath with hot pink lace overdress.

THE GROOM'S brother, Edward Weber of Arlington Heights, served as best man.

The recetion for 75 guests was held at Gunnell's Restaurant in Mount Prospect after which the newlyweds left on a week's wedding trip to Louisville and a visit with the bride's parents in Newton on the return trip.

Since Nov. 6, the newlyweds have been at home at 432 S. State Road, Arlington Heights. The bride, a widow, has three children, a married son, Keith, 22, Karen, 18, and Mark, 15. The groom, a widower, has a son, Michael, 9. Mr. Weber is with Arlington Heights Entertainers, Arlington Heights.

Celia Close and Groom Make Home in Sandburg Village

Now making their home in the Carl Sandburg Village in Chicago are newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Edward Wolf, who were married Oct. 16 in Arlington Heights Methodist Church. The bride is the former Celia Ann Close, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Close, 534 Bristol Lane, Arlington Heights, and the groom is the son of the Edwin E. Wolfs of Bonduel, Wis.

Officiating at the double ring service was Dr. Birger Dahl, former pastor of the Arlington church, who is now pastor of the Aurora Methodist Church. Decorating the altar were two bouquets of large mums and glads.

Ivory satin was the choice of the bride for her wedding gown. An empire waist, trumpet sleeves and seed pearl detail were features of the gown. Her head dress was a waist-length mantilla of silk illusion edged with a wide band of Alencon lace, and orchids, plumeria, stephanotis, smilax and ivy made up her bridal bouquet. Mr. Close gave his daughter in marriage.

MISS LINDA CLOSE served as her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Sheila Breen of Chicago, Diane Dailey of New York and Evelyn Murphy of Washington, D. C. All wore identical gowns of turquoise with velvet empire bodices in deep turquoise and crepe skirts in a lighter shade. Their cascade bouquets were purple asters in varying shades of purple with blue delphinium, cornflowers and smilax.

The groom's best man was his brother, Gary of Bonduel, and ushers were Glenn Archibald of Chicago, Richard Hurd of St. Louis and Charles Close of Arlington Heights, brother of the bride.

The reception for 150 guests was held in the Pantry in Park Ridge where Mrs. Close received in a gold and turquoise floor-length gown and Mrs. Wolf in a floor-length gown with green velvet bodice and green satin skirt. Both had corsages of cymbidiums.

The bride is a 1958 graduate of Arlington High School. She also studied at the University of Colorado and is now with Shield Products in Chicago. The groom was graduated from Lawrence University and is now with United States Printing and Lith.

The couple honeymooned at Lake of the Ozarks. (S

Wide Categories in Reading Offered at AAUW Book Fair

Where can bargain-minded readers locate used encyclopedia sets, priced at a fraction of their original cost? Text books in sundry categories? Fiction of all kinds, in hard and paper back editions? Children's books for little more than pennies? Early editions, possibly collector's items, on virtually every subject? How-to-do-it books, from carpentry to cooking? Sheet music and records, including vintage 78's and current stereo 33-1/3 r.p.m.'s?

Volumes covering such a practically unlimited range of subjects, categories and forms will be available at the Used Book Fair sponsored by the Arlington Heights branch of the American Association of University Women Friday and Saturday, Nov. 19 and 20, at the Randhurst Shopping Center. Mrs. F. N. Palmatier, Book Fair chairman, announces that Book Fair hours Friday will be 9 a.m. until 9:30 p.m., Saturday 9 a.m. until 6 p.m.

AN IMPORTANT function of the Used Book Fair is the encouragement of reading as a wholesome and stimulating activity. The Used Book Fair keeps books in circulation which otherwise might be gathering dust in their donors' attics.

According to Mrs. Dan Farris, proceeds from the Used Fair will be directed toward the AAUW Fellowships Program, the largest and oldest such program exclusively for women in the Unitted States. The Fellowships Program now provides more than 100 graduate fellowships annually to American women and women from other countries.

AAUW members and branches contribute more than $400,000 a year toward these fellowships. One such fund-raising project is the Used Book Fair, through which the Arlington Heights branch hopes to top its record 1964-65 fellowships contribution of over $500.

Final plans for the Used Book Fair were discussed at the Arlington Heights AAUW Nov. 11 general meeting, at which Mrs. Leon Lamet, legislative chairman and revenue study chairman of Illinois AAUW, was guest speaker. Mrs. Lamet discussed highlights of the recent Illinois state legislature which reflected particular AAUW interests and stressed the importance of women's influence on legislation. (S

Linda is a student at Sacred Heart of Mary High School in Rolling Meadows.

Pre-Schoolers, Topic of Study

In the discussion that Mrs. Rhoda Allen of Fox Valley Mental Health Association led at the November meeting of Barrington Child Study Group, she stressed many ideas helpful to mothers of pre-schoolers. Speaking on "Ages and Stages of Child Development," Mrs. Allen suggested that a child should be allowed the joy of discovery — an essential element for a creative mind.

Other points covered dealt with questions on death, discipline and preparation for a new baby.

Following the "give and take" discussion, Mrs. James Herrlin gave a treasurer's report and refreshments were served by Mrs. Edward Hardy and her committee. (S

Cast Selected for VT Children's Play

Village Theatre's children's play, "Greensleeves' Magic," has been cast by director Harriet Smith and will be presented on Dec. 11 and 12 at Prospect High School, Mount Prospect.

The "Greensleeves" cast includes such VT notables as John Lobenhofer in the role of the good king and Dorothy Watkins as his daughter the Princess. The evil Grand Duchess will be portrayed by veteran Shirley Freeman, and the Queen by Janet Hausler.

David Breitsprecher returns to the VT stage in the comic role of Fitzsneeze, the Grand Duchess's Prime Minister.

SEVERAL TALENTED teenagers are part of the "Greensleeves" cast. Grensleeves himself, the ageless proponent of the theory that everybody has a right to be happy, will be played by Wendy Gell. Bonnie Luster and Linda Randolph have the roles of two of the three lovely Princesses. Hank Silver, Jack Christiansen and Dan Kelsey will play three strong young men.

There will be two "Greensleeves" performances at 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. both days. Tickets are available through box office chairman Alice Linde: phone CL 9-3200, 9 to noon weekdays, 7 to 9 p.m. Mondays and Tuesdays. Tickets also will be on sale at the high school box office before all performances. (Bill

PETER LAWFORD, Carroll Baker and Raf Valone recreate the marriage of Jean Harlow to Hollywood executive Paul Bern in "Harlow," opening tomorrow (Friday) at the Randhurst Cinema. On the same program are Richard Widmark and James Stewart in "Cheyenne Autumn."

Lyric Closes Fall Season with 'Aida'

Northwest Chapter of Lyric Opera will close its fall series of operatic interludes with Verdi's "Aida," produced by Kay Nighorn.

The program will be held today (Thursday) at 1:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Louis Gross, 1014 Blackburn Drive, Inverness. Assisting her will be Mrs. Gerald Fitzgerald, Mrs. Edwin Bruning, Mrs. Thomas Blake and Mrs. Frank Seery.

It was an aria from "Aida" that Kay Nighorn sang when she won the soprano division at the Chicago Musicland Festival, sponsored by the Chicago Tribune. She studied at both the American Conservatory and the Chicago Conservatory of Music. It was at the latter school that she concentrated on operatic scores, studying with Eucibio Concialdi.

The part of the young Egyptian warrior, Ra Dames, will be sung by David Borgeson, a dramatic tenor from Prospect Heights. He is a graduate of Wittenburg University, and also studied at the American Conservatory of Music with Theodore Harrison and with Robert Lang at Roosevelt College. He is currently studying with Edwin Kemp at the American Conservatory. Borgeson is a soloist at the North Shore Methodist Church in Glencoe.

THE TRIANGULAR love plot is completed with Amneris, the Egyptian soverign's daughter. She will be Betty Stroh, who earlier sang in "Madame Butterfly." Mrs. Stroh has studied with Alexander Grant at the University of Colorado School of Music, and is now with Maude Beard in Barrington. She is the alto soloist at the Salem Church and a member of the Barrington Women's Chorus.

Lorraine Spiller of Barrington will be the narrator. She is also a graduate of the American Conservatory, having studied with Silvio Insano. Miriam Stieger, who has been the pianist in other chapter productions, will be the accompanist.

For this performance, the arias will be sung either in Italian or English. The costumes were designed and made by Mrs. Nighorn and Mrs. Stroh. (Bill

‘Sunday in New York’

M&S Play Well Paced

by JOAN LORENSON
Staff Writer

Any cook knows a frothy whip can be ruined if it is allowed to settle.

Masque and Staff, Elk Grove Village community theatre group, kept the froth of a play, “Sunday in New York,” light and flippant under the direction of Shirley Johnson.

An appreciative audience at Dempster Junior High School Friday and Saturday nights laughed their way through a well paced comedy.

“SUNDAY IN New York” by Norman Krasna tells of a 25-year-old woman visiting her bachelor brother in New York City. In the two days span of the play she meets a young man on a Fifth Avenue bus and finds herself with him in a compromising situation in her brother’s apartment.

The problem is complicated when her boy friend from Albany makes a surprising appearance and proposes to her, unaware the young man in the apartment is not her brother.

Liz Romero as Eileen, the young woman, obviously was much more comfortable with this role than she was with that of Laura in “The Glass Menagerie” last season. The first scenes seemed somewhat awkward for her but once past them, she developed believable characterization. He movements were natural results of the situations in which she found herself.

GUY MARSH AS Mike Mitchell, the young man giving Eileen all her problems, gave a quietly convincing performance. Perhaps not the extrovert the playwright described, he managed to make the cliched lines not only bearable but funny. His agitation after being found in a bathrobe by Eileen’s suitor showed touches of excellent pantomime.

The bon vivant with his boyish exuberance came through in Jim Spahr’s portrayal of Russell Wilson, the boy friend.

Wally Meyer as Adam Taylor handled his role as big brother with overall ease. His performance notably improved after the first act.

THE TWO minor characters, around whom many of the changes were made, served as stereotypes that evoked audience laughter. However, the characterization of the waiter in the Longchamps Restaurant was overdrawn in poor taste. A check with the original play shows this same jarring note apparent in the 1961 production.

The set was tastefully done and served as backdrop for a variety of scenes. Criticism of the use of the couch as the Fifth Avenue bus, the restaurant settings, the movie theatre and a car would have to be directed at the playwright. Krasna wrote this specifically as the way to handle the scene. The use of the couch as a bus really strained an audience’s imagination and introduced a note of slapstick that seemed out of place. One can only say the set followed Krasna’s direction.

Lighting and sound effects were well done. The mechanical effects particularly showed ingenuity.

ONE MAN AT intermission commented he saw some truth in the problem of morality the play posed. Perhaps a playgoer could skim off some scant meaning.

Masque and Staff managed a slickly done bedroom farce, making it the entertainment it was meant to be. (Bill

Drinking Thieves

Thieves escaped with $84,000 in liquor from a London, England, warehouse. It was a long, hard job for them and they stopped at times and drank bottles — of milk.

PRACTICING FOR the forthcoming show of the Wood Dale chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America are The Impossibles, Wood Dale chapter’s newest registered quartet. Members are Bert Hansen, tenor, left, of Elmhurst; Gene Burmeister, lead, of Bensenville; Bill Palmer, bass, and Bill Miller, baritone, both of Elmhurst. (Bill

Barber Shop Group Plans First Show This Saturday

Wood Dale chapter of the Society for the Presefvation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America (SPEBSQSA) will hold its first show Saturday evening at Indian Trail Junior High School in Addison.

The festivities will be held at 8:15 p.m. in the school auditorium, Kennedy Drive and Army Trail Road, across from Green Meadow Shopping Center.

Featured in the show, entitled “Night of Old Songs,” will be the Countryside Chorus, several quartets and an all-girl quartet from Harmony, Inc.

THE QUARTETS are The Duffers from the Skokie chapter, The Windy City Four from the North Shore chapter, The Impossibles from the Wood Dale chapter and the Scale Blazers of Harmony, Inc.

Terry Pettijohn, a young banjo player from Bensenville, also will appear on the program.

Tickets may be obtained from Syl Wetle, 421 Gilbert Drive, Wood Dale, telephone 766-1050, or from any member of the Wood Dale SPEBSQSA chapter. Tickets also will be available at the box office the night of the performance from 7 o’clock to show time. (Bill

‘Ipcress File’ to Open at Golf Mill

“The Ipcress File,” produced by Harry Saltzman, who produced the James Bond thrillers, opens at the Golf Mill Theatre tomorrow (Friday) for an exclusive limited run engagement.

Newsweek magazine hailed “The Ipcress File” as “a thinking man’s ‘Goldfinger,’ funnier by far than any of the Bond films and more rewarding, too!” Time magazine said, “Ipcress proves again that one of the primal pleasures of movie-going is a tingling, no nonsense suspense yarn enlivened by honest good humor!”

The Saturday matinee children’s show, “The Man from Button Willow,” will be preceded by a Three Stooges comedy festival. Theatre opens at 12:30 and program starts at 1:30 ending at 4 p.m. (Bill

Add Series of Youth Concerts

By popular demand, The Orchestral Association will inaugurate an additional series of three youth concerts Dec. 7 at Orchestra Hall, Irwin Hoffman conducting.

The concerts will take place at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesdays, Dec. 7, Feb. 1 and April 19 of the current season. They will precede the 3 o’clock performance of the “C” series on the same day. The programs of this “D” series will be identical to the A, B and C, series.

Subscription information for the new series is available from the symphony office, 220 S. Michigan, 427-0362.

Lynn Williams to Speak at Salt Box

Lynn A. Williams, founder and president of an Elk Grove Village industrial firm and unsuccessful Congressional candidate, will lead a “dialogue”, 8 p.m. to midnight Saturday at the Salt Box, 1200 Landmeier Road.

The Salt Box is a coffee house recently opened by a group of people interested in having a place where stimulating conversation could be encouraged.

Williams will use as his material a speech he presented to a pastors’ retreat of the Church Federation of Greater Chicago.

IN HIS SPEECH, he charged the church with having no noticeable influence in any major temporal happening in the last 50 years. He will describe how the church has had little influence in the ending of the two great world wars, on the growth of communism or the ending of colonial empires.

Science has come to replace religion as a way of understanding daily encounters with nature and as a way of dealing with it, Williams will tell his audience.

He is expected to make his evaluation of what the role of a church should be as a layman sees it. (Bill

May Buy Tickets To Ballet Film

Advance tickets for “An Evening with the Royal Ballet,” starring Margot Fonteyn and Rudolph Nureyev, are on sale at the Randhurst Cinema box office.

The ballet film is scheduled for Dec. 1 and 2 at the Cinema. Performance times both days are 2:15 p.m. for the matinee and 8:15 for the evening. There will be a special students and teachers matinee at 4 p.m. Dec. 1.

In addition to individual tickets, the theatre will handle special arrangements for group sales. Tickets also may be obtained by mail: an alternate date or performance should be listed. Call the theatre for further information. (Bill

ELVIS PRESLEY is involved in two romantic entanglements, one with Mary Ann Mobley, left, and the other with Fran Jeffries, in "Harum Scarum," a comedy-drama with an Arabian Nights setting. It starts tomorrow (Friday) at the Mount Prospect Cinema with the stock car racing thriller, "Red Line 7000," co-featured.

Makes Debut In 'Arsenic'

PENNY WERHANE

JUDY GLAZER

One of the stars of Capri Players' upcoming production of "Arsenic and Old Lace" will be making her little theatre debut in the play.

Penny Werhane of Des Plaines, who plays Abby, is the newcomer to footlights. She is employed at General Telephone Directory Co. in Des Plaines.

Martha, the other beloved old woman of "Arsenic," is being played by Judy Glazer of Prospect Heights. Not new to little theatre, Miss Glazer has appeared in "Yellow Jacket" and "The Matchmaker." She attended the University of Chicago, the Chicago Art Institute and Parsons College and also is employed by General Telephone Directory.

TOM PETROSINO, besides portraying the part of Teddy Roosevelt, is also directing the production. He attended the University of Southern Colorado, Columbia and Goodman, where he studied all phases of drama and theatre. While at Colorado, he received an award for his direction of the musical, "Carousel." Petrosino now attends DeVry Institute of Technology, studying for his degree in electrical engineering. He serves Capri as president, director and laboratory class instructor.

Other cast members are Lynn Keller of Des Plaines, as Elaine, Denny Striegel of Wheeling as Mortimer, Joe Kapsis of Elmhurst as Jonathan, John Donahue of Wheeling as Officer O'Hara, Bob Fisher of Prospect Heights as Officer Klein, Phil Smith of Prospect Heights as Officer Rooney, Jim Glazer of Prospect Heights as Officer Brophy, Dan Striegel of Elk Grove as Mr. Witherspoon and Dr. Harper, Bob Anderson of Wheeling as Mr. Gibbs and Wally Olson of Wheeling as Dr. Einstein.

"Arsenic and Old Lace," a story of two elderly sisters who help old men to a peaceful state via the use of arsenic and wine, will be presented at the Prospect High School little theatre. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday nights, Nov. 27 and 28. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

HANDLING BEHIND scenes duties are Lee Scheidt, wardrobe; Kathy Striegel and Diane Petrey, make-up; Fred Borland lighting; Jean Ditier, co-ordinating director; Kathy Striegel, publicity; Judy Glazer, set design and Penny Werhane, ticket sales.

The set will be reversed to what the Broadway play was. The victorian feeling will be prevalent with many antiques donated by people in the area. The elderly ladies' costumes are made by Mrs. Gilda Monteleona.

Painter on Program For Elmhurst Guild

Artist Walter Parke will do a "Portrait in Pastels" at today's (Thursday) meeting of the Elmhurst Artists Guild.

In addition to fine art, Parke has done advertising art for many years. A resident of Park Ridge, he studied at the Chicago Art Institute and American Academy.

His list of one-man shows includes the Chicago Galleries, Nashville Museum of Art and Columbia, S. C. Art Museum. Numbered among group shows in which he has exhibited are Union League Club of Chicago, Art Institute, Palette and Chisel Academy, Artists Guild of Chicago, Cliff Dwellers and Illinois State Fair.

FIFTEEN OF HIS paintings have been purchased for the Vincent Price collection of Sears Roebuck.

The Elmhurst Artist Guilds holds its monthly meetings at the Youth Center, 407 W. St. Charles Road, Elmhurst, every third Thursday at 8 p.m. Visitors are welcome.

The guild will have its 20th annual Fine Arts Exhibition Thanksgiving weekend at the Elmhurst College Union Building. Exhibit chairman Bert Coughlin of Itasca expects over 200 entries in paintings and crafts.

RIBBON AWARDS will be given in traditional and modern oil, in traditional and modern water color, in sculpture, craft and ceramics, in pastel and in miscellantous media. In addition, the Huboi Award will be given by the Men's Garden Club of Elmhurst for the best painting of a horticultural subject.

Judges will be Irving Shapiro and Walter Parke.

The exhibit will be open Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 27 and 28, between noon and 5 p.m. The College Union Building is located at 190 Prospect, Elmhurst. (Bill

Jazz Musicians In Free Program At Karnes Music

Karnes Music Co. is featuring the "Millionaires" at a free jazz and rock 'n' roll program as the finale to 10 days of their annual Music Jubilee.

The artists have played most of the Chicago spots and are currently featured at the Bistro A-Go-Go.

'A Far Country'

Freud Good Theatre

by JOAN REDDY
Paddock Drama Critic

It's said that we live in the age of Freud. If so, Des Plaines Theatre Guild's latest play is a most appropriate one. "A Far Country," the story of Freud's first successful case in psychiatry, is fascinating playgoing for any one who has ever played the game of amateur psychoanalysis—and haven't we all?

Playwright Henry Denker sets his play in Dr. Freud's office at the turn of the century and lets the case of the beautiful, young noble woman, physically crippled by her own hysteria, "unravel like a ball of yarn."

By the time the third act curtain is about to part, the audience is on the edge of anticipation waiting for the labyrinth of the patient's mind to give up its secrets.

Director Jerry Epperson has assembled a capable cast. None of the hopelessly amatuerish performances in minor roles — too often symptomatic of community theater — is present.

OUTSTANDING ARE Harold Terchin as Freud and Fran Grose as his mother.

Terchin evidences the assurance of his past performances in the role with another company. His Freud is a zeelot beset by the fervor of discovery, but the humanity of the man is always present.

Fran Grose is the typicol Jewish mother, worring about her doctor son's career. Yet her characterization has sufficient power to carry the scene where the accidentals are stripped away and the frightened woman is revealed.

AS ELIZABETH Von Ritter, the patient, Toni Sawyer is physically the picture of Austrian nobility. She has the stage presence which commands attention. However, her performance is not all of one piece. She is convincing in the highly dramatic scenes where her mind is being searched. But she is less capable of the more subtle portrayal of the seemingly calm woman teetering on the brink of hysteria.

Judy Herbst as Freud's wife turns in a competent performance. However, she should concentrate more on relating to the other players when she is not directly involved in a scene. Being a good listener is an admirable quality in any woman, but particularly in an actress.

Also her voice needs training in modulation. Her most emotional scenes are unnecessarily shrill.

A GOOD, SOLID performance is given by Bob Bonnell as Freud's friend and colleague. He conveys the strength of the man who fought for a place in Vienna's medical world and the weakness of the man who is willing to compromise in order to stay there.

Director Epperson's hand is most clearly evident in confrontation scenes between the major characters. He skillfully uses small movements to highlight the speeches avoid the static.

Theweakness of the production lies in the prologue and epilogue which generally are unconvincing. But the major fault is the playwright's. Not content to let the greatness of Freud remain evident in his work, Denker added these appendages so that the judgment of the man could be tied up with a blue ribbon. He should have had more faith in his play.

CONFIDENT IN the stability of an established group, the Guild is entering its 20th season with an excellent selection of plays. "A Far Country," to be given again tomorrow and Saturday and Nov. 26 and 27, is an above average choice for a season that portends even better things to come. Shaw's "Arms and the Man" is the Guild's next undertaking. (Bill

Travelers Aid Helps Young, Old, Stranded

Blue-White Globe Is Sign of Help

by Joan Lorenson
Staff Writer

A little boy gripped a bag — the kind airlines sometimes give their passengers.

"He's terribly upset and won't even talk to me in French," a caseworker told a Traveler's Aid volunteer.

People hurrying down concourse G at O'Hare Airport quite easily could miss the sign of the blue and white globe in the glassed offices of the Travelers Aid Society.

But two suburbanites are well aware of the activities of this organization founded in the 1880's. Lois Lowe, 229 N. Church Road, Bensenville; and Virginia Volid, 248 S. Hale St., Palatine, both have helped with cases like this small Quebec boy traveling by himself to join a family moved to the West Coast.

Mrs. Lowe recalls her first case after she had completed a three-day Travelers Aid Society training session for volunteers last spring. She had to help a mother with six children under 11 years old. The mother had never been more than 50 miles away from the Wisconsin town where she lived, Mrs. Lowe remembers. She had to get to Philadelphia where the Army would take over for the remainder of the trip to Paris to join her husband. Mrs. Lowe helped to make this mother's layover at O'Hare easier.

On a Saturday night Mrs. Volid aided a 10-year-old and a 12-year-old going home from camp. The late arrival of their plane meant a camp counselor could not meet them to assure their transfer to a Florida-bound plane.

Such children cannot be placed in a motel by Travelers Aid. Mrs. Volid was able to contact the children's mother. She later received a note that the family drove the long distance to Miami, arriving eight minutes before their children's plane taxied in. The parents had preferred the children be put on the next plane going to Florida rather than spend the night in an emergency foster home or other agency home Travelers Aid sometimes uses.

Travelers Aid Society in Chicago served about 133,000 people last year, according to its statistics. Besides its central office at 22 W. Madison St., Chicago, it has offices at the Greyhound Bus Terminal, all the Chicago railroad stations, and at O'Hare Airport.

Los Angeles' Travelers Aid pioneered airport service in 1950 with Chicago following at Midway in 1952. It later transferred its operation to O'Hare.

Last year Travelers Aid helped 2,000 stranded job seekers, 1,900 children traveling alone, 1,600 aged travelers, 1,200 foreign travelers, 1,075 handicapped travelers, 470 runaways, and 400 mentally ill or retarded persons. In addition to this caseload, it gave special services to 10,000 people; information service to 69,000; and worked with the USO handling 47,000 people.

"Whatever is at our door is our caseload for the day," explains Mrs. Betty Gordon, director of professional services. "Our 'waiting list' is on the bench."

"We see a lot of upset people," Mrs. Gordon explains. Many are traveling because of some personal or family crisis." It is the objective of the caseworker to try to get the person to draw on every ounce of self-determination he has to solve his problem, she explained.

Non-residents are not eligible for help from other agencies in the Chicago metropolitan area. This may mean Travelers Aid caseworkers—all with master's degrees in social work—may work with someone for months.

"We see a lot of young people who have not planned well in uprooting themselves and coming to the city," Mrs. Gordon said. Some need to be persuaded to return to their original homes, others helped in this transition.

The volunteers help in the agency's work by doing the legwork in many cases. They usually meet the planes or trains on which they've been notified their help will be needed.

Mrs. Lowe and Mrs. Volid explained they've been trained to detect how serious a problem is. If it is serious, they direct the person to a caseworker.

Mrs. Volid could handle a case of a Puerto Rican couple arriving at O'Hare Airport. The friends who were to meet them were not there. Neither the husband nor the wife spoke English and they had no telephone numbers where their friends could be reached. Mrs. Volid began checking with a city directory in the home office to see if a telephone number could be found. During this process, the friends were found and 10 people set off for Michigan by car.

"You have to like people," the two volunteers admitted. Both go into superlatives in describing their work. Mrs. Volid, an outgoing woman, has been a volunteer for three years. In addition, she does volunteer work with the Countryside Art Gallery and Northwest Community Hospital.

Mrs. Lowe had heard of Travelers Aid so it seemed a natural for volunteer work when her youngest child enrolled in college.

Volunteers soon learn to be "attuned to people," Mrs. Lowe commented.

At O'Hare it is not uncommon for the volunteers to meet adoptive children. "Often we stay with the nervous, adoptive parents, before they meet their child," Mrs. Volid said.

The two volunteers also have helped Job Corps youth in transit. The increased number of military personnel traveling means more servicemen need their help. Sometimes a serviceman plans his finances too closely, not allowing for an emergency, one of the volunteers commented.

Mrs. Volid had a case where two young people came out to see O'Hare Airport and didn't have sufficient fare to get home. Sometimes a caseworker must persuade a youth that he must turn to family or friends for help. Any situation involving insufficient funds must be handled by a caseworker.

Recently an airlines referred a case to Travelers Aid that did not involve insufficiency of funds but no legal documents or necessary vaccinations. A 30-year-old mother with three boys was returning to the Orient from North Carolina. She had been given the necessary money but said her documents had burned in a fire. The family was unwilling for her to return since a marriage apparently had been unsuccessful. Senior caseworker Virginia Carpenette was given this problem.

Mrs. Gordon explained that bus terminals sometimes get difficult cases involving unprepared young people coming to the city. But sometimes the most urgent cases requiring quick medical or psychiatric care may be handled at the airport, she added. The airport staff, for example, recalled the case of a young girl in her 20's who had become mentally unbalanced while on a plane from the West Coast. A Travelers Aid caseworker met the plane and shielded the girl from publicity. "They're working in a glass house," Mrs. Gordon noted.

A social worker arranged to have her admitted to a private hospital until the family could arrive and return her home.

Travelers Aid has a consulting staff psychiatrist.

The Travelers Aid Society has a definite procedure in handling runaways. A 16-year-old was brought into the central office by a young couple who had met her in Old Town and taken her in. A caseworker persuaded her to contact her parents.

In lengthy interviews she discussed the girl's relationship with her parents and the reasons for the desperate step of running away. When the frantic parents were reunited with the girl, they underwent some counseling. They agreed to seek a home agency's help. Not every case ends so fortunately, Mrs. Gordon pointed out.

The volunteers do not find the work tiring though they often are on their feet. They readily adjusted to the long treks involved in getting from one location to another at the nation's busiest airport.

"Some cases are sad and they do get to you," Mrs. Lowe commented. Another volunteer commented she finds "so many unfinished stories."

Travelers Aid Society lists itself as a social service agency dealing with every type of travel-related personal and sociol-economic problem. But to the traveler in distress the blue and white globe simply means help.

TRAVELERS AID Society volunteers Lois Lowe, 229 N. Church Road, Bensenville, and Virginia Volid, 248 S. Hale St., Palatine, do the "legwork" for the caseworkers in this social service agency that handles every type of travel related personal and socio-economic problem. Many people coming through O'Hare Airport are traveling because of family or personal crises.

Travelers Aid Needs Volunteers

Volunteers for Travelers Aid serving in Chicago's rail, bus and air terminals handle a variety of situations, including giving city directions and information about local transportation, theaters, museums and hotels; hostessing in the Travelers Aid-USO lounges at Union and Grand Central stations and in Loop USO Center; interpreting for foreign travelers and immigrants; helping locate families and friends and aiding the aged and handicapped.

Travelers Aid Society of Metropolitan Chicago tries to maintain a large corps of volunteers to allow the agency's caseworkers to devote most of their time to the travelers in serious trouble. Volunteers are carefully trained to assist the casework staff and handle the agency's information and USO hospitality services.

Because at least 300 volunteers are needed to work the three daily shifts in the agency's eight intake centers and two USO lounges, Travelers Aid recruits and trains new volunteers twice a year. Prospective volunteers may arrange for an interview by calling the volunteer bureau of the welfare council, AN 3-0640, for an appointment.

Increase in Loan Losses Reported

The record rise in loans at commercial banks in the past four years has been accompanied by sharply higher loan losses, said the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago in the November issue of its monthly review, "Business Conditions."

Bank loans have gone up 60 per cent since economic activity began to rise in 1961, a much greater increase than in other recent periods of economic expansion. This rapid growth of bank loans, along with a few spectacular business failures and the rise in personal bankruptcies, has raised questions about the quality of outstanding loans.

The final measure of credit quality is whether a loan is paid off as scheduled. Potential losses cannot be measured in advance, but the trend in losses actually charged-off by banks provides some clue about changes in loan quality. As measured by this criterion, the quality of loans, although high in any absolute sense, may be somewhat lower than during the Fifties.

GROSS LOAN losses amounted to 400 million dollars at insured commercial banks last year compared with only 80 million dollars in 1950. As a per cent of outstanding loans, average net losses (gross losses minus recoveries on previous losses) in the past four years have been about double the average in the Fifties and are at a record high for the postwar period.

The Bank cautions that averages often conceal substantial variation. Despite the larger losses sustained by the banking system, the vast majority of banks have very low losses. Over the past ten years smaller banks have tended to experience greater net losses than the large — and medium-sized banks.

In the same period, loss experience has also varied by geographic location — member banks in Midwest Federal Reserve districts experienced lower net losses than those in the nation as a whole.

Unusual circumstances have influenced the loss statistics in a few years — part of the sharp increase in losses in 1960 reflected charge-offs at banks in New York and some other areas resulting from the Cuban revolution. Nevertheless, the increase in loan losses in the Sixties has been shared generally by banks in all the Federal Reserve districts and by all sizes of banks.

BOTH LOSSES and loan income are affected by the kinds of loans a bank makes. Evidence from the 1964 earnings reports of Seventh District member banks indicates a positive relationship between overall losses at individual banks and their concentration in consumer loans.

A study of loan losses in 1957-58 at Seventh District member banks revealed net losses on consumer and business loans were considerably higher than on other types of loans. Although higher interest or lower servicing costs may more than compensate for higher loss rates on classes of loans known to have higher risk, the Bank concludes that this may not have been the case in the past four years.

Coupled with loan earnings data, the information on loan losses indicates some inability on the part of some banks to balance increased risk with higher interest rates on loans. (15BB

Sproul Named Phone Engineering Chief

MALCOLM R. SPROUL

Malcolm R. Sproul, 1860 Durham Drive, Inverness, has been appointed north division engineering manager of Illinois Bell Telephone's Chicago area engineering department.

Sproul joined Illinois Bell in 1929 as a student in the state area plant department following his graduation from Iowa State College with a B.S. degree in mechanical engineering. He held various posts in that department until 1937 when he moved into engineering. In 1952 he was transferred to the operations and engineering department of American Telephone and Telegraph in New York.

HE RETURNED to Illinois Bell in 1958 as a staff and personnel engineer of the Chicago area. In 1960 he became division engineering manager of the north shore division and in 1964 was named to that post in the midstate division.

Sproul and his wife, Helen, have one daughter, Mrs. Patricia J. Wise; and a son, Dean.

THIS NEW HEADQUARTERS of The Austin Company's 15-state Chicago District and its rapidly expanding Process Division is conveniently located at 2001 Rand Road in Des Plaines just off the Tri-State Tollway and within five minutes drive of O'Hare Field. (10BB

Austin Has Long Chicago History

The establishment of The Austin Company's Process Division and its Chicago District in their own new headquarters at 2001 Rand Road in Des Plaines, calls to mind this city's strategic role in what has come to be one of the world's largest engineering and construction organizations.

For it was the opportunity to help rebuild Chicago after the great fire that lured Samuel Austin, a British journeyman carpenter who founded the company, to America in 1872.

Active in the Chicago area as a construction firm since 1895, Austin estimates that the value of the process and manufacturing plants, commercial buildings, broadcasting, publishing and other facilities designed and erected under supervision of its Chicago-based staffs since that time, is in excess of half-a-billion dollars.

IDEAL accommodations for more than 300 engineering and 50 office personnel have been provided on two floors of the 48,000 square foot structure. It faces a section of the Cook County Forest Preserve and dominates a triangular block bounded by Rand Road, Dempster Street and Garland Lane. Covered parking facilities are provided at the ground floor level where a glass enclosed stair and elevator lobby leads to the district and division offices and drafting rooms on the upper floors.

The Chicago District, headed by Vice-President Rollin R. Eiber, was established in 1918 and was located at 510 North Dearborn Street from 1927 until completion of the new Des Plaines headquarters. It provides all-inclusive design, engineering and construction services to Austin clients in 15 midwestern and adjoining states.

EXAMPLES OF Austin's earlier work in the Chicago area include the city's first large all-welded industrial plant for General Motors' Electro-Motive Division at La Grange; Sinclair Refining Company's Research Center in Harvey, and the world's largest timber structure and air field at what is now O'Hare Field, where Douglas Aircraft built Army transport planes during World War II.

Austin's more recent work locally includes Automatic Electric's manufacturing plant in Northlake; testing facilities for Underwriters' Laboratories, at Northbrook; expansion of Mars Inc's Chicago chocolate plant and Chicago Bridge and Iron's headquarters at Oak Brook.

Success Reported By Regent Park

The United Development Co. reports that in less than a year Regent Park, in Arlington Heights, has over three quarters of a million dollars in housing, sold and occupied. Another two million dollars in construction is now in progress with over a half million sold already. These sales are in both townhouse and condominium units.

With the major share of condominium construction taking place within the city, Regent Park's success could be an indication of a trend reversal—toward the suburbs. However, in Regent Park, residents are offered more benefits than they might expect to find in the usual condominium locations.

IN REGENT Park, which is built around the landscaped shoreline of its own private lake, there is a complete "caretaker" program. Lawnmowing, hedge trimming, exterior painting, and snow shoveling are taken care of. Maintenance is provided for the private swimming pool, tennis courts, lake and landscaped grounds.

Regent Park's condominium offer one, two or three bedroom apartments, all with electric heating, room-by-room temperature control and individually controlled air conditioning. Kitchens feature built-in oven range, dishwasher and disposal. There are "patio balconies" and carpeting included in each apartment. An automatic elevator serves all levels, including the covered, built-in garage. Units are priced from $20,900 to $33,400 (including private garage facilities).

Furnished model condominium apartments as well as model townhouses may be visited any day from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Regent Park is located in Arlington Heights, on Kensington Road, one-half mile west of the Randhurst Shopping Center. (15BB

PLUM GROVE VILLAGE: Courtway View. The courtway between homes at Plum Grove Village is spacious and well-cared for. It is kept cleared in all kinds of weather. The area is shared, semi-privately, by residents of four homes—each of which is entered via its own patio and garden entrance opening onto the courtway.

28 Women Join Builder in Home Ownership Symposium

How people in the prime of life can get the greatest enjoyment from home ownership was the theme of a recent luncheon discussion led by Albert Riley, builder of Plum Grove Village, a planned adult community at Plum Grove ond Kirchoff Roads, about one-and-one-half miles west of Arlington Heights.

Participating in the discussion were 28 representatives of various women's organizations in Rolling Meadows, Arlington Heights, Palatine, and Mount Prospect. The women toured Plum Grove Village before the luncheon discussion.

AT THE LUNCHEON meeting, Riley explained that Plum Grove Village is an adult community planned for families with children 13 years old and older. He pointed out that the idea behind it is to offer the advantages of home ownership without some of the burdensome responsibilities. The homes have air conditioning and homeowners have no physical responsibility of exterior upkeep.

Explaining the security measures, Riley said that all the streets are private and cars of residents must have a special sticker. Street parking is not permitted overnight. Each home has an attached two-car garage and patrolling police will investigate any car left outside at night.

In response to questions about the professional maintenance, Riley said all services provided, including the upkeep of grounds and maintenance costs, will run about $35 a month. The figure covers repairs, painting, tuckpointing of exterior walls, roof maintenance, care of private streets and lawn areas, insurance on the common land, snow removal, maintenance of signs and outside lighting, and maintenance of sewer, water and electrical lines to point of entrance into the indidivual home.

FOUR MODELS are being shown: two one-story, or ranch, plans and two two-story designs. Either two or three bedrooms are provided and every home offers two baths, basement, two-car garage and electric heating and air-conditioning. The specially-designed kitchen has many cabinets and matching eye-level oven, range, exhaust hood and fans, double sink and disposal.

The homes are priced from $29,000 to $33,000, site included.

Each Plum Grove Village home is designed around its own enclosed patio-terrace. It is surrounded on three sides by the house and garage — on the fourth side by a high, decorative brick wall. Main entrance to each home is through the patio, via an outer gate flanked by two antique wall lights.

Complete development of Plum Grove Village is proceeding and a park and lagoon near the center of the all-residential community will be finished in the near future. Entrance is on Kirchoff Road, about a half-mile west of Route 53. Models are open daily from 10 a.m. till dusk. (15BB

NEW TRIPLE ACTION faucet by Moen offers both an aerated stream and a spray plus providing wide swivel action so water can be directed to every corner in the sink. The ball socket design allows the spray or aerated stream to be revolved 190 degrees and swung up a full 35 degrees in any direction. The new Moen single handled faucet permits selections of both water volume and temperature by operating one handle. (15BB

Electrologist Bonita M. Garbe has recently opened an office in Arlington Heights at 1800 E. Northwest Highway. Noting the feminine problem of "Superfluous" hair, she declares that the only way to remove such hair is by electrolysis.

Miss Garbe explains that a hair is usually straight from its tip to the root where it reaches the papilla. She points out that tweezing may cause the hair to curve under the skin. Further, tweezing and waxing remove the whole hair temporarily and shaving and depilatories remove only the part of the hair above the surface of the skin. Both processes must be repeated frequently.

ACCORDING TO Miss Garbe, electrolysis helps to straighten the hair, making it possible to reach the papilla. The percentage of hair which will grow out again is very small.

The new method, moreover, is fast. It takes only a fraction of a second to coagulate the papilla. An electronic timing device shuts off the current automatically, eliminating the chance of human error.

The number of treatments necessary for complete hair removal depends on the amount of hair, coarseness and location as well as texture of the skin. There is no pain involved, only a slight tingling or warm sensation. (10BB

Railroader Writes On 'Steam Power'

A new volume on steam locomotives entitled, "Steam Power," covers an exciting era in American railroading.

"Steam Power" is the result of efforts of Charles T. Knudsen, who once served as a fireman or engineer on a number of the locomotives described. The book is Midwestern in locale in that it concentrates on the locomotives of the Chicago and North Western railroad over a span of 108 years beginning in 1848.

"STEAM POWER" represents the first time any collection of steam locomotive photographs of the Northwestern has appeared in book form. There are more than 300, ranging from the Pioneer, which was Chicago's first locomotive, to the heavy mountain type engines, relied on to move troops and material during World War II, in the 208 pages of "Steam Power."

Because the North Western has been on the Chicago scene for 117 years, there is much in the book to interest those Chicagoans and Chicago area commuters intrigued by the city's past. The book also brings reminders of an era that will never return to farmers, merchants, resort operators and others in the nine Midwestern states interlaced by the railroad's 10,000 mile network. School Men Visit Phone Laboratories

VISITORS TO the Bell Telephone Laboratories in Murray Hill, N.J., Harold L. Slichenmyer, (center) Cecil E. Spearman, (right) and Thomas Maloney, (seated) receive a briefing on the features of the Picturephone from TV Crater, member of the Picturephone Studies Group. Picturephone, a new telephone service under study at the labs, allows the caller and the person he is calling to see each other provided both parties have Picturephone. 10BB

Harold L. Slichenmyer, superintendent of Township High School District 214, was among a group of high school science teachers and administrators from many states who recently visited Bell Telephone Laboratories at Murray Hill, N J.

Slichenmyer and Cecil E. Spearman, superintendent of School Districts 86 and 181 in Hinsdale, were guests of the Illinois Bell Telephone Co.

THE PURPOSE OF the visit was to inform educators of the Bell System's science student-teacher visit program at Bell Laboratories. As part of the Bell System's effort to encourage a continuing interest in science and engineering, the program gives outstanding science students and their teachers an opportunity to see current scientific projects in a laboratory setting.

Slichenmyer said, "The opportunity to witness business and research in action at the labs is a most valuable experience for school administrators."

Slichenmyer, a graduate of the University of Illinois, came as a member of its Legislative Committee.

In Arlington Heights he is a member of the Lions Club, a board member of the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce, and a former board member of the YMCA and Boy Scouts. (A to School District 214 in 1945 as dean of boys. He later served as director of guidance and then as administrative assistant to the superintendent before becoming superintendent in 1954.

He has served as chairman of the West Suburban Superintendents Club, president and program chairman of the Superintendents Study Club, president of the Superintendents Round Table of Northern Illinois, and secretary-treasurer of the West Suburban Conference.

Dorrington Named to Sales Post

Howard F. Dorrington has been appointed as a sales representative in the Illinois-Wisconsin district of W. R. Grace & Co.'s Dearborn chemical division.

Dorrington will serve customers in the metropolitan Chicago area who use chemicals and equipment for water treatment, metal cleaners and protective coatings.

A DEARBORN employee for the past eight years, Dorrington served as a laboratory technician in the research and development laboratory and later as district technical director, Illinois-Wisconsin District. He obtained his chemical training at the University of Illinois.

With his wife, Marianne, and family, Dorrington lives at 2907 Grouse Lane, Rolling Meadows.

Of course you enjoy the office, but home is where you keep the rest of your life!

A successful businessman is one who looks forward to going to work.

He has fun in the world of commerce, because he has a lot to contribute to plans, and people, and progress. He works very hard from 9 to 5, but probably the reason for his dedication and effectiveness is what happens in his life from 5 to 9.

Fox Point in Barrington would seem to appeal most to a particular kind of man:

He's still crazy about his wife.

He doesn't get boresome about it, but he is rather proud of his kids, and he wants them exposed to the best school system he can find.

His home is more to him than just a house.

It's a place that's not too far from the golf course, or the tennis courts.

Home is convenient to town, but not a part of it.

And though it seems a world away, it's only five minutes from the railroad station.

Home is built well enough to be at least somewhat carefree.

It's designed for the convenience of his wife, so that she has plenty of free time, too.

And it's the kind of place his children want to bring their friends to, so that he doesn't have to worry about where they are, and what they're doing.

And finally, home is a place in which he can be proud to entertain friends, and clients, and business associates. It is a satisfying reward for being so good at what he does from 9 to 5.

If this is the kind of guy you are, perhaps you should see Fox Point.

At least we'd like to see you, because you're our kind of people.

HINTS TO HOMEOWNERS

by Richard H. DeLano, Associate Farm Advisor

ALERT HOMEOWNERS DIAL DAILY 392-3060

Most people are about ready to give a sigh of relief as the lawn care season comes to an end. It means a temporary rest from a full season of activity. There are just a few final chores to do before snow arrives.

By all means keep cutting the lawn as long as it needs it. You can cut it at the same height or even a little shorter. Left long, it means you'll have to rake out a lot of dead grass next spring.

Disease problems will be reduced if all leaves are raked from the lawn now. Their soaking and matting will prevent air circulation and thus create favorable humid conditions for the various grass diseases.

EVEN BEFORE leaves are raked some lawns this fall are exhibiting powdery mildew. If severe, it can kill fall plantings of new lawns. A lawn heavily infected looks as if it has been dusted with flour or lime. Examination of the grass blades reveals a white, powder - like growth. Since this fungus grows on the outside of the blade of grass it can be easily controlled by an application of Karathane.

Some people apply fertilizer at this time. This eliminates storage of leftover partial bags which may become lumpy over winter. However, it can, during a warm late fall, cause a flush of growth that is less winter hardy. Many people feel it's safer to wait until next March.

This is a good time to have your lawn soil tested. Samples taken now, before the ground freezes, will provide the precise information you will need for next year's fertilization. A test once every three to four years is suggested.

THE SAMPLE IS prepared by obtaining a root free three to four inch slice of soil from ten locations in the lawn. Collect the slices in a plastic pail and mix.

About a pint of this soil mixture can be sent in for testing at the local farm advisers office. The usual charge is one dollar per sample. Be sure to indicate if the soil is from a lawn, flower or vegetable garden.

After all the lawn chores are finished it is a good idea to wind up with some special care for the power mower. A few minutes spent now will save hours next spring and will probably increase the mower's life.

Start by draining the oil and replacing it with new oil. Next run the motor to thoroughly circulate the new oil. Allow the motor to run until the gasoline supply is exhausted. This will dry the tank, fuel lines, and carburetor. Gasoline left in the motor over winter will evaporate leaving a gummy deposit. That will make spring starting difficult.

FINALLY REMOVE the spark plug and add a tablespoon of oil in the hole. If the spark plug is on a side, inject the oil from a measuring spoon with an eye dropper. Turn the engine over a few times by pulling the starter cord. This will coat the cylinder and valves with the rust preventing oil. Be sure to replace the spark plug.

Finally, check the air cleaner, the cutting blade and cover the exhaust pipe with a tin can.

Your lawn and lawn mower are now ready for action the first thing next spring. (15BB

Appraiser Wins M.A.I. Designation

Theodore R. Kowalski, 77 Forest Lane, Elk Grove, was awarded the M.A.I. designation by the Governing Council of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers at its annual meeting in Chicago, last May 10. This designation automatically admits Kowalski to membership in the institute. Fewer than 3,800 appraisers have qualified for this designation since the institute was founded in 1932.

KOWALSKI HAS HAD over seven years' experience in appraising residential, commercial, industrial, and special purpose properties. He has appraised real estate in eight states and was previously employed by Baird & Warner, Inc., Fairfield Savings and Loan Association, and Mid-America Appraisal and Research Corp. He is presently self employed as a real estate appraiser.

Kowalski is a member of the Chicago Real Estate Board, Junior Real Estate Board of Chicago and is a senior residential appraiser in the Society of Real Estate Appraisers.

He is a graduate of Northwestern University and Weber High School in Chicago. He also attended St. Benedist College, Atchison, Kan.

All-Star Idea Is Fine But . . .

Do you get the feeling, as we do, that some of these all-conference football teams in high school are getting out of hand?

The Suburban League named 35 boys to a first team and had 18 honorable mentions. The Des Plaines Valley honored 27 on its first team and 24 on the honorable mention list. The Mid Suburban named 23 boys to the first team with 13 honorable mentions, and this is only a six-team league. The West Suburban honored 23 but eliminated honorable mention.

It's always baffled us why all leagues don't pick offensive and defensive units. Some divisions do, but the majority stick with one team of linemen and backs.

The game today is filled with specialists and these specialists shouldn't be overlooked.

Where do you put the defensive halfback or safety who doesn't play any offense? Do you put him in a first team backfield loaded with youngsters who own big rushing averages and other sparkling statistics?

If a boy is a stickout linebacker and also excels in an offensive department, he can be honored on both units. But if a boy is restricted to defense because that's where the coach wants him, should he be overlooked when the post-season honors are passed out?

When we talked with LaGrange coach J. O. Jackson before the Arlington game, he discussed his star linebacker Oscar Sliva in terms of "All-State." But Sliva didn't even make all-league when the selections were made last week.

"Oscar is not only all-conference but all-state as well," Jackson emphasized again. "The problem arises from the fact that he played defense almost exclusively for us, and by tradition all-conference team members are boys who play both ways or just offense. That can't alter the fact, though, that Oscar was brilliant on defense. In fact, the only game we lost (Hinsdale) was the only game he didn't play. And we missed him."

The all-star idea is fine, but some changes could be made without hurting the selections. We'd welcome two eleven-man teams and then an honorable mention list. Some loops do it this way. Why not everyone?

Paddock Publications reporters covered 69 area high school football games for the 1965 season. In addition to the three regular members of the sports staff, others who helped out were Marv Prellberg Jr., Jim Fruehling, Randy Thomas, Dick Camp, Dick Davis, Fred Boedeker, and Tony Farrell. Paddock reporters will cover approximately 200 basketball games during the winter, starting this weekend.

Two Stars Who 'Got Away'. . .

Like fishermen, football coaches can also talk about the "ones that got away."

Urbana High School, one of the state's finest schoolboy elevens, captured the Big 12 championship last Friday with a 19-7 conquest of Champaign, and one of the key performers on that Tiger squad was a boy who spent his first year at Forest View High.

Brian Ford, a solid 180-pounder, earned all-conference honors as a halfback at Urbana this fall. He carried the ball 106 times for 623 yards, a fine 5.9 average, and caught three passes for 28 yards. He scored four touchdowns.

Ford, who also starred on defense, was a power runner and smashing blocker.

Ford was a standout end as a freshman at Forest View in the 1962 season. He was one of the big reasons the Falcon plebes, guided by Bob Walther, turned in a 4-1-2 record.

You can be sure Falcon coach Bob Scott would have welcomed Ford on both the 1964 and 1965 outfits.

An All-State end last fall was a Rolling Meadows resident in his final year of grade school. Mike Murawski, a 6-3, 220-pounder who earned all-state honors at Lockport and now is a freshman at the University of Illinois, was in the eighth grade in Rolling Meadows before moving to Lockport.

Lloyd Meyer, coach of Arlington's American Legion baseball team during the summer, reports that his ace southpaw Tom Lundgren, who prepped at Forest View, has been drawing raves for his work in fall baseball at the University of Missouri. In six innings against varsity pitching Lundgren, a freshman, struck out 15 hitters, walked two, and allowed three hits. Lundgren was drafted by the Cleveland Indians but decided to attend Missouri.

Mid-Suburban Teams Cited . . .

Ranking high school football and basketball teams sometimes borders on the ridiculous, but we were interested in the top ten prep elevens as selected by the Champaign News-Gazette.

The News-Gazette, generally recognized as a leading voice in high school athletics, ranks schoolboy teams throughout the season and also picks an All-State squad.

Thornton was acclaimed the top team in Illinois, and you can't argue with that. The Wildcats were unbeaten in nine games and didn't receive even a scare along the way.

Others in the top ten were East St. Louis, Evanston, Peoria Spalding, Chicago Loyola, Chicago Leo, Palatine, Maine West, LaGrange, and Pekin.

The selections give the Mid-Suburban Conference something to brag about with two of its members — Palatine and Maine West — labeled the seventh and eighth best teams in Illinois.

We wouldn't be too surprised if at least three-fourths of the college All-America backfield has already been selected. Doesn't it seem likely that the halfbacks will be Mike Garrett of Southern California (despite his bad day against Notre Dame) and Floyd Little of Syracuse and the fullback will be Jim Grabowski of Illinois? A few weeks ago Purdue's Bob Griese looked like a cinch for quarterback, but now that position rates a question-mark.

Ten Years Ago This Week . . .

Arlington halfback Johnny Sujack was named to the All-State backfield by the Champaign News-Gazette. . . Arlington toppled Woodstock 69-49 in the basketball opener with Sujack and Bill Randag collecting 20 points each.

Wheeling Hosts Rich Central Saturday in Hardwood Debut

By MICHAEL HESS

Some teams can "live in the past" but for Wheeling cagers such a practice would be like no "living" at all.

Wildcats basketball, '65 - '66 version, starts this Saturday. Coach Mike Owens' quintet hosts Rich Central in that opening contest.

As a new campaign begins, resting on past laurels isn't possible for Wheeling. With just one season and a 1-19 record in their history, anything connected with 'Cats court past is best forgotten.

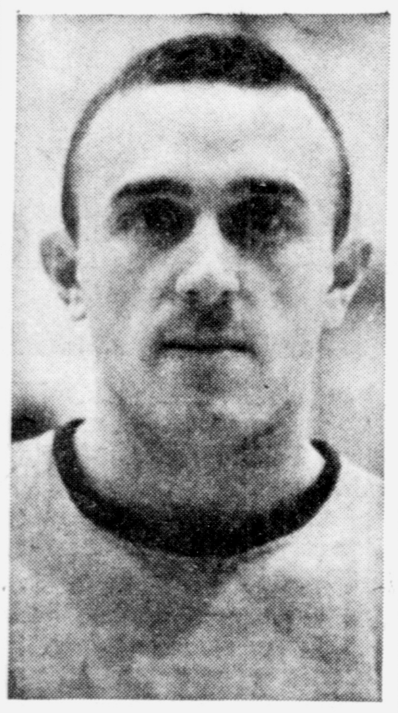
Thus, while recognizing that last year produced lots of experience and a poor won-lost mark, basketball emphasis for Owens & Co. must be on what's ahead. First step on the future trail is Rich Central.

PREPARING to face the RC Olympians is a starting five featuring facets which are old, new, borrowed and blue. Wildcats' hopes rest on the successful wedding of these elements.

"Old" on the beginning Wheeling crew are returning lettermen Tom Neukrantz and Scott Bischoff.

Neukrantz is a 6-1 guard who was tabbed as Most Valuable Player among 'Cats players last season. He was third highest scorer for Owens with 115 points in the school's initial campaign. His main value was as a playmaker.

Though he was just a sophomore one year ago, Bischoff ended as his team's leading rebounder and second high scorer. Shooting 40 per cent from the floor and 73 per cent from the foul line, Bischoff totaled 143 points and also pulled down 79 rebounds. Those totals resulted in spite of missing six games with injuries.



MIKE OWENS

A junior, Bischoff, 6-0, will open at forward.

The other guard and forward posts will be manned by a "new' element in Wheeling's cage picture, promoted JV players. They are Rex Peterson, a 5-10 junior at guard, and Bill Brown, a 6-2 senior forward.

"BORROWED" for the 'Cats use is the boy slated to fill the center position. That's Tim Strahan, a sophomore, who transferred to Wheeling this year from Niles West. He's 6-3 and could bring a "blue" note to the team because of a bone chip in

Thanksgiving Eve Opener

Three Lettermen on Cards' Cage Outfit

by BOB FRISK

They'll remember the 1964-65 basketball season at Arlington High School as the year of the slow start and fast finish.

The varsity Cardinals dropped five straight games at the outset of the campaign and then roared back with 15 victories in their next 20 games and a berth in the sectional tournament.

That was a club with three experienced seniors and two sophomores on the starting five.

Bob Conner, Chuck Lloyd, and Mike Frase — the three seniors — graduated in June and took with them 774 points.

Conner, a 6-foot-5 performer, was the leading scorer as a senior with 327 markers, and Bob dialed 583 points in his varsity career.

CONNER, LLOYD, and Frase will be missed, but the sophs are back — as experienced juniors — and that's a good start for Ted Wissen, who is starting his third year as cage boss at Arlington High.

Steve Allen (6-3) and Dave Lockwood (6-0), who started at guard and forward on the varsity Cards as sophs, and Bruce Hubbard (6-6), a reliable sixth man in the latter stages of the 1964-65 season, are the returning lettermen as Wissen prepares Arlington for its season opener Thanksgiving Eve with neighboring Palatine.

Allen, who earned all-conference honors at quarterback in football while establishing six new school passing records, pumped through 236 points in cage action last winter, an Arlington High mark for a sophomore in varsity play. Steve also topped the varsity in accuracy at the free throw line with a .727 percentage on 88 attempts.

LOCKWOOD, who with Allen is headed for nine varsity letters at Arlington in three sports, collected 224 points in the 1964-65 campaign, and Hubbard, an all-league end in football, flipped in 63.

Hubbard came on strong at the end of the season with some fine relief chores.

Wissen currently is working with 17 boys on the varsity squad. He has not decided whether any additional cuts would be necessary. Twenty-three boys reported for the initial drills Wednesday, Nov. 10.

OTHERS LISTED on the varsity roster are forwards Jim Jorgensen (6-4), Steve Conley (6-3), Bob Hecht (6-1), and Jim Swanezy (6-1); centers Jim Donchess (6-6) and George Bergstrom (6-5); and guards Terry Townley (5-10), Pete Barker (5-8), John Blomquist (5-11), Jim Bressler (5-10), Doug Fink (5-10), Mike Grant

But Could Be Tough

Lions Lose All-Stater

by BOB FRISK

Replacing a super-star, a youngster who excelled in all phases of the game, is the formidable task confronting St. Viator's Larry Nomellini as he prepares the varsity basketball Lions for their season opener.

Graduation ceremonies last spring at St. Viator took an All-Stater who rewrote the school record book with some spectacular performances.

Chuck Grandt, a 6-4 performer who scored 546 points for the season and 939 in an amazing varsity career, was the main graduation loss, but Nomellini, the Lions' cage boss, can still see some promise for the season ahead.

"The potential is there," he said earlier this week. "I doubt if anyone will come up to Grandt's performance although that's hard to tell yet. He was a great ballplayer, a real leader.

"WE COULD HAVE some balanced scoring on this team, but it's strictly a wait and see thing right now. Injuries have hurt. We haven't been able to work a unit together."

St. Viator will kick off its season on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 26-27, in the Immaculate Conception tournament.

Although Nomellini lost Grandt by graduation, he does have some size and experience returning. Paul Pomplun (6-7) and Paul Dumke (6-3) worked with Grandt under the basket last winter and combined for 507 points.

POMPLUN COLLECTED 286 points and was the club's top rebounder. Paul could be one of the area's finest performers this winter. He's a good jumper and shooter who hit at a .458 clip from the floor as a junior.

Dumke is a solid 6-3 forward. He tossed in 221 points last season while shooting .441 from the floor. He can also help out in the important rebounding department.

John Loughman, a 5-9 guard, is the other returning letterman. Loughman, who was an all-tourney selection on St. Viator's state finalist baseball team, scored 120 points in a reserve role but did work his way into the starting alignment at the end of the season. He's a good shooter and floor man.

A Major Loss

Prospect Five Journeys To Libertyville Saturday

by MICHAEL HESS

One question and its answer will determine Prospect High School's basketball future.

The question is simple: Can athletic excellence in underclass play be successfully transferred to varsity competition?

The answer is complicated. A partial reply will come Saturday as the Knights open 1965-66 cage action with a trip to Libertyville.

Just one Prospect player has had varsity experience. All others have been standouts on soph or JV quintets. Knights' coach Dick Kenneman realizes his dilemma.

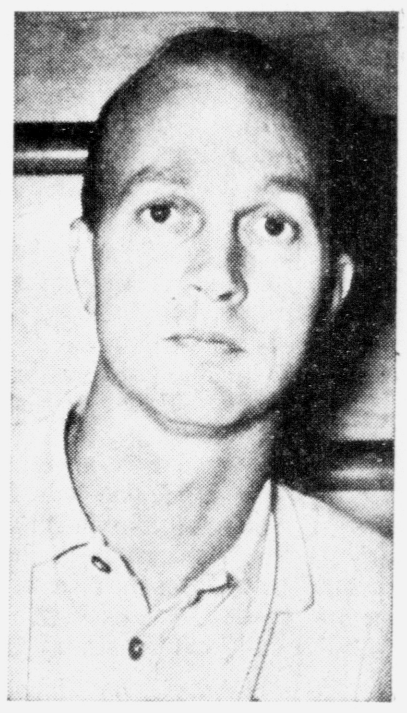
"There's very little experience on the team," said the headman, "but everyone has played a lot on the lower levels. As a result, we may not jell completely until around mid-season."

KINNEMAN IS back at Prospect's helm after a year's absence. The Knights were directed to an 18-7 record by Warren Collier last season. From 1959 to 1964 Kinneman guided Prospect cagers to 99 wins and only 24 losses.

Lone returnee from varsity play of one season ago is junior Tom Lundstedt. As a soph Lundstedt, 6-3, poured in 97 points in 48 quarters of play for that varsity outfit. He shot 48 percent from the floor and 70 percent from the foul line.

Lundstedt will open at forward against Libertyville. Joining him will be four who starred last year in junior varsity play. Tom Beard, Dan Agard, J. D. Thorne and Tony Kulasa. All are seniors.

Beard, 6-3½, will be at center. As a JV he averaged over 10 points per game and hit a high of 19 in one contest.



DICK KINNEMAN

Agard's high one year ago was 17 points and the 6-1 football standout will open at forward.

Guard spots go to Thorne and Kulasa. Thorne, 6-0. hit for over 20 points twice last year and averaged over 12 points per game. He and Kulasa, 5-11, are fast and specialize in nifty ball handling.

As junior varsity entries those four helped Prospect's JV quintet to a 17-1 mark. The only loss came against Libertyville in the opening '64-'65 battle. At the varsity level the Knights stopped the Wildcats 59-57 one year ago.

SIXTH MAN ON the Prospect varsity is a junior who helped pace last years sophomore aggregation to an unbeaten 16-0 standard. That's 6-4½ Dave Kingman who averaged 13 points per game for the sophs but is presently hampered by an ankle injury.

"Kingman is practicing now," offers Kinneman, "but he's not yet at full strength. He should

Under Laws of Gravity . . .

Prospect '65 Eleven Falls to 1-4-3 Mark

by MICHAEL HESS

Athletics, as well as apples, must have been on Isaac Newton's mind when he said, "What goes up must come down."

The gravity of Newton's statement certainly applies to some athletic entries at some schools. Just look at Prospect football.

After six seasons during which they compiled a 36-10 record, Knights gridders finally fell from the heights. Under coach Don Williams they recorded a dismal 1-4-3 mark in the just-completed campaign.

Consequences of Prospect's decline in won-lost totals were unfortunate. Chief among those bad results was the drop to fourth place, at 1-2-2, among Mid-Suburban League elevens. In addition, there were numerous adverse records set by the Knights of 1965.

AMONG THOSE records were:

—fewest wins in a season, one (old record was three in 1963);

—most ties in a season, three (there wasn't another in Prospect history);

—most times shutout in a season, four (only previous blanking for the Knights was a 13-0 loss to Proviso West in 1963);

—fewest points scored in a season, 53 (old record was 121 in 1959);

—most points given up in a game, 40 (Maine West set the old mark at 34 in 1963);

—most total yards given up in a game, 413 (the previous high of 402 was established by North Chicago in 1963);

—most touchdowns given up in a game, six (Maine West hit the old high of five in 1963);

—biggest losing margin in a single game, 33 points (a 34-14 score against Maine West in 1963 set the old record at 20).

THE SEASON, certainly a record breaker, started with a 20-7 loss to North Chicago. Then came three straight whitewash jobs as Prospect's offense just couldn't get started. First was a loss to Niles West 3-0 and then scoreless ties with Maine South and Wheeling.

While offensively the Knights were miserable during the first half of '65, they were excellent on defense. Still, at the halfway point, they showed an 0-2-2 mark. Then came a reversal.

Maine West pounded the defense in battle number five and re-wrote several records in winning 40-7. That drubbing gave life to the offense which tied Forest View 19-19, fell before league leader Palatine 28-0 and, finally, won its first game 20-19 from winless Conant.

"After the first four games," explains coach Williams, "we had to do something about our offense. We brought up some juniors and began working on nothing but offense. The juniors did well and we did some scoring, but our defense was hurt."

THOSE JUNIORS mentioned by their headman did very well indeed.

Best of the underclassmen was quarterback Tom Lundstedt. He ended up leading the Knights in total offense, mainly on his passing. He hit on 19 of 53 attempts for 406 yards and three touchdowns and scored one TD though he played just half the season.

Other juniors to perform well were Bob Destafanis, Vince Curry and Dave Kingman.

Destafanis rushed for 104 yards in 24 carries and Curry carried for 75 yards and two scores in the same number of tries. Kingman did all the Prospect punting, doubled on defense, and caught one TD pass.

At the top of the Knights rushing column are a trio of seniors. Nick Rutigliano banged for 232 yards in 61 tries, Fred Wesley for 124 yards on 28 carries and Bob Grady for 111 yards in 39 attempts. Rutigliano lunged for one six-pointer.

BACKING UP the passes of Lundstedt were those thrown by Gary Guerin. Guerin hit on 50 per cent of 58 tosses for 203 yards. With Bob Mutert's 40 yards passing the Knights totaled 649 yards through the air compared with 613 on the ground.

DON WILLIAMS

Along the line there were several standouts for Prospect. Best of them was guard Dan Agard though ends Tom Beard, J. D. Thorne, and others also had good years.

Agard totaled over 105 solo tackles and 90 assists for the year. He was selected as the Knights honorary Captain at season's end and "was the most valuable player we had" according to Williams.

"Beard played very well during the year," said Williams. "Though he was hurt at one point he caught many passes (two for scores) and was phenomenal in the defensive backfield. Thorne also played well allye ar."

Other linemen mentioned by Williams for their top flight play were senior Rick Bertoglio, who "was good at three positions," and juniors Rodger Anderson, Dave Chapmen and Jeff Bates.

AGARD AND BEARD were honored for their efforts with selection to the all Mid-Suburban League team. Agard was also tabbed for all-state honors by league coaches.

"Over-all," Williams said, "of course it was a disappointing season. We were hurt most by not having anyone with varsity experience and by the poor turnout of boys which was the smallest since I've been at the school."

And what about next year? Answered the Knights' headman:

"The juniors we had up with the varsity this season should give us a good nucleus to work with. But, we'll have to get more kids coming out. Without a bigger turnout, we just can't compete physically."

Barker, Bergstrom, and Jorgensen did score in varsity action last winter although their appearances were limited.

In two seasons at the helm Wissen has directed Arlington teams to 21 victories in 47 games. He followed 6-16 debut with that impressive 15-10 mark and regional championship in 1964-65 and now is hoping for another profitable season.

One thing is certain. Ted does not want another start similar to last winter when Arlington waited until Dec. 12 for that first victory.

Arneson Heads Falcons

by MICHAEL HESS

"With envy"—that's the only way to describe how opponents must view Forest View's gathering basketball forces.

Coach Ken Arneson's cage Falcons don't open their new season until next Wednesday. But from the material returning it's easy to see that FV could be formidable.

In the '64-'65 campaign, Forest View compiled a 15-8 mark. Of the top seven scorers and top seven rebounders from that unit, five have returned. They are Jim Baumgardt, Pat Dunnigan, Jeff Grismer, Byron Borgardt and Bill Widinski.

One year ago Baumgardt scored 265 points and had 250 rebounds. Dunnigan tossed in 248 points and gathered 167 rebounds. Grismer had 165 points and 124 rebounds while Borgardt and Widinski made 190 points and 91 rebounds between them.

IF THEY maintain their averages from last season, those five senior letter winners would average 42 points and 30 rebounds. Those figures of course discount any reserve help and dismiss expected improvement. Forest View could easily be a basketball powerhouse.

Lone blemish on the bright picture at FV is an injury to Baumgardt. He hurt a leg playing football and could be out at least another two or three weeks. He'll definitely miss the Falcons first two games.

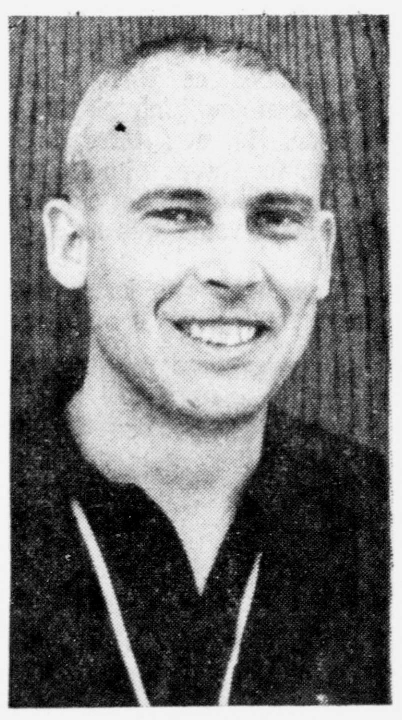
"Trying to fill the gap left by Baumgardt has been tough," commented coach Arneson. "He's 6-4, a good scorer and good rebounder and filling in for him won't be easy."

So, while forwards Dunnigan, 6-2, and Grismer, 6-2, and guards Borgardt, 5-11, and Widenski, 5-9, are tentatively scheduled to start for FV, finding someone to replace Baumgardt at center has been the Falcons chore.

Temporarily filling the vacancy might be either 6-3 junior Howie Brasch or senior Jim Rennhack, 6-0. "Whoever can get the most rebounds will get the job," said Arneson. "Of course it is possible that we'll move Dunnigan into center and put Buckholz or Mueller at forward."

BOTH JIM Buckholz and Steve Mueller are seniors. Buckholz is 6-0 ond was with the FV junior varsity team last year while Mueller, 5-11, saw part time varsity action. "Mueller has been hurt," explained Arneson, "but once he heals he should see lots of action for us."

Other seniors on the team are Bob Erlander, 5-9, Rodger Mollenkamp, 5-9, and Kurt Koentopp, 6-0. The only other junior, along with Brasch, is 6-0 Bucky Jones.



KEN ARNESON

"Jones was outstanding with the sophomores last year," said Arneson. "He's a good ball handler, excellent dribbler — a very good all-around prospect."

The opening game for Forest View is with Proviso West. Thus far the Falcons have been sticking to fundamentals in preparation for that contest. On the showings of his four possible starters Arneson offered the following capsule observations:

"Widinski so far has improved on the mistakes he made last year. He doesn't travel so much and has cut down on his fouling. He's definitely a spark plug of this team and a very good rebounder for his height.

"BORGARDT has looked good in practice. He seems to be much more dependable than he was a year ago."

"Grismer is definitely our best outside shooter. He seemed to lack aggressiveness on offense last year but has shown much more in our practices."

"Dunnigan (an all Mid-Suburban League and all Paddock Area pick last year) has been moving well. He's always been able to shoot and rebound and is very adaptable. He can play almost anywhere on the court and still do a good job."

There were 35 candidates who showed up for varsity and junior varsity basketball this year at Forest View. "Getting enough to come out has always been a problem here," stated Arneson, "but the turn-out this year is the best we've ever had."

Lion Basketball

JOININ UGHMAN at the guard slot are Frank Hogan (5-10) and Johnny Gregory (5-8), two promising juniors. Hogan owns a deadly jump shot and was a big scorer on the sophs in the 1964-65 season. Gregory is a fierce competitor who makes up for his lack of size with his determination.

In addition to Dumke, other forward prospects are Dan Collins (5-9½), Emille Bataille (6-0), Jim McNamara (6-1), Greg Polich (6-2), and Dan Miksta (6-0). McNamara, who has been working at forward and guard and showing some promise, has been sidelined with a leg injury.

Greg Ryan (6-4), a junior, backs up Pomplun at center.

"In general, we're coming along pretty well," Nomellini summed up. "I have about eight boys now who could help but I just haven't had a chance to get a good look at the group together. We're hoping everyone will be available this week."

Nomellini guided the Lions to a 14-11 mark last winter, a school record for victories.

No, it won't seem the same without Chuck Grandt around this season, but don't sell the Lions short. This could be an interesting club.

Wheeling Cagers

his toe.

"Strahan has been coming along very well," said coach Owens, "but his balance and moving have been hurt by that injury. I expect he'll be ready by Saturday."

As sixth and seventh men for Wheeling there are two 5-11 players with experience. Mark Newman, the 6th man, is a senior who led his team in scoring one year ago with 217 points on 93 field goals and 31 fouls shots. Skip Grandt is a junior who saw lower level action in '64-'65.

Leading the Rich Central aggregation is 6-1 senior guard guard Mike Logan.

Logan won his letter last year and also paced his team in scoring with a 15.5 point per game average. He was an all South-east Suburban League selection.

JOINING Logan at guard is another emblem wearer, 6-1 senior Tom Peters. Possibly replacing Peters in the starting RC scheme of things is 5-10 senior Carl Quanstron.

There are three candidates for forward jobs among the Olympians. RC coach Norm Held tabs seniors Randy Madderon, 6-3, and Bob Ewing, 6-1, along with junior Dick Blanchard, 6-2, as possibilities. "Madderon played about 50 per cent of the time on the varsity last season," said Held. "Blanchard and Ewing haven't had much experience."

Inexperience is also a correct label for the Olympians' starting center Mark Logan, brother of Mike. Mark, a 6-3 junior, "played some" on the varsity one year ago according to Held.

Held, in his first year as varsity coach at Rich Central, spent the past two years as an RC lower level coach. His younger teams compiled a two season mark of 41-9. Before that he was cage director in Potomac and Katlin, two downstate Illinois schools.

"I'm very optimistic about our chances this year," comments Held. "I hope we can win around 20 or more ball games. I really don't know what to expect in our opener against Wheeling."

WILDCATS' headman Owens is a bit unsure about what his team will do against RC. Said Owens:

"We're still trying to get into shape. While we haven't looked very organized yet, we'll be ready for Rich Central. They'll probably fast break a lot and we'll be using a zone defense. What we'll do on offense is hard to say but we'll play a lot of kids and see what everyone can do."

The varsity game at Wheeling's court will be preceded by a sophomore preliminary which is set to get underway at 7 p.m.

be able to play Saturday and may eventually do some starting for us, possibly at center."

Other front line subs are seniors Ray Kleinhuzen, 6-3; Craig Wolf, 6-1; and Rick Pauly, 6-1. All three are forwards. When others falter the replacement choice will be made from among seniors Gary Guerin, 6-; Fred Wesley, 5-11; Paul Peterson, 6-0; and Tom Johnson, 5-11.

As outlined by Kinneman, Prospect's offense will feature the use of just one guard, a double pivot and two wing or corner men. Lundstedt and Beard would be in the high and low pivots, Agard and Thorne on the wings and Kulasa at guard although numerous variations are possible.

"IT SEEMS TO be the best offense to use with our personnel," Kinneman said. "The boys have shown lots of hustle and desire up to now, we have fair speed and size, and maybe those qualities can overcome our lack of varsity experience."

In the Libertyville Wildcats, Prospect will find a strong test in the opening outing.

Under coach Larry Leon Libertyville was 11-10 last year and finished fourth, at 8-6, in North Suburban League play. Three senior lettermen return to pace the Wildcats as they start a new campaign.

Topping the returnees is Ron Pfenning. a 6-2 center. He averaged 12 points a game last season. "We have to count on Pfenning for a lot of our scoring and rebounding this year," said Leon. "Our main problems are size and experience and Pfenning has the most of each."

OTHER EMBLEM wearers are 6-1 Gary Jones and 6-0 Ron Kok-Alblas. They'll open at the forward positions for Libertyville. Rounding out the starting unit will be guards chosen from among juniors Mike Nutting, 5-11; Jim Mellen, 5-8; and Bruce Jordan, 5-7.

Pirate Preview

The first public showing of Palatine's basketball players will be this Friday night.

The potential varsity and junior varsity performers for the 1965-66 season will go on view with an intra-squad game at 7:30 p.m. at the Wood St. gymnasium. The varsity is being handled again this year by Bud Mueller and the JV by Chuck Johannson.

Palatine athletic director Earl Stutzman advises that the event will be open to the public. All home Pirate basketball games will be played at Wood St., with the frosh-soph — and the wrestling and gymnastics — competition at the Fremd school.

M-SL Statistics Show How Pirates Took Top

by MICHAEL HESS

One standout, yeoman defense and over-all consistency . . .

The above qualities won a Mid-Suburban League football crown for Palatine. Those aspects of grid play are reflected in final M-SL statistics.

John Ekeberg, a junior, was the Pirates' standout. He took conference rushing and total offense honors while tying for the league scoring lead. Ekeberg ran for 462 yards, passed for 13 yards, making a grand total of 475 yards, and scored 48 points.

Defense, combined with Ekeberg's potent bursts, led to most Palatine triumphs. Coach John Ellis' eleven didn't allow any M-SL opponent to score. They also gave up just 636 yards, 329 rushing and 307 passing, best of any league entry.

ELSEWHERE IN the Mid-Suburban numbers race Palatine didn't end ahead in any category but consistent showings put the champs always near the top. Only in passing, where they picked up just 228 yards, were the Pirates last.

Close behind Ekeberg in the rushing race, and tied with him for first in scoring, was Steve Ryden of Maine West. Ryden got 436 yards rushing, a figure which also made him second in total offense.

Three teammates of Ryden were also among the leading ten runners. Junior Ken Mandelky was third with 414 yards on the ground while soph Bob Banger, with 224 yards, was fifth and Jim Kautz was tenth with 127. Kautz was fourth in scoring with 30 points and Mandelky, whose 8.63 yards per carry mark was best in league, was sixth in scoring with 19 points.

Efforts by Ryden, Mandelky, Banger and Kautz put Maine's ground total at 1426 yards, the best, and also helped the Warriors take the total yards gained standard at 1659.

MW was also best in rushing defense, holding opponents to 273 yards, an average of 55 per game, but was worst in pass defense, giving up 522 yards, and next to worst in passing offense with 233 yards.

FOREST VIEW was tops in passing.

The Falcons stopped other aerialists with only 157 yards during conference action, a skimpy 31 yards per game, and were best in pass offense with a total of 649 yards. At the same time, however, FV was worst in ground defense, giving up 952 yards.

Individually the grid performer showing most balance in final totals was Forest View's Pat Dunnigan. He was third in scoring, 42 points, fourth in rushing, 290 yards, sixth in passing, 160 yards, and third in total offense, 450 yards.

Other Falcons to crack the statistical leaders were Chuck Boesenberg and Steve Mueller.

Boesenberg, eighth in scoring with 13 points, was the second best M-SL passer, throwing for 322 yards. A rushing figure of 25 put his over-all total at 347 yards, good enough for sixth place in total offense.

MUELLER connected on 11 of 27 air attempts for 167 yards. He rushed for 92 yards and his over-all 259 yards put him eighth in the total offense column.

Top Mid-Suburban League passer was junior Tom Lundstedt of Prospect. He hit on 19 of 53 passes for 406 yards, a 35.8 per cent standard. His throws were good for three touchdowns.

Best TD tosser in the conference was Conant's Jeff Klopf. He made contact with four receivers in end zones. Klopf's 46 air tries were second behind Lundstedt and he tied Lundstedt for the most completions at 19.

Rushing behind Lundstedt and Klopf for Prospect and Conant were Nick Rutigliano and Art Leitz. The Knights' Rutigliano was eighth in rushing with 153 yards while, at 143 yards, Leitz was ninth for the Cougars.

WHEELING placed two among the top performers in closing M-SL statistics. John Hittman, though he missed one league contest, was still sixth in rushing with 208 yards and Mark Newman, with 256 yards on 16 completions, was the third best passer.

'Little Mo' Here For Tennis Clinic

The former "Little Mo," Maureen Connolly, now Mrs. Norman Brinker, will give a tennis exhibition and clinic at the Barrington Tennis Club on Tuesday, Nov. 23, beginning at 3:30 p.m.

The indoor tennis club is located just north of the Northwest Tollway at Barrington Road. Everyone is invited to attend whether or not they are a member of the Barrington Tennis Club.

"Little Mo" has become famous for her tennis clinics throughout the country. She has devoted a great deal of her time to interesting and training young people in tennis. She played an important role in developing many of the prominent players of today.

The first half hour of her time will be devoted to a clinic where she will instruct on shot strokes and court strategy. Following that, there will be an exhibition doubles match with Gene Buwick, Wilson Sportings Goods representative, tennis coach, and winner of many major tennis events.

Also playing will be H. Steve Morgan, Manager and Professional of Barrington Tennis Club, and a fourth person to be announced later.

For Paddock Tourneys

Gals Loop Files 1st Reservation

Rolling Bowlers women's league from Rolling Meadows Bowl made the first official time reservation for the approaching Paddock tournaments.

"They wanted to be sure of the 3:10 starting time, so called in early," stated Marian Phillips, tourney secretary.

Mrs. Phillips is currently tracking down the last few league secretaries so they can receive tournament posters and entry blanks for the big events in January. She currently reports over 130 women's leagues, 115 men's and 72 mixed loops eligible with four more bowling establishments still to report in.

MEN'S EVENT is scheduled for Jan. 22-23 at Hoffman Lanes. Leading teams of all local men's loops as of Christmas morning will be eligible.

Women's tourney is scheduled to be held at Striking Lanes Jan. 30 with first place squads as of New Year's Day eligible. For the mixed leagues, the leaders as of New Year's Day will compete at Striking Lanes Jan. 29.

For Mount Prospect

Juvenile Skaters Are Club Strength

The conditioning of the Mount Prospect Speed Skating Club members promises to be advanced considerably as the Wilmette Park District has announced the opening of its artificial ice skating rink.

With reserved times at both the Polar Dome and Wilmette rinks, skaters are able to improve both their physical condition and skating techniques under the tutelage of coach Herman Haenisch.

Each year in the club's history it had a contender in each of the male division classes. But only the most optimistic of coaches would ever enetrtain the hope of boasting as solid an entry as Mount Prospect will feature in the juvenile boys division.

Heading the strength of the club will be Gary Jonland, a national contender last year, and Bob Knight, whose family recently moved to Mount Prospect.

Knight also was a 1964-65 national qualifier and will be a welcome addition to the Mount Prospect entry.

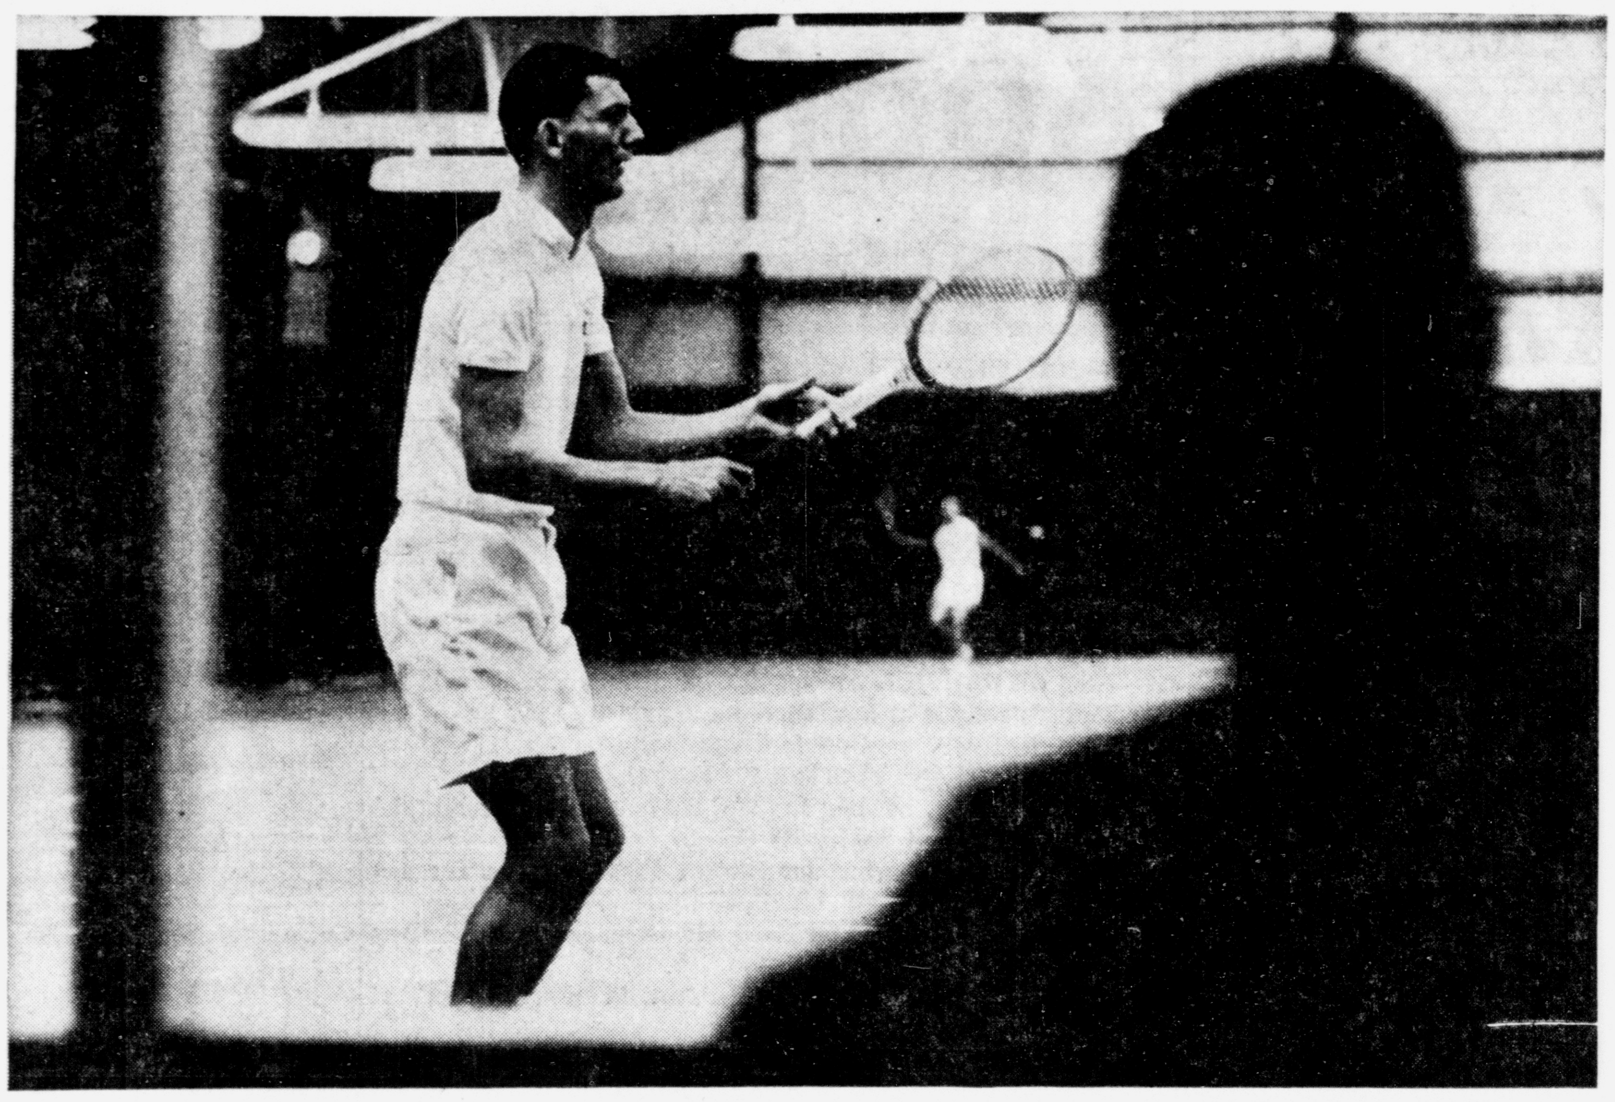
Add John Aido, John Griffin and Tom Tagney to this group and you have potentially the finest scoring group in one division in the Illinois Association.

The first indoor skating meet of the 1965-66 season will be held under the sponsorship of the Madison Skating Club at Madison, Wis., Saturday, Nov. 27.

Coach Haenisch and manager Bob Vehe will select a strong squad of indoor skaters to represent Mount Prospect in this competition.

Howard Miller to be at Tennis Club Open House

Howard Miller, nationally known disc jockey on Station WIND, Chicago, will be one of the celebrities greeting visitors at the Open House of the Barrington Tennis Club Nov. 20.



TENNIS BUFFS MAY WATCH the play at the new Barrington Tennis Club while sitting in the luxury of the lounge or "Racquet Room." The lounge is completely carpeted and has a large fireplace. The windows overlook the four indoor tennis courts. An open house will be held this Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. (Staff photo by Mike Seeling)

Open House Slated Saturday For Barrington Tennis Club

Tennis buffs, looking for a place to play in the winter months, don't have to look any longer.

They're invited to an open house this Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the new Barrington Tennis Club, located on Barrington Road just north of the Northwest Tollway and south of Route 62.

Approximately 300 players have already signed up from the northwest suburban area to play at the Barrington Road layout which features four indoor courts that will be available from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. seven days a week.

TENNIS CELEBRITIES, tennis exhibitions, and special prizes will be featured Saturday at the open house which will enable many net enthusiasts to get their first look at the new club.

The Tennis Club is open to anyone as long as there is available court time. Two or four people reserve a court at a given time each week for the 30-week indoor season.

A person can play for as little as $1.50 an hour plus a nominal membership fee.

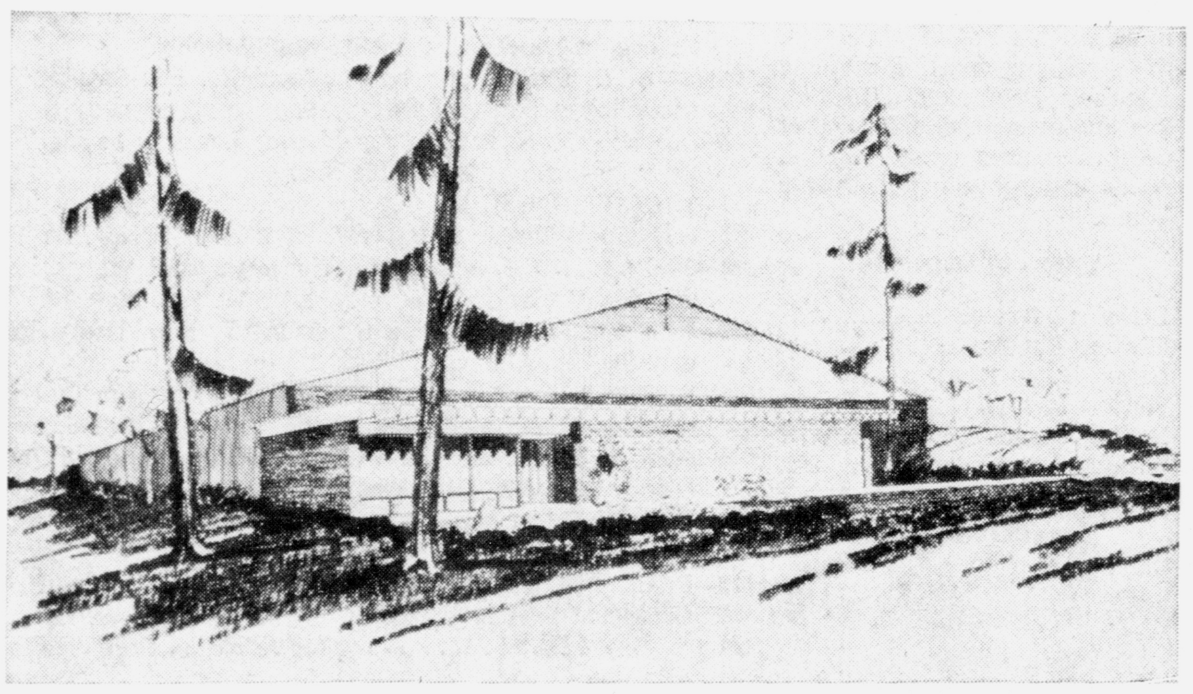
THE BARRINGTON Club boasts many individual features, including a lounge or 'Racquet Room' which overlooks the four courts. The room is carpeted and has a fireplace.

The greastex courts feature a resilient surface. The main structure of the building is 120 feet by 200 feet rising from the 16 foot eves at the backcourt to a center court height of 36 feet.

There are locker rooms for men and women, showers, a pro shop, and a snack bar.

The Tennis Club was organized by William Ylvisaker of Barrington and his first collaborators in the project were Steve Morgan and Daniel Donahue of Barrington. Morgan now is president and head professional.

Anyone interested in additional information on the club may contact Morgan at 381-2570. Lessons can be arranged.



THE BARRINGTON TENNIS Club, located at the intersection of Barrington Road and the Northwest Tollway, will hold an open house Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. The indoor courts are available from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. seven days a week.

Legion Banquet Coming Nov. 27

Time is running out for fans interested in purchasing tickets for the "Meet The Champs" banquet honoring Arlington's 1965 American Legion baseball team.

The dinner will be held Saturday, Nov. 27, at 7 p.m. at the Arlington Legion Hall, Douglas and Miner Streets.

A program will follow the dinner honoring the first Illinois Legion baseball team in 12 years to advance to the World Series. Arlington Heights finished fifth in national legion competition.

Dick Ellsworth, southpaw pitcher with the Chicago Cubs, will be a special guest at the banquet.

Anyone interested in purchasing tickets may contact Lloyd Meyer at CLearbrook 5-2426.

Indoor Tennis Anyone?

And Steve's Close . . .

PWCTL Has Three Knotted

The one-team romp has become a four-team scramble.

Such are the uncertainties of life and competition in the Paddock Women's Classic Traveling League.

Where two weeks before there was one team alone at the top with a seven-point cushion, there are now three—Lattof Chevrolet, Morton Pontiac and River Rand Bowl—in even dispute for that position. And there is a fourth—Steve's Restaurant—just three points back.

WINNIE LOHSE

It's the result of last Saturday's action, competition that produced the second straight blanking of once-lofty Lattof Chevrolet and the continued surging of Morton and River Rand.

The whitewash was authored by Steve's Restaurant, a team that won everything last season but has been suffering this campaign. Morton Pontiac rolled its own blanking, a 4-0 affair with Rolling Meadows Bowl. And River Rand Bowl, the team that shut out Lattof the Saturday before, went the 3-1 route versus Striking Lanes to set up the three-way knot.

PWCTL VETERAN Winnie Lohse, who has been having troubles of her own this season, led Steve's stunning of Lattof's. Winnie cranked out 189-211-192—592, her best effort of the current campaign and the best of the evening. Next high for Steve's — which also had the evening's best team game and series — was the 528 entered to match the average of the absent Bonnie Kuhn.

Lattof also had an absentee, Vi Douglas. Yet her average — 534 — was the best total entered for the losers. Of the four women who were on hand for the rolling, none could crack 500.

With Lattof's thus victimized on a chilly night, the Pontiac people spurted to take it all from Rolling Meadows Bowl. The first game was easy, the second two close, but all the results went the same way.

VIVIAN HERMAN was the dominant force for the victors, with 199-179-192—570, and Judy Reed was only 10 pins back. Kay Clark uncorked her best of the season for Rolling Meadows — a 569 series — but it and Jean Ladd's 519 didn't have enough support to surpass Morton's balance.

A battle of extremes marked the River Rand-Striking Lanes confrontation, with exceedingly low and high scoring marking the fray. Striking was consistently low — with all the bowlers under 500 — and it made the difference. The tops for the losers was Judy Anderson's 485.

For River Rand, the scores ranged from Hazel Steiger's 418 — exceptionally low for her — to Ethel Juenger's 580, her season peak. Gloria Lucchesi chipped in with a 509, and when the pins were totaled, River Rand also had a piece of first.

Something will certainly give this Saturday, for the headline match in the loop will pit the Pontiac team against the Chevrolet ladies at Striking Lanes. The last time they tangled, it was Morton 3 - 1. River Rand Bowl will defend its portion of the peak by meeting Rolling Meadows Bowl, and Steve's Restaurant will effort to knot the bunch even closer when it meets cellar-dwelling Striking Lanes.

Buick Blanked 7-0; Brass Rail To Top

If you don't call it "The Great Race," you might call the game "Who's on first?"

The race in the Paddock Classic Traveling League continues to be a splendid one, but even more enthralling now is the weekly mystery of who will seize the top.

Seizing it last Satruday night—supplanting short-term tenant Bill Cook Buick—was The Brass Rail. The Railers moved in front by two points when they clipped Concourse Sports Chalet 5-2, while the Buick men were being shocked 7-0 by a torrid Jeffrey Lanes quintet.

Brim's Pioneer Lanes, which kept the grip on first during the several early weeks of the campaign, took another beating —4-3 from reviving Morton Pontiac —and remained in third.

In the evening's fourth action, City Welding Sales and Service made another bid to escape the cellar with what was clearly its biggest win of the season: 7-0 over Karlsen Pharmacy.

WARREN Olson and Ted Zimmerman carried The Brass Rail to the pinnacle. Zimmerman had the big series for the winners, second biggest of the night with 200-247-214—661. Olson had the big game, biggest of the season in the PCEL as he ended just 22 pins shy of the elusive 300. Olson combined for 157-278-800—6v5. Don Oberg had 577 for the Railers.

For Sports Chalet, no one eclipsed 600, but Ray Neumann had 596 and Bob Gill 574.

The big thrashing was that handed out by Jeffery Lanes, with Bill Cook Buick unable to get a point despite team games of 1001, 922 and 984. The Jeffery-men blasted Buick's home lanes at Rolling Meadows Bowl with games of 1027, 936 and 1069, the 1069 being the third best of the campaign and the series of 3032 also the third best.

ANOTHER third best of the season — best for the evening— was the 671 series of Jerrery's Hec Healey. He paced the blasting with games of 207, 195 and 269.

But every man for Jeffery had a piece of it, and every man had at least one 200-plus game. Don Christensen was second best with a 614 total, while Bill Harris had 605, Whitey Hefferan 583 and Paul Zubak 559.

Bill Cook had a 612 from Paul Borvig, a 607 from Bill Todd and a 587 from Ed Williams, but it just wasn't enough.

Morton Pontiac got its four points by taking the first two games from Pioneer by slim margins, then getting clouted in the third game to lose the point for total pins as well.

A LARGE measure of the difference was George Schmidt. He missed the first game for Pioneer, and Roger Beecham rolled a 182 in his place. Then Schmidt came on with a 202 and a 225, the latter amply supported by his temmates as Pioneer totaled a 1041 third game and a 2939 series. The biggest portion of that was the 221-205-199—625 of Larry Thon.

The Pontiac team got its best from Bob Glaser, who ended with 184-214-215—613. George White was next best with 567.

Karlsen Pharmacy was hurt by the absence of big-average man Joe Simonis, but that probably mattered little as City Welding did the whitewash routine at its home Thunderbird Bowl.

BILL SMITH, though he dipped with a 160 second game, put a 221 and a 224 around it to lead City Welding with 605. Bob Rogers had 602 and Lobby Lobinsky 573.

For Karlsen's, Warren Karlsen was best with 574 and Herm Simonis next with 568.

Rose Bowl In Buffalo Grove: A New Mode

by KEN KNOX

Dinner by candlelight, yes. But bowling?

Yes, again. That is, if the bowling is at the Rose Bowl, the slick 24-lane facility on Dundee Road in Buffalo Grove.

It's all part of the gamut of gimmicks and games being offered at the establishment to spruce up its image and plump its business. Formerly the Rick Casares Pro Bowl, the house had a checkered history that almost ended permanently with a bankruptcy declaration.

But a new owner, bowling impresario William Rose of Joliet, stepped in to save it. He injected a new initiative and some new management into the place, dubbed it the Rose Bowl and set out to make it fulfill its potential as a bowling haven for suburban keglers and as a wayside for families and groups in search of entertainment.

TO MANAGE IT, he called on two of the more widely respected and known bowlers in the area, Al Paulin and Charlie Wood. Paulin, most recently the manager at Thunderbird Bowl and a veteran of several high class leagues in the area, will be the man in charge.

Wood will assist him, as will one man retained from the old Pro Bowl crew, Leroy Avenarius.

Their ideas and efforts include candlelight bowling, which is precisely that: bowling by candlelight. It's the feature every Saturday night at the Rose Bowl, when all the lights but those over the pins and the exit signs are extinguished, and candles set the mood. Special prizes are handed out for various achievements, such as the first strike, or picking up an unusual spare.

The Rose Bowl people have also been doing a brisk business with another innovation, pancake bowling. That's part of the program aimed directly at families, and it offers two games of bowling, pancakes, sausage or bacon, and coffee or milk at a modest package price. It's offered 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sundays.

YOU CAN also, if you like, play "Hop Scotch Doubles" or engage in a "Blind Turkey Shoot," and doubtless will get a chance in succeeding months to partake of other bowling-oriented diversions not yet germinated in the minds of the Rose Bowl men.

But it's not just games and gimmicks. A considerable amount of money and time has gone into refurbishing the building inside and out. Work on the inside has included a lot of redecorating in the coffee shop, the billiard room, a dining area and the lounge, still called "The Huddle." Outside the attention has been directed to a new parking lot and a new sign, soon to be erected. And, of course, the bowler has not been forgotten, for much of the investment was to refinish the 24 lanes and tone up the machinery.

"It was the sincere desire of the new owner and the new management," said Wood, "to operate the Rose Bowl as an attraction for family, civic, school and paternal groups. We're adding more and more to our program of recreation and entertainment."

THE ENTERTAINMENT includes live performances in the lounge, as well as the bowling. The current "Huddle" attraction is the Ed Morrissey Quartet. There's also a cocktail hour every Sunday from 4 to 6 p.m., following the telecast of the Chicago Bears' football games.

The Rose Bowl people are inviting leagues of all sizes to sign on, and Wood says a lot of choice times are still available for this season and next. There are numerous clinics for men, women and junior bowlers, by the group, mixed or individually.

There are signs already that things are perking up around the Rose Bowl. The business is reviving, the bowlers are bowling and the families are showing an interest in the multitude of attractions.

"Mr. Rose," said Wood, "came to the rescue of this place. I think he's done the community a favor."

If the Rose Bowl experiment succeeds, a lot of people will agree.

Gals Softball League Seeks Players for '66

A farm league for the Peppers Women's softball team of Chicago will be formed for 1966 with a special sign-up Saturday, Nov. 27, at Loyola Park, 1230 W. Greenleaf Ave., Chicago.

Gals interested in playing "fast-pitch" 12-inch softball should report at the registration. Players must be at least 13 years old.

Players do not have to be experienced.

In order to plan the league, obtain sponsors and equipment, anyone who wishes to play in 1966 must sign up this Saturday.

Anyone desiring additional information may contact C. E. Hild, manager of the Peppers, 5642 N. Moody Ave., Chicago 60646.

Card Passing Game Showed 1061 Yards

by BOB FRISK

Passing dominated the football story at Arlington High School for 1965.

Statistics released this week by Paddock Publications show that the aerial game guilded by junior Steve Allen accounted for 1061 of the 1747 total yards collected by the varsity Cardinals over eight contests.

Allen threw for 1016 yards on 73 completions and Tom LeStarge and Vaughn Strong chipped in with 45 more yards.

This was a turnabout from 1964 when the rushing game had a decided advantage (1019 to 388) over the passing attack.

ALLEN ACCOUNTED for six school records as he quarterbacked the Cards to five victories in eight games. He now owns marks for passes attempted in a single season (172), passes completed in a season (73), total yards passing for a season (1016, passes attempted in a single game (33), passes completed in a single game (15), and total yards passing in one game (207).

STEVE ALLEN

STEVE CONLEY

In two seasons as varsity quarterback Allen has completed 91 passes for 1225 total yards.

Another junior, fullback Steve Conley, took rushing honors for a 1965 with 343 yards in 73 tries, a 4.7 per carry average. Conley accounted for almost half of the Cards' rushing yardage as the team picked up 686, an average of 86 per game.

SENIOR AND co-captain Tom LeStarge was next in line in the rushing department with 188 yards in 51 cracks, a 3.7 average.

Bruce Hubbard, 6-6, 196-pound senior end, took pass receiving honors with 24 receptions good for 499 yards. Hubbard set a school mark with his total yardage but fell short of the season pass receiving standard of 28 set in 1959 by Gene Dahlquist.

In addition to Hubbard, other favorite receivers of Allen were Dave Lockwood, LeStarge, and Jim Donchess. Lockwood pulled down 18 for 259 yards and LeStarge added 17 grabs for 136 yards.

DONCHESS, A late-season starter, picked off 10 passes for 107 yards over the final four games.

Scoring honors belonged to Allen with five touchdowns and 13 extra points for 43 markers. That represented the best single season production by an Arlington player since All-Stater Mike Dundy scored ten touchdowns and one extra point in 1959.

Boast 4-4-1 Record

Lions Close Season With 20-6 Victory

By BOB FRISK

A whirlwind finish that showed three straight victories enabled St. Viator's varsity football Lions to salvage a respectable .500 record for the 1965 season.

Coach Joe Gliwa's aggregation, unable to collect a victory in the first four weeks of the campaign, rebounded effectively to nail down a 4-4-1 standard, climaxing the rush with a crowd-pleasing 20-6 conquest of Bishop McNamara last Sunday afternoon.

The Lions were outclassed in only one contest this fall — a 31-7 loss to powerful St. Patrick — as the three other setbacks were by a total of eleven points.

BILL AYLWARD

MIKE LAIRD

LARRY SNYDER, Mike Laird, and Bill Aylward did the scoring Sunday at the Forest View field as the Lions bumped the visitors from Kankakee in the non-league finale.

The Lions opened the scoring in the second period with a 59-yard march climaxed by a neat 11-yard pitch from southpaw Bob Stevens to Bill Aylward.

Key maneuvers in the opening payoff thrust were a 12-yard pass from Stevens to Aylward, 18-yard scamper by Snyder, and 11-yard burst by halfback Bill Roser.

THE SIX-POINTER came with 2:24 remaining in the first period. Aylward's attempted extra point was blocked.

The rest of the first half was played in Bishop McNamara territory, but the hosts couldn't push another score across.

It was an aroused McNamara eleven that took the field in the second half, and the Irish marched 61 yards the first time they handled the football only to lose the ball on downs at the Lion two yard line.

ON A FOURTH and five play at the five McNamara's Dave Kirchman, who authored 87 yards for the contest, was tripped up at the two with John Helmer in pursuit.

St. Viator moved out to the 11 when a fumble gave the visitors another chance. This time they cashed in on an 11-yard pass from Chuck Cassidy to Steve Coash. Denny Forston stacked up the running try for the extra point.

The Lions fumbled again at their own 30, but McNamara could move only six yards before yielding the football.

EARLY IN THE fourth period Stevens dropped a punt at the McNamara 13 yard line. Two plays later Paul Rocca covered an Irish fumble at the two yard line. Snyder cracked in from there with 8:11 remaining in the game for his eighth touchdown of an impressive season.

Aylward converted and the Lions held a 13-6 advantage.

It was 20-6 with three minutes remaining after the Lions capitalized on another McNamara fumble.

Forston recovered the ball on the Irish 38 and the locals struck in seven plays. Mike Laird, a 5-11, 180-pounder who has showed some hard running this fall but who hadn't cracked paydirt before, did the honors this time on a two-yard bolt. Aylward added the 20th and final point of the season.

Astros Fall in Hockey Opener

The Waterloo Blackhawks, defending champion of the United States Hockey League, completely overwhelmed the Fox Valley Astros in the Blackhawks' first game of the year, 16-4.

Four Blackhawks scored the hat-trick and the rout began early in the opening stanza. They finished with eight goals in the final period.

Wayside Varsity Captures Opener

Our Lady of the Wayside, of Arlington Heights, Varsity basketball team won their opening game last Sunday against St. Huberts of Hoffman Estates, 67 to 27.

The scoring leaders were Foreman with 18 points and Cullen with 12.

Wayside's Junior Varsity lost 52 to 28, while the fifth grade team won 32 to 12.

Wayside will play St. James of Arlington Heights next Sunday at the St. Viator High School gymnasium. The fifth junior varsity at 2 p.m. and varsity at 3 p.m.

JUST DOGS

By Dave Terrill

Your Veterinarian—

Dog owners can cooperate with their veterinarian by seeking prompt care for their pets when they are ill and by making certain that an emergency really exists before making a call for "emergency" treatment.

Some of the true emergencies are: an animal involved in a motor accident; a badly bitten animal; a pet which has become suddenly, acutely ill; a suspected poisoning; a pet that is having seizures or convulsions; a badly burned animal or a whelping of a litter in which problems occur.

Many times, however, out-of-hours calls are not emergencies at all. Often the pet has been sick for several days and should have been attended to long before. Most often the veterinarian will still offer his services, but principally because he feels sorry for the animal whose condition is largely due to the owner's neglect.

Don't fall into this latter category. If your pet shows signs of illness, have him attended to right away. Diarrhea, vomiting, lack of appetite, unusual swellings or discharges are all strong clues. When any of these symptoms are noticed, or if there are other problems, have the condition diagnosed and treated promptly. It will cost less in the long run, and your pet will live a longer, happier life.

Christmas Puppy—

Back to that time of year and the time that brings about the annual problem in many a household, if we are going to buy a dog, what kind shall it be?

The time to start looking is now. Visit some kennels, talk to friends who have dogs—their breed will always be the "best"—, and read some books about dogs. There are a number published, including some that you can buy on the newsstands.

As far as your own family is concerned, consider various things. There may be children involved, and most important, who is going to feed the new pup? On the latter score, Mother. Everyone else may offer at the start, but plan that you will be the one who will see to it that the new puppy is fed at the right time and also the correct diet. Think also about a large dog versus a small dog. The kind of a coat; will he be a housedog or will he have a place outdoors.

Above all, and I repeat it every year, do not bring him home on Christmas Day. With all the presents and everything else that goes along with the holiday, the poor pup may be left out of the picture. Bring him home a few days before and let him get used to the new surroundings. Tie a ribbon around his neck on the big day and let him join in the fun.

Facts of Life—

Many owners of new dogs are rather in doubt about a female and owning one. Often they are rather hesitant about asking someone regarding the "heat" period. Perhaps the following will help.

The first "heat period" usually occurs between the age of six months and one year and normally every six months thereafter. In some large dogs it is only every 12 months. The cycle usually lasts 18 to 21 days.

For the first eight days your female will probably refuse attention of male dogs. From the 10th to the 14th or 15th day, she will be very interested in receiving male attention. During the latter third of the period, her interest in males will have waned. The males, however, will still seek her out.

One thing to keep in mind, many a kennelman prefers a female dog as a pet—they don't wander as much.

Turkey Trot Entries Taken

Less than one week remains for filing entires in the Fourth Annual Turkey Trot, a cross country foot race sponsored by the Mount Prospect Jaycees.

Slated for Thanksgiving morning at 9:30 at the Mount Prospect Country Club, the Turkey Trot, an all-weather event, has already received more than 150 entries.

Entries may still be obtained from your school track coach, the Mount Prospect Country Club Park District office, or by calling 259-3606.

The competition will be divided into five events: a half-mile race for Jr. High boys (15 awards); a two mile event for frosh-soph age boys (shown above from a previous year); a two-mile race for junior-senior age boys (15 awards); a four mile competition for college age men (15 awards); and a final "Over 28" men's event of two miles (five awards).

Publicity director John Hakemian said this week that the Turkey Trot is a "proven appetite builder" for both the participants and spectators.

"We'd like to invite any sports or fitness fan to come out and watch or compete while Mom is roasting the gobbler," Hakemian said. "The old-fashioned five-cent cup of coffee will be served to warm the spectators."

MOUNT EMBLEM

"Illinois' Most Beautiful Cemetery"

Site of the
OLD DUTCH MILL
Built in 1850

The DuPage County Historical Society presented an AWARD OF HONOR to Mount Emblem in 1956 for preserving the Old Dutch Mill as an educational and historic exhibit.

Visitors to the Old Dutch Mill are always welcome.

Autumn brings a glorious burst of color to the superb landscape of Mount Emblem. This is one of Nature's most impressive moments which we invite you to enjoy.

You will see acre upon acre of multi-colored effects from our great variety of trees and shrubs each lending its particular hue to the scene.

For such extensive landscaping you could reasonably expect to pay more. Yet our prices are moderate. It costs no more to own the best.

"It is better to have it and not need it—than to need it and not have it."

It's a small wonder

A model airplane kit, a razor blade and a tube of glue are the necessary raw materials. Combine these with the dexterity, determination and desire of a young boy and you have the makings of a model airplane. To view the finished product you would agree, he is a small wonder. Another small wonder is a Paddock Publications Want Ad. Small in size, it is capable of performing big tasks when it comes to selling no longer needed items around the home. Call today and a friendly ad-taker will be happy to assist you in wording your ad. Then you'll agree, a Paddock Publications Want Ad is truly a small wonder.

WANT AD INFORMATION

DEADLINES

Classified advertising now appearing in Thursday editions can also be scheduled in Sunday Suburbanite at the same time at advantageous discount. No classified advertising will be accepted for just the Sunday Suburbanite, without also appearing in the Thursday editions.

Tuesday at 3 p.m. for Thursday editions, and for Thursday-Sunday combination. Ads received until 10 a.m. Wednesday will appear in "Too late to Classify" section of Thursday edition. Thursday at Noon for Sunday Suburbanite for Sunday-Thursday insertions.

RATES

Reader classified rates: 20c a word first insertion, 17c a word repeated consecutive insertions. Minimum charge for any ad $2.00.

Display classified rates: $4.90 per col. inch first insertion, $4.20 per col. inch repeated consecutive insertions.

We also offer a contract rate to display classified advertisers. Special introductory offer, for limited time only, 50% discount on classified advertising appearing in the Sunday Suburbanite in addition to the Thursday editions.

BLIND ADS

A $1 service charge will be made for all ads when replies are to be received through this newspaper.

ADJUSTMENTS

If your ad appears incorrectly, notify us immediately. We accept responsibility for the first incorrect insertion only. Such responsibility is limited to such a proportion of the entire cost of the advertisement as the space occupied by the error bears to the entire space of the advertisement.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Ads will be taken over the telephone on a charge basis if the advertiser is listed in the phone book, or a subscriber to one of our newspapers. All ads appearing under "Situations Wanted" classification must be paid in advance.

SQUARE DANCE CLUB NEWS

Dorothy Meyer CL 3-2298

BRAVE AND MAIDS

There's a growing, go-go-going new club, meeting in Chicago and attracting lots of suburban dancers, that extends an open invitation to all of its pow-wows. Suburbanite Harry Glass of Roselle is the caller and he leads a happy tribe of braves and maids every first, second, third and fifth Monday nights.

Hiawatha Park Fieldhouse, 8016 W. Cornelia, is the B & M stamping grounds, square-'em-ugh time is 8 o'clock and the fun goes on until 10:30. Refreshments, too!

This is a 5-Monday month, so Braves and Maids have heap big chance to work off heap big Thanksgiving dinner. Join 'em!

SLOWPOKES

Tonight, not tomorrow night, is the time to dance with Mount Prospect's Slowpokes, who have planned a big "special" to take the place of their regularly scheduled third-Friday dance.

At the Slowpokes' mike for a one-night stand will be Pat Braffert of Big Rock, squarin' 'em up at 8:30 in Euclid School, Mount Prospect. Everyone's invited to enjoy this special event—and reminded that it's instead of (not in addition to) the club's usual Friday night dance.

Another reminder from the club underlines Dec. 3, the club's members-only Christmas party.

BRONCO SQUARES

Barrington dancers and friends are invited to tomorrow night's dance with guest caller, Lenny Roos, at the mike. Lenny won't bust any Broncs, but they'll know they've been dancing when the night's over. Refreshments will be served throughout the evening to keep energies full strength.

Roos will come out of the chute at 8 o'clock, immediately following a half-hour round dance session led by the Robert Sanders. Corral your favorite partner and come on over to Grove Avenue Grade School in Barrington.

ARLINGTON SQUARES

Lots of turkey-lovin' dancers turned out for Arlington Squares' pre-Thanksgiving party last Friday night. The turkey went home with Mike and Pam Burkhardt and the basketful of "trimmin's" went to Bob and Adele Geriske. Everybody else had a good time too.

There's two big dates in rapid succession coming up for the Arlington Heights club, one of them being of special interest to Knotheads. A Knothead trip to Madison, Wis. is scheduled for Nov. 27 and there are a few seats left. Reservations may be made via Fred Martin, CL 3-3362. Hurry.

Night before the trip to Wisconsin, Arlington Squares dance in St. Simon's Episcopal Church, Arlington Heights. Square-'em-up time is 8:30, and everyone is welcome.

We were almost able to announce that the local club had its banner back, but the Glenview Squares, who stole it in the first place, re-stole it! Arlington Squares will re-retrieve it, of course, but before we can get the news into print—who knows, Glenview may do a triple steal.

CIRCLE EIGHTS

An invitation to couples "who enjoy square dancing, whether experienced or beginners" comes from the Circle Eights of Wheaton, meeting Saturday, Nov. 27. Walt Mulqueen will square 'em up at 8:30 following a half-hour of instruction for those who would like to walk through a few dances.

Complete information about the Circle Eights may be had be calling the Arnold Schnabels, 668-2024, or the Gordon McFarlands, 231-0635.

DEADLINES

Thanksgiving will mean another early deadline to meet for this reporter as well as for club publicity chairman. News must be in by noon tomorrow stead of noon Saturday —my deadline will be Saturday instead of Monday. (A-15

Witnesses Plan for Bible Study

Local ministers from 16 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses in northern Illinois met Saturday (Nov. 13) to make plans for three days of Bible study meetings to be held in Palatine Dec. 24 to 26.

Albert Erickson, local presiding minister, said that more than 1,500 ministers are expected to attend the three-day seminar. The Saturday meeting was called to organize the 22 convention departments needed to serve the delegates, provide food, housing, program of instruction and other materials and services required.

A highlight of the assembly of ministers will be a public talk by Angelo Minera, a special traveling representative of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society. His subject will be, "What Does the Resurrection of the Dead Mean for You and Yours?"

Sunday Club Slates Film On Far East

"An Adventure in the Far East" is the next film to be shown members of the West Suburban Sunday Evening Club, Sunday, Nov. 21, as part of a series sponsored by the District 88 Program of Continuing Education. The film will be presented by John Goddard and will cover scenes from Japan, Hong Kong, the Philippines, Borneo and India.

Single admission tickets for the evening performance at 8 p.m. will be available and may be reserved by calling the District 88 Continuing Education offices, TE 2-4510, a few days ahead.

Single admission tickets for matinee showings at 4 p.m. will be available at the box office.

LEGAL NOTICE

1965 Cook County Personal Property Assessment List

For Township of Wheeling

This publication is the official notice to property owners of the 1965 personal property assessments made in the town and district indicated.

RETURNS and ESTIMATES

The law provides that, where a property owner fails to return a sworn schedule listing his property the assessor of Cook County must estimate its value according to his best judgment and information, and add thereto a penalty of 50 per cent. Assessments raised on estimates and returns have equal standing in law.

The amounts herein listed are the assessed values of personal property as of April 1, 1965, as determined by the Assessor of Cook County.

The amount listed as the assessed value is not the tax. The tax may be determined by multiplying the assessed valuation after it has been equalized by the Department of Revenue of the State of Illinois, by the tax rate in the Town and District in which the property is assessed. The Assessor has nothing to do with the equalization of values or the establishing of tax rates.

BASIS OF COMPLAINT ON ASSESSMENTS

Where a property owner has a specific claim of over or under valuation, complaint may be filed with the Board of Appeals in the County Building immediately after this notice.

INFORMATION ON ASSESSMENTS

Each property owner who has any questions in regard to the same, should inquire at the office of the Assessor of Cook County, Room 312, County Building, information will be furnished without cost.

P. J. CULLERTON
Assessor of Cook County

Lessons in English

Do not say, "I had my leg broken in two places." You didn't really have it done. Say, "My leg was broken in two places."

Atrocious; wicked in the highest degree; outrageous. "They were guilty of atrocious deeds."

Dress Pattern No. 3312. Contemporary Lines. This dress with the contemporary look uses princess seaming to give the eased fit below the yoke. No. 3312 comes in sizes 10, 12, 14, 16, 18. Size 14 takes 2⅜ yards of 44-inch fabric or 2 yards of 54-inch.

Needlework Pattern No. 122. Pillow Tops. A quilted pillow is a welcome gift. Instructions are given in Pattern No. 122 for three different shapes. Make one for yourself or to give as a gift.

Send 50 cents for Needlework Book. Contains free stole pattern and embroidery and a coupon for free pattern of your choice.

Send 35c for each dress pattern, 25c for each needlework pattern (add 5c for each pattern for third class mailing and 10c for each pattern for first class mailing.) To AUDREY LANE BUREAU, Box 1490, New York 1, N.Y.
